EASTERN ELECTIONS.

A Number of Bloody Affrays in Chicago.

REPUBLICAN MAYOR ELECTED

Kansas Gives Some Old Time Majorities for the Grand Old Party—The Alliance Cuts No Figure.

CHICAGO, April 7.—To-day has been the most exciting election held in Chicago for many years and according to the returns at midnight Hempstead Washburn, republican, is leader in the mayoralty fight by a safe plurality.

The democrats had a formidable split in their ranks by the independent candidacy of ex-mayor Harrison, but the republicans were not better off owing to a citizens movement, led by Elmer Washburn. Both Carter Harrison and Elmer Washburn, particularly the former, pulled a vote away from party politicians. It is said to have the secret support of a large number of the wealthy men of the city, who are backing the world's fair. His old-time strength with the foreign speaking populace especially Germans and Bohemians, also returned to him heavily.

Elmer Washburn's vote, while a surprise to machine politicians, was something of a disappointment to his friends, being confined more closely than was expected to the members of American societies. The turning point in the contest was to a considerable extent the Irish-American vote.

The day was marked by a number of bloody affrays. Even the bootblacks fought over politics. Frank Gallo, aged 14, was stabbed and seriously injured by another boy named Clements, because Gallo abused Clements' candidate, Thomas Haskell was shot and fatally wounded at the polling place by Ben Supple, in a political quarrel. In a free-for-all fight, James Scott, colored, was shot and fatally injured. J. B. Clark became involved in a dispute and was fatally beaten.

Four hundred and fifty precincts were counted. Harrison, 35,502; Washburn, 41,733; Elmer Washburn, 29,733; Morgan, 17,811.

BACK IN THE RANKS.

Kansas Gives Some Old-Time Republican Majorities.

—Elections were held in Kansas to-day in all cities of first and second classes. Although without general political significance, the results of the election is regarded with considerable interest for two reasons.

First, because the citizens' alliance has tickets in the field and is fighting all other parties. The citizens' alliance is really a branch of the farmers' alliance. It is composed of that element in cities, which would join the farmers' alliance, but for the fact that the constitution of the latter organization will admit none but farmers. The other element in the election which attaches interest to it is a fact that women, under the laws of Kansas, are allowed equal suffrage with men in municipal elections.

Women's interest in politics and activity at the polls has increased with each election. The registration of women at the present election exceeded any former registration. Women continued their interest in the election to voting and only in a few cases did any of them resort to practical activity at the polls. This activity was confined to a few citizens' alliance female leaders. The number of negroes that voted in Kansas City, Kansas, was notable. They marched to the polls with as much if not more pride as their white sisters, and exercised their rights of suffrage with satisfaction, peculiar to their race. Dispatches from other large cities of Kansas indicate that the vote of women compared to the registration was proportionate to the male vote. Most of the women had their tickets prepared at home or at places of meeting, and their presence at the polls was only long enough to permit them to deposit their ballots.

Returns from several cities show that the citizens' alliance did not cut much of a figure, excepting where it endorsed the democratic nominees. In those places they were successful in electing the democratic ticket. Albany is the only city reporting a citizens' alliance victory. Returns from Leavenworth show that the entire republican ticket is elected. This is the first republican victory for six years in that vicinity. At Lawrence the republicans were also successful. They elected their full ticket with the exception of two members of the council, which were elected by the citizens' alliance. At Clay Center, the republicans defeated the citizens' alliance, and at Wichita the democrats carried everything. Atchison elects republican officers, and Olathe a mixed set of officers, and the republicans in control. At Ottawa all parties combined against the republicans, but the latter were successful.

Some Old Time Majorities.

OMAHA, April 7.—All over Nebraska to-day the municipal elections were held under the new law, which embraces the Australian plan of voting. Reports from nearly every city and village in the state indicate that the law is one of the best ever devised. The returns so far show a general resumption of power by the republicans where party lines were drawn.

Republicans Scoop Everything.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 7.—In a municipal election to-day the republicans elected the whole ticket.

A Quiet Election.

MILWAUKEE, April 7.—The election in this city to-day was for justice of the supreme court. Political lines were not drawn. S. U. Pinney was nominated by a convention of lawyers, and E. S. Ellis was the candidate of the democratic politicians. Both candidates were democrats. The vote was light, but dispatches to the Sentinel from all parts of the state point to Pinney's election.

