THE ANGRY FLOODS.

The Waters Still Rising With Devastating Effect.

MANY FAMILIES DROWNED.

Houses Washed Away and Great Damage Done--Bleaching Bones Unearthed at Johnstonva.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 21.—Late advices from many points state that the weather is growing colder, and the rains have ceased, with consequent fall of the rivers. At Johnstonva, the violent current has bared the victims of the great flood, and others have been partly exposed.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Feb. 21.—The flood situation to-night looks more serious than since the beginning of the present rise. Restoration of telegraphic communication has brought news from the water shed district of eastern Kentucky that heavy rains have caused floods in the tributaries of the Ohio, no hitherto taken into account, and it is feared the stage here will reach 68 feet by Monday or Tuesday. Business men in the bottoms are busy preparing generally for a flood.

Dispatches from various points in Southern Indiana and Northern Kentucky to-night state that all the streams are out of their channels and rising. At Columbia, Indiana, two people were drowned. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—The Chronicle's special from Tempe, Arizona, says Salt River valley has just been visited by the greatest flood on record. The mountain streams rose to torrents and rivers are still above flood levels, and have overflowed a number of farms, cutting out the railroad track. Many farm buildings built of adobe, crumbled away, and other frame structures floated off.

The northern edge of this flood is the city of Phoenix, flooding out many poor families. The territorial insane asylum had a narrow escape. The electrical works were flooded, and the town is left in darkness. About one hundred adobe houses fell in as the water became water soaked. Measures for relief of the needy have been taken, but many families are still without protection. The river has begun to fall. The loss is not less than $125,000.

HER SEVENTH ELOPEMENT.

A New Jersey Woman Who Has Record.

Mrs. Mary Macejko, wife of George Macejko, who last week eloped with John Koces, has returned to Passaic and is now engaged in perfecting a reconciliation with her husband. Mrs. Macejko left under very peculiar circumstances. She and her husband had been living in harmony for some time. One day last week, however, Macejko found a letter lying on the stairs addressed to his wife. It was written by John Koces, an intimate friend of the family. He asked Mrs. Macejko to tell him an address in New York. Macejko at once determined to demand an explanation from his wife, but when he went in quest of her he found to his dismay that she had flown.

The husband did not follow her, but continued his work in Excelsior. Commissioner Von Heest's shoe store. On Saturday Mrs. Macejko returned to Passaic and called upon her husband. He received her with scorn. She wept bitterly, but was finally compelled to leave the place. She told a sad story. The Koces had promised that led her from home. As they were walking along the street the first night after she arrived in New York he snatched an overcoat off as she went to a clothing store, and, on being seen by the police, fled. The policeman caught him and locked him up. She then returned to Passaic and continued to love and cherish her lawful husband. When he refused to, enter certain such ideas, he was heartbroken and chided him for being sickle.

Mrs. Macejko has eloped seven times. Six times she has been forgiven, and the couple have lived on lovingly, but her husband declares that he will not take her back again.—New York World.

OLYMPIA LEGISLATURE.

They Will Approve $75,000 for the World's Fair.

OLYMPIA, Feb. 21.—The probability that the Washington legislature will appropriate from $75,000 to $100,000 for the world's fair. The matter came up for

A DISASTROUS WRECK.

The Good Ship Elizabeth Goes Down at San Francisco.

CAPTAIN ANDREW DROWNED.

The Vessel Lira a Total Wreck Of Point Bonita--The Captain's Wife and Children Rescued.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—While entering the harbor to-night the American ship Elizabeth went on the beach at Northbeach. A heavy gale is blowing to-night, and she will probably be severely damaged. The Elizabeth is commanded by Captain Colcord, and carries a cargo of merchandise from New York consigned to Williams, Dimond & Company.

The Elizabeth had twenty men on board; the captain, two mates and a cook, and 16 sailors, also the captain's wife and two children. Three sailors, the captain's wife and children, got off in a small boat. The boat capsized, but the occupants were rescued by a tug. It is thought the rest of the vessel's crew are all drowned. A life boat went to the aid of the shipwrecked sailors, but was capsized by the waves and the captain of the boat drowned.

BURNED TO DEATH.

SIX PEOPLE PERISH IN THE FLAMES IN NEW YORK.

Women and Little Children Roasted in a Burning Tenement House--Scenes of Horror.

New York, Feb. 21.—A disastrous fire in a Brooklyn tenement house to-night resulted in the death of six persons. The house was a five-story brick flat in Sands street, occupied by 33 families, who are left destitute by the destruction of their homes. Before the fireman arrived the fire had cut its way to the top of the building, and the flames were seen from the street. The fire was caused by a gas stove which had become overheated, and the flames had spread to the ceiling.

Among the tenants on the fourth floor was the family of John E. Downey, a printer. When they found they could not make their escape down the stairs they rushed to the roof. On the way Mrs. Griffin said to Julia Griffin she would turn back to help Mrs. Downey, who was behind. She did so, and was not seen again until the dead body was found together with that of Mrs. Downey and one of the children at the foot of the staircase leading to the roof. The Griffin family, who were on the roof, were rescued by the firemen. The children were playing about the house, and the dogs of George Cost, which had been prowling around, dragged out an infantile skeleton from a lot of rubbish. All the flesh had been eaten off the bones by rats except a little about the head. The child was of fair size. The probabilities are the remains had been there about a week.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—The remains of a small infant were discovered yesterday by boys under a ruined house at 209 Lombard street. The children were playing about the house, and the dogs of George Cost, which had been prowling around, dragged out an infantile skeleton from a lot of rubbish. All the flesh had been eaten off the bones by rats except a little about the head. The child was of fair size. The probabilities are the remains had been there about a week.

