THE great civilizer, the railroad, has gotten a footbold in Africa and the dark continent will soon have light. It is said the trans-African Railroad has been completed from Loan da to Amboca, 150 miles in the interior. It is the only railroad in operation in equatorial Africa. It has been in built by native workmen and world, daily trains are run over the line. Four years have elapsed since the line was started. The Portugese government guarantees the interest on its cost. The road is to be pushed several hundred miles further into the interior.

Ir has been ascertained that the aesthetic city of Boston, with all its culture and learning, wealth and renown, is lacking in the mat? ter of fittingly appropriate monuments in its cemeteries. Some one has investigated and finds that work of that kind does not exceed $5000 in cost and very few at that figure. Boston will have to take action in the matter, and induce of rec.
