

IS LIFE WORTH LIVING? IS MONEY WORTH SAVING? None of Us Earn it so Easy as to be able to Throw it Away.

T. L. WALLACE & CO., Albany's Leading Clothiers.

We will not wait until the end of the season to Knife Prices, but begin right now, TODAY, as if as they never been knifed before.

SUPERB

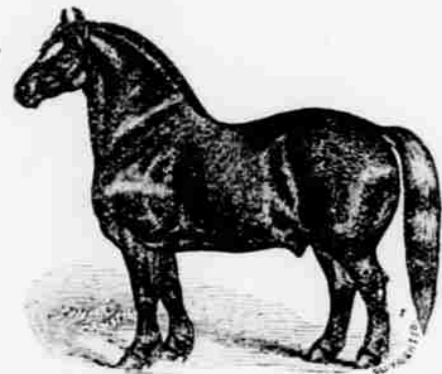

Our beautiful all new spring stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing hats and furnishing goods is nothing less than par excellence.

Spring Styles in Boys' and Children's Clothing

In this department we are complete with the latest styles in children's wear, and moreover, if you'll take the time and look through our massive assortment in boys' clothing, you'll be money in pocket for the trouble.

We have sole agency HANAN & SON'S fine shoes and carry for the celebrated

T. L. WALLACE & CO., The birthplace of great and honest bargains, Strahan Block, Albany.

TITUS

Many of our horsemen have given it as their judgment that Titus, Blumberg's black percheron stallion stands at the head in his class.

Do Not Pass By!

WE HAVE A FEW

WINTER GARMENTS

That we will sell at

REDUCED RATES! REDUCED RATES!

FURNISHING GOODS,

VELVETS, SILKS, SATINS AND FLUSHES, LADIES' AND MISSES SILK AND KNOT UNDERWEAR, COTTON AND WOOL HOSE, EMBROIDERIES, SILK AND LINES HANDKERCHIEFS, SCARFS, VEILINGS, SHAWLS, ETC.

BLACK AND COLORED DRESS GOODS!

G. W. SIMPSON, FIRST STREET, ALBANY, OREGON.

CURE

Warranted to cure

The generative organs of either sex, whether arising from the excessive use of stimulants, tobacco or opium, or the result of a natural inclination, over indulgence, etc., such as loss of brain power, weakness, bearing down points to the back, seminal weakness, etc.

CLARKSON TALKS

He Reviews the Presidential Situation of Two Years Hence.

KIND WORDS FOR HARRISON

The West is Referred to As the Republican Seat of Power—Young Men Should Participate in Politics.

Boston, April 23.—The Herald has a long interview with President-elect Clarkson, of the republican league.

Clarkson says in part: "The failure of the young men to participate in politics is a weakness of the republican party in New England. I believe New England democracy has out-generated its republican opponents in that respect. They have as leaders the sons of the fathers of republicanism."

"The republican party must utilize their young men. The labor question will figure in the next campaign and ought to. Wealth should be more evenly distributed."

"By you interpret the Cincinnati convention as following Blaine instead of Harrison?"

"I was not at the convention so I cannot assume to judge of its sentiments," was the rejoinder.

"It is said you are personally opposed to Blaine as against the re-nomination of President Harrison?"

"I have no personal choice for president," replied Clarkson.

"Does this indicate the mark, if the silver question is settled the situation will be greatly cleared."

"The seat of republican power, the West, will never consent to see the treasury of the country dwarfed to a gold basis. The West will not consent to any candidate or platform that will not represent a double standard idea, and no republican will consent to a platform that will not represent silver as money by the coinage of American product. With such a position on the money question, and with a position for the revision of the banking laws, so as to make our banking advantages favorable to agricultural communities, cities and towns, and with the purpose to provide good money and enough of it, the republican party will hold the best card for the party as it was in '88, while the McKinley bill will carry New York and the doubtful states. The next republican candidate for president must be a man broad enough to cover this land and able to address the people in plain English, and to make our interests with true regard to national interest. President Harrison has made a faithful executive in every public sense, and is wanting only in personal popularity, which gives a man of power the electricity of his political influence. His ability is not second to any American living today, not even to his phenomenal secretary of state. The republican candidate must be a man who can maintain the solidarity of the party in the great agricultural regions of the Mississippi. Farmers are going to assert themselves in public affairs."