Republican Gains.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 7.—The republicans elected R. D. Lawrence mayor. The democrats got the remainder of the city ticket. The republicans gain two aldermen.

In Missouri.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 7.—The mayor and city ticket was elected by the republicans. The democrats secure control of the council.

Bad Weather at Sea.

LOSANOS, April 7.—The British ship Mount Carmel, from Oregon, arrived at Bristol, and reports having experienced heavy weather. The cargo is damaged. The British ship Kate E. Troop, from Oregon, has arrived at Dunkirk with 100 sacks of wheat badly damaged.

G. A. R. Encampment.

PORTLAND, April 7.—About 300 people met to-night on the steamer R. K. Thompson for Astoria, to attend the G. A. R. encampment, which convenes to-morrow.

A DOUBLE SUICIDE.

TWO YOUNG WOMEN FOUND DEAD TOGETHER.

Clasped in Each Others Arms with a Bullet Through Their Hearts—No Reason Known.

SANTA FE, N. M., April 7.—Details of a tragedy seen at White Oaks, N. M., reaches here to-day, which two young and handsome women, formerly of Liberty, Mo., were the actors. Some two years ago Miss Portia Hill came from Liberty to serve as a governess in the family of Mrs. Ellis. At the end of a year she married Howard Doyle, a brother of Mrs. Ellis and a prominent ranchman. On their bridal tour they met an old friend of the bride, Miss Jessie Ridgley, who replaced Mrs. Doyle as governess in the E. L.'s home. Last Sunday Mrs. Doyle came on a visit to Miss Ridgley, and the two were seen in a long conversation at various times during the day, avoiding the other members of the family. In the afternoon they went for a walk, and in an old corral near their dead bodies were discovered in each others arms, and between them was a revolver. No reason is known for the deed.

REMITTING OLD SILVER.

The Banks Refusing to Take Them On Balances.

NEW YORK, April 7.—A Boston special says: "The government is remitting money refunded to the states under a direct tax bill, in old silver certificates, issued under the Bland seventy-cent dollar act. The state of Maine's $350,000 came here last night, and part of it was offered in settlement of balances at the clearing house and was refused. The banks have a verbal understanding not to use silver in the settlement of balances, but the act of '82 provides that no banking association shall refuse these certificates, hence the fears of bringing banks to a silver basis are current. The matter has caused much discussion and the outcome will be watched with interest.

NEW BONDS.

To Better Secure All Parties and Properties.

BOSTON, April 7.—A circular issued from the Atchison office to-day to the first preferred stockholders of the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad company, in which it is announced that to provide for certain deficiencies and to place the company and properties in a sound financial and physical condition, the management of the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad company has decided to issue a new consolidated per cent. bond, covering all properties, equipment, land and realties, in the amount of $50,000,000, subject to prior liens of the present outstanding mortgages.

ALL FROM A MATCH.

Eleven Hungarians Terribly Burned in a Gas Explosion.

FOUR FATALLY INJURED.

The Gas Leaked From an Unused Pipe of the Natural Gas Company at Braddock.

BRADDOCK, Pa., April 7.—At 4 o'clock this morning an explosion of natural gas occurred in a row of houses on Irwin alley, near Thirteenth street, owned by John Eschler. One house was badly wrecked and eleven men terribly burned. The physicians say that four of them have received fatal injuries. One of them attempted to jump from a second-story window and was badly cut with glass about the arms and head, and his legs and back sprained by the fall. All of the men are Hungarians, and with one exception, have families living in the Old Country. What was left of the building and contents by the explosion was destroyed by fire and water. The explosion is traceable to the neglect of the employees of the Natural Gas Company in failing to properly disconnect the house pipes from the street main, on which they were working last evening.

DEATH OF A CLERGYMAN.

Well Known to Literature and Learning.

NEW YORK, April 6.—Rev. Edward Dorr Griffin Prime, D. D., died this morning.

