ANOTHER BARN BURNED BY INCENDIARIES.

More Evidence of the Presence of Fire Bugs in the City—The Department Crippled.

At 8 o'clock last evening the cry of fire was again heard, and the alarm called out the department and citizens on the double quick. The fire was discovered to have again been started in a barn. This time it was a barn owned by the Oregon Pacific Railroad Co., back of the Russ House, and used by C. Houck. When first seen the fire was well advanced, and it spread so rapidly that none of the contents could be saved.

A cow was burned to death, also a dozen chickens and a quantity of feed, a cart, wagon and smaller articles were burned. There was no insurance on the contents, and it is thought there was none on the barn. The loss will probably be $100.

There is no doubt that the fire was of incendiary origin. Immediately after the fire was discovered two persons were seen running down the railroad track away from the barn.

This fire emphasizes the certain fact that Albany is infested with the presence of some fire bug, or bugs, who have a particular delight in setting barns on fire. The fire which destroyed three barns Friday night was of incendiary origin, as have been several other small fires recently. A few evenings ago Mr. J. B. Patterson saw a small blaze in his barn, and hastening out found a pile of hay burning brightly. He extinguished it without trouble. This incendiary whoever he is, if found, will find a very chilly spring.

The police are keeping a vigilant watch, and these villains are sure to be caught if they continue their nefarious work.

To make matters worse, the fire department is just now in a crippled condition, engine No. 2 being disabled and out of service. Engine No. 1 worked badly last night, and the evening before last night both engines were with Engine No. 1, but the machine seemed to be on a tear and worked very badly.

This state of things ought to be promptly remedied, and the police force kept especially alert to prevent a fire possibly more destructive.

LATER.—The police had reasons to suspect that a lot of boys, calling themselves "the sewer gang, or the dirty dozen," were the incendiaries, and late last night, one of their number, Roy Bentley, was locked up by Chief of Police Hoffman and questioned closely. The boy, who is about 15 years old, denied any knowledge of the origin of the fire. He admitted that the gang had stolen chickens and committed petty thefts, but denied any connection with this or any previous fires, and he was released.

This gang is regularly organized and it is said take a terrible black oath on becoming members. It is composed of youngsters ranging in age from 12 to 15 years, who yearn to be pirates bold, or brigands of the worst stripe. Early correction would be wholesome treatment for them.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.—The services at the Y. M. C. A. hall this afternoon at 4 o'clock will be of an interesting character. Subject for consideration, "Waterman, what of the night?" Leader, Mr. Fred Fortmiller. The music of the services will be greatly added to by the use of cornets.

The anniversary exercises of the Young Men's Christian Association of Albany, will be held in the opera house this evening at 7:30 o'clock. By consent of the various churches this will be a union service, and an invitation is extended to all to attend. A very interesting program will be rendered consisting of music by the Appollons, remarks by the president of the association, Prof. W. H. Lee, and an address on the subject of "Young Men in Religion," by Prof. H. A. Shorey, of Portland. Programmes will be distributed at the door. Let every one bring their Gospel Hymns No. 5.

Board of Trade Meeting.—The board of trade will hold a meeting Monday evening at the city council chambers to consider the question of sending an energetic man to Portland to direct immigrants towards Albany. It is proposed to employ a man to represent the interests of the city and county at the metropolis for a term of three months. The board will also take some action to secure printed matter advertising the city.

Harrisburg Hotel.—The Copia hotel at Harrisburg, says the Courier, is no more. When the new proprietress, Mrs. M. J. Morrison took charge of the house last Monday she re-christened it the "Lyndel House," nor is this the only change that is being made, the furniture throughout is to be replaced by new, and the building will be remodeled, repaired and repainted inside and out. Mrs. Morrison is an experienced and pleasant hostess; she will make the Lyndel a first-class house.

There will be services at the Congregational this evening at 11 o'clock as usual. Subject for the discourse, "The obscurity of Christ's life." No services in the evening at this church, on account of the Y. M. C. A. exercises in the opera house.

Shoulder Broken.—Mr. John Morgan, living near Sheld, started for Albany Friday with a four-horse load of grain. The horses became frightened and ran away. Mr. Morgan was thrown to the ground and his shoulder was broken. The horses ran about four miles before they were finally stopped and the oats was strewn along the road. Mr. Morgan was injured in a runaway accident a few months ago, and his injury was the re-breaking of the shoulder fractured at that time.

It Pays to Behave.—The convict who doesn't walk straight stands in his own light very much. He can make two months off of one year, eight off of three, fourteen off of five, and so on. The mechanic who could get a year's pay for ten months' work would consider that he had a snap.

Ackle Dislocated.—At the fire Friday night, Charles Scott, son of Sheriff M. Scott, fell from a ladder dislocating his ankle. The injury was quite severe and the limb was set the next morning by Dr. Maston.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

What Society Has Been Doing During the Week.

The longest day is in June they say; The shortest in December. They did not come to me that way; The shortest I remember. You came a day with me to stay. And filled my heart with laughter; The longest day, you were away; The very next day after.