Clarkson said he believed Cleveland would be the next democratic candidate in '92. Said Clarkson, "I am sure that the republican newspaper circulation in the programme of circulating millions of arguments directly to the houses of the voters."

READY TO BACK DOWN.

The Italian Premier is Sorry He Made a Bluff.

LONDON, April 23.—According to Rome advices the Italian premier gave Baron Fava a cool welcome. Rudini appreciates that he has made a bluff, and is anxious to throw the blame on the king. It is reported in Rome that the king's question now affecting the cabinet is how to get out of the American difficulty with the least disgrace. The latest dispatches from Imperiali at Washington are said to foretell that even a money indemnity will be paid to the families of the massacred Italians, the temper of the American people being such that congress would not dare to make an appropriation. Imperiali has forwarded statements that have greatly surprised the cabinet, showing, as he does, that no fear is felt whatever of Italy's fleet.

PARIS, April 23.—A dispatch to Temps from Rome says that Baron Fava in his report on the New Orleans affair expressed the belief that there is no way out of the situation, as the federal government has no power to give Italy the satisfaction demanded.

FARMERS TAKEN IN.

Benton County Men Swindled Out of $800 by Green Goods Fakirs.

ORON, April 23.—It has just been learned that "Green goods" swindlers obtained about $800 from farmers living in Blodgett valley.

MISS GREELEY MARRIED.

The Daughter of the Founder of the "Tribune" Led to the Altar.

PLEASANTVILLE, N. Y., April 23.—Miss Gabrielle Greeley, daughter of Horace Greeley, founder of the New York Tribune, was married this morning to Rev. Frank Mont-

GREAT EXCITEMENT.

The Soldiers at Walla Walla Attempt to Mob a Murderer.

THREATS OF VIOLENCE MADE.

Fifty Blue Coats Armed With Carbines Demand, That the Prisoner Be Delivered Over to Them.

WALLA WALLA, April 23.—Great excitement was caused among the soldiers here on account of the shooting of private, E. Miller last night by A. J. Hunt. Miller is rapidly growing worse and is not expected to live until morning. To-night the sheriff took Hunt and a notary public and went to the garrison hospital where they took the dying man's deposition. Owing to threats made by the soldiers, Captain Winate and five soldiers started to escort the sheriff and his prisoner back to town. When the sheriff got outside the reserve fifty soldiers armed with carbines, sprang out and demanded that Hunt be delivered up to them. Captain Winate directed the huckster to return to the guard house, and he then ordered the soldiers to the garrison. Captain Winate afterward detailed a company of sixty men, who escorted the sheriff back to the county jail where he locked up his prisoner. A large number of guards are on duty to-night, as it is feared the soldiers will make an attempt to kill Hunt.

WENT HOME MAD.

California's World Fair Commissioner Leaves in a Huff.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Mark McDonald, United States commissioner from California, has a tilt with the fair management this morning, and the upshot was McDonald left for home. The trouble arose over a resolution of the California commission passed April 17, in favor of a separate state display received by McDonald to-day, and laid before the directors. The world's fair officials object to separate state displays as tending to make a series of state fairs instead of a harmonious whole.

THE WHEAT MARKET.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Wheat, from $1.75 to $1.70 per cental, is about as near approximately range as can be given for good to choice shipping.

LIVERPOOL, April 23.—Wheat in fair demand; Kansas winter hard, ss 8d, steady.

HE IS ON HIS DIGNITY

PENNOYER WILL NOT MEET THE PRESIDENT.

On the Contrary, He Would Have the Chief Executive How Down to Oregon's Great Governor.

PORTLAND, April 23.—The Telegram this evening publishes the following: Governor Pennoyer was seen by a reporter to day, and was in a communicative mood. He was first asked about the re-nomination of President Harrison, whether he would meet the president on his arrival in Oregon. He said that he should do nothing of the sort. If he, the governor of Oregon, should visit Washington, nobody would expect the president to meet him at the outskirts of the city, or elsewhere, or at all; and there was no better reason why he, as governor of Oregon, should meet Mr. Harrison. Mr. Harrison, explained the governor, represents in his official capacity the official power and dignity of the federal government. "I, as governor of Oregon, represent the state of Oregon in the same way; we are equal; I have no business to go to pay homage to the contrary, when he visits Oregon, he should rather pay his respects to me, as my official executive."

