YESTERDAY'S BALL GAME.

The Albanys and Linns Played Like Professionals, the Former Winning.

The most interesting base ball game of the season, and altogether the best game that has been played in Albany, was the match between the Albanys and the Linns, played in this city yesterday afternoon. The game was for a purse of $100. The Albany nine had been victors in each of their former games with Lebanon and Corvallis, and were in better trim than ever. The Linns were to play their first game of the season. Their battery was known to be strong and a closely contested game was expected. Several thousand people assembled to witness the game.

The positions of the nines were as follows:

The Albanys: Larimore p, Smiley c, Van Wilson ss, Marshall 1 b, Blodgett 2b, Magers 3 b, Breckenridge r f, Rennie c f, Leimert l f.

The Linns: C. Burns p, D. Burns c, O'Neill ss, Dyer 1 b, Wright 2 b, Lewis 3 b, Barr r f, McFarland c f, Stites l f.

The game was called at 3:30, with C. W. Watts as umpire.

Barr went to the bat for the Linns and made first on three strikes. Dyer went to first on balls, and stole second while Barr scored. D. Burns struck out. C. Burns hit safe to first and Dyer second. Burns stole second and made a great slide to third. Lewis struck out. O'Neill hit safe and went to first while Burns scored. McFarland struck out, retiring the side.

Marshall took the bat for the Albanys and hit a s fe to first. Van Wilson did likewise and Marshall came home. Blodgett retired at first. Breckenridge made a safe hit and Van Wilson scored, followed by Breckenridge. Larimore struck out. Magers sent a fly to second and Wright pulled it down.

In the second inning honors were even and the Linns came up smiling. Stites retired at first. Wright struck out and Barr went out at first.

The Linns did not relish their their goose egg and played ball hard. Rennie, Leimert and Smiley successively went out at first, adding another goose egg to the score.

The third inning opened even. Dyer struck out. D. Burns hit safe to first. C. Burns went out at first on three strikes. D. Burns scored. Lewis flew out to Van Wilson.

The Albanys thon piled up seven runs, which cost the Linns the game. The scores were made on bad throwing and bad playing by the fielders.

The Linns saw their errors, and played vigorously to recover what they had lost. The battery from that time to the end played the game themselves and they did it so well that not another score was made by the Albanys. O'Neill hit safe to first and stole second. McFarland made a three bagger and O'Neill scored. Stites went out at first and McFarland scored. Wright struck out and so did Barr.

The Albanys then came to the bat again. Wilson sent the ball over first, and Dyer gathered it in.

Blodgett struck out. Breckenridge was struck in the face by the ball, receiving a severe injury. His place was taken at first by Washburn, who was put out at third, retiring the side.

From this time on good ball playing was witnessed. The game was equal to professionals on both sides. Dyer struck out. D. Burns struck out. C. Burns went out at first.

Then in turn, Larimore, Magers were successfully fanned out by the Burns brothers.

The Linns had no better success. Lewis flew out to Blodgett O'Neill went out at first, and McFarland struck out.

The innings went in quick succession.

Leimert retired at first; Smiley struck out and Marshall knocked a foul, which Burns promptly gathered in.

In the seventh inning Stites made first on third strike and stole to third. Wright struck out; Barr struck out and Stites stole home. Dyer flew out to Larimore.

The Albanys could not find Burns any more than the Linns could find Larimore. Van Wilson, Blodgett and Washburn each struck out successively.

In the eighth D. Burns flew out to Rennie; C. Burns made a two-bagger, but was decided out by the umpire on the grounds that he did not touch first Lewis hit a fly to first and Ala had it.

Larimore struck out. Magers went to first on balls but neglected to reach second. Rennie was hit and went to first. Leimert struck out.

O'Neill went out at first. McFarland flew out to Rennie, and Stites struck out.

The Albanys did not play their half of the last inning, the score standing 10 to 7 in their favor.

The score by innings was as follows:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Albanys	3	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	—10
Linns	2	0	1	2	0	0	1	0	0	—7

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The Burns brothers were out of sight. There playing was wonderful, and the public enjoyed it.

Dyer is big for his size and plays first just like Ala Marshall. They would make a good team.

The umpire escaped without a broken limb, though there was some vigorous "kickin" at the decisions. In this respect also the game was metropolitan.

Had the Linns been better supported the score would have been like professionals.

A nine could be selected from both clubs that would give the Salems a good game.

The game must be played over again. It would not be right to deny the public the opportunity of witnessing such playing again.

A banquet was tendered both clubs at the Delmonico restaurant last evening by Mr. T. L. Wallace. Strawberries and cream were served, and speeches were made by the players and visitors. Both clubs agreed to play again, and to form an invincible nine from both clubs as soon as practicable.

DECORATION DAY.

Company F., O. N. G., Post, School Children and Citizens in Line.

Yesterday was a cool, pleasant day, just right for the observance of Decoration Day services, and the citizens generally turned out to do honor to the occasion.

At the hour appointed the pupils of the public school in full force, headed by their teachers and Prof. Walker were in line.

McPherson Post No. 5, G. A. R., old soldiers in a goodly number, formed in the G. A. R. hall and were provided with a bountiful supply of bequets of flowers, provided by the ladies of McPherson Relief Corps No. 13, and marched into the street, where they joined Co. F., O. N. G., under the leadership of Capt. Geo. E. Chamberlain and took up the line of march for the cemetery.

The long procession formed by the school children and teachers, was the pride and beauty of the occasion and the remark of all observers.

Arrived at the cemetery the procession formed around the grave of Comrade Mueller, Company F forming the south side of a square.

