

Morning Daily Herald

ON SALE. The DAILY HERALD will be on sale each morning at H. J. Jones' book store, where it can be procured at 5 cents per copy.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

J. L. Cowan went to Portland yesterday. Fine dressed chickens and geese at Mueller & Garrett's. Platt B. Elderkin and wife, of Seattle, are in the city. Mrs. J. O. Writman and daughter went to Corvallis yesterday. C. E. Wolverson went to Dallas yesterday on legal business. E. Hofer, of the Salem Journal, was in Albany yesterday. J. G. Crawford is in Portland taking views about the metropolis. E. C. Pentland and wife, of the Independence West Side, were in Albany yesterday. Mrs. E. E. Davis returned yesterday from Harrisburg, where she has been visiting for a few days. Georgia Reed's Comedians will give one of their inimitable performances at the opera house tomorrow evening. There will be union meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. in the First Presbyterian church this evening at 6 o'clock. Miss Amanda Prather arrived in Albany Friday evening from Missouri. She will spend the summer in this city visiting with her sister Miss Lee Prather. Services at the Congregational church to-day as usual. Subject of discourse at 11 a. m. "Christian Growth," 7:30 p. m. "Does Religion Pay?" Summer has come at last and the Ladies Bazaar is now fully prepared to supply you with everything in the furnishing goods line for ladies and children. They have the largest line of childrens dresses and aprons ever shown in this city and at surprisingly low rates. Rather Far-Fetched Pathos. Astorian: The South Bend Journal is still holding a post mortem on the Oysterville lynching. It now pathetically states that "one deplorable consequence of this lynching is that three generations hence, there will probably be some three thousand men and women hereabouts, in whose veins flows the tainted blood of the masked murderers of Oysterville; associating and intermarrying with our grand-children."

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

Miss Nettie Blackman Falls on a Pair of Scissors, Cutting an Ugly Gash. Miss Nettie Blackman was very painfully, if not seriously hurt yesterday afternoon, by falling and sticking a pair of scissors in her left side. She was upon the fence cutting flowers, when in some way she lost her balance and fell forward to the ground, sticking one blade of the scissors in her left side, cutting an ugly gash. The blade struck the third rib and ranged back, and it is thought has not entered the cavity, in which case it will not prove serious. Drs. Hill and Wallace were called and dressed the wound. At a late hour last evening she was resting easy.

New Democratic Daily.

The Portland Sunday Welcome states that May 22d has been set for the day of issuing the new democratic daily, The Morning Tribune. Mr. Gray will have charge of the editorial department while Mr. John Burnett will be business pilot, with other prominent democrats interested. The Welcome further says: "It is said the new paper will occupy the building adjoining the cathedral on Stark street. As the machinery is not here yet, the date of launching may be postponed. When she does the life-saving service will be duly notified to be ready with their appliances. We shall see what we shall see."

Silver Ore Pavement.

A short time ago rock from the hill opposite Roseburg was being used in paving the streets of that city. A gentleman, who was there at the time, examined the rock and found it contained silver as well as tracings of tin. He surprised the people by showing them what a valuable style of pavement they used. Investigation shows that silver rocks, which is well worth working, abounds in that vicinity, and efforts are being made to have it utilized. Traces of tin have been found in sufficient quantities to warrant a thorough prospect of the vicinity, which will doubtless be made.

Brick Hotel for Junction.

F. T. Whitcomb, of Eugene, has received the contract to make and lay the brick and draw the plans and specifications for Junction's new hotel. The building will be 87x100 feet, two high and is estimated to cost between $12,000 and $15,000. It will have all the modern conveniences and will be a handsome structure. It is said at least four one story brick and store buildings will be erected in that city.

The Excursion.

Four sharp whistles from the steamer Wm. H. Hoag announced the arrival of the Salem excursionists yesterday about 1:30 o'clock. The excursion was given by the University band, which played some very good music while in this city. About 150 were on board. On their arrival in Albany they scattered out and viewed the city over.

Now for the Water Ditch.

The citizens of Harrisburg and vicinity, believing that the time has come when the Harrisburg canal and water-ditch can be built have issued a call to the people to assemble in Mendenhall's hall in a mass meeting, on Saturday May 10th, at 2 o'clock p. m. next to arrange preliminaries to commence the work.

A Dangerous Trestle.

The Harrisburg Courier says: It is rumored that the trestles across the Davis slough, between this station and the bridge is one of the most dangerous ones between Portland and Astoria. If this information is true, it is possible that the railroad company and the railroad commissioners are not aware of it.

Honor to the Dead.

The Indians at the agency, says the Times-Mountaineer, have ordered a monument, to cost about $75, to be placed over the remains of their dead chief, William Chinook. It will be of marble and on the shaft will be engraved a fac simile of the medal the chief received from President Van Buren in 1817.

Invitation.

Mrs. Schmidt invites all the families in Albany to come and try her splendid ice cream, 10 cents a dish, 5 cents for children. First street, opposite the Ladies' Bazaar.

COAST NOTES.