THE FAITH CURE.

Death of Another Believer in Christian Science.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Feb. 21.—William Motzinger, of East Des Moines, aged 24, died yesterday after a long illness of typhoid fever. During all that time he was in the hands of the Christian scientists, who prayed for his recovery, but was never given a particle of medical attention or even any nourishment. His wife is an ardent believer in the faith cure and his parents and other relatives were kept by force and threats from interfering. The attention of the city authorities was called to the matter two weeks ago and an attempt to interfere was made, but the victim was so far gone that no physician would consent to take the case.

WINDOM'S SUCCESSOR.

HIS FORMAL APPOINTMENT.

EVA ON A SPREE.

The Relict of Ray Hamilton Said to Be at Butte.

BUTTE, Mont., Feb. 21.—A woman claiming to be Eva Ray Hamilton reached here yesterday and lost little time in gathering a sufficient following to assist her in painting the town red. During the progress of the spree she was robbed, and she is now waiting for a remittance to take her out of the country.

SHERMAN'S FUNERAL.

THE DEAD GENERAL'S REMAINS LAID TO REST.

He Was Buried with the Highest Military Honors--A Tribute of Flowers--Affecting Scenes.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 21.—The remains of General Sherman were assigned to the grave to-day. The services were of a military character, the only exception being the reading of prayer by Rev. Thomas Sherman. Thousands of people were present at the cemetery.

AN UPRAK IN CONGRESS.

A Heated Debate Causes Excitement in the House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The adverse report of the majority of the house coinage committee on the senate free coinage bill says in part: Under the present act $54,000,000 are being added annually to the volume of currency of the country, in the form of treasury notes for the bullion purchased. This would at the same rate gradually add to the volume of currency the above amount of bank notes. Under the present law there is a provision for using the world's surplus, which is all that unlimited coinage could accomplish. It is said, however, that the demand of the present law does not call for all the silver surplus, and that there are now in the "bearing" market 15,000,000 ounces, which are sufficient to keep down the price of silver to its present selling figure. Whether these 15,000,000 ounces are likely to remain as a threat to the market or whether they are to be used by designing persons as a temporary means to depress the price, can be determined by the continuance of the present policy of buying no more than the 450,000 ounces monthly provided for by the existing law. If the presence of the 15,000,000 ounces is an actual excess, it will be easy at any future time for congress to provide for its absorption into the volume of currency.

PLAYED WITH A GUN.

Body of the Slayer of Seliverkoff Devoured by Wolves.

SOPIA, Feb. 21.—The body of Paderewski, who was charged with murdering General Seliverkoff in Paris, has been found half devoured by wolves between Philippopolis and Kazantik. The body has been identified by documents in the pockets of the clothing.

THE RUTHLESS CZAR.

The Ruthless Propose to Make Him Feel their Financial Power.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—Since the return by the St. Petersburg government of the Guildhill protest against the brutal persecution of Jews in Russia without even the courtesy of a response, and with an implied menace to the recent interference by increasing the official oppression of Jews, the Rothschilds have been endeavoring to bring financial pressure to bear upon the czar's ministers to compel them to ameliorate the condition of the unfortunate people in the empire. The Czar has already had a warning that something of this sort might happen, but this has had no effect, and the famous bankers are trying to make him feel their power in a more practical manner.

THE FAITH CURE.

Death of Another Believer in Christian Science.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Feb. 21.—William Motzinger, of East Des Moines, aged 24, died yesterday after a long illness of typhoid fever. During all that time he was in the hands of the Christian scientists, who prayed for his recovery, but was never given a particle of medical attention or even any nourishment. His wife is an ardent believer in the faith cure and his parents and other relatives were kept by force and threats from interfering. The attention of the city authorities was called to the matter two weeks ago and an attempt to interfere was made, but the victim was so far gone that no physician would consent to take the case.

COVEY, BUT WAS NEVER GIVEN A PARTICLE OF MEDICAL ATTENTION OR EVEN ANY NOURISHMENT.

His wife is an ardent believer in the faith cure and his parents and other relatives were kept by force and threats from interfering. The attention of the city authorities was called to the matter two weeks ago and an attempt to interfere was made, but the victim was so far gone that no physician would consent to take the case.

Protzman was 24 years old and had good health until December 17th last, when he was attacked with colic, which grew into typhoid fever. The jury found that he received no medical treatment except "silent prayer," that dietary rules were disregarded and that he was otherwise neglected. The conclusion of the jury is that Protzman came to his death by reason of the practicing upon him of the teaching of an association of persons calling themselves Christian scientists and not from any other cause. Arrests are expected.

MINERS ENTOMBED.

Many Men Killed and Maimed by an Explosion.

SPRING HILL, N. S. Feb. 21.—An explosion occurred in the east slope coal mine this afternoon. Already five dead bodies have been taken out. A rescuing party is now putting up brattice for the purpose of restoring ventilation in the mine. It is feared many more are killed, but the rescuing party will not be able to get near the imprisoned men until some of the pile of debris caused by the fall of the roof is cleared away. Thirty men and boys are still in the mine. Some men have been taken out badly injured, and it is reported that many horses were killed. To add to the horror of the situation the dread black damp has made its appearance in the mine.
