

Morning Daily Herald

20 CENTS A WEEK. ALBANY, OREGON, SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 8 1891 VOL. VI—NO. 60

REMOVAL

The Albany Furniture Co.

Have removed their entire stock of furniture into their elegant new quarters in the new Baltimore brick. They have added a magnificent line of newest patterns in best-room and parlor sets and all kinds of fine furniture, and will have one of the finest furniture establishments in the city. Their prices will be found very reasonable. A fine line of carpets bought before the raise will be sold at low figures. Call and see them in their new store.

L. T. BROCK & H. HYDE, Proprietors

E. C. Searles,

N. B.—I will continue to sell my dry goods at cost until they are all gone.

W. F. READ,

Headquarters for Furnishing Goods

We have in stock now the Best as well as the Largest Assortment of

DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, FANCY GOODS AND FURNISHING GOODS

Every shown in Albany. We know that we can please you.

Commencing December 1st We will Mark

Our cloaks at cost. Come while the assortment is good. This is really the greatest drive ever offered in Albany. On account of the warm fall we find we are overstocked in Gent's Heavy Underwear and for the next thirty days shall give extra bargains. We can and will save you money. Call and get prices. A pleasure to show good.

RESPECTFULLY,
W. F. READ.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

Quay Says Cleveland Cannot Carry New York.

BLAINE'S CHANCES IN 1892.
A Determined Fight Between the Free Coinsage and Anti-Silver Men—The President's Attitude.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—A Washington special gives an interview with Quay in which he says in answer to an inquiry: "I believe that Hill's election to Cleveland the presidential nomination, as it is alleged it will do. It is the best thing that could have happened for the republicans. It is plain that Hill could carry New York, and that Cleveland would lose the state without any doubt. Thus it tends to simplify the case very much."
Quay refused to say whom he thought the republicans would nominate, but thought that if Blaine cared to run, and received the nomination, Pennsylvania would undoubtedly be for him.

THE SILVER CAMPAIGN.

The Silver Men Determined to Pass a Free Coinsage Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—In the house today Townsend, of Colorado offered for reference a resolution amending the rules of the house so as to provide that when four members of any committee shall make a statement in writing that after five hearings on any bill (other than the revenue or appropriation bills) the committee refuses to make any report, favorable or unfavorable, it shall be in order to move to discharge the committee.

The Star says: It is threatened by the republicans of the house that if the senate attaches the free coinsage amendment to any appropriation bill, they will amend it by putting on the force bill as a rider. If this is done, and the bill is sent to the president, it is said he would probably sign the conglomerate bill, taking free coinsage rather than veto the appropriation bill and the force bill. This may deter the democrats from entering upon a plan of free coinsage on the appropriation bill. Since the defeat of the attempt to have a free coinsage amendment attached as a "rider" to the sundry civil appropriation bill, the silver men have been busy devising another scheme, by means of which to compel a vote by the house on the question of free coinsage. The vote yesterday was not regarded by them as a fair test of their strength for the reason that it was complicated with questions of parliamentary procedure which they did not regard their position as strongly fortified, and they were therefore anxious to bring the matter up in some new form.

Townsend's resolution, offered today, was the first effort in the new plan of the campaign. The opponents of the free coinsage bill will resort to every available means to secure the attendance of absentees known to be opposed to free silver coinsage.

WESTERN RAILROADS.

Gould and Huntington Propose to Remedy Existing Evils.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—It is an open secret that Gould and Huntington have had their lieutenants prepare an exhaustive analysis of capitalization, indebtedness, earnings, and mileage of the Missouri Pacific, Southern Pacific and Atchafalpa systems, with a view of determining from them the basis upon which the systems may be consolidated or brought under the control of a single operating company. The executive officers of the Southern Pacific have been summoned from San Francisco to take part in the work, and it is trustworthily stated that Senator Stanford has given his support to the scheme. As yet none of the three interests is positively committed to the proposition, but all have it up with a degree of earnestness that argues strongly in favor of its adoption. Those who have the confidence of the leaders in this movement are of the opinion that should it succeed it will not stop short of the absorption of the Texas Pacific, Union Pacific, Abash, and probably the Missouri, Kansas & Texas.

INGERSOLL'S PHILANTHROPY.

Lectures in Helena for the Benefit of Two Poor Children.

HELENA, Feb. 7.—Colonel R. G. Ingersoll lectured here last night to one of the largest crowds that ever assembled at the opera house. The lecture was given for the benefit of the two little children left penniless by the death of A. C. Witter, member of the legislature, and his wife. The great orator would not accept a cent for his services. He even bought several tickets of admission.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS.

