JOHN L. ON A FREEE.

Talks About Fighting When He is Drunk.

St. Louis, May 2.—The thought that a man would be made between Sullivan and Slavin must have been born of the wish that such a great pugilistic event might be brought about. Such an event is entirely outside the range of probability for the present or near future. The stories that have found their way into the print are based, if they had any foundation at all, on the simple fact that John L. has been drinking and has said some foolish things. He entered a market street saloon late Wednesday night, and after ordering the drinks for the house and making a great racket, drew a roll of bills, which he declared to be something like $2,000. Throwing the money on the floor, he put his foot on it, exclaiming that any

NAVAL EXHIBITION.

It Is Opened By the Prince of Wales With Great Ceremony, IT IS INTERESTING AND NOVEL. A Mimic Battle Will Be Given By Miniature Men-of-War—Some Wonderful Models—Naval Pictures.

LONDON, May 2.—The naval exhibition on Chelsea embankment opened today with great eclat. The prince of Wales presided at the opening ceremonies. He wore the uniform of admiral of the British navy. After opening the exercises the Princess of Wales turned a switch in front of the miniature model of Eddystone lighthouse. The model, which is half a million candle power. The model is built of a frame work of iron covered with American expanded wire over which cement is laid. The tower part is used for the exhibit of lighthouse and signaling apparatus, while the top, which is reached by elevators, affords a good observatory. On the lake it is proposed to give each day a mimic naval battle between miniature ironclad men-of-war, including torpedo attacks, submarine mining, fire works, etc. In the arena sailors will give an exhibition of drills and the handling of naval machinery guns will be shown. The main exhibition building is divided into nine galleries, each named after some celebrated sailor. There are interesting collections of old naval relics and relics of various arctic expeditions. The art section contains the finest collection of naval pictures ever brought together. There are hundreds of models of old and new warships and innumerable charts, ancient and modern lying on the walls.

THE LATEST RECEPTION.

Beautiful Floral Emblems Presented to Wainman and Kink. SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—President Harrison was given a reception at the Union League club in this city to-night. About 600 guests were present. The floral decorations were very beautiful and banks of roses were to be seen everywhere. Postmaster General Wainman was presented with a floral letter and Secretary Rusk with a floral plow. The officers of the National Guard were present by special invitation. At the close of the reception at the Union League club to-night President Harrison was presented with a solid plate fac simile of the card of invitation, beautifully enamelled with a crest of the seal of California and the flag of the union. In accepting it, the president said: "California is full of ambulances, not of the hostile sort, but with all the embarrassment that attend a surprise. In a hasty drive this afternoon, when I carried the labor and toil of travel, I was suddenly drawn up in front of a college and asked to make an address, and a moment afterwards was before an asylum for deaf, dumb and blind, the character of which I did not know until the carriage stopped in front of it. All this taxes the ingenuity, as your kindness moves the heart of one who is making a hurried journey through California. I do not need such souvenirs as this to keep fresh in my heart this visit to your state. It will be pleasant, however, to show to others who have not participated in this enjoyment, this record of a trip that has been very eventful and one of perpetual sunshine and happiness. I do not think I could have endured the labor and toil of travel unless I had been borne up by the inspiring and hearty good will of your people. I do not know what collapse is in store for me when it is withdrawn. I fear I shall need a vigorous tonic to keep up to the high level of enjoyment and inspiration which your kind treatment has given me. I thank you for this pleasant social enjoyment and this souvenir of it."

JUST HER LUCK.

The Wheat Crop in Kansas Is Again Counted a Failure. KANSAS CITY, May 2.—Reports from sixteen of the principal wheat growing counties of Kansas say that the wheat is turning yellow from some unknown cause and the counties will not yield more than one-half to two-thirds crop. Reno county reports much damage from the Hessian fly. A new bug appears in several counties.

