LIAR AND PERJURER

These Are the Choice Epithets Used by Washington Solon

MOST DISGRACEFUL SCENES.

The House Refuses to Expel Metcalf--Vehement, Bitter Speeches by Several Members.

OLYMPIA, Feb. 26.--The house today refused to expel Representative Metcalf by a vote of 33 yeas, 43 nays. The motion for the expulsion of the member was rejected by a majority of 10. The vote required for the expulsion of a member is a two-thirds majority. The day's proceedings added another number of exciting discussions of the session. Bitter speeches, denunciatory of the action of Metcalf in soliciting a bribe from Clarke, were made, particularly by Tyler and Garretson, of Pierce, and he was defended strongly by Meany and Besinger, of King, who acknowledged that Metcalf had made a mistake, but his intent was honest, and the motive is what must be regarded.

The discussion was made notable by a remarkable speech by Metcalf himself, when all the others had concluded. He defended himself so vigorously and eloquently that he was several times interrupted by applause, and at the termination a round of cheers burst forth from the members and the lobby. Metcalf reviewed the entire history of the case and acknowledged that he had solicited the bribe for the purpose of exposing the briber. He acknowledged his mistake, but insisted that his purpose was not discreditable, because his sole desire was to expose corruption. He denounced Judge Calkins in the most vehement language, and called him "a liar and a perjurer." Responding to the charge of Garretson, of Pierce, that he was a criminal, Metcalf said: "I regret that I cannot make that charge on the floor of this house, but if it comes to a question of science, I will meet him wherever he chooses."

The house today considered at length Wasson's railroad bill, and passed it. It provides that there shall be a reduction of tax on the money if a permanent cure is effected. We have thousands of testimonials from old and young, of both sexes, who have been permanently cured of the use of Apollonian Circular free. Address: THE APOLLONIAN MEDICINE CO., Western Branch, Box 27, Portland, Oregon. For sale by Foshay & Mason, who make and sell bottles, Albany, Oregon.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS.

A Long List of Amendments to the Sundry Civil Bill. WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.--In the senate today the sundry civil bill was taken up and the committee on amendments agreed to other amendments, proposed to it, among them being the following: By Stewart, appropriating $20,000 for the collection and publishing of information as to the best methods of cultivating the soil by irrigation. By Allison, for two steam launches for use on Puget Sound, not exceeding $5,000 each; and appropriating $10,000 additional for the purchase of a site for a public building for San Francisco, and directing that the construction shall begin with any of that amount that shall remain after the purchase. By Taylor, $15,000 for the transportation, care and preservation of reindeer for the use of the natives in Alaska. By Frye, $50,000 for a first-class ordinary light-house at North Head, Cape Disappointment, state of Washington, near the mouth of the Columbia river. By McPherson, an amendment for life saving stations near the mouth of Egoe river and at or near Port Orford, on the coast of Oregon. By Dolph, appropriating $30,000 for a light-house and steam fog signal at St. Mary's Island, Alaska. By Mitchell, appropriating $50,000 for light and fog signals at the mouth of the Coquille river, on the Pacific coast. The house this evening passed the general deficiency bill.

SLAVIN AND MITCHELL.

A Fight Without Rules Which Caused Their Arrest.

LONDON, Feb. 26.--The true story of the facts that led up to the arrest of Frank P. Slavin and Charles Mitchell forms a curious pugilistic episode of the Arcadia Club. The two pugilists have for some time past been very great friends, in spite of the fact that Mitchell has been very free in declaring that he could easily best Slavin. Mitchell repeated his boast at the club-house, and in time Slavin joined in the discussion, which became very heated. Slavin at first treated the matter in a jocular spirit, but in the end he lost his temper and pushed Mitchell away with some degree of force. This seemed to rouse the blood of Mitchell, who made a rush at Slavin, but failed to hit him. Slavin replied with a hard one on his assailant's neck, which floored the Englishman. Mitchell rose and reached for a bottle to strike Slavin, but again the latter was too quick, and a second time Sullivan's former opponent was floored. A general melee then ensued.

A TOWN DOOMED.