Fixing the Salary of the World's Fair Officers.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—The house today amended the world's fair clause in the sundry civil ap-

THE SIOUX CHIEFS.

They Hold a Big Talk With Secretary Noble.

AND OUT A GREAT SWELL.
The Secretary Assures Them That They Can Have Anything by Force from the United States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—The conference between Secretary Noble and the delegation of Indians by the name of the Sioux chiefs, related his services in the interest of harmony during the late trouble. He brought his people into camp, and had them in his arms. "How," he queried the secretary, and the orator was somewhat non-plussed. He knew the total was small, and did not care to say. He hoped the government would not only educate the children, but also give them something to do when they finished at school.

Extra Session Talk.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—The Sun has an editorial saying that a special session of the present may be expected probably before the 20th or 25th of this month, calling an extra session of the senate to meet in Washington on the 4th of March or immediately afterward, business to be of more than ordinary importance.

A Cow-Boy Arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—Mangus Jackson, a Texas cow-boy, wanted in Portland, Oregon, for burglarizing a private residence of $600 worth of silverware and jewelry some weeks ago, was arrested here to-day.

Insurance Companies Consolidate.

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—The Journal this evening says it is reported in insurance circles that the two great British insurance companies, the Liverpool and London and the Globe and Scottish Union, have consolidated.

THE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE AND HOUSE HAVE ADJOURNED TUESDAY MONDAY.

The Appointment Bill Read Three Times in the House and Made Special Order for Monday.

SALEM, Feb. 7.—The house was called to order at 10 A. M. Story moved that the speaker be given power to appoint more pages; considered out of order.

BILLS.

Thomas' bill amending the section in regard to court martial, and providing for the payment of armory rent; failed to pass.

Thomas introduced a bill known as the appointment bill, the committee having agreed on such; first, second, third reading special order for Tuesday at 10.

Considerable discussion followed regarding adjournment until 2 P. M. Monday. Finally a motion was carried adjourning to such a time.

Butler's road supervisor bill was read the third time, and re-referred for amendment.

A communication from a Union county citizen regarding the irrigation law was read, and referred to committee on agriculture.

By Stephenson—A bill relating to the appointment of surveyors; passed.

By Thomas—A bill defining the liability of counties for injuries received by defective highways; failed to pass.

Adjourned till Monday 2 P. M.

THE PRIZING RING.

Jim Hall Wants to Meet Fitz-A Book Out of the First Round.

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—The famous Australian book-maker, Barney Allen and Joe Harris, now in this city, have issued a challenge on behalf of Jim Hall, of Australia, to fight Bob Fitzsimmons to a finish before any recognized athletic club that may be mutually agreed upon, for a purse and a side bet of $10,000. Marquis of Queensbury rules. A forfeit of $1000 has been deposited with a Chicago newspaper.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—Mahr, the champion pugilist of Ireland, and Lambert, of Canada, fought at the rooms of the Pelican club this evening for £1200 a side. Lambert was knocked out in the first round.

TO COLONIZE RUSSIAN JEWS.

Large Tract of Land to be Purchased for This Purpose.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—The International Society for the Colonization of Russia, incorporated here under the laws of this state, with a capital of $1,000,000, divided into 200,000 shares at $5 per share. The society will purchase a tract of land and locate a colony of Russian Jews on it. The settlers will be given the best stock and improvements, together with advances until the land produces return. A mortgage on the whole will be taken, but payments will be on very easy terms. The directors of the corporation are among the wealthiest Jewish merchants of San Francisco and other cities of the state.

THE SIOUX CHIEFS.

They Hold a Big Talk With Secretary Noble.

AND OUT A GREAT SWELL.
The Secretary Assures Them That They Can Have Anything by Force from the United States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—The conference between Secretary Noble and the delegation of Indians by the name of the Sioux chiefs, related his services in the interest of harmony during the late trouble. He brought his people into camp, and had them in his arms. "How," he queried the secretary, and the orator was somewhat non-plussed. He knew the total was small, and did not care to say. He hoped the government would not only educate the children, but also give them something to do when they finished at school.

Extra Session Talk.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—The Sun has an editorial saying that a special session of the present may be expected probably before the 20th or 25th of this month, calling an extra session of the senate to meet in Washington on the 4th of March or immediately afterward, business to be of more than ordinary importance.

