MURDER WILL OUT.

The Slayers of Barbour Are Caught For Trial.

THEY COULD NOT HIDE.

The Dead Man's Watch Gives Them Away. Other Murderers Charged Hanging Over Them.

PORTLAND, May 23.—At last two men supposed to be the murderers of Wm. M. Barbour, of the firm of Barbour & Dangleish, of Lebanon, have been arrested at Butte, Montana. The detectives refuse to give their names at present, but are confident they have the right men.

Barbour went to Portland on business, on Wednesday April 15. Soon after his arrival he deposited in the Bank of British Columbia some $700 in money, which he bought with him. During the day, in addition to making some new purchases, he drew three checks on the Bank of British Columbia; of $75, payable to himself; another of about $500, payable to Messrs. Foster & Robertson, and a third of about $25 payable to Messrs. S. & G. Gump. He spent the night of the 15th at the Holton house, leaving there on the morning of the 16th, as if expecting to return. He was seen on the 16th, by W. M. Amos, with whom he was at one time associated in the grocery business on Washington street. He failed to return to his hotel on the evening of the 16th, as was expected he would, and nothing more was seen or heard of him. The police made diligent inquiry, but could trace him only for a few days after his disappearance. He was known when last seen, but $60 of this is accounted for by a deposit, he could not have had over $65 on his person. He also had a gold watch and chain and a diamond ring. He spent some of his money for drinks, but how much is not known. Several saloon men saw him in their places of business drinking with friends, but when they last saw him they don't remember.

When searched at the morgue nothing was found on the body except a small scrap of paper containing a receipt for some goods purchased from a Portland dry goods firm. The upper half of the receipt was torn off, so that the receipt amounted to absolutely nothing for the purpose of identification. In his necktie there was a square gold pin with star and crescent ornaments. The crescent and star were in the center of the pin. This pin led to the identification of the remains. The front of the head was crushed in, and from a hole in the back of the head, evidently a bullet hole, the brain matter was oozing out.

That Barbour was found dealt with has never been any doubt. The injuries on the head were evidence of this. The fact that all his money, watch and chain and diamond ring were missing naturally led to the inference that he was murdered for his money. The general supposition is that he was murdered somewhere in the city, and that the body was then carried off and dumped into the river at Penney's mill.

The public will be glad to hear that the murderers are likely to be brought to justice. It is learned to-night that the names of the men under arrest at Butte are Edward Rice and Geo. White. The name of the third man whom the officers are looking for, cannot be ascertained. He is described as a large Swede and they are all said to be ex-convicts. The Swede and Rice answer to the description of Napa murderers. The Swede was known to have been in Butte a few days ago, but all trace of him has been lost. The officers are expected to arrive here with the prisoners next Tuesday.

CONCLUDED TO ACCEPT.

The Twenty-Five Hundred Instead of Ten Thousand.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—When the California athletic club resolved to award Jackson and Corbett each $2500 in lieu of the $10,000 purse as originally offered for their contest, both fighters vigorously protested against such an arrangement and declared they would not accept it. To-day, however, Corbett changed his mind and took the money and it is thought Jackson will do likewise.

Killed Their Friends by Mistake.

DENVER, Neb., May 23.—While a party of vigilantes, who had just captured a cattle thief named McAlvey near here, were bringing the prisoner to town last night, they met another party of vigilantes. The night was very dark, and each party mistook the other for thieves. Fire was opened by both sides, and before the mistake was discovered Judge Aikens, treasurer of the county, and McAlvey, the cattle thief, were killed. No arrests were made.

The Stingers' Affairs.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—Regarding another match with Corbett, Peter Jackson said to-day: "I am perfectly willing to fight it out, and, in fact, I think that is the only course open to us." Jackson said he had, on leaving Australia, promised the Sydney gymnastic club that as soon as Goddard put up the forfeit, he would meet him. Jackson would meet him. Jackson said he has since been informed that the club had arranged a match and he had accordingly sent a letter by the last steamer affirming his willingness to keep his promise, but stating that he would not leave for Sydney until summoned by cable. He said his letter should reach Sydney tomorrow, and he would allow ten days for a reply, and if none was received he would agree to another match with Corbett within the three months from this date. He further stated that should Goddard hold him to the match and he, Jackson, should win, he would make no other engagements but return here and give Corbett the first money.

AN ANTI-CZAR.

Because Money Had Been Rowed of Jews.

FOR THE ART EXHIBITION.

He Refuses to Go to Moscow Because He Will Not Obey the French by Not Attending the Exhibition.

(Copyright 1911 by N. Y. Associated Press.)