Yuma, Arizona, Submerged by the Rising Floods.

MUCH DAMAGE ELSEWHERE.

The Southern Pacific Railroad Lines Recovering from the Inundation--The West Is Now Over.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.--Shipments of the Southern Pacific, received a dispatch from Yuma today stating that the town is deemed to be destroyed. Three quarters of the city is flooded, and the water is also threatening the last quarter. The operator closed by stating that he could not keep his place another 24 hours. The Southern Pacific division headquarters were swept away, and with them the ticket and freight offices. The round house and machine shops will probably escape, as they are on high ground. The twelve hundred inhabitants of Yuma have taken refuge in the penitentiary on high ground. The bridge across Colorado river, five hundred feet long, will be destroyed, as the water is almost up to it and rising a foot an hour.

ALBANY NOT IN IT.

A Long List of Appointments, but not the Albany Postoffice.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.--The president today sent to the senate a long list of appointments, including: Anderson, of Kansas, agent and consul-general at Cairo, Egypt; Fruxton Beale, of California, minister resident and consul-general in Persia. Consuls: John Ayers, of Ohio, at Paris; W. W. Apperson, of Kansas, Mera-Craz; Samuel M. Evans, of Iowa, St. Gall; Philip G. Hanna, of Iowa, La Laguna; Henry M. Hard, of New York, Clifton; James W. Love, of Nebraska, San Salvador; Long A. Lathrop, of Nevada, Bristol; James N. Long, of Pennsylvania, Florence; Seth A. Merrill, of Massachusetts, Jerusalem; William S. Stanley, of Wisconsin, Peton, N. S.; Edmund Shaw, of Indian Territory, Assumption; Bernard G. Farrar, of Missouri, assistant United States treasurer at St. Louis; Wm. C. Kennedy, postmaster at Palouse, Wash.

A PRETTY QUARREL.

U. S. TREASURER AND THE PRESIDENT AT ODDS.

Houston Resigns Because Harrison Gave Foster the Secretaryship, Which He Wanted.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.--United States Treasurer Houston has again tendered his resignation, and this time it looks very much as if it might be accepted by the president. The resignation was handed in yesterday by Houston in person, who called at the White House for that purpose. The story got out that neither Houston nor the president was in an amiable mood, and the meeting between them was brief and cold to the point of freezing. The story goes that the president was disposed to accept the resignation immediately, and send in the name of Mr. Houston's successor in time for confirmation by the senate this session, but that subsequently he took a different view of the matter, and yesterday efforts were made to induce Houston to reconsider his action, and remain where he is. A newspaper representative called on Mr. Houston at his hotel and asked him if it was true that he had handed his resignation in. He declined to say whether he had or not, but said that he has for a long time desired to return to his home and private affairs.

THE PRINCIPAL CAUSE OF MR. HUSTON'S RESIGNATION IS BELIEVED TO BE THE APPOINTMENT OF FOSTER TO THE SECRETARSHIP OF THE TREASURY.

Neither the president nor United States Treasurer Houston will confirm or deny the report that the latter has tendered his resignation. INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 26.--A Sentinel special from Evansville says: "A private dispatch from Washington announces that J. A. Lencke, ex-state treasurer of Indiana, has been appointed treasurer of the United States, vice Houston, resigned."

A White Cap Outrage.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 26.--White Caps last night went to the house of John McConnell in New Amsterdam, Ind., and breaking in the door, took him and his wife outside and whipped them. The two victims were then carried to a shanty-boat, on which they had come to the village a few weeks ago, and were turned adrift in the Ohio river in the night. With much difficulty they made a landing, as the wind was very high and a storm which did great damage had passed over the section. The river was also rising very rapidly, which added to the danger. Neither the two was badly hurt, but they were so much alarmed that they remained on their boat all afternoon. There is no clue to the White Caps, who have been guilty of many similar outrages of late.

FOX AND HALL TO FIGHT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.--In answer to the offer of Texas sporting men to give Hall and Fitzsimmons $15,000 for a match, Joe Harris, Hall's backer, today telegraphed Hall's acceptance of the offer, and offers to not any sized forfeit to bind the match.

