The Linn is the name of a new baseball club being organized in this city. It is composed of good material, and they expect to outplay any nine in this part of Oregon. Regular meeting of McPherson Relief Corps No. 13 Saturday at 2:30 p. m. Members who are interested in hearing the report from the late convention at Astoria should be present. Mr. John Schmeier wishes to announce to his patrons that orders for the cab left at the office at the stable will be promptly filled, and the cab will go to order to the trains or any part of the city. Mr. Thomas Monteith assumed charge of the Albany postoffice yesterday. Mr. Thompson, his predecessor, has finished up his last month's business, and has settled in full with Uncle Sam. A scandal in which the family of one of Scio's leading citizens figures is quietly whispered around, says the Press. It certain intimations that we have heard are true, an investigation by our next grand jury should be had. C. F. Wright and family, who went to Michigan a few months ago, are again living in Harrisburg, having returned last Monday. "The boys" are the "practical sons" return to this beautiful country, which has its drawbacks, to be sure, but which can not be excelled.—Courier. Know ye all men by these presents that we, Morris & Bloom, have just received ten tons, of mill feed and flour which we will sell cheap for cash, Excelsior Roller mills flour at 15 per sack. Fifty of bran, middlings and chaff for sale and delivered free of charge inside of city, Morris & Bloom. The ground for the encampment of the third regiment, O. N. G., has been selected. It is situated on the old Irvine farm about two miles west of the city, and there is good water and an abundance of shade. During July the different companies of the third regiment will go into camp at that place, and spend several days drilling there.—Times-Mountaineer. On next Tuesday evening May 5th, 1891, the people of Albany will have the opportunity of hearing one of the greatest violinists in the world. This statement is borne out by the press and is undoubtedly true. The famous Norwegian August Amold will give one of his concerts in the opera house on the above date, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. It is not often that the Albany public has the privilege of listening to great artists of the day and all will do well to improve this rare chance. Look in the windows for lithographs and in papers for press notices. To Meet the President. Every man, woman and child should go to meet the president and party; yes, be sure and bring grandma with you, and on your way home leave your orders for everything that's good to eat at Mueller & Garrett's.

RAILROAD MATTERS.

Removes that the Oregon Pacific Will Change Hands and the Work Go On. A well-posted railroad man, who has been in the city for a few days, in a conversation yesterday with a Herald reporter said that some important developments would be made on the road within a few days. He said that he had it from high authority that Mr. Wm. M. Hoag, vice president and general manager, would leave for New York next week, and that while there the road would pass into the hands of the New York bondholders, at the head of whom is Mr. Geo. S. Coe, and that the work of construction would then go forward. "It has been decided," he said, "to finish the road to the summit of the Cascade mountains and perhaps across to Eastern Oregon this summer."

While this is a rumor, and is only given for what it is worth, our informant is entirely trustworthy and the information came to him from a source that is considered reliable. In addition to this it is known that a contractor who has heretofore finished a considerable piece of the road, Mr. J. S. Antonelle, is in the city, and will go to Corvallis on Monday to interview Mr. Hoag before he leaves for New York about taking a contract this summer. It is hoped this report will prove true and that the work of construction will be resumed at an early day.

Second Regiment Matters. Col. S. L. Lovell is in Portland, whither he went for the purpose of opening the bids for tents to be used by the second regiment in its encampment. He was at Yaguma a few days ago for the purpose of ascertaining what her people would do in regard to encouraging the military boys to hold their encampment near that place. He also discovered that there was no suitable ground in the vicinity of the bay on which to hold the encampment, as it requires at least 100 acres of level land in a body—enough for the tents and other equipments and the remainder on which to conduct the drills during the week. A meeting of the board of officers of this regiment will be held in Salem on the 5th, and it will then be discussed as to where the ten companies will camp. There are 300 men in all and they have signified a desire to tent near the riding deep, if possible, instead of in the valley. Marshfield, Eugene, and Salem, are making efforts to secure the encampment.—Statesman.

A Whale Ashore. News is received at this city that a 65-foot whale was beached in the straits south of Newport. It had evidently been injured by a sword-fish or thrasher and must have been dead before landing. The blubber averaged about four to six inches thick and is producing a very fine grade of oil. The fish was found and staked as his own by Calvin Barnes, of Alsea bay, who is cutting up the fish and will probably get about 400 gallons of oil, that will bring about 40 cents a gallon. A few years ago a 90-foot sperm whale came ashore near there. This last one was first sighted by Mr. Brasfield, who thought it was a wrecked schooner coming ashore on a heavy southwest swell.

