PORTLAND ELECTION

Efforts to Fraudulently Defeat the Consolidation Measure.

STATE AND COAST NEWS.

Barbour's Murderers Are Now En-Route from Butte—Drowned in the Willamette at Portland.

PORTLAND, May 29.—"We have reliable information," said a gentleman to-day, "that the sack is already raised and ready for distribution at the election on Monday. It is said to be $20,000, with more back of it if that is not sufficient. The leaders of the anti-consolidation fight claim that they have 500 voters in the employ or pay, one way or another, of the city departments under their control, all of whom they expect to hold for their side. Then by purchase, importation, and repeating they expect to stuff the ballot-boxes with such a number of votes that they will outcount the thousands of honest votes cast for consolidation. That they have planned to fraudulently carry the election there is no longer any doubt, and that is why the consolidationists are so anxious that all its friends should be active, watchful and zealous to get out the voters, and to prevent, and if necessary, prepare to punish the intended frauds. They believe they can check and keep these efforts to corrupt the election so in the background and so restricted in their operations that they will fail; but it is the prime duty of every friend of consolidation to first vote, then see that his neighbors and friends vote, and then watch the polls for fraudulent voters or repeaters."

The opponents to the consolidation measure are making desperate efforts to trump up scarecrow legal objections. One is that the election would be invalid because the vote is on several propositions, or on a contingency. Another is as to the right of residents of several localities within the limits of one or the other of the cities to vote, and still another is that the charter does not provide for any notices of election, appointment of judges, etc., and that there must be a lapse of government for one year. Ex-United States Attorney-General George H. Williams has examined into all these criticisms, and pronounces them without good foundation or reason. The charter, in all essential particulars, is clear and valid and effective.

BARBOUR'S MURDERERS.

They Are Now on the Way From Butte to Portland.

PORTLAND, May 20.—Detectives Griffin and Barry, who left Butte City, Mont., yesterday morning with the murderers of W. M. Barbour, the Lebanon merchant, are now en route to this city by way of the Northern Pacific, to arrive here to-morrow morning.

Chief Gritzmacher, of the city detective force, said to a reporter this morning that he has no doubt but the real murderers have been captured.

"The man who had the diamond ring is unquestionably the fellow who had the foremost hand in the murder," said he, "and I do not anticipate much trouble in getting the other man to turn state's evidence against him."

The fact is, one of the murderers got away. He is a big Swede, and was hand-in-hand with one of the men now in custody. He managed to give the detectives the slip at Butte, and his capture is doubtful in the extreme.

Spokane's Complaint.

SPOKANE, May 29.—The interstate commerce commission concluded its hearing to day of the complaint of this city in the matter of freight rates. The attorneys will submit briefs. Judge Turner, for the city, will submit his in three weeks, and the railroads asked for seven weeks time, which was granted.

To-morrow the commission will take up the case brought by the farmers' alliance, of Washington, in the matter of grain rates.

Labord's Murderers.

UNION, Or., May 29.—Constable Brock, of Elgin, arrived here this morning, having in his charge Evan Carver, and Mrs. Frank Labord, the former having been committed to jail for the killing of Frank Labord and the latter for complicity in the tradgedy. They were brought during the night to prevent Carver from being lynched.

Drowned in the Willamette.

PORTLAND, May 29.—S. A. Carlsen, a young Swede, employed as a log hand in the Albina sawmill, met his death this morning in the waters of the Willamette. Indications point to a case of accidental drowning, and doubtless it was; but no one seems to have witnessed the unfortunate affair, and, particulars are consquently uncertain.

A BROKER'S DEATH.

Morris Hoeflich, of San Francisco, Commits Suicide.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Morris Hoeflich, a well-known mining broker and capitalist, shot himself to death last night, at the residence of S. Roesner. Within the few last weeks he was taken ill, and moved there, where he was cared for by a nurse. Last night he sent the nurse out of the room on some pretext and a few minutes later a pistol shot rang through the house. The inmates rushed to the sick man's room and found him expiring, while a stream of blood trickled from a wound in the left side of his breast near his heart. Hoeflich, so far as is known, left no writing to explain his act. He was one of the best known brokers on the street, and was popularly supposed to be worth a great deal of money. He was 38 years old and had no family.

