THEY DO NOT WANT TO FIGHT

The Greatest Trouble Is Provoked by Unprincipled Cattlemen Who Plunder the Ranges and Rob the Indians

CHICAGO, May 25.—Captain Ewers, U. S. A., agent at the Tongue River agency, was in the city today and had an interview with General Miles about the situation among the Indians in the West. The captain has just completed a tour of the camps within a radius of 200 miles of the Tongue River agency, and he said the people now to be feared were not Indians, but cattlemen who want all the land they can grab for their cattle to roam over. Cattlemen, Captain Ewers said, were the people who stirred up Indians by stealing their land and taking advantage of them in every way and the Indians are complaining bitterly of encroachments of these marauders.

HORSE RACES REPRIMANDED

The Court Says It Is a Species of Gambling as Carried On.

CHICAGO, May 25.—Canigan's Racing Association met with a defeat and reprimand before Judge Blaggett today in their application for an injunction to restrain the Western Union Telegraph company from charging them more than other associations are charged for racing news. The court said: "Without considering any other phase of it, the contract which the court is called upon to force the telegraph company into, is of such a doubtful character that courts of equity cannot respect it. This furnishing of news of horse racing is a species of gambling, and it is against public policy. It enables the people to gamble on horse races at other points without going there. The notion for injunction is overruled."

A BIG STEAL

More About Treasurer Bartlesley's Crookedness—Bail Increased.

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—This afternoon the attorney-general had an affidavit returned and presented to Magistrate Pole, charging Treasurer Bartlesley with having collected $567,691 belonging to the state of Pennsylvania, and failing to account for the same. Magistrate Pole thereupon increased Bartlesley's bail from $25,000 to $50,000. Two detectives have remained in a room adjoining Bartlesley's bedroom since Saturday night, when the warrant was served.

THE REMOVAL OF WARD McALLISTER FROM THE ALASKA DISTRICT COURT.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The supreme court today rendered an opinion through Justice Harlan in the case of Ward McAllister against the United States. McAllister was removed from office as judge of the district court in Alaska by President Cleveland, and claimed his salary from the time he was removed to the qualification of Dawson, who was confirmed as his successor. The court holds that the Alaska court is not a court of the United States as set forth in third article of the constitution, but a territorial court.

ORIGINAL PACKAGES

The Law Upheld by the Supreme Court.

QUESTION OF STATE RIGHTS.

The States Have the Power to Control Their Purely Internal Affairs, Including the Traffic in Liquor.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The United States supreme court today upheld the constitutionality of the original package law passed by congress, and also held that it was not necessary for congress to re-enact its prohibitory law after the passage of the congressional act in order to shut out liquor in original packages.

A SHAMEFUL DEAL

OPIUM SMUGGLERS CLEAN UP OVER A MILLION.

The Authorities Are Either Powerless or Sadly Remiss in Their Duties in Not Suppressing It.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—Further advice reached the custom house today regarding the actions of the viceroy, who, with owner W. H. Whaley, had undertaken to regulate it. Intoxicating liquors are undoubtedly subjects of commerce, like any other commodity, but nevertheless it has often been held that laws prohibiting the manufacture and sale of liquor within the state does not constitute an infringement upon any constitutional privilege or immunity. This right rests upon the acknowledged right of the states to control their purely internal affairs.

THE UNHAPPY MORMONS

Their Eminent Property to Be Devoted to Charitable Uses.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—When the supreme court last term upheld the constitutionality of the Edmunds law, by which the property of the late corporation of the church of Jesus Christ, of Latter Day Saints, otherwise known as the Mormon church, was escheated to the United States, it found itself in a somewhat embarrassing position. The doctrine of escheat was quite unknown in this country, and no purpose considered honorable and proper, of a similar nature to that for which the property was formerly used, was known for which the property could be devoted. The court, therefore, instead of sending the decree down, withheld it, a strong intimation being conveyed of the desire of the court that congress should by law, direct the disposition to be made of the property. Congress having failed to adopt the suggestion, the court today made a final order in the case and modified its former respects the decree which it entered at the last term. The decree says the personal property, having developed to the United States, should be devoted to such charitable use, lawful in character as may most nearly correspond to the former use, unless in the meantime congress shall otherwise direct.