Astoria Railroad. Dr. August Kinney, the father of the Goble railroad scheme, returned from up the river this morning and reports the work as nearly completed. The quarter boat used by the surveyors was towed back up the river to Goble last evening and all the surveyors except Mr. Hammond, who is still at the topography of the route, have returned to Portland and are now actively engaged in preparing the maps, estimates, etc. While the exact cost of the road cannot be ascertained at present, yet the engineers state that it will probably be no greater than was originally estimated. Dr. Kinney reports the liveliest interest being taken in the matter in Portland, and on the whole the outlook is quite favorable.—Astoria Bulletin.

Their Location. The Seven Devils mining camp and the mines located and operated, are situated in township 10 or 21 north range 5 west of the Boise meridian, in Washington county, Idaho. Weiser, the county seat, is situated on part of section 31, 22 23 township 11 north range 5 west, actual distance from Weiser to the mines 66 miles. The road after leaving Salubria bears east nearly 12 miles miles to Indian valley, and this distance doubled to return to the crossing of the Weiser river in Council valley making the distance traveled 90 miles, but is commonly agreed upon as being 92 miles; all the way over good county roads and through a settled country.—Baker City Revielle.

Two Boys Arrested. The police last night arrested a young son of Mrs. M. E. Farrell and of Mr. Edward Zeiss for violating the provisions of the curfew ordinance requiring boys under 21 years old to remain off the street after 9 o'clock. The boys were placed in the city jail. It is probable that the cases will bring about a test of the validity of the law.

A Church Incorporated. The Smith Memorial Presbyterian church of Fairview, Oregon, has been incorporated under the laws of Oregon. George B. Shaw, Wm. A. Townsend, and John Snover, are the trustees and incorporators. The estimated value of its property is $2500.

Ladies for your Oxford ties go where they keep a complete line at Klein's.

OREGON'S NATIONAL GUARD.

The State Militia Preparing to Go Into Camp This Summer. The Oregon National Guard will go into camp this year for the first time since its organization. An appropriation of $2000 was made by the last legislature for the purchase of tent equipments, and a committee was created to carry out the provisions of the act making the appropriation. This committee was appointed by Governor Penney and consists of Adjutant General J. C. Schoner, Colonel S. C. Lovell, of the second regiment, and Lieutenant Colonel G. Summers, of the first regiment. The contract for furnishing the tents has been let to Portland parties.

The camp equipage for the state militia will consist of 227 tents, 8x10 feet, with three feet walls for the men; seventy 10x12 foot tents, with four foot walls for the officers; nine 12x14 foot tents, with four and one-half foot walls for field officers; six 4x16 foot tents for hospitals and guard houses; seventy 20x30 foot files for mess tents, and one garrison flag, 20x30 feet in size. The contract will probably go to a bid above the appropriation, but the difference will not be very great. The second regiment will go into camp first, commencing on the evening of June 27, and continuing six days. The first goes into camp on the evening of July 4, and at the expiration of its term of life in the field, the third goes out for six days. "The idea in having the three regiments go into camp in succession instead of at the same time," said Lieutenant Colonel Summers, "is to give the officers of one regiment an opportunity to school themselves in the school of the battalion by visiting the others. With the tents and equipments we will get with the $2000 appropriation the three regiments of this state will be able to go into camp at once with 1200 men. This will give us the best tent equipage of any state in the Union in proportion to its size and numerical strength of its national guard."

Peculiar Methods. They have some funny methods of pursuing business affairs in the rival fishing crafts at Astoria. The Astorian says that John Fritzpatrick was in the city yesterday. He brought with him an internal machine. We have often heard of a two-edged sword, and this comes about as near being one of those things as can be conceived. It is a blade about three inches wide, forged from fine steel, about two feet long, and with two sharp edges. It is one of half a dozen that were fastened in a heavy box and sunk where his son's would drag in twenty-one feet of water, to cut Fritzpatrick's seines; not only his seines, but those of other parties. This was playing it pretty low down, and the dastards who did it can hardly be deemed human beings.

That Coal Mine. On Blair Forward's farm in the Waldo hills the recent coal find is being developed. The workmen have already succeeded in digging out the entire ledge of coal which at first discovered. The indications are good for another ledge of considerable size and prospecting will be continued as long as signs are favorable. They believe they will be able to find the "black diamonds" in paying quantities. The coal taken from the first ledge was of a quality and burns readily. The land owners in the vicinity of the coal mine are happy.—McMinnville Telegraph-Register.

Social Session Co. The Black Hussar band carried by the Social Session company, is without doubt the finest musical organization on the road. It certainly is the best band that has ever visited the Pacific coast, with the exception perhaps of the famous band; but considering the number of performers it cannot be excelled. What is true of the band and orchestra is equally true of the performance on the stage.—San Diego Sun.

This company perhaps the finest that has ever visited Albany, will appear in the opera house Friday, May 29th, 1891.

