MIRROR OF SOCIETY.

The Gay Side of Life in the Queen City of the Willamette Valley.

I am weary, weary waiting for the May.

At last she is here, the most beautiful month of the year, the month of apple blossoms, that fill the air with fragrance. She also brings with her society in the open air, lawn parties, etc. It will not be a great while before the seaside will be crowded with visitors, and the warm and busy cities will be depopulated.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.

A number of friends of Mrs. M. Saltmarsh and daughter Miss Bessie assembled at the residence of B. F. Purdom Tuesday evening to bid them farewell previous to their departure home in Portland. The evening was very enjoyably passed, and the large number of friends present joined in extending the best wishes in their new home. Light lunch was served. Following were present: Rev. E. R. Prichard, Mrs. G. F. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fortmiller, Mrs. Bentley, Mrs. Farrell, Mrs. B. F. Purdom, Mrs. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Purdom, Mrs. Ralston, Mrs. Chas. Kiefer, Mrs Harry Noel, Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Smead, Mrs. Rideout, Mrs. W. Anderson, Mrs. G. S. Royce, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood, Mr. and Mrs. R. Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Crawford, Mrs. Moist, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Wyman, Mrs. Jno. Jones, Mrs. Ousteroudt, Mrs. Coll Van Cleve, Mrs. Ed Mack, Mrs. Althouse, W. H. Warner, John and Harry Palmer. Fred Fortmiller, Jas. F. Hail, Carey Crawford, Joseph Ralston, Clem Jones, Roy Saltmarsh, Charles Palmer, Bert P. Van Cleve, Misses Helen Crawford, Lizzie and Lillian Farrell, Lillie and May Rideout, Loucinda Farwell, Miss Webber, Miss Brown, Lillie Crawford, Lillie Wyman, Lotta Miller, Emma Jones, Lillie Ousteroudt, Hattie Graf.

A SURPRISE FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

Reuben Thompson was treated to a very pleasant and complete surprise Thursday by a number of his young friends. The evening was passed most enjoyably playing games. Those present were: Misses Grace Love, Edna and Ola Miller, Phoeba Patterson, Lilly Wyman, Lillie Farrell, Edith Chiswell, Ruth Flinn, Emma Hill, Mary Cassie and Lizzie Thompson, Masters Willis Dorris, Bert Crawford, Gail Hill, Willie Emerick, Clair and Reuben Thompson, Mrs. Mary Hill and Mrs. Dora Comley.

PIERCED BY CUPID'S DARTS.

April has been a very poor month for the fickle god of love, and his conquests during the past thirty days are far below the average. The following marriage licenses have been granted by the county clerk: M. T. Phillips and Josephine Morris. H. Y. Kirkpatrick and Lorena Maud Ralston, John Burnett and May Hockenbery, E. B. Kendall and Bessie Kendall, J. A. Boone and Julia A. Turner, Charles Denny and Millie Smith, Put Nettleton and Bertha M. Vulgmore, R. L. Kile and Delia Bentley, Wilson B. Glass and Lavina E. Ramsey.

OBSERVATION PARTY.

Among the social pleasures of the past week was the observation party given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church at the beautiful residence of J. M. Irving Friday evening. The spacious and elegant parlors were artistically decorated with flowers, and the evening was most delightfully spent in games, social conversation and music. The most amusing event of the evening was the observation contest, which was something like this. In a room was a table on which were sixty articles. The contestants entered the room and were given two minutes to observe the articles, and then three minutes in another room to write up a list of them from memory. The first prize, a cake, was won by Richmond Wheeler, with a record of thirty-two, the booby prize, a bottle of catsup, Prof McKee, with a record of nine. After this a beautiful musical programme was rendered. Mr. Henry M. Hopkins and daughter executed a very pleasing piano and violin duet. Miss Minnie Van Horn sang in her usual captivating manner, after which Rev. E. R. Prichard gave the listeners one of his popular solos. Prof. McKee, as McGinty, gave a speech that was highly entertaining. An elegant lunch was served. It was midnight's stilly hour before one of the most lively parties of the season was adjourned and good-night's said.

A SURPRISE PARTY.

At the residence of Mr. S. W. Gilbert on First street, Mr. Delmon Parker, who is visiting his sister, Miss Zella Parker, in this city, was tendered a very pleasant surprise by a number of his friends on Thursday evening. There were about twenty couples present in all, and they enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent with music, plays and dancing, and last but not the least feature of the occasion was the consumption of an elegant lunch. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Stroupe, Mrs. Will McCulloch, Mrs. W. E. Gilbert, Misses Jessie Hunter, Nellie Ash, Anna Hunt, Anna Dumond, Ella Stellmacher, Lillie McHargue, Daisy Stroupe, Clara Bentley, Lizzie Farrell, Kate Senior, Messrs. U. G. Hale, Floyd Dorris, John and Levi Hunt, Merrill Phillips, Wm. Richards, James Ash, Henry Ewert, Reuben and Albert Stellmacher, L. Ross, Harry Palmer, Frank Blodgett, Walter Montague, L. Senior, P. Hunter.