"There is a good precedent, too, for this," said the governor. "It happened in the first administration, when Washington, while president, visited Boston. Hancock was then governor of Massachusetts, and it was proposed that he should go to receive and welcome the greatest man of the republic, President George Washington. He flatly refused to do so. He claimed that the president should first pay his respects to him, as governor of Massachusetts. The affair was finally compromised by their meeting 'half way,' and happily for the peace and dignity of the country, an open warfare was averted."

So the governor, while quite willing to pay all respectful attention to the president that his most exalted station deserves, will maintain the dignity of his own position, and let it be known that, while Mr. Harrison is president, he is also governor of Oregon. Governor Markham's speech he characterizes as not only unfitting and undignified, but probably made in the interest of real estate owners and agents.

The governor was then asked about the position of Oregon in regard to the Columbian exposition. He was not in favor of any appropriation, and he would not contribute one cent for an exhibit at Chicago; but if the people who wanted to do something for Oregon would raise $50,000 for the aid of the poor and struggling emigrants, who come here seeking homes, he would contribute $1000 for that purpose.

The governor when asked to-night about the interview regarding President Harrison's reception said: "I did not make the remarks for publication, but talked to a reporter in confidence. I regret exceedingly that the interview was published. I shall receive the president at the state house with all respect due his exalted position. I doubt, however, the propriety of governor's receiving the president at the state line."

The New Commander.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Brigadier General Thomas N. Ruger, the newly appointed commander of the division of the Pacific, arrived to-day from the north and assumed command.

CLARKSON TALKS

He Reviews the Presidential Situation of Two Years Hence.

KIND WORDS FOR HARRISON

The West is Referred to As the Republican Seat of Power—Young Men Should Participate in Politics.

Boston, April 23.—The Herald has a long interview with President-elect Clarkson, of the republican league.

Clarkson says in part: "The failure of the young men to participate in politics is a weakness of the republican party in New England. I believe New England democracy has out-generated its republican opponents in that respect. They have as leaders the sons of the fathers of republicanism."

"The republican party must utilize their young men. The labor question will figure in the next campaign and ought to. Wealth should be more evenly distributed."

"By you interpret the Cincinnati convention as following Blaine instead of Harrison?"

"I was not at the convention so I cannot assume to judge of its sentiments," was the rejoinder.

"It is said you are personally opposed to Blaine as against the re-nomination of President Harrison?"

"I have no personal choice for president," replied Clarkson.

"Does this indicate the mark, if the silver question is settled the situation will be greatly cleared."

"The seat of republican power, the West, will never consent to see the treasury of the country dwarfed to a gold basis. The West will not consent to any candidate or platform that will not represent a double standard idea, and no republican will consent to a platform that will not represent silver as money by the coinage of American product. With such a position on the money question, and with a position for the revision of the banking laws, so as to make our banking advantages favorable to agricultural communities, cities and towns, and with the purpose to provide good money and enough of it, the republican party will hold the best card for the party as it was in '88, while the McKinley bill will carry New York and the doubtful states. The next republican candidate for president must be a man broad enough to cover this land and able to address the people in plain English, and to make our interests with true regard to national interest. President Harrison has made a faithful executive in every public sense, and is wanting only in personal popularity, which gives a man of power the electricity of his political influence. His ability is not second to any American living today, not even to his phenomenal secretary of state. The republican candidate must be a man who can maintain the solidarity of the party in the great agricultural regions of the Mississippi. Farmers are going to assert themselves in public affairs."

Clarkson said he believed Cleveland would be the next democratic candidate in '92. Said Clarkson, "I am sure that the republican newspaper circulation in the programme of circulating millions of arguments directly to the houses of the voters."

READY TO BACK DOWN.

The Italian Premier is Sorry He Made a Bluff.

LONDON, April 23.—According to Rome advices the Italian premier gave Baron Fava a cool welcome. Rudini appreciates that he has made a bluff, and is anxious to throw the blame on the king. It is reported in Rome that the king's question now affecting the cabinet is how to get out of the American difficulty with the least disgrace. The latest dispatches from Imperiali at Washington are said to foretell that even a money indemnity will be paid to the families of the massacred Italians, the temper of the American people being such that congress would not dare to make an appropriation. Imperiali has forwarded statements that have greatly surprised the cabinet, showing, as he does, that no fear is felt whatever of Italy's fleet.

