

Morning Daily Herald

ON SALE.

The DAILY HERALD will be on sale each morning at H. J. Jones' book store, where it can be procured at 5 cents per copy.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

C. C. Fallenius, of Portland, is in the city. Dr. J. V. Gaff, of Shedd, was in the city yesterday. Geo. W. Goldwell, of Portland, spent Sunday in this city. A large stock of fresh groceries just received at Parker Bros. Postmaster David Scott, of Fox Valley, was in the city Sunday. W. H. Raymond, special insurance agent of Portland, is in the city. Arthur Porter, who has been in Alaska several months, arrived in Albany last evening. B. F. Tabler and S. S. Train returned last evening from a trip to the front on the Oregon Pacific railroad.

The W. C. T. U. will hold special prayer service to day at 2:30 p. m. All members are requested to attend. Gentlemen are invited.

The Brownsville Times says the late rains have raised the water in the Calapooya, and H. B. Meyer, with a crew of men, have been running down logs.

Joe Klein and wife went to Salem Sunday. Mr. Klein returning yesterday. Mrs. Klein will remain in the capital city a week, the guest of Mrs. A. Klein.

J. F. Halloran has again assumed editorial control of the Astorian. The Astorian is congratulated. Mr. Halloran is an experienced newspaper man and a right good fellow.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will give a sociable Tuesday evening, February 3d, in the opera house, to aid in securing electric lights for the church. Every one is cordially invited.

On Sunday thirteen applied for membership, eleven by profession and two by letter. Services will be held nightly until further notice. Inevitably, prayer and praise service at 7 p. m., and preaching at 7:30. The public is invited to attend. Come and bring your friends with you.

OVERCOME BY HIS HONESTY.

A Man Who Had Embezzled Three Dollars Settles It.

John Giblin, proprietor of the Russ House, was surprised yesterday to receive the following letter, from a man who was in his employ about two years ago.

Mr. John Giblin—Dear Sir:—When working for you two years ago I took $3 from you which I herewith return. I have given my heart and life to God. He has made a wonderful change in it. I am saved and prepared to meet God. He brought this account to my memory and I hasten to make it good. May God bless you and lead you right.

JAMES J. ANCKER. The letter contained the three dollars, which Mr. Giblin had never missed. It is not often that a man is overcome by his conscience in this way, and Mr. Giblin returned the money, suggesting that he use it as a nest egg around which he hoped he would accumulate a fortune.

HARRISBURG NOTES.

Jerry Hay was in Junction on business Monday. Several good real estate deals were made last week.

D. E. Caldwell of Junction City, was here on business Monday. Mrs. Dabson Smith visited friends in Albany the first of the week.

A. Hamburger purchased a lot from the Harrisburg Land Co. last week. Frank Kahn, of Portland, invested in real estate here the first of the week.

The council gave a contract for 250 feet of new sidewalk the first of the week. It was constructed without delay.

At a special meeting of the new city council last Monday evening, Geo. H. Butler was granted a six months license for the sale of liquors.

Mr. B. N. Butler, of Clarion, Iowa, is in the city making arrangements to open a jewelry store in the near future. He undoubtedly could not find a better place to locate.

Mrs. B. N. Butler, of Clarion, Iowa, will open a millinery and dress-making establishment here in a few days. She has considerable experience in that line, having been in the business for several years.

WEATHER REPORT.

The following is a summary of meteorological for Jan. 1891, from observations taken at Albany, Linn county, Oregon, by John Briggs, vol. observer for the Signal Service, U. S. Army. Highest Barometer on the 18, 30.09. Lowest Barometer on the 5, 29.4. Mean Barometer for the Month, 29.96. Highest daily average of Bar., 30.09. Lowest daily average of Bar., 29.74. Of 31 days observations 3 were clear, 47 cloudy, 4 fair, 5 foggy 1 hazy, 1 overcast. Frost on the mornings of 12 days. Temp. plus 202 on average of 12 years. Rainfall, minus 301 average of 12 years.

Attacked by Foot Pads.

Mr. John A. Crawford, the well-known capitalist of this city, while in Portland a few days since was held up by foot pads, but was not robbed. He was entering the train in the evening at the East Portland station, when a big burly chap, one of a trio who had been watching him, stepped ahead of him and stood in the car door. One of the others then stepped up immediately behind him, and even assisted him upon the rear platform of the coach. The third man followed close behind, which left Mr. Crawford surrounded by the men. One of them thrust his hands into his pockets, but not finding any money attempted to take away his watch. Mr. Crawford, who is vigorous in spite of his years, raised his cane to strike the assailant, when the big fellow struck him cowardly blow. The men then made their escape. Luckily Mr. Crawford had but a few dollars upon his person, and they did not get. Although he is accustomed to writing his name to checks that would make a good fortune themselves, he has too good judgment to allow any great amount to be looting in his pockets for foot pads.

What is it?