WHIST PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. W. H. Davis entertained a few of their friends at whist at their home on First street. The evening was very pleasantly passed, and both hands pointed to midnight before the party adjourned. Elegant refreshments were served.

A PLEASANT TEA.

Mrs. Jay W. Blain gave a very pretty five o'clock tea Friday afternoon at her residence on Sixth street. A number were present and a highly enjoyable time passed. Prizes were given for guesses on the number of beans in a small cup, Miss Sarah Althouse winning the first prize, and Mrs. Elizabeth Blain the booby prize.

A DELIGHTFUL EVENING.

A most pleasant surprise party was given Miss Cassie Montgomery Tuesday evening. A party of the young lady's friends to the number of about fifty came in about eight o'clock, completely surprising her. The affair was a most enjoyable one, and the merrymaking was continued until a late hour. Among those present were: Misses Zella Parker, Jessie Hunter, Daisy Stroupe, Fannie Curl, Mamie Gentry, Ella Stellmacher, Lizzie Thompson, Bessie Dorris, Lilie Hart. Messrs. S. W. Prentiss, W. Dudley, D. H. James, R. G. Watson, W. E. Price, S. W. Paisley, Floyd Dorris, Ren Ross, D. Schell, Frank Dannals, Wm. Miller, Bert Magers, Frank Allen.

FAREWELL PARTY.

Last evening a very pleasant farewell party was tendered Mrs. Goldworthy at the residence of her sister Mrs. C. O. Lee. Quite a number of friends were present and the evening very pleasantly passed away. Mrs. Goldworthy leaves to-morrow for Mineral Point, Wisconsin.

An Editor's Appeal.

An editor who had been pounding away at his delinquent subscribers for some time, finally brought them to their sense of duty with the following poetical parody: "Lives of poor men oft remind us honest toil don't stand a chance; more we work we leave behind us bigger patches on our pants. On our pants once new and glossy now are patches of different hue; all because subscribers linger and won't pay up what is due. Then let all be up and doing; send in your mite be it so small, or when the snow of winter strikes us we shall have no pants at all.—Bozeman Appeal.

More Song Birds Coming.

The steward of the bark Coloma, who was instructed by Seid Back to bring a lot of birds home on that vessel to be turned loose here, writes that he has secured 170 birds, of all varieties celebrated in China for their sweet notes. The trip is a long one but as there is generally but little bad weather encountered, and as the birds will be kept out in the air and sunshine, and there will be plenty of feed for them, probably the greater number of them will arrive here safely.—Oregonian.

It Cannot Be Misconstrued.

TO THE GALLANT OFFICER:—Officer Lee on Friday evening after bracing himself for the occasion on Weinhards celebrated bock beer in Peter Schlosser's saloon, arrested in the vestibule of the opera house two boys for being on the street after 9 o'clock. The citizens of Albany may sleep in peace with such an efficient officer to look after the saloons and boys.

ED. ZEISS.

D. L. Rice and wife expect to leave this (Friday) evening for Albany where Mr. Rice will occupy the position of S. P. station agent for a couple of months, while the regular agent, W. L. Jester, takes a vacation. Mrs. Rice will spend some time visiting friends at Portland, Eugene and several other places.—Ashland Tidings.

Know ye all men by these presents that we, Morris & Blount, have just received ten tons, of mill feed and flour which we will sell cheap for cash, Excelsior Roller mills flour $1 15 per sack. Plenty of bran, middlings and chop for sale and delivered free of charge inside of city, Morris & Blount.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Something About the Boys Who Will Twirl the Sphere in Albany.

Will H. Cowan's gladiators were defeated by a score of 7 to 9 yesterday, by a picked nine.

A game was played yesterday forenoon on the college grounds between the College nine and the Weatherford's, resulting in a victory for the latter by a score of 29 to 30. The college boys charge the umpire with unfairness, and are not satisfied, consequently they will again cross bats next Saturday.

Smiley and Larimore make a strong battery for the Albany's, as do also Rennie and Welch.

Mr. Larimore, who played with the Toledo, Ohio, professionals last season, has been secured by the Albany's as pitcher. He throws a "wicked" ball.

The Albany's are composed of as good "stuff" as can be found in any of the valley towns outside of Portland, and will soon be ready to meet all comers.

The various clubs can be seen out most every evening on the college grounds practicing.

The grounds on the court house square when finished will be "out of sight" as a ball ground.

It will be hard work for a ball thrown to first to pass over Ala Marshall's head, as he stands over six feet. He will play first for the Albany's this year.