A Cow-Boy Arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—Mangus Jackson, a Texas cow-boy, wanted in Portland, Oregon, for burglarizing a private residence of $600 worth of silverware and jewelry some weeks ago, was arrested here to-day.

Insurance Companies Consolidate.

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—The Journal this evening says it is reported in insurance circles that the two great British insurance companies, the Liverpool and London and the Globe and Scottish Union, have consolidated.

THE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE AND HOUSE HAVE ADJOURNED TUESDAY MONDAY.

The Appointment Bill Read Three Times in the House and Made Special Order for Monday.

SALEM, Feb. 7.—The house was called to order at 10 A. M. Story moved that the speaker be given power to appoint more pages; considered out of order.

BILLS.

Thomas' bill amending the section in regard to court martial, and providing for the payment of armory rent; failed to pass.

Thomas introduced a bill known as the appointment bill, the committee having agreed on such; first, second, third reading special order for Tuesday at 10.

Considerable discussion followed regarding adjournment until 2 P. M. Monday. Finally a motion was carried adjourning to such a time.

Butler's road supervisor bill was read the third time, and re-referred for amendment.

A communication from a Union county citizen regarding the irrigation law was read, and referred to committee on agriculture.

By Stephenson—A bill relating to the appointment of surveyors; passed.

By Thomas—A bill defining the liability of counties for injuries received by defective highways; failed to pass.

Adjourned till Monday 2 P. M.

THE PRIZING RING.

Jim Hall Wants to Meet Fitz-A Book Out of the First Round.

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—The famous Australian book-maker, Barney Allen and Joe Harris, now in this city, have issued a challenge on behalf of Jim Hall, of Australia, to fight Bob Fitzsimmons to a finish before any recognized athletic club that may be mutually agreed upon, for a purse and a side bet of $10,000. Marquis of Queensbury rules. A forfeit of $1000 has been deposited with a Chicago newspaper.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—Mahr, the champion pugilist of Ireland, and Lambert, of Canada, fought at the rooms of the Pelican club this evening for £1200 a side. Lambert was knocked out in the first round.

TO COLONIZE RUSSIAN JEWS.

Large Tract of Land to be Purchased for This Purpose.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—The International Society for the Colonization of Russia, incorporated here under the laws of this state, with a capital of $1,000,000, divided into 200,000 shares at $5 per share. The society will purchase a tract of land and locate a colony of Russian Jews on it. The settlers will be given the best stock and improvements, together with advances until the land produces return. A mortgage on the whole will be taken, but payments will be on very easy terms. The directors of the corporation are among the wealthiest Jewish merchants of San Francisco and other cities of the state.

THE SIOUX CHIEFS.

They Hold a Big Talk With Secretary Noble.

AND OUT A GREAT SWELL.
The Secretary Assures Them That They Can Have Anything by Force from the United States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—The conference between Secretary Noble and the delegation of Indians by the name of the Sioux chiefs, related his services in the interest of harmony during the late trouble. He brought his people into camp, and had them in his arms. "How," he queried the secretary, and the orator was somewhat non-plussed. He knew the total was small, and did not care to say. He hoped the government would not only educate the children, but also give them something to do when they finished at school.

Extra Session Talk.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—The Sun has an editorial saying that a special session of the present may be expected probably before the 20th or 25th of this month, calling an extra session of the senate to meet in Washington on the 4th of March or immediately afterward, business to be of more than ordinary importance.

A Cow-Boy Arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—Mangus Jackson, a Texas cow-boy, wanted in Portland, Oregon, for burglarizing a private residence of $600 worth of silverware and jewelry some weeks ago, was arrested here to-day.

Insurance Companies Consolidate.

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—The Journal this evening says it is reported in insurance circles that the two great British insurance companies, the Liverpool and London and the Globe and Scottish Union, have consolidated.

THE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE AND HOUSE HAVE ADJOURNED TUESDAY MONDAY.

The Appointment Bill Read Three Times in the House and Made Special Order for Monday.

SALEM, Feb. 7.—The house was called to order at 10 A. M. Story moved that the speaker be given power to appoint more pages; considered out of order.

BILLS.

Thomas' bill amending the section in regard to court martial, and providing for the payment of armory rent; failed to pass.

Thomas introduced a bill known as the appointment bill, the committee having agreed on such; first, second, third reading special order for Tuesday at 10.

Considerable discussion followed regarding adjournment until 2 P. M. Monday. Finally a motion was carried adjourning to such a time.

