THE DAY IN CONGRESS.

Pott Orchard Gets the Naval Yard and Dry Docks.

AN ANIMATED DISCUSSION.

The Secretary of the Navy Directed to Purchase Two Hundred Acres of Land.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.--In the senate to-day Morgan offered a resolution which was agreed to, calling on the secretary of the interior for copies of the regulations for carrying into effect the land forfeiture act of September 29, 1889, including all instructions and decisions.

Consideration of the naval appropriation bill was resumed, the pending question being on an amendment in reference to the site of a dry dock on the Pacific coast, whether on Puget sound or on the Columbia river.

The amendment recommended by the committee on appropriations, leaving it to the secretary of the navy to decide upon the site of a dry dock, was advocated by Doherty and Mitchell, while Allen argued in support of his amendment fixing Port Orchard, on Puget Sound, as the site.

The discussion lasted so long that Hale threatened to move to lay the committee amendment on the table, thus putting an end to the whole thing.

The discussion was nevertheless continued by Cockrell, Hiseock, Washburn, Call, Spire, Spooner and Hale. Finally, after nearly three hours' talk, a vote was taken on all the amendments, and it was agreed to; yeas, 34; nays, 12.

It directs the secretary of the navy to acquire at a cost not to exceed $25,000 a tract of 200 acres on Puget sound, at Port Orchard, and to cause to be erected a dry dock not less than 600 feet in length and 70 feet in width, capable of admitting vessels drawing 30 feet of water, the cost of the dry dock not to exceed $200,000.

The naval appropriation bill then passed.

Representative Cutcheon, from the committee on military affairs, today reported to the house, with a favorable recommendation, the senate bill appropriating $300,000 to enable the secretary of war to provide for the exploration and survey of the interior of Alaska.

SHERMAN DYING.

HE WILL NOT LIVE BUT A FEW HOURS LONGER.

His Last Great Battle With the Grim Destroyer Drawing to a Close--He is Gradually Sinking.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.--The doctors announced, after a consultation this morning, that the condition of General Sherman is less favorable than yesterday.

The general suffered considerable pain last night, and is constantly growing weaker.

The worst feature of the case is that the most of the time in a state of coma, and can only be roused when food is administered.

The only nourishment he has taken for several days is whiskey and milk, and at times he is delirious, especially during the last twenty-four hours. He does not seem to suffer much pain, and it is this weakness and gradual sinking that we are afraid of.

LATER.--The condition of General Sherman is still considered precarious, but the success with which he battled this afternoon was the foundation of new hopes for ultimate recovery.

In the afternoon he frequently rallied sufficiently to recognize members of the family and some old friends who were admitted to the sick chamber.

At 7:15 this (Thursday) morning the general sent a telegram to the secretary's brother, Senator John Sherman, saying: "Papa is much worse; you had better come at once."

3:10 A. M.--Sherman's death is expected any minute now, the doctors say. The following bulletin: General Sherman has been growing worse during the night. He will probably survive but a few hours.

Declared a Forgery.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 11.--Governor Hill, when shown the letter purporting to be from Henry Watterson, published in the Baltimore Sun to-day, said: "I never received any such letter; it is the first I have heard of such a thing. It must be a forgery." The letter purports to be from Watterson to Hill, advising the latter to accept the senatorship and thus clear the way for Cleveland for president.

Idaho Now Has Two Senators.

BOISE CITY, Feb. 11.--The legislature today in joint session elected W. H. Cleggott, United States senator. He will contest senator-elect Dubois' seat.

A Serious Question.

Independence West Side: The appropriations for wagon roads from the State of Oregon at the present legislature are enormous. The total sum is now over $200,000. It will be a serious question to consider by the people, where the money is to come from to pay those bills. Our total state revenue based on the present amount of state taxes when supplemented with these wagon bills will make a very high rate for state taxes.

THE SHAFER-DOYLE FIGHT.

Doyle's Remains Will Be Exhumed for Evidence in the Case.

SEATTLE, Feb. 11.--The remains of George Shafer, in prize fighter, who was killed last Saturday morning at the Peoples Theatre in a fight with Billy Doyle, will be exhumed to-morrow morning.

Prosecuting Attorney Mille will have the body examined again by physicians, as he is dissatisfied with the coroner's verdict, which was to the effect that the prize fighter died from natural causes. He said this evening:

"I am confident that Shafer was killed by Doyle, and I am going to make a hard fight to punish all who took part in the murder of Billy Doyle. He will be examined to-morrow afternoon on a charge of manslaughter."

CROOKEDNESS IN PORTLAND.

County Officials Accused of Gross Dishonesty.

PORTLAND, Feb. 11.--To-day Robert Fyle, late auditor of the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company, filed his second report on the condition of the county offices. The Telegram publishes it in full this afternoon. The document occupies over a newspaper page, and makes wholesale charges of corruption in the county offices. The charges have caused quite a sensation here, and will no doubt result in a thorough investigation.

Arrested for Embezzlement.

PENDLETON, Feb. 11.--M. J. Greene, secretary and manager of the Pendleton hardware and implement company, which assigned yesterday, was arrested last night on a charge of embezzlement of the company's funds, the complaint being brought by Benjamin Selling, the company's main creditor. Greene is under bonds and maintains his innocence. The examination will occur to-morrow. The arrest caused excitement, as Greene stands well in the community.

Too Handy With His Gun.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.--John May, employed in a brewery, was shot and killed last night by Police-man Cavanaugh. The officer saw three men standing in a door way, and as he approached, they walked away in different directions. The officers followed May, crying out to him: "Stop!" For the purpose of bringing him to a halt the officer fired two shots. May was a married man, 35 years of age.

DEATH DEALING PLOT

A Scheme to Blow Up a Chicago Distillery.