Quite A Catch. The Astorian relates how J. T. Burke came in from the Necanic yesterday, and reports the roads very muddy. Last Thursday he went to his No. 1 beaver trap, which he had set for a wild cat and found a large cougar in the trap. He had his 44 caliber Smith and Wesson with him, and put four bullets into the beast before he finished him. The animal measured 9 feet 9 inches from tip to tip, and was as fat as a hog. He will have the skin stuffed and mounted.

Unlawful Fishing. It is said that parties fishing in the Santiam recently have been using giant powder for the purpose of procuring fish. By this means they kill large numbers of suckers, chubs and trout. Persons fishing in this way destroy large numbers of small fish, and not a trout can be found anywhere near where powder is used; the penalty for such sport is heavy, and should the grand jury learn who fish in this nefarious manner, they would doubtless find it expensive sport.

Woman's Enlist. U. S. Commissioner Cardwell had a pow-wow with the Putes here the other day, say the Burns items, the object being to have the Indians enlist as United States soldiers. The chief Indian here, Joe Paddy, looked upon the idea with suspicion, and objected to having his men make soldiers of themselves. At least he wanted time to hear from other members of the tribe down in Nevada, so nothing was accomplished.

NORTHWEST NOTES.

There are now 473 patients in the state insane asylum. A daily issue of the Baker City Revielle will be issued after May 2. A brick hotel costing $15,000 is being built at Junction City. Victor Smith, aged 29, lately from Missouri, was instantly killed near Coaledo, Coos county, by a falling tree. Samuel Lewis, a prominent citizen of Marion county, died at his home in the Waldo hills on Wednesday, aged 54, of a grippe.

The increasing business of the Salem post-office demands more letter carriers. Postmaster Gilbert has petitioned the department for an increase in his force. John Billings, who lives at the mouth of Mule creek, up Rogue river, had the misfortune to lose his house, together with its contents, by fire a short time ago. Salem is to have a free drinking fountain at the intersection of her two principal streets, contributed to the public by Hon. A. Bush, the well-known banker. Alanzo Giesner and E. J. McCasland will leave for the Alsea country in a few days, having a contract for surveying government land in that section. They will be gone five months. Mrs. Dr. G. F. Tucker, who met her death at the Dalles on Tuesday, was well known in the Willamette valley. She was daughter of Rev. Sperry, of Brown, Linn county, and a sister of Mrs. William Skiff, of Portland.

Alexander Jacobson, of Mashfield, Coos county, aged 24, is reportedly in jail and has been committed to the insane asylum. He imagines he is already married to a young lady of Coos county, with whom he was but slightly acquainted. S. M. Richardson, of Pendleton, was absconded the other day by the discovery of countess numbers of worms squirming about and crawling over his face. He completely covered a patch of ground about three rods square. They are about the size of a caterpillar and resemble the "army worms." Mr. Richardson fears they might be this pest, and has commenced a warfare of extermination.

A Hundred Years Ago. The members of the Oregon Pioneer and Historical society, during the discovery of the Lewis and Clark river by Capt. Robert Gray, of the American ship Columbia, on the 7th day of May, 1792, an event of national importance and worthy of centennial celebration has appointed a special committee to issue a circular to all pioneer and kindred societies existing within the borders of the territory acquired by the United States as the result of this discovery, and now comprising the important states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, inviting and urging the said societies and organizations to appoint and send delegates to Astoria May 12th next for the purpose of aiding in the formulating and adoption of a plan and programme for the centennial celebration of this important event in the national history of our country, on the 7th day of May, 1892.

He has also a beautiful line of pants goods in any style desired, in fact he can suit the most fastidious. Call and see his elegant line, there is no more than that you will be more than pleased. Mr. Graham keeps abreast with the times and guarantees a fit.

Linn County's First Newspaper. The Pacific Printer gives the world this year: L. C. Dokey, who recently returned from Salem to Albany, was at one time sheriff of Linn county. He was the first of the family of the Santiam when Job Powell was pastor of the community, and assisted in running the first newspaper published in the new town of Scio. He solemnly says that they printed it on a white rag or canvas, and issued it to their readers with the understanding that they were to read, wash and return, which they invariably did.

At the Opera House. A small audience was present at the opera house last evening to witness the performance of John Jack and Annie Ermin. Mr. Jack is a pioneer actor of the classic school, and together they give a good performance. The play was Gilbert's mythological drama, "Galatea," which was followed by the musical farce, "Fun on a Ranch." Both were cleverly presented.

Playing Ball. The Salem baseball team are improving the time these pleasant afternoons by daily practice in handling the ball. The new ground will be in readiness in a few days and active playing will be begun. The Albany or Corvallis men will probably be invited to come down to play the first game on the new ground.—Salem Journal.

Will Make Some How. The spring season being so late in opening up, and being overstocked in ladies Oxford ties we will for the next 30 days, sell them at greatly reduced prices. We mean just what we say. Call and get prices. We have over 30 different styles to select from, at Klein Bros. exclusive shoe store.