Butler's road supervisor bill was read the third time, and re-referred for amendment.

A communication from a Union county citizen regarding the irrigation law was read, and referred to committee on agriculture.

By Stephenson—A bill relating to the appointment of surveyors; passed.

By Thomas—A bill defining the liability of counties for injuries received by defective highways; failed to pass.

Adjourned till Monday 2 P. M.

THE PRIZING RING.

Jim Hall Wants to Meet Fitz-A Book Out of the First Round.

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—The famous Australian book-maker, Barney Allen and Joe Harris, now in this city, have issued a challenge on behalf of Jim Hall, of Australia, to fight Bob Fitzsimmons to a finish before any recognized athletic club that may be mutually agreed upon, for a purse and a side bet of $10,000. Marquis of Queensbury rules. A forfeit of $1000 has been deposited with a Chicago newspaper.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—Mahr, the champion pugilist of Ireland, and Lambert, of Canada, fought at the rooms of the Pelican club this evening for £1200 a side. Lambert was knocked out in the first round.

TO COLONIZE RUSSIAN JEWS.

Large Tract of Land to be Purchased for This Purpose.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—The International Society for the Colonization of Russia, incorporated here under the laws of this state, with a capital of $1,000,000, divided into 200,000 shares at $5 per share. The society will purchase a tract of land and locate a colony of Russian Jews on it. The settlers will be given the best stock and improvements, together with advances until the land produces return. A mortgage on the whole will be taken, but payments will be on very easy terms. The directors of the corporation are among the wealthiest Jewish merchants of San Francisco and other cities of the state.

PATTI ARRESTED.

The Great Songstress' Harsh Experience in Russia.

STATE AND COAST NEWS.
Portland Will Run a Special Train to Salem to Lobby for the Cancellation Measure.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—The Berlin correspondent of the Herald says the police has served an order of arrest of Madame Patti on behalf of the St. Petersburg authorities for a breach of contract in refusing to sing unless her advance money was deposited with her bankers. The serving of the order caused a sensational scene. Madame Patti was compelled to deposit the sum of $2100 in order to obtain her liberty.

BOUND TO CONSOLIDATE.

Portland Will Run a Special Train to Lohysta to Salem.

PORTLAND, Or., Feb. 7.—A very enthusiastic mass meeting of representative citizens of Portland was held at the Tabernacle to-night for the purpose of organized action favoring the consolidation of Portland, East Portland and Albina. Several speeches were made in favor of consolidation, and the sentiment of the meeting was unanimous in its favor.

INDIAN MEDICAL LORE.

The Practices of the "Medicine Men" of Our Native Savages.

Special Correspondence, Copyrighted.
PORTLAND, Feb. 7.—Without exception, all the various tribes of American Indians have their medicine men and women, for the women are doctors as well as the men. They first secure, and then retain their influence with, and over the untutored children of the forests through the most transparent form of savage superstitions. When an Indian is freed by the desire to become a medicine man, before his ambition is gratified he is compelled to go through a regular course of training, in which he is punished and tortured in various ways in order to test his power of endurance. He mutilates himself on the arms and chest with a knife made of hard flint rock, until he is covered with blood, then he is required to go without anything to eat for a number of days. Then, when he is in the requisite condition of physical exhaustion, he ascends a high mountain. There he remains for ten nights in close communion with nature. Here, all alone, he falls into a kind of trance, and then it is that he receives his medicine or "temani-moo" from the spirits. Just as Moses of old received the decalogue amid the thunders of Sinai, so the Indian doctor gets his diploma through the howling of the wolf, the barking of the coyote, the screeching of the panther, the howling of the owl, the flash of the lightning and the rumbling of the thunder storm.

HE WAS INJURED.

A Careless Policeman Insults A Tramp's Feelings.

Exchange.
At about midnight Sunday night an officer found a man asleep under a shade-tree in the snow on Miami avenue, and after working two or three minutes to arouse him, he said:
"Come, get out of this."
"What for?" asked the man.
"Do you want to freeze to death?"
"No."
"Then get up. Do you know where you are?"
"No!" growled the man as he got rid of his sleep at last. "What do you take me for? Do you think somebody has hypnotized me, and that I think I'm in the first-floor parlor at the Fifth avenue hotel, New York?"
"You'll have to come along."
"Where to?"
"To the station."
"I'll go, of course, but I don't feel right about this thing. The idea that I didn't know where I was! After a man has put in 10 years of sleeping in bars, fence-corners, sheds and under trees, in all sorts of weather, you come along and roll him out of a snow bank, and pull his leg and tap his feet and ask him if he knows where he is! I feel hurt, sir, hurt and insulted!"

