PAIR WARNING.

A dot Wave Will Overtake All Delinquent Taxpayers Who Do Not Heed This.

This man thinks it is hot, but Sheriff Scott proposes to make it much more tropical for him and all other delinquent taxpayers unless they settle up at once. He has had published for several weeks that following advertisements, but the delinquents are still procrastinating.

TO DELINQUENT TAXPAYERS—By order of the county court I am directed to collect all taxes standing unpaid on the assessment rolls of this county. If such taxes are not paid immediately, I shall proceed to make collection of the property of delinquents to make collection.

Now he proposes to enforce the collection of all unpaid taxes. It is not pleasant business, but the duty of his office compels him to do so, and delinquents should pay up immediately if they wish to avoid a legal process and enjoy peace of mind, as this is positively the last call, after which will begin the fire works.

Word comes from Halstead, where the roaring Santiam winds its classic course toward the beautiful Willamette, that an old maid from Salem, who has taken up a squatter's claim a short distance above there, went up to her ranch the other day after an absence of several months, and found a young man about to "jump it."

PUBLIC LAND SURVEY.

The Lands Up the Santiam Soon to Be Open to Settlement.

The people on the upper North Santiam who have been waiting patiently for the government lands in that region to be surveyed are about to see their hopes realized. A party of government surveyors have gone up to Clatskanie, from which place they were expected to start Monday to begin the survey of township 10, range 3 east. This township will be sectionized, and the boundaries of four or five others will be surveyed. The settlers have also petitioned to have two or three other townships sectionized, and are likely to meet with success.

The larger part of the land in township 10-4, where the survey begins on the old unfinished contract, is held by squatters, also considerable of the land above there along the river. The settlers in that region who have been holding their land for years, and have been unable to obtain title to it because it was not surveyed, will welcome this important undertaking.

OREGON CROPS. Crop-weather bulletin No. 11, issued by the state weather bureau at Portland says: All vegetation has had excellent growth during the week. The weather conditions were favorable to all crops. Winter wheat never promised better, in Yamhill county it began heading on the 23d. Early sown spring grain is 10 inches high. At Langlois, Curry county, rye is seven feet high. Potatoes are well increased in acreage in Washington and Clackamas counties, in these counties and in Yamhill the number of hop yards have been increased and lice are apparent. The hay crop will be unusually large, especially in Columbia county. Considerable buckwheat has been sown in Clackamas. The prune crop has been somewhat blighted and not more than an average yield is expected. Cherries have been somewhat injured by blight and frost. Peach trees are affected with mildew. Strawberries are ripening rapidly in most sections. Jackson, Josephine and Douglas counties have excellent prospects for grain and fruit. The surface soil is becoming dusty and dry soil is hard. Showers would be welcome and beneficial. The week closes with continued excellent crop prospects.

Good Recommendations. EGGENE, Or., April 1, 1891. We the undersigned citizens of Eugene, Oregon, having thoroughly tested the Pacific Washing Machine, do most cheerfully recommend the same to all who need a first class machine. It does its work perfectly in a remarkable short time, and without any labor, so to speak. It is all that Messrs. Bunch & Williams claim it to be. It is the best machine we have seen used, and does its work better. A. Hovey, president Lane county Bank; G. Hendricks, president First National Bank; F. M. Wilkins, Mrs. G. P. Griffin, Mrs. A. M. Shot For a Bear. Walter Farmer, a young quintal lake settler, shot and killed Clifton Kinkie, his bosom friend, mistaking him for a wild bear. Kinkie awoke in the middle of the night and having occasion to go outside, did so very quietly, so as not to awaken his friend. The cracking of twigs outside the cabin awoke Turner. They had shot a bear the day before and Turner, thinking it was another bear raised his rifle and fired. Kinkie's dying yell was the first intimation Turner had that his friend was not in bed. Both men were "stunned" by Kinkie being recently from Elizabeth, N. J., and Turner from Minneapolis.

A HINT TO DOCTORS.

Their Attention Called to the Amended Medical Law.

Dr. James Browne secretary of the state medical board, desires to call the attention of physicians to the following provisions of the amended medical law: Every person who has taken advantage of section 15 of the amended act shall, within ninety days from the passage of this act, present to the secretary of the state board of medical examiners a certificate of such register from the county clerk of the county in which he is registered. On the 22d of this month the board of medical examiners shall issue their certificate. Dr. Browne says that this means that the legislature of Oregon, while requiring of all registered physicians that they should obtain a license from the state medical board, generously accorded them a period of ninety days in which to secure it, with a view, as it would seem, that no one, in obeying this law, should be put to excessive inconvenience or be obliged to make unnecessary haste.

On the 22d of this month the board of medical examiners shall issue their certificate. Dr. Browne says that this means that the legislature of Oregon, while requiring of all registered physicians that they should obtain a license from the state medical board, generously accorded them a period of ninety days in which to secure it, with a view, as it would seem, that no one, in obeying this law, should be put to excessive inconvenience or be obliged to make unnecessary haste.

All physicians, registered and not registered, are notified that the ninety days expired, and hence the law is now operative against all those who omitted to apply for license within the period mentioned.

Scio is not exactly a frontier town, yet within the past two weeks a cougar and a bear have been killed within three miles of the city. The water is deeper on the bar and the channel more clearly defined than ever, at Yaquina bay the good effects of erecting a jetty on the north side of the mouth of the river are nearly apparent. Wool has already been selling at Pendleton as high as 15 cents a pound, and an agent of an eastern buyer in that city has so far purchased 50,000 pounds. There is a proposition to change the name of the city to Klamath Falls. Parties in the East urge that the name will then convey some meaning to those looking for a location of manufacturing purposes.

Hereditary blood diseases are thinning out the Indians on the Snake river. The census population last year was 571. Out of that number twenty-five Indians died in 1890, and the number of deaths this year to date is seven. William Leever had a narrow escape from being killed by a bear, but he was not hurt. A few days ago. The animal assailed him and cut him up badly in the thigh and legs and only timely assistance prevented the victim from making short work of its animal.

The usually quiet and peaceful community of Wheatland has been roused from its normal state of repose Monday evening, by an occurrence which falls but little short of furnishing all necessary chapters for a bloody tragedy. The principal participants in the affair were John W. Smith and John E. Brooks. Smith is a farmer by occupation, about thirty-five or forty years of age, and has a wife and three or four children. He bears the reputation of a quiet, inoffensive and industrious man, and his family is well respected in the neighborhood. Brooks had been in his employ some time as a farm hand, and during this time some difficulty had arisen between Smith and his wife, such as an unhappily sometimes occurs between persons not fortified by the promissory wisdom, which led to a temporary separation. It is alleged that Brooks drew his revolver and shot first, but that is a matter for the court to determine. Being in close quarters, a clinch followed, and Brooks was either thrown or knocked down, and Smith, with blood streaming from his own scalp, proceeded at his leisure to put some finishing touches upon an already disfigured countenance. Whatever state of facts judicial inquiry may develop, public sympathy is strongly on the side of Smith, a general verdict being that Brooks got about what he deserved.—McM. Reporter.