150 LIVES JEOPARDIZED.

General Sherman Lying in a Comatose State and Gradually Sinking--Charges Against the Soldiers.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.--If the stories told by the agents of the national treasury department, now in the city, are true, one of the most diabolical of dynamite plots, involving great loss of life and property, has been discovered, and its consummation prevented just on the eve of putting it into effect.

The Western Distillers and Cattle Feeders' Association, better known as the whisky trust, is in connection with a capital stock of $35,000,000, and controls the price of high wines throughout the country, as it controls all of the distilleries with two or three exceptions.

The most important distilleries outside of the combination is that of H. H. Shuffeldt, of this city, and it was against this concern that the plot was arranged. The exposure of the conspiracy occurred this morning.

G. J. Gibson, of Peoria, Ill., arrived at 6 o'clock, and on complaint of Solicitor-General Hart, of the treasury department, who came here from Washington for the whole day, was arrested. The charge laid at Gibson's door is that he offered the government gauger, T. S. Dewar, who is on duty at Shuffeldt's distillery, a bribe to blow up the distillery with dynamite.

Solicitor Hart tells the story of the plot. He says Gibson opened communication with Dewar some time ago, telling him at first that Shuffeldt's concern was in the way and that they were trying to get it out of the way. Finally he offered Dewar $25,000 to blow up the concern. Gibson told him he had a dynamite machine that could be exploded between two large tanks, releasing and setting on fire a sea of alcohol.

He said there would be plenty of time for Dewar to get away, and he was the only man who could place the machine, because of the fact that as a government employee he had access to all parts of the building. Hart said it would have exploded, killing the man who placed it, before he could possibly get away, thus destroying the only evidence against the trust people. The success of the plot meant unquestionably the death of 150 men working in the place. As I say, Dewar, under instructions, went the length of the conspiracy, to the point of doing the diabolical deed, and when Gibson was arrested he was waiting to hear of the explosion and destruction of all those lives and property. All the evidence secured to substantiate the Dewar story. The case is made. This afternoon Gibson was taken before United States Commissioner Herine and released on bail of $20,000. He declined to make any statement in regard to the matter.

INDIAN CONFERENCE.

Serious Charges Made Against the United States Army.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.--The Indian conference closed to-day and the Indians started home Friday. A feature of to-day's talk was the story of the fight at Wounded Knee. Turning Hawaii said at given time when the men had delivered up their guns, they were separated from their families and taken to a certain spot. A crazy young man, of very bad influence, fired his gun, killing an officer. The other Indians began drawing knives although they were escorted from all sides to desert and bring began immediately on the part of the soldiers. All the men who were in the bunch were killed and those who escaped the first fire got in a ravine, and as they went along the ravine for a long distance, they were pursued on all sides by soldiers and shot down. The women had no fire arms to fight with. They were standing off at a different place when the fire began and those of the men who escaped the first volley went in one direction up the ravine. American Horse said that when the firing commenced the people who were standing immediately around the young man who fired the first shot were killed, and then the soldiers turned on the women who were in lodges, standing there under the flag of truce. Women, as they were fleeing with babies on their backs, were killed together, and women heavy with child were also killed. After most of the Indians had been killed the cry was made that all those not killed or wounded should come forth and they would be safe. Little boys who were not wounded came out of their places of refuge and as soon as they came in sight, a number of soldiers surrounded and butchered them. Commissioner Morgan said to an interpreter: "I wish you would say to him that these are very serious charges to make against the army. I do not want any statements that are not absolutely true and I want any one here that feels that these statements are too strong to correct them."

ANOTHER KNOCK-OUT.

CROVNSKI WHIPPED BY GODDARD, OF SWEDEN.

The Australian Champion Too Much for the Young Californian Result of the Fight a Surprise.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Feb. 11.--Joe Goddard, of Australia, champion of "the Barrier," and Joe Crovnski, of San Francisco, fought at the Sydney Athletic club last night at catch-weights for a purse of $500. Goddard defeated his antagonist in the fourth round.

The defeat of Joe Crovnski was received in Portland with nearly as much surprise as was Dempsey's, and many of Joe's intimate friends looked sorrowful over the sudden and decisive stop to what they considered would be a very long career of victories for the Polish Hebrew.

It will be a long time before Joe will get over his defeat, and he will now be relegated to the benches of the "has-beens," and any match he now might make will not have the interest his former matches had.

Judgment and coolness was ranged on the California boy's side and his collapse in four rounds under Queensberry rules goes to show that the man who fought to draw with Peter Jackson is mighty near championship form, and would be no mean antagonist for Jackson, Slavin or Sullivan in a finish fight.

The defeat of another promising American athlete goes to prove Australia is now leading in all branches of athletics, and the British flag looms up rather too prominently in the physical world to suit American pride just at present.

PORTLAND POLICE MATTERS.

Several Notable Crooks Arrested in the Metropolis Yesterday.

PORTLAND, Or., Feb. 11.--The police to-day made the following arrests: Harry Wickes, on a warrant issued from San Diego, California, charging Wickes with obtaining money under false pretenses. The offense consisted of passing a world less $250 check.

Richard Stahl, a well-known composer, and leader of the "National Gas Company's" orchestra, for felony and embezzlement. It is thought that the warrant was sworn out by Krelling Bros. of San Francisco, and that the arrest grew out of a misunderstanding regarding theatrical matters. Stahl was released on his own recognizance.

O. W. Michling, who is wanted in Sac City, Iowa, for forging a fifteen hundred dollar draft on the Sac City bank. All three men will be held awaiting the arrival of the proper officers with papers.

Right of Way Granted.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.--The president has approved an act granting to the Umatilla Irrigation Company a right of way through the Umatilla Indian reservation.