Foster's Private Secretary.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Secretary Foster has decided to appoint as his private secretary to succeed Charles M. Hendley, Robert J. Wynn, until recently a member of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette's Washington staff. Mr. Hendley goes to Baltimore as an assistant to ex-Senator Henry G. Davis and Stephen B. Elkins in their railroad enterprise. Mr. Wynn has for several years devoted much time to reporting treasury operations for financial journals and is therefore something of an expert in the workings of the departments.

Suit Against Cleveland.

CHICAGO, May 2.—In the district court to-day ex-President Grover Cleveland was called in a suit of the Folsom heirs, of which Mrs. Cleveland is one, for partition of the estate. The bill announced that Mr. Cleveland could not be found and he was declared in default.

On His Deathbed.

CINCINNATI, May 2.—A special from Washington to the Commercial Gazette says that Solicitor-General Taft was to-day summoned from Washington to Los Angeles, Cal., to attend to the estate of Hon. Alphonse Tatt, ex-secretary of war and ex-minister to Austria and Russia.

They Will Not Work.

Murder in the Second Degree.

NAPA, Cal., May 2.—J. Murphy, who shot and killed John Holmes and mangled severely wounded Matt Vandiver some months ago was to-day convicted of murder in the second degree.

FOREIGN POLITICS

What Bismarck Will Do in the German Reichstag. WILL STAND BY THE EMPEROR. The Greatest Danger to the Pathland Is Not from the Outside—The Prince's Effect.

(Copyright 1891 by N. Y. Associated Press) BERLIN, May 2.—The prospect of Bismarck's early re-appearance in the Reichstag has given an impulse to the government's plan for the reconciliation of various parties, so as to render them ready to work in the government's interest. Bismarck's victory is modified by the fact that he polled 2000 fewer votes than did his national liberal predecessor. The socialist ballot was reinforced by over 1000 Guelphists and Freisinnige voters, whose hatred of the prince exalted their dislike to the socialists. The prince in an interview on the eve of the Reichstag declared if he went to the Reichstag he never would attack any policy directly initiated by the emperor, and that his line of conduct would be the same as that followed by him since he left Berlin. He was convinced that the greatest danger to the fatherland was not from without but within. He would not refrain from exposing it, but he certainly would never say anything to give his opponents reason to charge him with attacking the emperor from personal motives. These sort of assurances promised lively times in the Reichstag.

HONORABLE MENTION.

Army Officers Who Have Distinguished Themselves Specially. WASHINGTON, May 2.—The major general commanding has published the names of the following officers and enlisted men who during 1883 distinguished themselves for "specially meritorious acts or conduct in service": Major Henry Carroll, first cavalry; then captain of 9th cavalry; Captain Emmet Crawford, 3d cavalry; James Mackay, 3d cavalry; Charles P. Gatewood, 6th cavalry; First Sergeant Gorgensen, Sergeant Chapman and saddler Frank, now out of service, but formerly of troop K, 4th cavalry.

SEAMEN WELLINGTON.

Five of Her Crew Picked Up by the Walla Walla. SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—The steamer Walla Walla arrived from Puget sound ports this morning. While passing through the straits of Juan de Fuca, Captain Wallace spoke a ship's boat with five men in it. They said they were from the British steamer Wellington and had left her with her propeller gone. Captain Wallace searched for the missing steamer, but did not sight her at any stage of the voyage.

DELAWARE'S TROUBLE.

An Attempt is Being Made to Get Him Behind Prison Bars. MEADVILLE, Pa., May 2.—The proposition of Delamater & Co. to settle with creditors at a 50 cent basis has fallen through. Ex-Senator Delamater to-day stated that the terms of the proposition had not been complied with, and his friends who had proposed to assist him in making the first payment would not consent to leave the time for securing the signatures extended. The members of the firm of Delamater & Co. were arrested on complaint of small depositors this evening and bail furnished in the sum of $300 each. It is rumored an attempt will be made by repeated arrests to exhaust the bail and finally get the senator into jail.

AT THE RIFLE'S MUZZLE.

