CITY COUNCIL.

C. O. Lee Elected Nightwatch and Engineer—Bills Allowed.

In the matter of the petition of E. Brownell and others to lay water pipes on Ferry street from the south boundary line of the city to Twelfth street, the committee to whom the matter was referred, reported favorably, and the same was adopted by the council. The committee on health and police made a report recommending the abatement of the nuisance caused by drainage into the Santiam ditch on Vine street, between Fourth and Fifth street. The report was referred back to the committee with instruction to make further report at the next meeting. Councilman Tabler reported that a cartload of lumber would arrive in this city to-day for the city. W. N. Miller and C. O. Lee were placed in nomination for nightwatch and engineer of Albany Engine Co. No. 1. After four ballots C. O. Lee was elected, with salary at $70 per month.

COMING IMMIGRATION.

Every indication that there will be a great influx the coming season.

NOTES FROM SODAVILLE.

SODAVILLE, Feb. 10. Our school is progressing finely under the superintendence of Louis Barzee. We now have our calaboose done, stove and beds in it, and it stands waiting its guests. W. W. Parish, has been quite sick for the few past weeks. Our literary society is progressing nicely. Mrs. Mattie Moore, has been quite sick for the past two weeks. Mrs. Kester has been sick for some time. Mrs. Barzee returned home from Salem yesterday. Miss Shankland returned home to her grandparents yesterday after an absence of four months. Mr. Hugh Parry took a flying trip to the capital the last of the week. Mr. Rubin Davis and wife took a trip to Harrisburg to visit a brother. The young people of this place met at Mr. Boyles' Friday evening where they enjoyed themselves until a late hour. There is talk of several new buildings going up in the spring and some business houses, a drug store among the rest. Our honorable council met Friday evening and appointed Mr. Barzee as marshal. We think we have the right man in the right place as he pulled two of the boys the first day, each one of them was relieved of six dollars and a better future stands before them. We don't think that this century will be afflicted with boils and the boys had better look out. BONAFIDE CLEARANCE SALE. At the Ladies Bazaar—All Goods Will Be Sold. Regardless of cost for the next thirty days, to make room for our large new spring stock. Don't miss this opportunity to secure bargains. Not Yet Found. With no success whatever the search of the mountains up above Gatesville for the lost hunter, young Mr. Tucker, has been continued by the men of that vicinity. Ever since Friday the search has been general, participated in by those who know every foot of the country in which the man is supposed to be lost. As time passes the alarm of the absent one's friends increases. Not the slightest tidings of him can be found—not even an indication to show that he had been in any portion of the forest searched. Any suit in the house for cost for the rest of this month. New spring goods will arrive the first of March. T. L. WALLACE & Co.

"CALIFORNIA ON WHEELS."

The Famous Exhibit of our Sister State Arrives in Albany.

Two vestibule cars, filled with a magnificent display of the products of California, which have, under the title of "California on Wheels," been on the road in various parts of the United States for the past fourteen months, arrived in this city last night, and will be open to public inspection to-day. The exhibit is in charge of S. J. Mathee of Los Angeles, superintendent of exhibit; E. B. Smith, of the California State Board of Trade; E. J. Franklin and Donald Barnes, assistant; Kern Brighton, porter; and Major J. B. Lanck, in charge of the train. The "California on Wheels" cars started from San Francisco December 3, 1889, and have since that time traveled over 14,000 miles, and have been visited by about 1,500,000 people. They went via the Southern Pacific through Arizona, New Mexico and Texas to New Orleans, and thence up the Mississippi valley to St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, St. Joseph, Des Moines; thence north to the great lakes, touching Duluth and Ashland, and passing through Minnesota, Wisconsin, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland and stopping at New York, from which point they returned west by the northern route over the Northern Pacific. During all these wanderings the cars have never met with a smash-up, or any accident more serious than the breaking of a few jars from too sudden stoppage. The first car contains a very artistically arranged display of fruits, grains, etc., "too numerous to mention." There are grapes, peaches, pears, apricots, figs, nectarines, cherries, prunes, apples and many other fruits, including oranges, lemons, persimmons, olives, bananas, all beautifully preserved in glass jars in different styles, most of them looking just as fine as they did the day they were gathered. In addition to these are huge vegetables, such as California only can produce, and palm branches, and even an olive branch, the emblem of peace, though somewhat faded. There are nuts of many varieties, raisins as fine as can be found anywhere, and a thousand other things worthy of examination. There are many specimens of wheat and other grains, but these are not prominent as they were in a display made by Oregon, nor is the wheat so fine as that produced in the Willamette valley. There are specimens of orange wood and other woods, bark of the big trees and other curiosities, minerals of many kinds; in short it would take columns to tell what is in the first car. The second car contains, principally, samples of California wines, handsomely arranged and making a fine appearance. There is also California-grown cotton in many shapes, from the top to rope and cloth, specimens of alfalfa fiber, broom corn, cork, alfalfa hay, marble, onyx, graphite, and lots of huge vegetables, which would do credit to an Oregon state fair.

COAST NOTES.