PARIS, April 23.—A dispatch to Temps from Rome says that Baron Fava in his report on the New Orleans affair expressed the belief that there is no way out of the situation, as the federal government has no power to give Italy the satisfaction demanded.

FARMERS TAKEN IN.

Benton County Men Swindled Out of $800 by Green Goods Fakirs.

ORON, April 23.—It has just been learned that "Green goods" swindlers obtained about $800 from farmers living in Blodgett valley.

MISS GREELEY MARRIED.

The Daughter of the Founder of the "Tribune" Led to the Altar.

PLEASANTVILLE, N. Y., April 23.—Miss Gabrielle Greeley, daughter of Horace Greeley, founder of the New York Tribune, was married this morning to Rev. Frank Mont-

GREAT EXCITEMENT.

The Soldiers at Walla Walla Attempt to Mob a Murderer.

THREATS OF VIOLENCE MADE.

Fifty Blue Coats Armed With Carbines Demand, That the Prisoner Be Delivered Over to Them.

WALLA WALLA, April 23.—Great excitement was caused among the soldiers here on account of the shooting of private, E. Miller last night by A. J. Hunt. Miller is rapidly growing worse and is not expected to live until morning. To-night the sheriff took Hunt and a notary public and went to the garrison hospital where they took the dying man's deposition. Owing to threats made by the soldiers, Captain Winate and five soldiers started to escort the sheriff and his prisoner back to town. When the sheriff got outside the reserve fifty soldiers armed with carbines, sprang out and demanded that Hunt be delivered up to them. Captain Winate directed the huckster to return to the guard house, and he then ordered the soldiers to the garrison. Captain Winate afterward detailed a company of sixty men, who escorted the sheriff back to the county jail where he locked up his prisoner. A large number of guards are on duty to-night, as it is feared the soldiers will make an attempt to kill Hunt.

WENT HOME MAD.

California's World Fair Commissioner Leaves in a Huff.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Mark McDonald, United States commissioner from California, has a tilt with the fair management this morning, and the upshot was McDonald left for home. The trouble arose over a resolution of the California commission passed April 17, in favor of a separate state display received by McDonald to-day, and laid before the directors. The world's fair officials object to separate state displays as tending to make a series of state fairs instead of a harmonious whole.

THE WHEAT MARKET.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Wheat, from $1.75 to $1.70 per cental, is about as near approximately range as can be given for good to choice shipping.

LIVERPOOL, April 23.—Wheat in fair demand; Kansas winter hard, ss 8d, steady.

HE IS ON HIS DIGNITY

PENNOYER WILL NOT MEET THE PRESIDENT.

On the Contrary, He Would Have the Chief Executive How Down to Oregon's Great Governor.

PORTLAND, April 23.—The Telegram this evening publishes the following: Governor Pennoyer was seen by a reporter to day, and was in a communicative mood. He was first asked about the re-nomination of President Harrison, whether he would meet the president on his arrival in Oregon. He said that he should do nothing of the sort. If he, the governor of Oregon, should visit Washington, nobody would expect the president to meet him at the outskirts of the city, or elsewhere, or at all; and there was no better reason why he, as governor of Oregon, should meet Mr. Harrison. Mr. Harrison, explained the governor, represents in his official capacity the official power and dignity of the federal government. "I, as governor of Oregon, represent the state of Oregon in the same way; we are equal; I have no business to go to pay homage to the contrary, when he visits Oregon, he should rather pay his respects to me, as my official executive."

"There is a good precedent, too, for this," said the governor. "It happened in the first administration, when Washington, while president, visited Boston. Hancock was then governor of Massachusetts, and it was proposed that he should go to receive and welcome the greatest man of the republic, President George Washington. He flatly refused to do so. He claimed that the president should first pay his respects to him, as governor of Massachusetts. The affair was finally compromised by their meeting 'half way,' and happily for the peace and dignity of the country, an open warfare was averted."

So the governor, while quite willing to pay all respectful attention to the president that his most exalted station deserves, will maintain the dignity of his own position, and let it be known that, while Mr. Harrison is president, he is also governor of Oregon. Governor Markham's speech he characterizes as not only unfitting and undignified, but probably made in the interest of real estate owners and agents.

The governor was then asked about the position of Oregon in regard to the Columbian exposition. He was not in favor of any appropriation, and he would not contribute one cent for an exhibit at Chicago; but if the people who wanted to do something for Oregon would raise $50,000 for the aid of the poor and struggling emigrants, who come here seeking homes, he would contribute $1000 for that purpose.