AT IT AGAIN.

INDIANS MURDERING SETTLERS IN NEW MEXICO.

Depredations in Arizona—Troops Sent After the Red Devils—Several Whites Killed.

LOS ANGELES, May 29.—Information has been received at army headquarters from military sources at Port Bayard this morning, to the effect that rumors of Indian hostilities are again rife in that quarter. It is reported a man named Whittam was killed on Blue river, Arizona, that a family was killed on Eagle creek, and that a man named Campbell was killed on the White Water. All these murders are said to have been committed between May 1 and 5. General McCook has given orders for troops from Forts Bayard, Apache, Boise and San Carlos to make a diligent search in the vicinity of their several posts, and troops therefrom with thirty days supplies have gone out, while other departments are already in the field.

ATOKA, I. T., May 29.—W. J. Newcomb, a picture canvasser, who has just arrived here, relates an adventure with Indians at Boggy Depot, fifteen miles from here. Newcomb and his partner, R. D. Stapleton, camped near the Indians, and in some manner offended them, whereupon the Indians ordered them to leave. This the two men did, but had traveled but a short distance when they found themselves in an ambuscade. Newcomb escaped a shower of bullets fired by the Indians, but his partner was killed. Stapleton's body was found later riddled with bullets.

New Steamboat.

The Salem company have put a new steamer on the river, which was expected in that city yesterday. The Journal says the boat which is a model is 155 feet in length, with a beam of 30 feet and a hold five feet. She will draw 16 inches of water without a load but under heavy load will draw four feet. The registered tonnage is 420 tons. With 100 tons of freight this craft will draw only about 25 or 26 inches of water. The engines are eight inch bore with a six foot stroke, and are the Poppet valve engine, made by the Dubuque, Iowa, iron works. The boiler has 185 14-foot 2-inch tubes and has a capacity of 160 pounds of steam. The boat has double decks with four and aft cabins and six state rooms. The pilot house is above and is large and commondious. By special license she can carry 250 passengers.

FOREIGN GOSSIP

Parnell Will Wed Mrs. O'Shea in the Leafy Month of June.

UNHAPPY JEWS IN RUSSIA.

Influential Hebrews Promoting the Project of Sending Them to Re-Populate the Holy Land.

LONDON, May 29.—The Parnellites hear their chief will wed Mrs. O'Shea before the registrar about the middle of June.

Lord Rothschild has presented a memorial to Lord Salisbury asking the British government to initiate a concerted action by the powers to assist the wholesale emigration of Jews to Palestine. The Rothschilds, the Goldsmiths and all the leading Jews of England concur in the opinion that the settlement of Jews in Palestine is the best plan. They aim to obtain European recognition of a great wave of emigration as necessary to the solution of the Jewish problem. Baron Hirsch, though having schemes of his own, supports the English plans to operate through diplomatic channels. Lord Salisbury, leaving the usual official channels, is reported as writing directly to the heads of the European governments, commending their consideration to the Rothschilds memorial.

CASEY'S SLAYER GOES FREE.

The Indian Murderer Cuts a Swell and Writes His Autograph.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., May 29.—Plenty Horses is a free Indian. No inkling of the sudden termination of the case had been given. At 2 o'clock, when the court convened, the testimony being completed, the attorneys were preparing to commence arguments when Judge Shiras said: "There is no need of going further with this case. What I shall say is the opinion of this court, but not of my colleague. It is said on my own responsibility." The judge then said, in substance, that the guilt or innocence of the accused turned upon the question as to whether or not the state of actual war existed at the time of Casey's death. In the opinion of the court it had been shown beyond doubt that such a state of war did exist. Immediately upon adjournment Plenty Horses was surrounded by ladies and other spectators, who shook hands for some time, after which he went to the hotel, where he spent some time writing autographs for the bystanders.

TWO NAUGHTY PREACHERS.

