THE HOUSE PASSES THE BILL.

Both Senate and House Enabling Bills Forward--Lengthening Their Working Hours.

SALEM, Feb. 10.--The house opened without prayer.

Blackman's bill to regulate the salaries of county judges; advanced to third reading.

The Portland consolidation bill made a special order for Thursday at 2, the state printer having said he could have it printed by 10 o'clock Thursday.

The chair appointed McCracken, Minto and Barnes a committee on Minto's bill to fix the rates on grain and coal from points in Eastern Oregon.

The committee's bill, dividing the state into two congressional districts was passed, 55 to 1.

Snider's bill for another judge in the first district; passed.

Barnes' bill to let stock temporarily graze; passed.

Binnett's bill to compel teachers holding certificates from chartered schools to attend institutes; passed.

Moore's bill, as amended, for $50,000 for the world's fair; passed 38 to 16.

Holmes' bill, allowing drainage associations to condemn land for ditches; passed.

Moore's bill for the compulsory education of the blind; passed.

The motion by Miller to lay the binnett bill on the special order on the table, led to 29 to 38.

The clerk then read, consuming an hour, and the bill passed, 39 to 19.

Resolution by Welch that the hours hereafter be 9:30 to 12, 1:30 to 3 and 7:30 to 10; carried.

Mitchell's bill for stopping of trains before crossing draw bridges and rail road crossings; passed.

Storv's bill for $675,000 city hall bonds of Portland; passed.

Manning's bill, as an amendment for $7,000 for a road from Jones' mill in Yamhill county down Tiller river to Tillamook; passed.

Barnes, for $4,000 for a road in Wallawa county; passed.

Fox's bill for $6,000 for a road along the coast from Clatsop to Tillamook; passed.

Adjourned until 9:30 Wednesday.

IN THE SENATE.

No clergyman was present, and the senate did not open with prayer.

Eakin asked to introduce a bill amending the charter of Junction; granted through first and second readings.

A communication from the Portland Social Turn-Verein society was read, containing resolutions relative to the repeal of Sunday laws; laid on the table.

The committee on military affairs reported favorably on a joint memorial to reorganize Fort Klammath; same was concurred in.

SENATE BILLS, THIRD READING.

By Hilton, referring to boundaries of Gilliam county; passed.

By Cogswell, right of way for railroads in Oregon; passed.

By Willis, for the protection of birds in Oregon; passed.

Norval's Connor Creek and Eagle Valley wagon-road bill, that failed to pass yesterday; reconsidered and passed.

By Cogswell, creating roads for logging purposes; passed.

By Hilton adding Eastern, Western and Southern Oregon district agricultural societies; passed.

By Willis, repeal of section regarding incorporation of churches and other societies; passed.

By Matlock, sale of perishable property under execution; passed.

By Veatch, regarding judicial officers acting as attorneys; passed.

Those who voted against the world's fair bill in the house this morning did so because they thought $50,000 was not enough.

STATE AND COAST.

The Umatilla Indian Lands to Be Opened to Settlement.

THE ALLIANCE MEN.

They Threaten to Defeat Two Republican Senators in Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 10.--The senatorial outlook is not very promising for the republicans to-night. After a five-hour caucus they could not agree to accept the proposition of the Farmers Mutual Benefit Association members to combine on one of the latter's candidates, and referred the whole thing back to the steering committee, with power to act. It is not likely, however, that any agreement will be reached.

FOR CONSOLIDATION.

Portland's Suburbs Must Become a Part of the Big City.

SALEM, Feb. 10.--This morning's train from Portland brought a large delegation of the prominent business men of the metropolis and the two cities on the East Side, whose mission was to urge the passage of the bill providing for the consolidation of Portland, East Portland and Albina.

General Sherman's Condition.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.--General Sherman's daughter was asked the true facts about her father's condition to-night. She said: "His condition is very serious, but not hopeless. The doctors do not look for any change until to-morrow evening."

A Woman's Suicide.