The Misses Hattie and Lita Galbraith gave a most delightful whist party at their residence Wednesday evening. The spacious parlors were tastefully decorated with evergreens. Whist was played by those present in the early part of the evening, after which dancing was indulged in to the sweet tones of the violin and guitar. About 10 o'clock an elegant lunch was served, after which dancing was resumed. Miss Minnie Van Horn sang, "A Curl from Baby's Head" in her usual pleasing manner, and some very pretty instrumental music was rendered. Those present were: Miss Bertha Ellis, Miss Tina Monteith, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Monteith, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goff, Mr. and Mrs. Will McCulloch, Miss Lora Vance, Miss Lee Prather, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Searis, Misses Anna and Sophia Houck, Miss Pearl Vance, Miss Sarah Owenby, Miss Lillian Hackleman, Messrs. J. A. Cumming, Robert Strong, J. A. Wilson, Alex Rennie, E. G. Lorillard, George Moorehouse, D. M. Large, Arthur Peacock.

A large number were present at the W. C. T. U. hall Friday evening, the occasion being a shoe social given by the ladies of the Christian church. The chief feature of the evening was eating lunch out of a slipper, which was novel to say the least. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

A few friends of Miss Sarah Ashby assembled at her residence Wednesday evening and gave her a most delightful surprise. The evening was pleasantly spent in social conversation and music.

The social given Friday evening at the residence of W. L. Vance, was as beautiful as it was unique. The parlors were decorated beautifully with different colored cards, running in all directions, making a striking imitation of spider webs, and was truly as enticing as the parlor into which the fly of old was allured. Beginning at one end the victims, who seemed far from loth to being caught, would follow the cord in its mysterious wanderings until the end was reached, when the article there attached was the property of the lucky ones. An elegant lunch was served.

A very pleasant card party was given Wednesday evening at the residence of E. S. Sibley. A few friends were present and a very enjoyable evening passed.

At the residence of Mrs. C. Houck Monday evening a farewell party was given Mrs. Dr. E. L. Irvine, previous to her departure for her home in Portland. The evening was very enjoyably passed in social conversation and playing whist and kindred games. Some very beautiful music was rendered. Following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Monteith, Mrs. J. L. Cowan, Miss Lee Prather, Misses Anna and Sophia Houck, J. A. Cumming, M. H. Phillips, J. A. Wilson.

At the residence of Miss Lora Vance on Sixth street, Tuesday evening a few friends spent the evening playing whist and kindred games. The affair was a very pleasant one. A portion of the evening was devoted to social and instrumental music, after which light refreshments were served.

OREGON AND THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Every County in the State Asked to Join in a Meeting on June 16.

The committee of the State Board of Agriculture, consisting of J. T. Apperson, Van B. Delashmitt, D. S. K. Buick and W. F. M. Lock, have issued the following which is self-explanatory.

Whereas, the undersigned, a special committee appointed by the State Board of Agriculture to prepare the issue a call, whereby at an early day we could secure, if possible, the co-operation of all the people in having Oregon's material interests properly represented at the World's Columbian Exposition to be held at Chicago in 1893, and believing it to be important that Oregon should take some action wherein we could unite and secure necessary means to furnish and plan, whereby said exhibit could be made creditable to the state, we respectfully request the county courts of the respective counties of this state to designate and secure, if possible, the attendance of one or more delegates to represent said county at a meeting to be held at the Chamber of Commerce in the city of Portland, on June 16th, at 11 o'clock a. m., no county being entitled to more than five delegates. We would most earnestly urge upon the boards of trade in each county and all good citizens to co-operate with and act in conjunction with each other in securing the proper representation to attend said meeting, so that each section of the state may assist in determining the best means to secure the object and purpose of this call. We are of the opinion that this is a matter of vast importance to all classes of our population and we feel assured that if we can secure a meeting of the representative men of each county in the state, that they will be able to agree upon some method whereupon the people of the state can unite for accomplishment of the object and purpose of this call. It remains for your representatives when assembled to determine the cost, and manner of accomplishing the great object in view, and we confidently expect the co-operation and assistance of every citizen of the state, including the public press.

The people of Oregon must move in this matter if they wish to keep pace with the procession of other Pacific coast states. We respectfully request the press of the state to give publicity to the above call, so that we will not be under the necessity of writing personal letters to any one in this connection.

Albany's Wheat Market.—Referring to Albany's shipping facilities the Dalles Times-Mountaineer says: "The benefits of an open river can be appreciated when it is known that wheat brings 72 cents in Albany, nearly as distant from Portland as The Dalles, and only 62 1/2 cents in this city. The reason for this is the cheapness of transportation because of the river being free to producers." It is not only the Willamette river, but a railroad direct to the sea, and another competing line to Portland, together with competing boats that enables Albany to pay more for wheat than towns either to the north or south of us. Wheat is today worth 80 cents, instead of 72 as quoted by the Times-Mountaineer. The Albany wheat market has been several cents in advance of neighboring towns since the advent of the Oregon Pacific railroad to this city.