The governor when asked to-night about the interview regarding President Harrison's reception said: "I did not make the remarks for publication, but talked to a reporter in confidence. I regret exceedingly that the interview was published. I shall receive the president at the state house with all respect due his exalted position. I doubt, however, the propriety of governor's receiving the president at the state line."

The New Commander.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Brigadier General Thomas N. Ruger, the newly appointed commander of the division of the Pacific, arrived to-day from the north and assumed command.

GREAT EXCITEMENT.

The Soldiers at Walla Walla Attempt to Mob a Murderer.

THREATS OF VIOLENCE MADE.

Fifty Blue Coats Armed With Carbines Demand, That the Prisoner Be Delivered Over to Them.

WALLA WALLA, April 23.—Great excitement was caused among the soldiers here on account of the shooting of private, E. Miller last night by A. J. Hunt. Miller is rapidly growing worse and is not expected to live until morning. To-night the sheriff took Hunt and a notary public and went to the garrison hospital where they took the dying man's deposition. Owing to threats made by the soldiers, Captain Winate and five soldiers started to escort the sheriff and his prisoner back to town. When the sheriff got outside the reserve fifty soldiers armed with carbines, sprang out and demanded that Hunt be delivered up to them. Captain Winate directed the huckster to return to the guard house, and he then ordered the soldiers to the garrison. Captain Winate afterward detailed a company of sixty men, who escorted the sheriff back to the county jail where he locked up his prisoner. A large number of guards are on duty to-night, as it is feared the soldiers will make an attempt to kill Hunt.

WENT HOME MAD.

California's World Fair Commissioner Leaves in a Huff.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Mark McDonald, United States commissioner from California, has a tilt with the fair management this morning, and the upshot was McDonald left for home. The trouble arose over a resolution of the California commission passed April 17, in favor of a separate state display received by McDonald to-day, and laid before the directors. The world's fair officials object to separate state displays as tending to make a series of state fairs instead of a harmonious whole.

THE WHEAT MARKET.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Wheat, from $1.75 to $1.70 per cental, is about as near approximately range as can be given for good to choice shipping.

LIVERPOOL, April 23.—Wheat in fair demand; Kansas winter hard, ss 8d, steady.

HE IS ON HIS DIGNITY

PENNOYER WILL NOT MEET THE PRESIDENT.

On the Contrary, He Would Have the Chief Executive How Down to Oregon's Great Governor.

PORTLAND, April 23.—The Telegram this evening publishes the following: Governor Pennoyer was seen by a reporter to day, and was in a communicative mood. He was first asked about the re-nomination of President Harrison, whether he would meet the president on his arrival in Oregon. He said that he should do nothing of the sort. If he, the governor of Oregon, should visit Washington, nobody would expect the president to meet him at the outskirts of the city, or elsewhere, or at all; and there was no better reason why he, as governor of Oregon, should meet Mr. Harrison. Mr. Harrison, explained the governor, represents in his official capacity the official power and dignity of the federal government. "I, as governor of Oregon, represent the state of Oregon in the same way; we are equal; I have no business to go to pay homage to the contrary, when he visits Oregon, he should rather pay his respects to me, as my official executive."

"There is a good precedent, too, for this," said the governor. "It happened in the first administration, when Washington, while president, visited Boston. Hancock was then governor of Massachusetts, and it was proposed that he should go to receive and welcome the greatest man of the republic, President George Washington. He flatly refused to do so. He claimed that the president should first pay his respects to him, as governor of Massachusetts. The affair was finally compromised by their meeting 'half way,' and happily for the peace and dignity of the country, an open warfare was averted."

So the governor, while quite willing to pay all respectful attention to the president that his most exalted station deserves, will maintain the dignity of his own position, and let it be known that, while Mr. Harrison is president, he is also governor of Oregon. Governor Markham's speech he characterizes as not only unfitting and undignified, but probably made in the interest of real estate owners and agents.

The governor was then asked about the position of Oregon in regard to the Columbian exposition. He was not in favor of any appropriation, and he would not contribute one cent for an exhibit at Chicago; but if the people who wanted to do something for Oregon would raise $50,000 for the aid of the poor and struggling emigrants, who come here seeking homes, he would contribute $1000 for that purpose.