A Color War That is no Boy's Play in Kansas. KANSAS CITY, May 2.—News late to-night from the two seats of war in Indian Territory where full bloods are making a campaign against negro settlers state that at Goose Neck bend the negroes still hold the fort at the muzzles of Winchester rifles and a brass cannon. The Cherokees up to this evening had not attacked them. The reported Cherokee government will call for volunteers to help the negroes to fight them. The difficulty at Tanapah, it is feared, will result in a serious outbreak. The negroes are still in possession of the town but the sheriff left Tanapah to-day with a posse to reinforce.

BEFORE HIS WIFE'S EYES.

A Young Man Goes to the Bottom of Lake Union. SEATTLE, May 2.—U. S. Hughes, a plasterer, who lives on Lake Union boulevard near Fremont, was drowned in Lake Union this evening before the eyes of his young wife. In reaching his home from the electric car trestle Hughes had to walk over a 30-foot stretch of water on two planks that served as a bridge. The planks slipped and went in the water, carrying Hughes with them. He could not swim and was soon chilled and drowned.

Forest Fires.

CARLEISLE, Pa., May 2.—Another serious mountain fire is sweeping up the southwest and doing great damage. Several hundred men are fighting the fires in Lehigh. MAYS LANDING, N. J., May 2.—Three forest fires are raging in this vicinity yet. Several thousand acres of the finest pines in New Jersey, stretching over eighteen miles to the Atlantic coast, have been destroyed. The residents of a small hamlet and charcoal colony in the midst of these pines fled for their lives, losing all their property. All the fires in the vicinity of Millville are out, after doing damage of about $100,000.

Flouring Mills Burned.

ALLENTOWN, Mo., May 2.—The flouring mills here were destroyed to-day by fire resulting from a stroke of lightning. Loss $50,000; no insurance.

STRUNG UP TO A TREE

Hanged Twice and Yet He Is Among the Living. VERY NEAR DEATH'S DOOR. Red Marks Around His Neck Suggest the Torture He Received at the Hands of the Angry Miners.

SEATTLE, May 2.—Arthur Archambault, a young man whom the German coal miners suspected of being the person who fired the German hotel at that place, and who on Friday morning about 1:30 o'clock was twice strung to a tree until he was unconscious, was given a hearing before Justice Neagle to-day on a charge of attempted arson and was discharged. There was not the slightest evidence against him. The miners in attempting to lynch the young man endeavored to force a confession out of him. Two ugly looking rinds of red around the young fellow's neck, whose skin is rubbed off suggested the story of his torture by the angry miners.

AN INSURGENT SCHEME.

A Plan to Capture President Balboa and His Cabinet. NEW YORK, May 2.—A letter from Santiago, Chili, says an insurgent scheme to capture President Balboa and his entire cabinet has just been exposed. A ship and transports, containing a large force, was to proceed to Valparaiso, where an officer was to be sent with a flag of truce to the mayor of Valparaiso. He was directed to say that the rebels had resolved to leave the rebels and had come to surrender to the government and the troops on board the transports would be landed and distributed at Valparaiso. The cruiser, it was expected, would be taken by the rebels. As the rebels would have landed between 2000 and 3000 men from the ship, the cruiser was safe to proceed northward. Balboa was expected to arrive at Valparaiso February 25, and it was then that the city was to be surprised. The plan, however, had been frustrated by the capture of important mails on board the steamer Valdivia. The documents named the regiments of the garrison that would be most likely to revolt, as well as their officers. News has just been received that the city of Coquimbo has surrendered to the insurgents. How many people have been killed, is not stated, but it is supposed that the loss has been great, as the rebels have made a point to show no quarter to the government forces.

THE SEAL FISHERIES.

Secretaries Blaine and Foster Talk the Matter Over. WASHINGTON, May 2.—Secretary Blaine and Foster had a long conference to-day on the subject of fisheries. Secretary Foster submitted a rough draft of the instructions prepared for the guidance of the agent at Seal Island and for the revenue cutter Rush the coming season. He declined this evening to state the nature of the instructions in either case, but said the matter was such a delicate one that the utmost pains will be taken in preparing the instructions so as not to trench on the treaty rights of the government.
