SUICIDE AT SHEDD.

Mrs. Carrie Young Found Dead in Bed With Her Brains Blown Out.

SHEDD, Or., May 12.—Mrs. Carrie Young was found dead in bed this morning with a pistol shot in the temple. The muzzle of the pistol was sticking in the wound. It was evidently suicide, as there was both chloroform and poison by the bedside. She had been dead some time when found, as the blood had dried upon her face. The remains are in charge of the justice of the peace, and the coroner has been notified. No cause is known for the rash act.

Mrs. Young was recently divorced from her husband, Frank D. Young, who is section foreman on the Southern Pacific railroad at Oregon City. Their little daughter has been in the custody of the mother, living most of the time with Mrs. Young's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Cooper, near Shedd. The deceased had said her life was miserable and that she wished that she might die.

ALLEYS SHOULD BE CLEANED.

To the Editor of the Herald: At a recent meeting of the city council the alleys adjacent to First street were ordered cleaned but up to the present time nothing has been done. This is a matter that needs immediate attention, as it can better be accomplished before the dry season sets in. Another thing that should be looked after is the dumping of garbage and rubbish in the alleys, which does not tend to beautify these city highways and breeds disease. This is done daily in violation of sec. 37 of ordinance No. 152. The attention of the street commissioner is respectfully called to this matter.

CHRONOLOGICAL LECTURES.

Last evening at the W. C. T. U. hall, Prof. V. F. English, the accomplished phrenological lecturer, held a large audience completely filling the rooms, with the closest attention during the entire evening. The lecture was full of interest and valuable information. The professor's delineation of the nationalities by their walk was very amusing and was highly enjoyed by the audience. The recitation of "Brother Watkins' Farewell," by Mrs. English was well done and loudly applauded. The examination of four gentlemen selected by the audience showed that the subject was well understood, for the delineations were true to life. The lecture will be free again to night, and will be a valuable one.

EVANGELICAL CONFERENCE.

The Conference (proper) met in Trinity Evangelical church, Spokane Wash., Friday 9 A. M., May 8, 1891. Bishop J. J. Esher called the assemblage to order and declare the conference opened. The following ministers were present: H. I. Bittner, P. B. Bittner, I. B. Fisher, L. S. Fisher, N. Shupp, H. Schunkneck, J. Erich, A. Ernst, A. S. Copley, G. A. Maushart, H. Webe, A. Praker, T. Vincent, M. Burlingame, J. M. Frenck, J. McElroy, J. E. Stoops.

After devotional exercises, the bishop delivered a very impressive fervent address "Setting forth the great importance of the divine call to the ministry and the necessity of being a true ambassador of the gospel." An earnest appeal to the conference to be true loyal servants of Christ and to stand by the doctrines and discipline of the Evangelical Association produced a profound impression. T. T. Vincent was appointed reporter to the Spokane Review and The Oregonian, and A. S. Copley, to the Albany Herald, and Lafayette Ledger.

Second, That our faith is not shaken in him in the least as a man of God and of true piety and godliness nor in his ability to provide us with the deliberations of this conference, notwithstanding his alleged suspension. Third, That we assure him of our undivided confidence and that we will continue to remember him in our prayers to a throne of grace. Mr. Portland was chosen to be the place for the next annual session. The delegates to the general conference together with the presiding bishop were constituted a committee to designate the time for the next annual session.

After a brief address by the chairman, urging the clergy to teach their people the necessity and advantage of self-support, admonishing them to labor with double earnestness for the salvation of sinners, and to seek a fuller divine equipment for their mission business was resumed. Deacons orders were voted to T. T. Vincent and G. W. McElroy. The statistics show number of members 144, itinerant preachers 13, local 5, church edifices 30, their probable value $7600. Sunday school scholars 1417. Circulation of Evangelical hymn books and Christian Literature after 422. Suitable resolutions were passed concerning the Sabbath and Temperance and Education.

Was freighted with blessings from the Father's hand. Bishop Esher preached a spiritual and powerful discourse in the morning on the authority, theme, and power of the gospel and appealed to his ministerial brethren to preach Christ and Him only. In the afternoon three infants were baptized. T. T. Vincent and G. W. McElroy were ordained deacons, and the Lord's Supper was celebrated the Master being graciously near.

NORTHWEST NOTES.

A magazine known as the Occident, is said to be about to appear as the successor to the West Shore.

The police have raided the Portland gambling houses, and report that no open games are now running in that city.