AT THINGS HAPPEN.

He was shot in the suburbs.—(Chicago News).

She wept him upon his return.—(Burton Lawkey).

He kissed her passionately on her reappearance.—(Time).

He kissed her back.—(Atlanta Constitution).

Mr. Jones, walked in upon her invitation.—(Electric Light).

She sat herself upon his entering.—(Albion Democrat).

We thought she sat down upon her being saved.—(Truth).

She faints upon his departure.—(Lynn Union).

He clung to her weeping.—(Baltimore Item).

They gimped upon his downfall.—(Lawrence American).

PATTI ARRESTED.

The Great Songstress' Harsh Experience in Russia.

STATE AND COAST NEWS.
Portland Will Run a Special Train to Salem to Lobby for the Cancellation Measure.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—The Berlin correspondent of the Herald says the police has served an order of arrest of Madame Patti on behalf of the St. Petersburg authorities for a breach of contract in refusing to sing unless her advance money was deposited with her bankers. The serving of the order caused a sensational scene. Madame Patti was compelled to deposit the sum of $2100 in order to obtain her liberty.

BOUND TO CONSOLIDATE.

Portland Will Run a Special Train to Lohysta to Salem.

PORTLAND, Or., Feb. 7.—A very enthusiastic mass meeting of representative citizens of Portland was held at the Tabernacle to-night for the purpose of organized action favoring the consolidation of Portland, East Portland and Albina. Several speeches were made in favor of consolidation, and the sentiment of the meeting was unanimous in its favor.

INDIAN MEDICAL LORE.

The Practices of the "Medicine Men" of Our Native Savages.

Special Correspondence, Copyrighted.
PORTLAND, Feb. 7.—Without exception, all the various tribes of American Indians have their medicine men and women, for the women are doctors as well as the men. They first secure, and then retain their influence with, and over the untutored children of the forests through the most transparent form of savage superstitions. When an Indian is freed by the desire to become a medicine man, before his ambition is gratified he is compelled to go through a regular course of training, in which he is punished and tortured in various ways in order to test his power of endurance. He mutilates himself on the arms and chest with a knife made of hard flint rock, until he is covered with blood, then he is required to go without anything to eat for a number of days. Then, when he is in the requisite condition of physical exhaustion, he ascends a high mountain. There he remains for ten nights in close communion with nature. Here, all alone, he falls into a kind of trance, and then it is that he receives his medicine or "temani-moo" from the spirits. Just as Moses of old received the decalogue amid the thunders of Sinai, so the Indian doctor gets his diploma through the howling of the wolf, the barking of the coyote, the screeching of the panther, the howling of the owl, the flash of the lightning and the rumbling of the thunder storm.

HE WAS INJURED.

A Careless Policeman Insults A Tramp's Feelings.

Exchange.
At about midnight Sunday night an officer found a man asleep under a shade-tree in the snow on Miami avenue, and after working two or three minutes to arouse him, he said:
"Come, get out of this."
"What for?" asked the man.
"Do you want to freeze to death?"
"No."
"Then get up. Do you know where you are?"
"No!" growled the man as he got rid of his sleep at last. "What do you take me for? Do you think somebody has hypnotized me, and that I think I'm in the first-floor parlor at the Fifth avenue hotel, New York?"
"You'll have to come along."
"Where to?"
"To the station."
"I'll go, of course, but I don't feel right about this thing. The idea that I didn't know where I was! After a man has put in 10 years of sleeping in bars, fence-corners, sheds and under trees, in all sorts of weather, you come along and roll him out of a snow bank, and pull his leg and tap his feet and ask him if he knows where he is! I feel hurt, sir, hurt and insulted!"

AT THINGS HAPPEN.

He was shot in the suburbs.—(Chicago News).

She wept him upon his return.—(Burton Lawkey).

He kissed her passionately on her reappearance.—(Time).

He kissed her back.—(Atlanta Constitution).

Mr. Jones, walked in upon her invitation.—(Electric Light).

She sat herself upon his entering.—(Albion Democrat).

We thought she sat down upon her being saved.—(Truth).

She faints upon his departure.—(Lynn Union).

He clung to her weeping.—(Baltimore Item).

They gimped upon his downfall.—(Lawrence American).