The governor when asked to-night about the interview regarding President Harrison's reception said: "I did not make the remarks for publication, but talked to a reporter in confidence. I regret exceedingly that the interview was published. I shall receive the president at the state house with all respect due his exalted position. I doubt, however, the propriety of governor's receiving the president at the state line."

The New Commander.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Brigadier General Thomas N. Ruger, the newly appointed commander of the division of the Pacific, arrived to-day from the north and assumed command.

SPEEDING THIS WAY

Governor of Lower California Meets the President.

COMPLIMENTS EXCHANGED

Horses Attached to Mrs. Harrison's Carriage Become Frightened and Cause a Panic.

SAN DIEGO, April 23.—The president spoke briefly at the reception here. At the conclusion of his remarks Governor Torres of Lower California, then said: "Mr. President, I wish to read you the following dispatch, which I have received from President Diaz."

"It has come to my knowledge that the president of the United States shall visit San Diego on the 23rd inst., and I let you know it, so that you may call to congratulate him in my name and present him with my compliments." The president responded briefly:

Riverside, Cal., April 23.—The president was received here to-day with great enthusiasm. The party left the train at Arlington, a station six miles distant and drove to town in flower-bedecked carriages, through a continuous lane of orange groves and the celebrated Magnolia avenue.

The president had just concluded a brief address to school children when the horses attached to the carriage containing Secretary Rusk, Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Dimmick took fright at a shower of flowers and dashed wildly into a crowd of children who were standing in the open road. A panic ensued and the children tumbled over each other in precipitous flight. There were four horses to the carriage and when the leaders became unmanageable they tripped on the traces and fell down. Secretary Rusk, who had jumped out of the carriage at the first alarm, was at their heads in a moment and with the assistance of bystanders soon had them under control. Several children went into hysterics, but beyond that no harm was done. Mrs. Harrison was very nervous and declared she would never again ride in a procession behind four horses unless men walked at the head of the leaders.

KEEP OFF THE GRASS

A Census Taker Ordered Out of the Colville Reservation.

SPOKANE, April 23.—Maj. Gwydir and J. T. Keene, who recently began the work of taking a census of the Indians on the Colville reservation by authority of a law passed at the last session of the legislature, returned to-day having been ordered of the reservation by Agent Cole, who stated that he had not been formally authorized by the federal government at Washington to permit a census to be taken. H. H. DeYoung, of Oregon, J. T. Payne, of North Carolina, and Mack A. Fullerton, of Colfax, Washington, commissioners to treat with the Indians on this reservation, are in the city and will proceed to the front within a day or two. There are two million eight hundred thousand acres in this reservation and only about 1200 Indians occupy it, including Chief Joseph and Moses. It is proposed to open a greater part of the reservation to settlement.

The city council to-day decided to submit a bonding proposition. It is proposed issue one million two hundred thousand dollars in blocks according to the passing needs of the city. The sum half a million will be for the extension and improvement of the water system.

WINE AND DINED.

M. H. DeYoung is the Guest of New York Newspaper Men.

NEW YORK, April 23.—A journalistic event took place before the Oxford club in Brooklyn last evening, being the assembling of leading newspaper men around the social board for the first time in many years, the occasion being a dinner given by William Berry, proprietor of the Standard-Union, to Hon. M. H. DeYoung, of San Francisco. One of the incidents in connection with the dinner was a meeting of the committee of the International league press club, of which committee DeYoung is chairman. They decided that the next convention of the league will be in San Francisco in January, 1892. A most elaborate dinner was served. Beautiful souvenirs were given each guest, a number of the same from which the guest of the evening hailed, consisting of a golden shell, which on opening was found to be filled with miniature roses, the inside of each upper shell being inscribed with the name of M. H. DeYoung.

New York Farmers Alliance.

HORNBLENVILLE, N. Y., April 23.—The state farmers alliance to-day adopted the St. Louis platform. The knights of labor and green-back elements received a setback and will not be heard from again soon. The committee on resolutions declared against a third party movement and maintained that work could be carried to better advantage by non-partisan voting.

LEAP INTO ETERNITY.

TACOMA, April 23.—Samuel Pitts, a farmer living near Orting, killed himself with a shot from a 32-caliber revolver last night, shooting himself in the temple and blowing the top of his head off. He leaves a wife and family. Despondency caused by ill health was the cause.

GOVERNOR OF CONGO STATE.

LONDON, April 23.—According to a Brussels correspondent, King Leopold did intend to appoint