A Clydesdale colt foaled at R. W. Kinney's ranch, Umatilla county, last week weighed 300 pounds at birth and stood five feet high.

The Siuslaw & Eastern railroad made a proposition to Eugene to construct and have in operation at least sixteen miles of road within four months, provided the town will give a right of way 165 feet wide through the place and $100,000 bonds.

The prospects for a good yield of grain in Sherman county were never better for many years than they are at present. Snow fell late and moisture was in the ground sufficiently to give wheat a good, healthy growth and the recent rain has done a great deal of benefit.

J. J. Davis, of Umatilla county, who has a band of J. B. Ray's sheep, has finished shearing the ewes, an average yield of 12 pounds each being obtained from 1400 head. The large yield will also be obtained, it is thought, from the remainder of the band of 2100.

On the 6th of June the farmer's alliance will run a state organization, in Oregon. On the 8th a grand alliance picnic will be held at Athena. President Polk of the National alliance will be present from Washington and Hon. D. Cole from Kansas. E. B. McElroy, Oregon's superintendent of public instruction, is just now up to his eyes in work in the way of answering correspondence concerning the state teachers' association which is to be held at Newport during the first week in July. Lots of other matters pertaining to school also is needing his attention.

Professor Bliven evolved a couple of very interesting and valuable object lessons in metallurgy in his laboratory last week, says the Ruby Miner. In one of these he had a piece of metal which contained copper and iron, a precipitate was produced of a light, pulpy substance brown in color and no appearance whatever of bearing gold. Taking one or two of these particles and hitting them a blow with the hammer, the resultant is a piece of bright gold, solid, and chemically pure. The same result is obtained by applying the pulpy substance to a flame for the merest instant, except that a bright ball is formed. The rock with which this experiment is made is the ordinary quartz of this country, but with an apparent trace of gold. Some of the Ruby Hill mines have an ore which contains a flimsy, wooly substance, in which are, or appear to be, many well-developed hairs. Many learned theories have been advanced as to the origin and evolution of the hairy mass, and while it was has been a matter of mystery. A small portion of the matter placed in a cupel, and subjected to a moderate flame, gives a button composed of silver and lead, with a little bismuth. The hairs are simply the richest sort of silver.

HECAME TO TIME.

How a Little Man Bluffed out a Tall Enemy. A big man and a little man had a war of words on Congress street west the other day. The big man dared the little man to tackle him for a cent or any other sum of money which he might care to put up, but the latter answered: "No, sir! I will hide my time! I can wait to hit me with a brick-bat some dark night, are you?" "No, sir! I shall take a manly revenge."

OF INTEREST TO THE DAIRYMAN.

Prepare for the dry weather.—Grass is plentiful and the time has come when the milk and butter supply fairly meet the demand in quantity, however not in quality. It will not be long before dry weather will set in and the grass fields will not furnish the fresh juicy herbage which so wonderfully increases the flow of milk. It is of great importance for stock growing of every description to have enough feed at all seasons but particularly does this apply to the dairyman. To be successful in producing milk, the cows must be fed well all seasons.

Grow fodder corn—prepare a piece of land as well as you know how, plant with corn this month, clean up around the buildings and give your cornland a dressing of manure if you have it, do not forget to have all the wash removed from the outbuildings. You can plant the corn in rows with a seed drill if you cannot get a corn planter which will do the work better.

The rows should be far enough apart to allow cultivating, the plants in the row should not be closer than one plant to every 6 or 12 inches. Cover the corn about 3 inches and run a light roller or harrow over the corn 2 or 3 times until the plants are 4 or 5 inches high and cultivate once or twice. Summerfallow treated in this manner will raise a good crop of corn and be in fine condition for wheat and clover just at a time when you need it.

A Counterfeit Bill.

A stranger from Portland on his way to California, stopped in this city a few days last week, stopping at the hotel for a dentist. He was recommended to Dr. Leiminger. At the dental office he said, "doctor, do you insure your work?" "I do," said the doctor. He then requested the dentist to fill three cavities and make him a partial plate of teeth. The dentist did the work, and the next afternoon (Saturday) he called for the teeth. "How much is the bill?" asked the stranger. "Ten dollars," said the doctor. The stranger then handed him a $20 bill which the doctor got changed at the bank and gave him $10 in change. The stranger then said, "I have been seen since. The bill proved to be a counterfeit, so Monday morning the cashier of the bank induced Dr. Leiminger to give him $20 in good money for the counterfeit bill. Query: How much did Dr. Leiminger lose?"
