

Morning Daily Herald

ON SALE.

The DAILY HERALD will be on sale each morning at H. J. Jones' book store, where it can be procured at 5 cents per copy.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Eugene is to have an ice factory soon. Fresh bread every day at Parker Bros. The famous Georgia Minstrels to-night. Chas. Warner and wife, of Scio, is in the city. W. A. McGhee is recovering from his recent illness. Allen's do their own delivering, carefully and promptly. Leave your orders for dressed chickens at Allen Bros. Dr. G. W. Maston and daughter Vida, returned last evening from Portland. Sam Goez's fancy pastry, cakes and bread, fresh every morning, at Allen Bros. Vegetables from Linn county garden, received every morning at Parker Bros. Reserved seats for the Georgia Minstrels Friday evening are on sale at Will & Link's. Ice cream by the pint or quart at Boenicke's, and guaranteed to be the finest in the city. Hurlburt & Etris invite a trial washing of clothes to test the Pacific Washing Machine. Strawberries, cherries, gooseberries, currants, and received every morning, at Allen Bros. Geo. W. Davis came in yesterday from the Green Basin, where he had been spending a few days. He reports heavy rains in that section. The ladies of the McPherson Relief Corps are requested to meet at their hall Friday at 2:30 to arrange flowers for decoration the next morning. The Green Basin Lumbering Co. had the misfortune to break their saw, but immediately ordered another one, and will be in active operation as soon as it arrives. J. C. Roe, of Menominee, Michigan, representing a large lumbering company, arrived in this city yesterday, attracted here by the renown of our timber interests. He will go to the North Santiam this morning. An advertisement for bids for the construction of the big steel bridge at this city, can be found in our columns this morning. It is self explanatory and contains the full details of plans for the proposed structure. Don't forget Friday afternoon, the grand Uniform parade given by the Georgia Minstrels. See the most wonderful drum major of his age in the world, Master Bertie Trice. Secure your seats early. Reserved seats 75 cents. The commencement exercises of the Academy of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, will be held in the opera house, June 11th, at 8 p. m. The pupils are hard at work practicing for the occasion, and hope, as usual, to give their friends a pleasant entertainment. There will be a special meeting of Organa encampment No. 5, on Friday evening, May 29, for the purpose of conferring all the degrees on several candidates. All members and visitors are earnestly requested to attend. A grand free banquet will be served by the Rebekahs, G. W. Sears,cribe. Salem is talking in earnest about holding a strawberry and rose fair in the near future. A most attractive and valuable exhibit can be made in that line, and if Salem decides to make the effort it will be a decided success. There is as fine material for a show of that in Salem as can be found in the world and her citizens never do things by halves. We would suggest that cream be added and that your neighbors up this way be invited to pass judgment. See?

THE GAME OF BASE BALL.

An Answer to the Petition Asking the Albany Not to Play for Money.

Mr. WILL H. COWAN, Manager of the Albany Base Ball Club: Dear Sir: We, the undersigned citizens of Albany, Or., believing that to enter into any game or sport where there is money or equivalent at stake, is adopting a principle that should be discouraged, and one that no young man can afford to adopt as he starts out in life, do hereby most earnestly petition you as manager for the Albany base ball club, of Albany, Or., to rearrange the game of base ball to be played in Albany, Or., on Saturday, May 30, 1890, between the base ball clubs known as the Albany and the Linn, so that there shall be no money or its equivalent at stake between the two clubs. Believing that nothing will be lost financially, and that much will be gained morally, we very respectfully submit this petition for your careful consideration.

A. J. McLeod, Geo. H. Hill, L. E. Blain, Geo. W. Dodder, W. F. Read, S. E. Young, C. W. Elkins, E. F. Sox, C. H. Stewart, Fred Fortmiller, Wm. Fortmiller, Geo. L. Blackman, O. C. Aubrey, David P. Mason, H. J. Jones, George C. Stanard, O. P. Coehow Jr., Chas. H. Hart, W. R. Blain, W. H. Lee, E. R. Prichard, S. G. Irvine, S. E. Menninger, F. H. Roscoe, S. W. Paisley, H. W. Young, S. N. Steele, J. M. Pollock, E. N. Condit, C. H. Cusick, W. S. Thompson, Jay W. Blain, H. F. Merrill, E. S. Barrows, J. C. Littler, A. J. Hodges, D. H. McCullough, H. H. Hewitt.

MESSRS. BLAIN, MERRILL, SOX AND OTHERS.

Referring to the above petition I desire to correct an erroneous impression that appears to exist, as regards the Albany nine's connection with the game of ball to be played on the 30th inst. In the first place, (with all due deference to the signers of said petition), the petition was uncalled for, and was calculated to cast a reflection upon the members of our "good nine." I am proud to say, that our club does not play for money, and have no wagers upon the result of the coming contest, and cannot but feel that we have been placed in a false light by the indiscreet circulation of the said petition. I speak for our own club, when I say, that we do not desire to play for money. Nor do we wish to encourage the practice of betting. It is not necessary for the members of the "Albany nine" to get their money in that way, as each and every one of the members have honorable positions of trust and labor within our own city. If however, outside people have placed wagers upon the result of our battle with the "Linn," we certainly could not prevent, and should not be held responsible for their actions. I am glad to be able to say, that the moral and industrial rank and status of each member of our club, will compare most favorably with that of the members of any other young men's association in our city. We hope that nothing but kindness was intended by the petition, and charity lay it to the misguided zeal of a very few good young men, whose discernment has been sadly neglected. Respectfully, W. H. Cowan, Mgr. A. B. B. Club.