Imprisoned as Counterfeiters—Holding Revivals in Jail

CHICAGO, May 29.—Captain Porter, of the United States secret service, has returned from Southern Illinois, where, within the past week, he put behind the bars the preacher counterfeiters, George Vancil and Jeremiah Holmes. He tells a queer story. Holmes was a counterfeiter and general outcast at Duquoin. Vancil was a Baptist minister. He unnertook to convert Holmes after everybody else had given him up, and succeeded. The people throughout the country marveled. Holmes soon became pastor of the Campbellite church near Duquoin. After a time he gave Vancil counterfeit money, and Vancil passed it. About this time Uncle Sam's emissaries swooped down upon Holmes, capturing a regular counterfeiter's outfit. Vancil was arrested later. He swears he took the money and continued the acquaintance of Holmes to learn his secrets and expose the gang. He is a heart-broken man over his arrest, but "Rev." Jerry Holmes is holding revivals in jail.

TREASURER BARDSLEY.

Committed on Three Charges With Heavy Bail.

PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—John Bardsley, city treasurer of Philadelphia, was arraigned in court today, to answer the triple charge of misappropriating $39,000 of city money, the embezzlement of $400,000 and upwards of state funds and perjury in violating his oath of office by loaning city money out at interest. After the examination of a number of witnesses, the magistrate committed the prisoner under $40,000 bail, to answer three charges. Late to-night the prison physician was summoned to Bardsley's cell, and finding him very ill recommended that he be at once placed in the hospital, which was done.

EX-PRESIDENT HAYES.

It Is Feared He Is Losing His Mind.

NEW YORK, May 29.—The World this morning says that ex-President Hayes, who suffered last winter from an attack of the grippe, has had his memory affected as an after effect of the disease. He can talk but a minute or two when he forgets the topic of conversation. A cloud seems at intervals to obscure his mental vision, and he must pause until it passes and leaves his mind free again. Even on most occasions he has forgotten what he has just been talking about. Mr. Hayes feels his misfortune keenly, but his friends all hope that his affliction will not be protracted.

CHILIAN INSURGENTS.

They Threaten to Bombard the City of Valparaiso.

PARIS, May 29.—A dispatch received here from Chili states that insurgents, contrary to their promises, now threaten to bombard Valparaiso. In view of these threats the defenses of that city are being hurriedly strengthened. It is believed that foreign powers will intervene should the insurgents carry out their threats.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The state department has not been informed of any intention on the part of the Chilian insurgents to bombard Valparaiso as reported from Paris. There is no disposition on the part of this government, so far as can be learned, to intervene in the Chilian contest.

THE CUSHING ROBBERS.

The Leader of the Gang Found Guilty—Several Brakemen In It

TACOMA, May 29.—Francis Cushing was to-day found guilty by the jury in the superior court of receiving and aiding in the concealment of goods stolen from the Northern Pacific railway. Cushing was at the head of the gang that systematically robbed the railroad company of large quantities of valuable freight. Several brakemen were in the plot, and one of them, C. S. Jones, has already been convicted as one of the robbers. They opened stores in this city and in Portland, Albany and other cities, where the stolen goods were sold.

WELCOME NEWS.

THE BEGRING SEA DISPUTE PRACTICALLY ENDED.

Action Which, It Is Hoped, Will Lead to the Permanent Settlement of This Vexed Question.

LONDON, May 29.—A measure of the impertance of the Bering sea bill is rarely read the first time in the commons without the ministers affording the house fuller particulars than they vouchsafed today regarding its provisions. The members listened with strained attention to Smith, expecting to learn the terms of the agreement with the United States government, and great was their disappointment when he stopped short, after uttering a formal request for permission to bring in a bill to enable the queen, by an order in the council, to make a special provision to prohibit the catching of seals in Bering sea of her majesty's subjects during the period named in the order. Questions put to the ministers in the lobby elicited nothing beyond the statement that they are awaiting a final response from Washington. Smith only vouchsafed the assurance that the arrangement already secured harmonizes the action of the British government with that of the American government. Other ministerial members expressed themselves certain that the measure will meet with no adverse criticism, either in the house or the country, and will lead to a permanent settlement of the dispute. Though the period of prohibition is understood to be one year, the elastic nature of the order in the council will empower the government to make a further extension.