B. F. Hartman, about three miles west of town, this week brought in specimens from a rock ledge cropping out from a hill on his farm, that has attracted considerable attention. It is of a grayish white in color, quite soft and very light in weight. Subjected to heat it readily fuses, and when cooled crystallizes into a form resembling porcelain. Samples of the rock have been sent to Prof. Condon, geologist, at Eugene. McMinnville Reporter.

Stock Shipments.

A considerable amount of stock has been shipped from Linn county during the past few months. L. Sanders of this city, has shipped several carloads of horses recently to San Francisco and the Sound. At Shedd Messrs. Wheeler & Davis are buying large quantities of nut sheep, having over a thousand dollars worth on hand for shipment during the month. Crum & Davis shipped a lot of hogs last week. They have shipped over $5000 worth of live stock in less than six months.

A Cold Wave.

For the first time during the several years the U. S. signal service weather reports have been received in this city, the indication yesterday was for a cold wave. The report as received by wire at 10 a. m., was: "Fair weather, followed by a severe cold wave." The low old Boreas has been blowing his icy breath down upon us it looks as if the signal service was right.

BARONS AND REVOLVERS.

Two Colored Youths Indulge in a Quarrel and Bring Forth Deadly Weapons.

Henry Wilson is the colored man who acts as head porter and runner for the Willamette hotel in Salem, having formerly occupied the position in the St. Charles hotel in this city. The Salem Statesman says that he can bless the stars that he is alive to pursue his calling at the incoming train. Had it not been for a streak of luck and an ice-water chest he would now either be a corpse or a possessor of cold lead in his flesh. A couple of days ago Wilson, acting under the authority of the proprietor, discharged Marshall Hawkins, a colored fellow, who has been a table waiter at the Willamette) for negligence of his duties about the hotel. This made Hawkins mad, and the more he thought over it the madder he became until at last he became desperate and made up his mind to do Wilson up.

Hawkins armed himself with a Colt's 45-calibre revolver—one of the kind with a barrel about ten inches long—and waited at the hotel for the return of the Willamette's bus from the 9 o'clock train when he knew he could get a chance at Wilson. As the latter stepped out of the vehicle at the hotel, Hawkins, who was standing a short distance away, was heard to cock the weapon, but Wilson almost simultaneously jumped into the hotel, and in this he was shielded from the pursuit of the angry fellow. Hawkins ran into the office seeming to have forgotten to pull the gun off, and around the counter. Here Wilson got behind an ice-water chest and Hawkins in his madness banged it up several times with the handle of the revolver. By this time several persons rushed in and attempted to get hold of Hawkins, but he took to his heels and made for the front door and out down Commercial street and made his escape, but he was afterwards arrested and taken to the city jail, where he will remain until his examination.

Hawkins' friends say that as Wilson alighted from the bus he drew a razor, which they claim he was known to have carried to the depot with him.

COAST NOTES.

Newly Items as Reported by Exchanges Throughout the Northwest.

Frank Nibler, living near Gervais, has just finished an excavation a well eighty-one feet deep. He obtained a good flow of water, which is to be used for irrigation.

An Indian named Charlie, living on the Siuslaw, who was partially insane at times, was missed last week, and a few days afterward his body was found on a log near Glendale. It is not known whether he committed suicide or was drowned accidentally.

Mr. Pearson, of Ellensburg, has hauled 1000 tons of ice seven inches in thickness.

The Review reports that the first fifteen miles of grade of the Roseburg and Coos Bay railroad is practically completed, and the iron for the first thirty miles is due about the middle of March.

There is no need of a constitutional convention in Oregon. There is room for enough extravagance under the present constitution, and with mighty few exceptions, for which there is ample provision for amendment, it is a good enough constitution for Oregon or any other state for 100 years yet.—Salem Statesman.

The value of cottonwood as a marketable timber was looked upon for many years by the people living in the lower basin of the Columbia as something utterly valueless. The great object then being to clear it from the land as fast as possible. Time has changed this state of affairs, until now a good body of cottonwood is very valuable. Like a good many other things, its value was not appreciated until it is nearly all gone.—St. Helena Mist.

THE WORLD ENRICHED.

The facilities of the present day or the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effective in its action. The system gently in the Springtime or, in fact, at any time any the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

Reaching an Enormous Sum.

Three more claims were filed with the county clerk of Marion county Saturday. The aggregate now of the twenty suits against the Southern Pacific company amounts to over $280,000 and half the claims are not yet filed or settled. The twenty suits now filed will reach all that will come up in the February term of circuit court, as Saturday was the last day for service of papers that term.

A Rogues Gallery.

At the meeting of the sheriffs of the state in Salem there was talk for the establishment of a rogues gallery, in which the photographs of the criminal class are kept on exhibition as is the custom in the large cities. If the suggestion is acted upon the collection should embrace all of the hobos as well as the criminals, and would be a picturesque affair as well as one of utility.

Eat good things and enjoy yourself while you live for you will be a long time dead.

If you buy your groceries of Parker Bros. you cannot be otherwise than happy.

BROWNVILLE NEWS.

Encouraging Reports from the Calapooya Mines—Notes of Interest.