ATTENTION "F" COMPANY.

ORDER NO. 2. ARMOY F Co., 2d Reg't, O.N.G. May 29, 1891. Officers and privates of F Co. will assemble promptly at 7:30 o'clock this (Friday) evening at the armory for drill and to make arrangements to serve as an escort to the G. A. R. on Decoration day. By order of GEO. E. CHAMBERLAIN, Attest: W. A. HUMPHREY, First Sergeant.

Corporal Punishment in School.

Percy Pugh, aged 15 years, and a pupil of the East Salem High school, in the room of Miss Victor, came to the Statesman office Wednesday, says that paper and showed the marks of a whipping which he received at the hands of Miss Victor. The offense was whispering, and the whip was a rawhide, says the boy; anyway great welts were left on each leg, and the skin was broken and the blood let out in several places. Inquiring revealed the fact that the boy is a bright and truthful lad, and generally of good behavior. Whatever was his offense, the whipping was certainly very severe. If a teacher should so whip a horse on the streets he should be arrested. Miss Victor is offered space by the Statesman to explain the cause of such severe punishment.

Immensely Popular.

A well known and well informed gentleman of this city, who has heard Col. Bain lecture, says that he knows of no speaker in the United States whom he would rather hear than the eloquent colonel. Most favorable reports also are received from those who have heard him in Portland and Salem, of his ability as a first-class orator. He will give his first lecture in our city on Sabbath afternoon at 4 o'clock, the Y. M. C. A. having kindly withdrawn their meeting at that hour. The lecture will be given in the opera house to afford an opportunity for all to hear him. Do not fail to enjoy that honor.

Dr. J. V. Gaff, late of Shedd, this county, where he established an excellent reputation as a physician and surgeon, has located at Albina. His many friends and patients in that part of the country will be glad to learn where he can be found, and will wish him abundant success in his new field of labor.

FROM THE SUDSLAW.

Railroad Rumors And Survey's, Mail Privileges, Etc.

WALTON Lane Co., Or. May 24th. The air is full of railroads, and railroad talk. A company known as the Sinslaw Railway and Navigation Co., are running a survey through our little valley and the road is built on the survey, the most of the little ranches will be cut up until there will be nothing left but the railroads and high taxes. According to the Eugene papers, the company has the right of way all the way from Eugene to Florence, but they will find that quite a number of land owners have not given them the right of way through their claims.

The mail has been increased to three through mails a week between Eugene and Florence. The Barbour family have returned from California where they have been teaching school through the winter. Mr. Barbour is now teaching at Acme and M. S. Barbour is teaching the Walton school.

Mrs. Butler has returned from California, where she has been on a protracted visit, and brought her little sister, Ella Flancy home with her.

R. G. Towler has been in, planting potatoes on his ranch with the calculation of returning this fall with his family to their old home.

D. Green Gay, was in last week looking for a location for a nursery. Mr. Atkinson has been to Salem to see his wife. Her mental condition is not improved.

Mr. Whitaker has been on a trip, up the McKinzie, where he found quite a lot of sickness scarlet fever, measles, and la grippe.

Glanders is said to be quite prevalent among the horses in a portion of Lane Co., and it is rumored that as many as three men have died with glanders, contracted by handling diseased horses.

Mrs. Barbour is conducting a first class Sunday school at the Walton school house. The only Sunday school between Elmira and the head of tide.

THE PORTAGE RAILWAY.

On the subject of the portage railway around the obstructions in the Columbia river for which appropriation from the state was made by the legislature, is one of great importance to farmers in Eastern Oregon and Washington. Governor Penoyer informs the Salem Journal that at present the Union Pacific railroad has a line of boats, and of railway on both sides, that virtually gives it a monopoly of all freight. It is to break this monopoly that the state of Oregon will build about a mile to open, three feet railway to connect the river above and the river below the falls. The narrow-gauge road will be equipped and operated by the state. An independent boat is being built to run on the upper river, that will be completed as soon as the road is ready to open. The governor thinks the state portage road will cause a great reduction in freights on grain and wool from Eastern Oregon.

"I shall have some business for our new attorney general at once," said the governor. "We shall be compelled to exercise the power of the state to condemn land for a part of the right of way, and it will be done at once."

State Treasurer Mehan upon the same subject says: "It will be completed inside of sixty days and inside of the appropriation of $60,000. We are having a little trouble with one of the owners of land the road must pass over, but a good landing. The land he owns is worth about $500 and he asks $2500 for a ten years lease over it. The state will have to exercise its right of eminent domain and have the right of way appraised and condemned according to law. Engineer Farley will go east to procure the rolling stock as soon as all the work of grading is well under way. The state will equip and run the road. The employers will work for the state. One locomotive and enough cars will handle the business at actual cost and we will see if the producers of Eastern Oregon and Washington will be prevented in getting their grain and wool to market at reasonable rates. The whole thing will be finished in 40 or 50 days. I look for great reductions in freight rates from Oregon's little Portage railway."