LAND FOR INDIANS

A Million and a Half Acres to be Opened to Settlement.

SPOKANE FALLS, May 25.—The commissioners appointed by the president to negotiate with the various tribes of Indians now occupying the Colville reservation, have returned here after a month's negotiations. An agreement was reached with the Indians, by which one million five hundred thousand acres, or a trifle more than one half of the reservation are to be sold to the government for one dollar per acre and thrown open to settlement. At first there was some opposition among the Indians, but finally Antoine, chief of the Okanogans, signed and their chiefs Moses and Joseph were bitterly opposed to the sale and not one of them signed. Altogether 500 adult males and females signed, which is 200 more than the required majority. Under treaty every man woman and child has a right to select 80 acres in severally.

SAFE BLOWING AT STAYTON

At about 2 o'clock Saturday morning robbers blew the door off the safe of Whitney, Elder & Co., general merchants at Stayton.

Mr. Whitney heard the first shot, but did not know for what reason it came. The second shot brought him into the street. A. D. Gardner, ex-postmaster, was also around, and took three shots at the robbers. There were two of them. Both Mr. Whitney and Mr. Gardner saw the safe blowers. There were two of them, one a tall man and the other rather chunky. They secured from $150 to $200 in cash and several thousand dollars worth of valuable papers. Some $100 in cash in the safe they did not touch. It is supposed that they heard Mr. Gardner after them, and hurried away before they finished their job. The firm had taken about $500 out of the safe a few days before, having heard of the several robberies throughout the country and became afraid to leave so much money in a poor safe.—Salem Statesman.

THE LIGHTWEIGHTS

They Fight for the Championship of England—Decided on a Point.

New York, May 25.—A special cable to the Police Gazette says the oft-postponed prize fight between Dick Burge, of Newcastle, and Jim Carney, of Birmingham, for $1000 and the lightweight championship of England, was decided today. The battle was fought in the Hop Malt Exchange boxing room. Carney had the best of the fighting from the start, and punished Burge terribly. After the men had fought eight rounds it was any odds that the SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—The directors of the California Athletic Club held a meeting tonight. SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—The bodies of Elyzer Gonzalez, a Mexican barber aged 28 years, and Sevo Seseiro, aged about 25, were found late this afternoon in a room at the Model lodging house on Montgomery avenue. The woman's body bore many knife wounds and a silletto was found sticking in Gonzalez's heart. Gonzalez's jealousy is said to have been the cause of the tragedy.

A SEATTLE MURDER

A VARIETY DANCER LITERALLY CUT TO PIECES.

The Crime Was Committed After an All Night's Spree in a House of Ill Repute.

SEATTLE, May 25.—At daylight this morning a bloody fight occurred in the Elliott house, in which J. Leonard, a variety show dancer, was stabbed in the shoulder and abdomen eight times. Leonard is at the Providence hospital, and is not expected to live. His assailant is not known, and the wounded man is not in a condition to tell who stabbed him. Leonard was about town all night last night with "Dock" Ford, a variety performer, and a man named Gilmore, a theater restaurant. This morning they went into room No. 48 of the Elliott, a resort for sporting men and fallen women. About 6 o'clock this morning the room was broken open. In the middle of the floor was Leonard, covered with blood and partially unconscious. The walls of the room were covered with blood, showing that there had been a desperate struggle. Ford and Gilmore have not been found since Leonard was discovered, and the police are after them. Leonard is well known on the coast. He played at the People's theater here, and also played in Portland. It is said that he canceled a date with Cordray's manager a few days since.

DELAYS AND DILATORY WORK

The Dalles Times-Mountaineer: The United States government has nothing to do with the portage road at the Cascades except granting the right-of-way. Oregon will construct the road, and can either do it by the locks method or the contract system. The government officials have never been consulted nor will be, regarding the plan to be adopted in building the state railroad at the Cascades. The assertion that "government officials" have said that the state of Oregon cannot do its work by contract or otherwise is so silly and ridiculous that it requires no refutation. Delays and dilatory work at the locks have made the people almost unanimous in favor of all public improvements better made in the cheapest and most economical manner, and that is by the contract system.