Edward Dorr Griffin Prime was born in Cambridge, N. Y., Nov. 2, 1814, was graduated at Union in 1832, and at Princeton theological seminary in 1838, and was pastor of the Presbyterian churches at Scotchtown, N. Y., and New York City. In April, 1853, to allow his brother, Irenes, to go abroad for his health, he took his place as editor of the Observer, with which he had corresponded for several years under the signature of "Euclid." He continued his connection with that journal until his brother's death in 1885, acting as associate editor, but spent the winter of 1854-'55 in Rome as chaplain of the American embassy. On the death of his brother, he became editor of the Observer, but he was compelled by illness to resign in 1880. Dr. Prime received the degree of D. D. from Jefferson college, Pa., in 1858. Besides contributing anonymously to several volumes, he has published "Around the World: Travel Through Many Lands and Over Many Seas" (New York, 1872); "Forty Years of the Turkish Empire, or Annals of Rev. William Goddard, D. D." (1876); and "Notes, Genealogical, Biographical, and Bibliographical, of the Prime Family" (printed privately, New York, 1888).

HOW SWIFT DIED.

It Was Heart Failure Brought On by Influenza.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—The particulars of the death of John F. Swift, United States minister to Japan, arrived here to-day on the steamer Rio de Janeiro. Mr. Swift had been prostrated by an attack of influenza early in the year, but was supposed to have entirely recovered. On March 10 he complained of a pain in the region of the heart and went to bed. That night, while talking to Mrs. Swift, he suddenly expired, without further warning. Death was attributed to heart failure. The body was taken to Yokohama, where it was received with great honors. As the funeral procession was held in the United States steamer Alliance. The funeral arrangements were made by the American colony, and were participated in by the Japanese officials, foreign and diplomatic corps and the American legation, Admiral Belknap and staff. The funeral services were held in the American Episcopal church at Tokio March 13th. The remains are only temporarily interred at Yokohama and will be conveyed to California.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Two Little Girls Set Themselves on Fire with Coal Oil.

PLATTSVILLE, Colo., April 7.—An accident occurred last night resulting in the death of Myrtle and Lottie Lumry, aged 6 and 4 years. Both children were busily engaged in starting a fire in the kitchen stove and used coal oil. The can exploded, setting fire to both the little girls. The baby was rescued from death by Myrtle, who snatched it from the floor, while she herself was burning, and placed the baby between a feather bed and a straw tick, smothering the flames, and saving the life of the infant.

AN EVENTFUL CAREER

Senator George T. Edmunds, of Vermont, Resigns.

25 YEARS IN THE U. S. SENATE.

He Expresses Gratitude for the Long and Unwavering Confidence and Support Given Him.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Senator George T. Edmunds, of Vermont, who has been in the United States senate since April 1866, and has nearly, if not quite, all of that time been one of the republican leaders, has resigned to take effect the first of November next. In his letter to the governor, he says: "In this terminating of my official relations with the state I beg to express to her steadfast, intelligent and patriotic citizens my profound gratitude for the long and unwavering confidence and support they have given me, covering an eventful period of a quarter of a century, in my efforts to promote and defend so far as I have been able their honor and welfare, in common with that of all people of the United States. In ceasing to be a senator I am proud that I continue to be a citizen of our beloved commonwealth, and that I may, with my fellow citizens in private life, continue to strive for the maintenance of those principles of liberty, equality and justice in the government, which have without a shadow of turning animated them from the foundation of the republic.

AMONG THE STRIKERS.

Several Plants Partially Resumed Work Yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, April 7.—Reports from different sections of the coke country show a light gain for the operators for this second day of resumption, after the paralysis that followed the Morewood fatality. Citizens of the region are preparing to hold meetings and demand some sure settlement, as the business of the region is ruined. Tables have been prepared showing that the miners lost in wages during the eight weeks' strike, $1,200,000, while the operators' loss and neglect is incalculable; still the operators seem determined to resume at their terms, while the miners say they will not go back unless started out. Several plants have partially resumed to-day.

THE CURTAIN FALLS

AND P. T. BARNUM IS IN THE OTHER WORLD.

He Passed Away Yesterday at His Home in Bridgeport, Connecticut—An Eventful Life.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 7.—P. T. Barnum died at 6:22 this morning.