NEWS FROM THE METROPOLIS

An Embarking Express Agent Arrested in Portland--News of the Pacific Slope.

SEATTLE, Feb. 26.--The Great Northern and the Seattle & Montana roads have practically consolidated, and through trains will soon be run to Seattle from St. Paul by way of Winnipeg over the Canadian Pacific, the Fairhaven & Southern and Lake Shore and Eastern.

Today a meeting of the stockholders of the Seattle & Montana was held here, at which Colonel W. P. Clough, vice president of the Great Northern was present. The following trustees were elected: James J. Hill and Colonel W. P. Clough, of St. Paul, and E. O. Graves and D. H. Gilman, of Seattle. Following the stockholders meeting, the trustees held a session, at which the following officers were chosen: President, James J. Hill; vice president, W. P. Clough; secretary, T. J. Milner; treasurer, E. O. Graves. Since Mr. Hill is president of the Great Northern and Colonel Clough is his right hand man the election indicates that the interests of the two organizations are now completely identified, and that the Seattle & Montana is thoroughly incorporated as part of the Great Northern. Arrangements have been made to run through trains from St. Paul over the Great Northern's own lines to Winniepeg, then over the Canadian Pacific to New Westminster, over the New Westminster Southern to the boundary over the Fairhaven & Southern to Sedro, and over the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern to Seattle. This train service, running without change from St. Paul to Seattle, will begin in a few days. As soon as the Seattle & Montana lines north are completed that line will be used instead of the Lake Shore & Eastern.

Railroad Gossip.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 26.--It is now positively known that the Wisconsin Central is to be completely absorbed by the Northern Pacific, and will be operated as a mere division of that great transcontinental system. This step has been officially contemplated ever since the old agreement and lease went into effect.

Express Agent Arrested.

PORTLAND, Feb. 26.--Victor McKibben, depot agent for the Northern Pacific Express company, in this city, was today arrested at the instance of the American Surety company, of New York, charged with embarking a package containing $577.

The Wreck Sold.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.--The wreckage of the ship Elizabeth, which was lost last Saturday, was sold at auction to Captain Whitelaw for $200. Such of the cargo as may be found above low tide was sold to A. Stein for $300.

Three Railroad Men Killed.

SANTA CRUZ, Feb. 26.--This afternoon three men employed on the broad gauge railroad were run over by a hand-car and fatally injured. They were returning from work when the hand-car on which they were riding jumped the track and passed over their bodies.

Manuel Rosa, who was in jail at Oroville, Cal., under charge of forgery, dug out and escaped and has not been re-captured.

C. C. Chissman, who was awaiting sentence for horse stealing, in the jail at Auburn, California, and escaped last August, was recently re-captured by the sheriff of that county.

The attempt to remove the capital of New Mexico from Santa Fe to Albuquerque, met with a decided defeat at the hands of the territorial assembly. Santa Fe will remain the seat of government.

The conductor of a motor car in Dubuque, Iowa, observed something on the track, and stopped his car just in time to prevent running upon the obstruction. It proved to be a dynamite cartridge, and would have blown the car, filled with passengers, to atoms, if it had not been stopped in time.

John Elliott, of Sacramento, Cal., who peddles in the country adjacent to that city, recently started out with a load of potatoes, onions, fish, etc., on a peddling tour between that city and Georgetown, El Dorado county. He calculated to be gone only four days, and so informed his wife. When a week had passed and he had not returned the family and friends became alarmed. Letters were sent to Georgetown, but it could not be learned that he had arrived there. All during last week efforts were made to locate him, but in vain, and Mrs. Elliott is almost beside herself with anxiety and firmly believes that her husband has met with foul play. The family is in destitute circumstances.

Eva Ray Hamilton is said to be living near Newark, N. J., in a congress under the belief that she is penitent and anxious to atone for her past life. She says: "While it is true that under the evil influences of Joshua Mann I conspired with him to extort money from Robert Ray Hamilton, I grew to love Ray, and would to-day, if I could, bring him back to life, even though it sacrificed my own. The contest over the will was not of my own volition, but at the suggestion of certain lawyers."