Jack Dempsey, the pugilist, is in Portland. The huckleberry bushes are still full of berries. The first of the week three persons gathered several gallons in one hour. A man named William Sanders was arrested Friday afternoon at a wood camp near the Union Pacific bridge, where he was employed by Shiloh, an Indian, on the charge of assaulting his wife with a razor. Citizens of Lake county want the legislature to set off a new agricultural district, circumscribed by the boundaries of Lake, Klamath and Harney. Their petition to Hon. A. Snider asks for a $1500 appropriation for that purpose. Cattle are dying around Moro in considerable numbers, and there is a fatality among horses. One man has lost one-half of his hand of cattle, and another two heads. Both led from the straw stack, and believing it to be some poisonous weed in the feed the stack was burned, but the fatality still continues. The state veterinary surgeon is en route to the vicinity in which the disease prevails. At present the infected district extends about nine miles from the east bank of the Deschutes—Times-Mountainier. George Kidder, of Pendleton, while returning from his residence one evening last week was shot by some unknown person. Fortunately the bullet flew wide of its mark. It is supposed that the man was lying in wait for somebody, and mistaking Kidder for the person in question, took a shot at him; or possibly he might have been a desperate hobo bent on murder and robbery. The snow has all disappeared from the surface of the ground between Linkville and Tule lake valley, says the Klamath County Star. It has quietly melted in the cool sunshine and sunk deep into the soil. The same state of things exists between here and Lost river. From all parts of the country come reports that the ground is in the finest possible condition for spring planting.

To Extend the Water Mains.

At the meeting of the city council last night a statement was made by Councilman Garrett that Wm. M. Hogg, vice president of the Oregon Pacific railroad company and one of the owners of the Santiam canal, would be in Albany Thursday and confer with the city council in reference to extending the water mains so as to enable property owners in all parts of the city to use the water. This is especially important in view of the proposed new sewerage system, and the mains ought to be extended.

THE BUTTER FAILED TO COME.

The Pathetic But Ludicrous Experience of a Patent Churn Agent.

"The Challenge Churn power" combination, during their stay in Brownsville, succeeded in selling county rights, churns, etc., to the amount of $10,000, and consequently there are to be found in our midst, a number of amateur churn agents, who torture themselves and the public, trying to get even on the $400 paid for rights. A good story is told at the expense of one of these amateurs, a poor judge of cream, who called at the residence of a family made desperate by continued annoyance of peddlers, and insisted upon showing the wonderful power of the Challenge churn. The lady informed the agent that the churn was not wanted, and that she had no time to spare, but regardless of remonstrance, the churn was brought into the house, and a request made for cream to experiment upon; during the previous day, some white-washing had been done to out buildings, and a couple of gallons of nicely strained whitewash remained in a tin pail, this mixture was handed to the churn agent, who poured it into the churn and proceeded, chug, chug, chug, "Madam, this is the most wonderful invention of the present day," chug, chug, chug, "you will please notice how thoroughly the cream is agitated," chug, chug, chug, "Already the globules of butter are forming," chug, chug, chug. "No muscular power required, a child can work it as well as a grown man," chug, chug, chug. "In five minutes the operation will be completed," chug, chug, chug. "The I will show a large percentage of butter from this amount of cream," chug, chug, chug. At this juncture the lady excused herself, and in company with other members of the family took a position upon the outside of the house, near a window, to observe the outcome; chug, chug, chug, the operator was beginning to warm up, and copious streams of perspiration ran from his face, chug, chug, chug, "no butter yet and the time doubly up," chug, chug, chug, of goes his coat and vest, chug, chug, "what's the matter with the pesky thing," the situation had become too comical and the outsiders burst into a roar of laughter that startled the churnist, who "took a tumble" to a large sized rat, and picking up the Challenge churn power, skipped out, a very sad, but a much wiser man. "Chug."

Ladies Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A.

The Ladies of Albany who are interested in the work of the Young Men's Christian Association, will hold a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Hall Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a Ladies Auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian Association of Albany, and it is earnestly desired that a large number will be in attendance. We believe there is a broad field for an organization of this kind, and we hope to see the fact that church work calls largely upon the time of the ladies, yet we feel that this branch of the work will be successful, because its membership will be composed largely of ladies that are thus busily engaged. Busy people are the very ones that make things move. Show us a person who has plenty of spare time, and we will show you a person that is not remarkable in his accomplishment in life. One busy person is worth more to the community and the world at large than half a dozen idle persons who want anything done promptly and safely, we always go to some one who is busy. And ladies this is why we ask you to unite in this effort, and make the Ladies Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. an organization whose influence will be felt in the community. SECRETARY.

Lebanon's Growth.

A correspondent of the Salem Journal says of his visit to Lebanon: "Lebanon is the terminus of the Southern Pacific from Albany, from which place it is about twelve miles distant. The train makes two round trips between this place and Albany daily, and has considerable passenger travel. The past year has been one of remarkable growth and development for Lebanon. Over 100 new buildings have been erected since January 1, 1890, among them being some handsome residences, which would be a credit to any city. The large influx of strangers from Eastern states, has served to stimulate growth, and the fine agricultural land on all sides of Lebanon is a sufficient stimulus to a healthy growth. Many of the residences recently erected, are the property of substantial farmers, who have moved to town.

The Oregon Pacific.

The Prineville News is authority for this statement: "A prominent business man in town informs us that he has received a personal communication from Col. Hogg, receiver of the Oregon Pacific railroad, in which he states that there are now 26,000 tons of rails on the way to Yaquina; that preparations are being made to let the contracts for sawing and cutting 50,000 ties, and that active operations will commence on the eastern extension of the road as 'soon as the snow flies.'"