Anna Dickinson Wants Damages.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Miss Anna Dickinson arrived from Goshen last evening, and gave out that she would shortly institute legal proceedings for the recovery of damages from the managers of the asylum where she was confined for alleged insanity. Damages will be placed at $100,000. Miss Dickinson will sue as a citizen of New York, and the action will probably be brought in a court in Philadelphia.

A STRANGE STORY

A California Rancher Confesses to Murdering Two Wives.

THE SECRET KEPT FOR YEARS.

His Conscience Tortured and Goaded Him at Last to Unfold the Murderous Tale to an Officer.

SACRAMENTO, May 29.—A man by the name of John Sewald came up to the office of Justice of the Peace Henry to-day and told a strange story. Sewald said he had lived on a ranch a few miles south of here, near Sutterville, for the last six years. He said his conscience had been torturing him for the past two years and had became simply unbearable, and he had concluded to confess and take the consequences. He was accompanied by his eldest son. Sewald went on to tell a remarkable story of how he had murdered two wives in the East. Eleven years ago he said that he lived in Ohio with his wife Catherine and four children. Prior to that time theirs had been a happy household, but at this time his wife began to drink and it became impossible to live longer with her. He took two of his children and died to Minnesota. A few months later his wife followed him, and their unhappy life was resumed. Finally, Sewald said, he became so exasperated at her drunkenness and scoldings that he concluded to put an end to it. He purchased arsenic and put it in her whisky. She died in two days and he buried her without causing suspicion. Three years later he moved with his family to Wayne, Nebraska, and after living there some time married again. His second matrimonial venture, according to his story, was worse than the first, and he smothered the second wife with the bed clothes. The justice believes that Sewald tells the truth and has reported the confession.

A RICH CUSTOMS SEIZURE.

A Traveler's Trunk Full of Solid Gold Tableware.

NEW YORK, May 29.—The customs officials made a seizure today of the richest assortment of goods that has perhaps ever been taken at this port. The property was found in the trunk of W. T. Smith, a passenger on the steamship Lahn. Everything in the trunk was of the finest quality and of a class never before seized, consisting of cups, saucers, spoons, etc., made of solid gold. Their value has not been ascertained.

Fatal Duel in Georgia.

CLARKEVILLE, Ga., May 29.—During the commencement exercises of the Hiawasse High school, a dispute occurred between Alexander Brown and John Wood. They agreed to take some friends with them and to go out of town and settle the dispute. Brown was given the choice of weapons and chose knives. When the preliminaries had been arranged the young men rushed at each other, and for half a minute fought furiously. Wood stabbed Brown, killing him instantly, the knife entering his body between the fourth and fifth ribs, near the auricle of the heart. Wood was arrested and locked up in jail. Both were men of good families. They had quarreled about a woman.

Match for McAuliffe and Carney.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Jack Keating, one of the directors of the Granite Athletic Association, has announced that the club has authorized him to offer a purse of $10,000 for a glove contest between Jack McAuliffe, champion lightweight of America, and Jem Carney, champion of England. A formal announcement of the offer was immediately sent to Carney and McAuliffe. The terms of the proposed match will call for a fight to a finish. Carney will be allowed his expenses for the voyage to this country. Carney and McAuliffe fought a draw once near Boston, but McAuliffe was sick at the time. The Granite Association will post a forfeit in order to assure Carney that he will receive fair play.

Murdered While Asleep.

LOUISVILLE, May 29.—There are good prospects for a double lynching at Cumberland Gap. James Turner and M. J. Fuller, while drunk, visited two women and went to sleep. Shortly afterwards H. Hanson and Marion Nuen put pistols to the heads of the men and blew out their brains. The murderers concocted the story of accidental shooting, but the women broke down and confessed. Nuen is now in jail, and a posse of six men is in pursuit of Hanson, and will probably catch him.

Famous Race Horse Killed.

SACRAMENTO, May 29.—The famous race horse Hidalgo broke his leg to-day at Rancho Del Paso, and it was found necessary to kill him.