BERLIN, May 23.—A sensation has been caused by the discovery relating to the French exhibition at Moscow, which gave the czar occasion to show his solicitude for the French. To avoid wounding the feelings of the French committee, the exhibition, which was in need of funds, secretly applied to the Jewish and Russian capitalists, Greenwald, Poliakoff and Goltov. On depositing 1,200,000 tickets as security, Greenwald and Poliakoff became involved in a quarrel with the committee and claimed control of the entrance money of the exhibition. A rupture led to the scandal. The czar was incensed that the fair should have fallen into the hands of the detected Jews. If the matter is not speedily settled he will abandon his visit to Moscow in order to avoid giving offense to France by going to Moscow without patronizing the exhibition. He has sent the promoters of the fair an angry intimation that the presence of the imperial family as an assistance to Jewish speculation is inadmissible. His ire has also been increased by the fact that during his stay in Moscow he desired to lay the foundation of a monument to be erected in memory of his father, and also open the first exhibition of Central Asian products held in Russia. The whole programme has been dropped.

OPEN FRICTION.

Between The Portuguese and the English in Africa.

LONDON, May 23.—A dispatch received here from Lourenco Marques, a Portuguese town of Africa, on the north side of Delagoa Bay, says the British cruiser "Brick" arrived and reports a serious conflict between the British and Portuguese colonists. Commander Winsloe's troops stationed at the Portuguese military on the river Limpopo, attacked the British of the south Africa company's expedition, commanded by Commissioner H. H. Johnston. Seven Portuguese were killed. The British loss is unknown. The British cruiser Magicienne and the British gunboat "Magon" have arrived at Beira, Mozambique, where in April the Portuguese authorities seized the British mail sacks and stopped the Willoughby expedition.

SLIGHT DIFFERENCE.

The Change That Was Made by Omitting a Couple of Words.

LOUISVILLE, May 23.—R. C. Howe, who for over twenty years has been manager for Kentucky of the New York Life Insurance Company, last evening filed a suit against the company for $30,000 damages. He claims that he built up a big business in the state for the company, but that a few years ago the company negotiated with him to buy out his good will and interest. At first they agreed to pay him $25,000, but afterwards agreed, he says, to give him an annuity of $2,500 for life and use his name as general agent. Now he alleges that they refuse to pay him his annuity, and has brought suit. Howe declares that in the contract made with him the words "for life" were left out without his knowledge.

SHINGLE MILLS TO CLOSE.

Five Hundred Men Thrown Out of Work.

TACOMA, May 23.—A. L. Blain, manager of the North Pacific Consolidated Shingle Company, told a correspondent of an Eastern lumber journal to-day, that owing to over-production and high freight rates, 48 shingle mills between Portland and British Columbia will be shut down to-night. This will throw at the lowest estimate 5000 men out of work and will decrease the consumption of timber about 3,000,000 daily.

Bogus Land Detective Caught.

SPOKANE, May 23.—Pemberton, the bogus special agent of the general land office, who has been swindling Eastern Washington millmen out of large sums of money, by extorting pay from them for timber cut on government land, or bought from settlers who had not yet proved up on their claims, has been captured at Connellyville, Okanogan county, where he will have a preliminary examination Monday. He was caught in the act, having extorted cash from a millman near Connellyville.

TRYING THE LAW

A SUIT TO TEST THE STATE MEDICAL LAWS.

A Doctor Sues the State Medical Board—The Suit Will Test the Constitutionality of the Law.

PORTLAND, May 23.—A case that promises to be of great interest to the medical profession of this state, is now pending before Judge Shattuck in the state circuit court. Dr. William A. Barnore, a recent graduate from the medical school in Ohio, has commenced suit against the state board of medical examiners, to compel them to grant him a license for practicing medicine in this state, and upon the outcome of this issue hinges the constitutionality of the medical law of Oregon.

Dr. Barnore claims to be a graduate of a college in good standing. The state medical board claim that the college, although an old one, is not in good standing, for the reason that it requires only a two-term course for graduation. Dr. Barnore was given an opportunity to display his medical knowledge in an examination. He took his examination but failed to pass.

CLOUD BURST.

At Boise City Doing Immense Damage.

BOISE CITY, May 23.—A cloud burst occurred one mile north of this city this afternoon in Culver gulch. A great volume of water ten feet high gathered in a deep and narrow bed of an old creek and swept down to the mouth of the gulch, where Cottonwood creek runs from another direction. The latter creek formerly ran through this city but its course has been diverted by a dike. The dike was broken by the force of the water and a flood rushed into the town flooding a great portion of it with several feet of water. Considerable damage was done to the United States government buildings and parade grounds. Henry Rossback, living in Curlew gulch, saw the flood coming and only had time to take his family to a place of safety when the flood carried away his house. The city loses heavily by the destruction of the dike. It is estimated the loss will reach $40,000.

Yale Beats Princeton.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 23.—The Yale-Princeton championship ball game came off here to-day. It was one of the hardest fought that the two teams have ever played. When defeat seemed inevitable for Yale, the Princeton men became rattled and as a result the score at the end stood: Yale, 4; Princeton, 1.

Capturing the Dalton's.

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 23.—The Dalton Bros. gang that robbed the Santa Fe passenger train at Wharton station, were captured last Friday evening in Sac and Fox reservation after a 19 hours fight by the United States deputy marshals, aided by a detachment of 60 cavalry. One of the Dalton's was killed and a soldier wounded.