Items of Interest from Exchanges Throughout the Northwest. The 20-month-old child of Samuel Stovall, of Baker City, got a bottle of benzine and drank about a fluid of it. The chances for recovery are slight. Forest Grove's Board of Trade, at its last meeting, voted to hold a Fourth of July celebration and also to form a joint stock milling company to operate the flouring mill there. The net taxable property within the Grant's Pass school district is $484,840, an increase over last year of over $75,000, besides the district being divided, thus making the actual gain over the previous year of a fraction over $100,000. Prisoners in the Baker City jail dug a hole through their dingy wall the other night, but the sheriff chanced to be in his office and heard them working. He went outside just in time to stop the first man who was crawling through the hole. There were four delegates from the Hillsboro board of trade to the presidential caucus here Tuesday says the Hillsboro Independent, as delegates in the state board of commerce contingent, whose combined weight was 895 pounds, two of them weighing 500 each. Sid Evans, a young man who near Albion, tried to put a shotgun into a wagon, the motor being toward him. The hammer caught, the gun was discharged, and Evans lived only long enough to utter the words, "I have killed myself." The young man's parents reside at Springfield, Lane county.

SHAMED BY WOMEN.

Cincinnati's Street Department Brought to Terms. CINCINNATI, May 8.—Complaints against the street-cleaning department of that city, that was numerous and loud the past year. Today affairs reached a crisis on Wade street, and the women who reside on that thoroughfare resolved to act. At 8:30 a. m., Mrs. Taphorn appeared on the street waving a broom. It was the signal, and instantly for squares, women and children swarmed out with brooms, hoes, rakes and wheelbarrows. Mrs. Taphorn acted as director-general. Mesdames Strieff, Brunz, Hutton and Becker were her aides. In a moment the air was full of dust, and the work was pushed vigorously. In thirty minutes there were piles of dirt all about, and the paving of the street began to show beneath the accumulation of months. In an hour all was ready for the city carts. Not satisfied with cleaning the street, the women took a hand at the sewers. Hundreds cheered the sight, and there were cheers as the plucky brigade proceeded with its work. Later in the day the board of administration appropriated $10,000 additional for special street cleaning purposes.

HANGED FOR MURDER.

He Died Game and Displayed No Emotion. OTTAWA, Ill., May 9.—William Rudolph, alias Charles Ford, was hanged at 10:11 this morning. It was discovered the real name of Charles Ford, who was hanged today for complicity in the murder of David Moore, a traveling lumber salesman of Omaha, was Wm. Rudolph, and that instead of being of Irish antecedents, his parentage was German. Up to the last moment Rudolph displayed the wonderful nerve which has characterized him from the beginning of the trial, and with the exception of the emotion displayed at the meeting with his wife, no other sign of feeling was shown by the murderer.

A Masked Man Shoots a Lady at Moresi Valley.

McMINSVILLE, Or., May 9.—Mrs. Monthian was shot through the hand by a masked man at her home in Moresi Valley yesterday. Her husband and a hired man were planting a garden back of the house when the would-be assassin knocked at the door. Mrs. Monthian opened the door, and was confronted by a masked man with a pistol, who said: "Get back into the house, and then fired, with the result above stated. The Monthians are quiet people, and no cause is assigned for the act, and no one is suspected.

HIS TROUBLES ARE ENDED.

A Man Sidelined by Drowning at Union, Oregon. UNION, May 9.—Last evening the body of an unknown man was found about four miles northwest of here, near the Union Pacific railroad track. The coroner's jury held an inquest and decided it was a case of suicide. He had taken off his coat and hat and apparently plunged head first into a pool of water. The name marked on his hat found on the body was "W. F. Hoey." The body has not yet been identified.

The Charleston Sailed Away.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—The United States cruiser Charleston left here at 6 o'clock this morning, her destination unknown, but it is understood she has gone outside the heads to test her new eight-inch rifles. Successful Observation. LICK OBSERVATORY, Cal., May 9.—The transit of mercury was successfully observed here and many photographs were taken.

SACKED BY THE MOB.

Italians Make a Raid on the Ruins of a Warehouse. PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 9.—A mob of men, women and children took possession today of the buildings ruined by Tuesday night's conflagration, and for two hours great excitement prevailed. There were police on the scene, and the crowd knew that buried beneath the ruins were thousands of dollars' worth of goods, eatables, etc. Hungarians and Italians composed the greater part of the crowd, and they ransacked everything in sight. Hams, cans of lard, condiments and coffee were carried away in large quantities. They were armed with sacks and baskets to carry their booty away, and it looked as though a systematic raid had been planned, and was hurriedly being executed. Not since the riots of 1877 have such scenes taken place in Pittsburgh. The interior of the Hoeveier building, a fine brick field for exploration. Risking their lives under the tottering walls, women wrinkled with age, dirty-faced children and hard-countenanced men threw hot bricks aside and extricated from the debris thousands of hams, cans of lard and many other like articles. The crowd numbered several hundred souls, and several fights occurred over the possession of some especially desirable articles. The firemen, who were still at work on the ruins, finally drove the looters off by turning the hose on them. Hundreds of dollars' worth of goods were stolen.