BROWNVILLE, Feb. 2.

Peter Hume made Sweet Home a call on Friday. Miss White has been extremely ill for the week. J. P. Galbraith, of Albany, was in Brownsville on Friday. Earnest Ross is confined to the house with a severe cold. Rev. M. C. Albridge, on Saturday paid Lebanon a short visit. Miss Allie Dean, on Thursday, returned home from Medford. J. Cordingly, of Salem, passed Sunday with friends of this place. Mrs. William Blanchard returned home from Albany on Tuesday. Miss Kate Coshaw, on Monday, left to visit friends in Albany and Salem. Misses Eva and Nellie Pearl, of Halsey, visited Brownsville on Monday. Claud Le Masters, during the past week paid home friends a short visit. Miss Ethel Lewis, of Salem, is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Wilson, of this place. B. F. Higgins, is at the residence of Mr. M. Bradley, suffering from an attack of pneumonia. Nellie, the daughter of N. B. Standish, is confined to the house by an attack of measles. Rev. New, of Lebanon, on Sunday last, at the C. P. church South Brownsville preached morning and evening. E. Pyatt, late of Silverton, has purchased the drug store of Dr. Deborn, and will continue the business at the old stand. Rev. T. B. Boyd, who for the past week has been assisting Rev. Calder, of the M. E. church, on Friday returned to Lebanon. The recent rains have given a raise to the waters of the Calapooya river, and a large number of saw logs have been floated into the pond attached Meyer's sawmill. O. P. Coshaw, attorney of Albany, on Saturday, engaged in reconstructing the North Brownsville town charter, the original having been declared illegal, "null and void."

There is no doubt but what the owners of the Lucky Boy claim are in luck, judging from specimens of the ore, and fair samples of which are very rich with the precious metal, that can be easily discerned with the naked eye; these specimens were picked up on the dump, and are fair samples of the ore being taken from the claim.

D. McDonald, of this place, has lately received notification, that a piece of property in the vicinity of Wheeling, Va., to which he was heir, was marketable at $50,000. The property was purchased by Mr. McDonald's mother in the year 1850, and was at that time, and of no value. The fortunate claimant will shortly leave for Virginia, to prove up on the property.

David P. Mason, of Albany, was in attendance at the installation of master, elect, John Cooley, of Brownsville Lodge No. 39, F. & A. M., and at the close of the installation ceremonies, was presented by his fellow craftsmen, with a beautiful and costly pair of blankets, the work of the E. W. M. Co. The blankets were magnificent in design and richly embroidered, and are of the $50 quality, recently manufactured to special order.

CRAWFORDVILLE NOTES.

CRAWFORDVILLE, Jan. 27. Mr. R. Glass visited his brother at Corvallis last Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Joseph Robinson and wife, of Eastern Oregon, are visiting relatives here. It has been several years since they left here. Mr. George Fox and Thomas Brandon went to the mountains Monday to make improvements on their timber claims. The concert given by the band boys last Friday night was a success. There was a better crowd out than they expected. They are billed for Sweet Home next Friday evening. Mr. G. F. Colbert has been quite sick for some days of typhus malaria. He is some better now. Dr. Cox, of Brownsville, is treating him. Mr. J. B. Cox and family moved to Lebanon last week. We are sorry to lose such families. Geo. Finley has moved into Mr. Cox's house. Business of every kind is very dull now with not much prospect of being any better until spring. The people of this part are anxiously watching the progress of the bill in the legislature, asking for an appropriation for the wagon road up the Calapooya. This road would open up a vast country for settlement.

TANGENT NOTES.

TANGENT, Feb. 2, 1891. The revival meeting at this place being conducted by the Methodists is in progress, there already being fifty accessions to the Methodist churches. If the good work continues much longer there will not be a place to accommodate the cause of the wicked one.

Mr. H. W. Settlement has completed a walk from his residence to the new church, a distance of 65 rods, at the expense of one hundred dollars. Mr. Isaac Needham an old resident of this vicinity, of Eastern Oregon, is visiting relatives in this vicinity. Born, to the wife of Alfred Morgan, a son on January 29th.

Sick headache is the bane of many lives; to cure and prevent this annoying complaint use Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney pills. They are agreeable to take and gentle in their action. New goods of the latest patterns sold at Matthews and Washburn is why they will sell over four loads of stoves and ranges this year. They have their first carload of Jewel Stoves and ranges now on the road to arrive Feb. 1st. The men of this vicinity need not be jealous because their wives talk so constantly about Matthews and Washburn. It's not their good looks the ladies are talking about, and being stoves they sell. Every one seems to be delighted when they buy from M. and W. Money is King. This is a true saying and is the reason that Mueller & Garret are doing such a rustling business. Their cash figures are taking the lead and their stock is the best. You do not have to pay for any long credit by trading with them as they do business on a strict cash principle. DIED. DOUGHTEN—On Sunday evening, February 1, 1891, in this city, of this city, of consumption, George Doughten, son of Mr. Jesse Doughten, aged 23 years.