An Oregon Cyclone.

Oregon cyclones are a rarity. On Tuesday, however, a cyclone of unparalleled severity coming from the south struck Arlington, Gilliam county, completely demolishing several buildings and seriously damaging many others. The large general merchandise store of D. S. Sprinkle collapsed under the full force of the terrific gale, burying in the ruins Mr. Sprinkle, his wife and N. R. Baird, of Fairhaven, Wash., who happened to be in the store at the time. They were extricated after considerable difficulty, when it was discovered that Mrs. Sprinkle was injured internally. Mr. Baird has sustained severe injuries to his head and back. Mr. Sprinkle fortunately escaped with a few bruises, but is considerably shaken. The large building used as a skating rink and opera house, owned by L. O. Ralston, is in ruins. This is the worst cyclone known to have occurred in Oregon. It is feared that considerable damage has been done throughout the country.

Who the Poundmaster Is.

Marshal Hoffman desires to inform the public that he is not poundmaster, and has nothing whatever to do with the office. Frank Trites was recently elected by the city council to fill this office and is now acting in that position for the city.

NORTHWEST NOTES.

Newly Items Obtained from Exchanges Throughout The Northwest.

About fifty men are reported in the employ of the railroad company on the Sinslaw.

The first annual colt show of Benton county will take place June 13th and promises to be a great success.

The Hop Growers' Association of Lane county will meet at the court house in Eugene on Saturday June 6.

The foundry and machine works at Corvallis which have been closed for a year past pending settlement of the estate owning the same will reopen at once, having been leased for a term of years.

It is said that one man near Salem will make $300 an acre on his gooseberry patch, selling his product to the big cannery. The cannery people will not be able to fill their orders for these berries, owing to their scarcity.

A gentleman who came down from the McKenzie last week reported meeting a party of surveyors about fifteen miles east of Eugene. They said they were working on a railroad survey.

It was reported that track laying on the Springfield extension of the Oregonian road would commence Monday, but it didn't and now it is said that it will commence at once and that the workmen have been taken up to Coburg.

The annual re-union of the Oregon Pioneer Association will be held on Tuesday, June 16, in Portland. Monday, June 15, is pioneer day proper, but on account of the Portland city election then, it has been deemed advisable to postpone the re-union a day later.

The examination of the junior class of the law school of the University of Oregon will take place on Wednesday, and on Friday the seniors will be examined. There are twenty-two in the junior class. The senior class are: Cecil H. Bauer, Herbert N. Cockerline, C. U. Gartenbein, Irving C. Hicks, A. W. Johnston, F. S. Lafferty, T. M. Mulkey, John R. Pattison, T. S. Potter, Charles J. Schnabel, J. P. Wagner, G. G. Willis.

Important to Housekeepers.

It gives Julius Gradwohl great satisfaction in selling his fine Golden Rule teas and baking powder, with elegant prizes or without them, that his customers who have purchased invariably return and say they are well pleased, that the tea is No. 1 and the baking powder is as good as the best. All his teas and baking powder bears the name of Julius Gradwohl's Golden Rule Bazaar, and are expressly put up for his business, and he still continues to give with each pound of tea or baking powder an elegant piece of glass-ware.

THE WORLD ENRICHED.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time or, in fact, at any time any the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

Vernona Jarbeau Coming.

He who misses seeing and hearing Vernona Jarbeau in "Starlight" will have a matter for future regret. "Starlight" is a string of the brightest and most popular melodies culled from here, there and everywhere. There is very little dialogue, but there is plenty of the best sort of singing. Jarbeau herself is generous of her time and presence. She simply bubbles over with life and individuality. From the crown of the head she carries so jauntily to the toe of the slipper that sometimes twinkle in mid-air in a manner quite as bewitching as during, the characteristic shows itself. She sings French songs, English songs, a topical song, dances with imitable abandon and laughs with an infection that the most of their opportunities. Her prettiest bit of acting is perhaps in the little scene at the piano, and her most charmingly rendered song, "Where Are You Going, My Pretty Maid?" She has a clever set of people with her and she is not afraid to let them make the most of their opportunities. This celebrated comedienne and her brilliant musical comedy company, will be in this city, June 1st.

A Treat in Store for Albany.

Col. Bain, the "silver-tongued orator," of Kentucky, a lecturer of national reputation, is now making a tour through our state, and is engaged to lecture twice in our city within the next ten days. Precise dates will be given later. The opera house will be secured if possible and the lecture will be free, though a collection will be expected. The colonel has lectured in Portland several times to large audiences, and Albany people will not be slow in appreciating his ability. Miss Frances E. Willard says of him: "Unequaled in humor, he is also unapproachable in pathos. Logical to the core, his rhetoric so wraps its warmth about his arguments that even the young and thoughtless can but exclaim: 'Behold these dry bones live!'"
