ITALIAN RUPTURE

More Warlike News Received from Italy.
AMERICANS TO BE EXPELLED.
The Champions of the Mafia Assassins Threaten to Withdraw their Entire Legation from Washington.

Rome, April 10.—It is reported that if the United States government does not answer the Marquis Imperiale's note by tomorrow, the American legation will be ordered to leave Italy, and the whole Italian legation in Washington will be recalled, and the Italian interests be left in charge of the British minister.

PREPARING FOR WAR.

The Great Powers Massing Troops on the Frontier.
London, April 10.—A Vienna dispatch says the assurance of the official press as to the prolongation of peace does not agree with the war office presents a war-like appearance and movements of troops are going on all over the empire. The chief direction being toward the Galician frontier, where it is expected that Austria will have 250,000 men massed before the end of May, to watch the movements of the Russians. The Austrian authorities are said to be deeply perplexed for a general, there being no man of marked military reputation high in command, while it is feared that the rapid promotion of Count Hartman of Bulgaria, might give offense to other commanders. The official press is correct in saying that there is no official evidence that the peace of Europe will be broken. At the same time the three powers, Germany, Austria and Russia, are getting bodies of troops in convenient reach for hostilities should occasion occur.

A MOB'S FURY

AN OHIO MURDERER TAKEN FROM JAIL AND HANGED.
One Hundred Men Overpower the Sheriff and Suspend the Murderer to a Limb.

Kenton, O., April 10.—A mob containing about 100 men hanged William Bates this morning. The men assembled about 1 o'clock, and the door of the county jail was battered in, and about 75 men entered. The sheriff was overpowered and Bates was taken from his cell and hurried across the road. A rope was put around his neck, thrown over the limb of a tree, and Bates was pulled from his feet and left hanging. He begged pitifully for mercy, but the men were resolute. The mob was an orderly one and did no further damage. Bates and two accomplices were taken to the jail, and a coroner's jury was called.

TROUBLE AMONG SETTLERS.

A Washington Agent Threatens to Burn Their Houses.
Tacoma, April 10.—Agent Ellis, of the Payallup Indian reservation today ordered four men, who had staked out homesteads on the reservation, to leave the land, to leave. He gave them till 1 o'clock to move and said that unless they did so he would return at that hour and forcibly eject them, and burn their buildings. The reason the settlers by their attorney entered a complaint in the superior court against Ellis, asking that a temporary restraining order be issued to prevent Ellis from carrying his threat into execution. Judge Allen issued the order to Agent Ellis.

Swamp Land Decision.

Portland, April 10.—In the case of Henry Miller vs. Paul Lochet, Fred Lunaber, John L. Johnson, G. F. Haines and John H. Page in the United States circuit court today judgment was rendered for the plaintiff for want of answer for possession of lands and for costs. The defendants are squatters, who attempted to obtain possession of certain tracts of land in southern Oregon, which the plaintiff had purchased as swamp land.

KANSAS ALLIANCE

Proposes to Build a Trunk Line Railroad.
TO BE BUILT BY THE STATE.
Counties to Put in Branch Lines—Reaching the Rest of the Difficulty at Once—Bald Movement.

KANSAS CITY, April 10.—The most unique and daring plan that has yet been evolved by the farmers' alliance is the proposed scheme to build a trunk railroad across the state. It is expected that this proposition will be made the issue of the next political fight in Kansas by the alliance. The plan is for the state government to construct a trunk line about 200 miles long and for the counties to build a net work of branches that will touch every important point in the state.

ANNIE DICKINSON.

Her Incarceration Was Not Illegal.
PHILADELPHIA, April 10.—The story that Annie Dickinson was a sane woman when she was committed to the Danville insane asylum, and that her commitment was irregular, that the state lunatic laws were, in her case, flagrantly violated and that the Philadelphia physicians and officials were coerced into an unjustified incarceration, is being denied here, a letter in which Miss Dickinson says she sent to the chairman and the secretary of the state board of charities, Doctors Mortimer Wetmore and Dr. Wetmore who visited her immediately in company with the attorney of the board, Mr. Barlow, Dr. Wetmore to-day said: "We found Miss Dickinson installed in the most comfortable ward of the whole institution. The interview was necessarily brief because she declined to talk to us or at least would say very little. When not actually talking to us she walked excitedly up and down the room, giving utterances to incoherent words and phrases and acting in exactly the manner that insane people are accustomed to act. Neither Mr. Barlow, nor myself had the slightest doubt she was deranged, and from a personal knowledge of her case we think she is entirely sane now. Speaking from what I saw of her only, I will say it is very probable that she is insane at the present time. Dr. Seward, of New York, I see, is to testify to the sane view of the case, and in the absence of another examination of Miss Dickinson, I cannot speak positively of her condition."

A SERIOUS CHALLENGE.

The Lady Managers of the World's Fair in Arms.
CHICAGO, April 10.—Miss Phoebe Cousins, secretary of the board of lady managers, still holds the fort at the world's fair headquarters, determined to assert her rights as secretary of the executive committee, to which place said committee elected Miss Cook the other day. A local paper says that differences have existed for a long time between the president, Mrs. Palmer, and the secretary, Miss Cousins. The latter, it is said, has upon several occasions refused to sign communications unless the pronoun "we" was used referring to herself and president. Mrs. Palmer, it is reported, has tried to friends, in talking to Miss Cousins, "I cannot quarrel with her and can only close the door in her face."

THE CHICAGO ELECTION.

Judge of Election Arrested for Breaking a Ballot-Box.
CHICAGO, April 10.—Owing to the absence of Attorney Sugg, the board of election commissioners postponed the canvass today until tomorrow morning. Both republicans and democrats continue to charge each other with fraud in more or less definite ways. Colonel Nye, chairman of the republican campaign committee, accompanied by State Attorney Longnecker, today applied to Judge Tuttle for a bench warrant for the arrest of Dennis Sheehan, a democratic judge of election, who is said to have broken open a ballot box after the polls closed. The judge at once signed the warrant, and it was given to a deputy sheriff to serve.

Confirming the delusion and also that friends in West Pittston and vicinity will testify that she has devoted her life for years to the welfare and interests of Anna. She answers all charges made against her by Anna, and says the latter has been denigrated for some time, but it was only when she became violent that she concluded to have her placed in an asylum.