Phineas Taylor Barnum was born in Bethel, Conn., July 5, 1810. He went into business at the early age of 13. He was married in 1829, and a short time thereafter commenced the publication of a weekly newspaper, entitled "The Herald of Freedom." Later Mr. Barnum travelled through the South with small shows, which were generally unsuccessful. In 1842 he first heard of Charles S. Stratton, of Bridgeport, Conn., then less than two feet high and weighing sixteen pounds, who soon became known to the world under the directorship of Mr. Barnum, as Tom Thumb. He also introduced Jenny Lind to the American people, thereby making a fortune. He was the founder of "P. T. Barnum's Greatest Show on Earth." He was four times a member of the Connecticut legislature and mayor of Bridgeport.

KILLED BY HIS MISTRESS.

San Francisco Saloon Keeper Shot Dead by a Woman.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—Maggie Getty, a young woman, 19 or 20 years of age, shot and killed Wm. DeRose, better known as "La Chapelier," last night in the latter's saloon. No one, so far as heard of, witnessed the murder, an account of which is given by the woman herself. She and DeRose have been living together for some time past, and last night, so she says, he went home drunk and accused her of being too friendly with other men; then, suddenly seizing his pistol, he fired at her but missed her. She sprang upon him, and, after a short struggle, succeeded in getting possession of the weapon and fired two shots at him, both of which struck him in the breast, causing death in a few moments. She locked up the house and was about to leave, when she was arrested by Officer Gordon. DeRose was about 45 years old.

SUICIDE AT THE DALLES.

He Was Formerly an Oregon Pacific Railroad Engineer.

THE DALLES, April 7.—R. C. Patterson was arrested last night by the marshal, who supposed he was drunk. Soon after being lodged in jail the man died. The coroner's jury found that death resulted from an overdose of morphine. He was formerly a locomotive engineer and leaves a family at Yaquina Bay.

Indian Agents Appointed.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Edgar J. Somerville and Jas. B. Eddy, of Pendleton, Or., have been appointed special agents to allot lands in severally to the confederated bands of Cayuse, Walla Walla and Umatilla Indians, residing on the Umatilla reservation, Oregon.

THE PORTAGE RAILWAY.

A Great Deal of Interest Is Being Taken in the Matter.

PORTLAND, April 7.—Considerable importance is attached to the conference to be held at the Chamber of Commerce to-morrow, to consider the advisability of removing the obstruction to navigation in the Columbia river. The subject of the meeting is set forth in a circular issued by the Chamber of Commerce committee of arrangements, which says that the merchants and citizens of Portland have decided to call a meeting of representatives from the districts most interested for the purpose of a consultation and if possible, the devising of some effective means by which at least a temporary mode of overcoming these obstructions may be accomplished. Concisely stated; the proposition is to get hold of the Union Pacific portage around the Cascades on Washington side, if possible, and build another portage between The Dalles and Celilo, for which the legislature recently appropriated $60,000 and put a line of steamers into service on the upper and lower Columbia and Snake rivers between Lewiston, Idaho, and Portland and enter into competition with the Union and Northern Pacific railroad companies, for the transportation of the products of the country to Oregon and Washington seaboard.

President Osborn has received answers from invitations sent to Astoria, The Dalles, Pendleton and Grants in Oregon, Walla Walla and Colfax in Washington, and Moscow, Idaho, and looks for a large attendance.

John Gill, one of the Portland delegates to the meeting, says that the $60,000 appropriated by the legislature for portage purposes, will be sufficient. The object of the plans now under consideration, Gill estimates the total cost, including cost of the steamer service, at $1,750,000. He is confident that this amount can be raised in Oregon and Washington.

Gives Permission.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The secretary of the treasury has given permission for cording and sealing at Little Falls, Wash., of railroad supplies obtained at Spokane Falls, Wash., which are taken through the Canadian territory, and re-enter the United States at Bonner's ferry, Idaho.

The Markets.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—Wheat—Shipping $1.53 1/2 @ $1.55; milling $1.60 per cental.

PORTLAND, April 7.—Wheat, valley $1.35 @ 1.39 1/2; Walla Walla, $1.30 @ 1.32 1/2.

One Hundredth Anniversary.

Huntington in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—C. P. Huntington, president of the Southern Pacific railroad, arrived here to-day from New York.

Julius Gradwohl keeps at his