Bridegroom Roughly Handled.

MASON CITY, Ia., Feb. 26.--A week ago, contrary to the wishes of some of the bride's relatives, Ed. George, of Clear Lake, was united in marriage to Clara Young, daughter of R. O. Young. When the couple returned they received notification to leave town at once, but determined to stay. On Monday night, just before midnight, George and his wife were awakened by the presence at their bedside of eleven masked men clothed in white. The intruders produced revolvers, and dragged the bridegroom to the street, his wife clinging to him for nearly a block. They forced him on a train and ordered him never to return.

George, however, got off at the first station, came back, and yesterday caused the arrest of Will Boyd and Norris Curden, who he thinks, were among the guilty men. Last night County Attorney Clark, who is pushing the case for George, received a threatening letter signed "White Caps."

Bismarck is Warned.

LONDON, Feb. 26.--It is stated in a Berlin dispatch that Emperor William has commanded Bismarck as major in the army, to preserve silence on political affairs. The emperor has also pointed out to the ex-chancellor the law sanctioned by Bismarck himself, whereby state ministers are prohibited from publishing comments on state affairs without the consent of the sovereign. The emperor also accuses Bismarck of exciting a quarrel with Russia.

Cardinal Gibbons has been summoned to Rome by the Pope, to confer on affairs in this country.

JOHN L. KNOCKED OUT

THE DRUNKEN BRUISER RECEIVES A THRASHING.

He Attempted to Bully a Railroad Man and Received a Pair of Black Eyes.

ATHENS, Ga., Feb. 26.--An express messenger who arrived here last evening, says John L. Sullivan was knocked out by a train-hand on a Georgia railway. Sullivan and his company were on their way to Macon, Ga., from Columbus, S. C. Sullivan was in bad humor. When in Augusta he had got howling drunk and was just sobering up when a train hand named Townsend came through the car, and was asked by Sullivan where the dinner station was. Upon being answered politely he said to Townsend: "Don't be too fresh now; how do I know whether you are lying or not?" Sullivan used other language too foul to print. Townsend stood it a while, and then jumped on the big fellow and punched him to his heart's content. He blackened Sullivan's eyes and choked him before he was hauled off by some of the company. Townsend weighs only about 135 pounds, but he is very game. Sullivan, after the shipping, tried to bluff his opponent out of the car, but it did not work. Townsend stayed in the coach and soon after Sullivan cooled down.

Horrible Scene at the Execution of a Criminal.

WASHINGTON, Pa., Feb. 26.--William West, colored, was hanged today for the murder of three members of the Church family on May 14, 1890. The crime was one of the most deliberate and thorough ever committed in this section, and everything against the man has been purely circumstantial, yet convicting. West spent 7-23 in this morning at 8:30 while the death-warrant was being changing. West secured a small piece of iron concealed in his bed and jabbed himself in the neck. He was rendered unconscious. Physicians were called in, but were unable to restore consciousness up to 2 P. M., when he was hanged. His condition had not greatly changed. He was strapped to a board and carried to the scaffold at 2:35. The trap was sprung and the rope broke. The murderer was in terrible distress, and it took five men to hold him, though he was manacled. At 2:40 the rope was strung up, and this time the hanging was successful. At 2:48 he was pronounced dead. The hanging and horrible occurrences connected with it created great excitement.

BLOOD-THIRSTY REBELS.

They Give Women and Children No Quarter--Over 200 Killed.

Buenos Ayres, Feb. 26.--Additional advices received here from Chili state that the bombardment of Iquique by the insurgents resulted in great loss of life and heavy damage to property. After the surrender of the city the rebels entered and attacked the stores and residences on the six principal squares and completely wrecked them. The buildings afforded shelter to a large number of women and children, but the insurgents were heedless of the rules that govern civilized war and gave them no chance to escape, and pursued their work of destruction regardless of the frantic efforts of the occupants to seek places of safety. It is known that 200 women and children perished in the ruins of the sacked buildings. Insurgents seized the custom-house and then pillaged all the principal houses in the city.