The first game of the series between the Albanys and Lebanons will be played next Saturday on the Albany's grounds near the court house.

The Albany's uniform consists of blue pants, shirt and cap, and black stockings, with the word Albany in white across the front of the shirt. The boys present a very neat appearance in their suits. They were made by H. Gregg in this city.

Fireman On Parade.

The Portland Telegram says that among the many attractions in the presidential parade next Tuesday, one of the most unique will be the old hand engine used by the Volunteer Fire Department some thirty years ago. It will be drawn by the veterans and be more highly ornamented and decorated than any engine which ever appeared in a procession in this city. Four of the old boys who are crippled or infirm and unable to walk, will ride in an open carriage. Their names and former companies are as follows: William A. Daly, No. 1; William Young and Captain H. Cook, No. 3; David Monastes, No. 4. The veterans are making special effort for the parade, and intend to make a display as shall be pleasing, not only to President Harrison, but especially suggestive of old times to the early residents of Portland.

The Year's Eclipse.

This year's eclipse will be something beyond the average. On the evening of May 23 the moon will rise in eclipse at five minutes to eight, but the shadow will for the greater part have already passed away and it is only in eastern countries and at the antipodes that her face that evening will be seen wholly obscured. It will be otherwise with the total eclipse of our satelite which will begin at thirty-five minutes past ten on November 15 next. There will be two solar eclipses—one annular and visible in this country as a partial eclipse on the upper limb, beginning at two minutes past five on June 6, the other a partial eclipse on December 1, which will be visible chiefly in the South Pacific. Besides these there will be on May 10 a transit of Mercury over the sun's disk which will be only partially visible in this part of the globe.

The Violinist.

The Sunday Oregonian of April 26th, 1891 says: "Herr August Aamold, the Norwegian violinist, played with his accustomed brilliancy and skill, and was encored in each number. His playing of Schumann's Traumerce as an encore to Sarasate's Zigeunerweisen" must be especially mentioned, and at this concert in the whole of the numbers played by him he undoubtedly proved himself a real artist and master of voilin."

Didn't Have Enough.

Some women in Columbus, O., attempted to form a social and charitable club, but as they could think of only 162 by-laws to govern it, and as they were determined not to call in the men to help them out, the club busted and went to smash. They ought to have looked over the city ordinances.

To Meet the President.

Every man, woman and child should go to meet the president and party; yes, be sure and bring grandma with you, and on your way home leave your orders for everything that's good to eat at Mueller & Garrett's.

Connecticut young women are amusing themselves and making work for the postoffice officials by writing letters to one another on the backs of postage stamps.

A big cut in prices on ladies Dongola shoes in all styles for the next 30 days at Klein Bros. We mean business.

Julius Gradwohl keeps at his Golden Rule Bazaar store a large assortment of fresh Walla Walla garden seeds. They are the best and freshest seeds on the Pacific coast market. His store is filled with the finest and largest stock in his line in the Willamette Valley. The public is invited to call and inspect it.

COAST NOTES.

Our watermelon kings are busy planting their large tracts. Josephine county has an envious reputation for large and delicious melons.—Grant's Pass Courier.

The sale of public land at Pendleton was concluded Thursday. During its progress $75,941.65 in coin and currency of the realm has been paid to Receiver McClelland. This amount includes improvements, and is something over one-third of the total purchase price, which is in the neighborhood of $200,000.

During the past few days the city has been crowded with people from the interior, desiring to file on the forfeited lands.—The Dalles Times-Mountaineer.

It is said the young ladies of Ashland when they go to the theatre take seats in the gallery and chuck goober sheils at the bald heads below.

There are 125 students in the Normal school at Drain just at present.

Fifty cases of la grippe are reported in Drain, which has only 500 inhabitants.

Forest Grove is to be supplied with pure spring water from the Coast mountains.

Thomas H. Tongue and other farmers of Washington county have suffered the loss of many sheep recently from ill-bred curs. There is an old saying in New England that will apply here, that "the only way to cure a dog that kills sheep is to amputate his tail close behind his ears."

For a number of years, says the Corvallis Times, there has not been so fine an outlook for abundant crops as is presented at this time in Benton county. The wheat, of which much was sown, cannot be surpassed. The fruit crop is equally promising. Altogether the people of the county have reason to congratulate themselves on the outlook.

Allow me to add my tribute to the efficacy of Ely's Cream Balm. I was suffering from a severe attack of influenza and catarrh and was induced to try your remedy. The result was marvelous. I could hardly articulate, and in less than twenty-four hours the catarrhal symptoms and my hoarseness disappeared and I was able to sing a heavy role in Grand Opera with voice unimpaired. I strongly recommend it to all singers.—Wm. H. Hamilton, Leading Basso of the C. D. Hess Grand Opera Co.