The Post and old soldiers in the alley east and the school children forming the east, north and west sides of the square surrounding the Post and three of the cemetery lots. The services were then gone through with, including a very eloquent and beautiful address by Judge D. R. N. Blackburn.

The school children, at the conclusion of the services, decorated the graves of soldiers in the cemetery and a detail of the Post went to the Masonic cemetery and decorated the graves of soldiers there.

The Militia company accompanied by the Post repaired to the grave of First Seargent Mattoon, a member of Company E., O. N. G., of Corvallis whose last resting place is in the city cemetery here, and decorated it with flowers. The column then formed, meeting outside of the cemetery halted and opened ranks by Co. F and the Post, and the school children were marched through and returned to the school house, Co. F and the Post marching to the hall, where Commander J. F. Whiting in behalf of the Post returned thanks to Company F, the company marching to the armory closing the ceremonies for the day.

The crowd in attendance was larger than usual and every part was performed without mishap and in a satisfactory manner.

EVENING EXERCISES.

The W. R. C. memorial exercises and entertainment, at the opera house in the evening, was carried out according to the published programmes, without a single hitch, and in the best manner possible by every one engaged in them.

To Mrs. Martin, corps president, great credit is due for the indefatigable manner in which she worked up the matter, the gathering of the muses being the result of her laborious compilation.

Taken altogether the day and evening were very successful and evince that the interest in memorial service is growing year by year.

"Starlight."

Miss Vernona Jarbeau in her play "Starlight." Miss Jarbeau is one of the unique figures on the American stage. A great many claim that she is the successor of Lillian Russell, because she sings well, looks well and has an engaging stage presence. All these Miss Jarbeau has, but she possesses something beyond that, and it is her talent as a commedienne. It is one thing to sing well and look pretty, but is quite another to fill the requirements of a character satisfactorily. "Starlight" is not a very heavy play. It is fashioned on the lines of the lighter phases of the modern drama —or rather vaudeville as it should properly be called. It is a bright, catchy and pleasing composition, which without great pretense, is yet so full of fun that it will claim the attention of the audience from the rising of the curtain to the close. Miss Jarbeau is a charming figure in this piece. Her singing is delightful, her presence graceful, while her acting has that abandon that makes one forget that he is witnessing a stage representation. Miss Jarbeau is of course, an old favorite in this city. Her performances in comic opera are well remembered. It is a treat to see such a fresh and unaffected woman on the stage—one who has gained experience enough to be graceful and not lose her personality. Miss Jarbeau is a charming woman, an accomplished actress, and a trained singer.

The company supporting Miss Jarbeau is an excellent one.

Light the Alleys.

It has been suggested that the interests of the business men of the city, would be enhanced if they would procure the putting in of an incandescent light the rear of each business block, so that the alleys could be made light enough so that the night watch could see whether any burglarous business was being carried on or not. The expense would be very small to each one, and the benefits large. The matter is worth considering.

School Tax Notice.

The school tax in school district No 5, is now due and payable. Call at my office and pay the same before it becomes delinquent.

FROM BROWNSVILLE.

Encouraging Outlook Reported from the Mining Districts.

BROWNSVILLE, May 29, 1891.

News from the mines is very encouraging and many are fitting out to go. The following is just received in this city as the result of five milling tests made in Tacoma from the Tacoma company's mines in the Calapooia and Blue River districts: First, $8 21, second, $6 22, third, $33 25, fourth $68, fifth, $80 per ton in gold and silver but principally gold. This company is running a tunnel in Treasure hill, on its ledge, and the last ore came from the face of the tunnel 160 feet from the mouth, so it shows conclusively that the ore improves very fast as depth is attained, and as the sulphurets contained only 2 per cent. of gold, it shows that the ore is free, and is easily worked. This is considered the best showing ever made in a new camp, and with plenty wood and water near at hand and situated so near the great Willamette valley where supplies can be obtained so easily, one of the greatest mining camps ever found on this coast is looked for when once opened up.

Mr. H. H. Hilderbrand, of Portland, was here yesterday to confer with parties in regard to some mines in this camp owned by himself and others, and stated that they had incorporated and formed a strong company to open mines up there this summer, and yesterday morning Mr. Hogan and four others left for the camp intending to work for the Portland company, and next week another company will be fitted out here to go upon a prospecting trip.

A. Masterson and family, former residence of this place, have just returned after an absence of several years in California. His folks are all sick and are glad to get back to the Willamette valley to live.

Picked specimens from the Tacoma company's claim assayed from $610 to $1400 in gold per ton.

A grand mass meeting was held at the city hall Thursday night and a large sum of money was raised towards having a grand celebration in this city on the coming Fourth of July, and we expect to have the best celebration ever held in this part of the state. Arrangements will be made for good music and speakers, and we have have the finest grove in Linn county.

The annual picnic of the pioneers is to be held here on the 2d, 3d and 4th of next month, and if the weather is good a large attendance is expected.

Mr. F. N. Dolan, the telegraph operator here, has gone with his family on a month's visit to relatives in Baker City. Mr. Harp, a new-comer has taken charge of the office during his absence.

P. Hume, an old resident of this city and one long identified in business here, has gone to Roseburg to live. His family is still here, but will follow soon. He still holds his farm on the edge of this city.

The public school closed its winter term this week and the scholars are very glad to have a vacation for a few months.

Miss Alta Dyson is in Portland on a visit to relatives and friends, to be gone three or four weeks.

J. C. Bilyew has nearly recovered, and has gone with his family on a visit to his folks at Scio.

J. M. Jeager, superintendent of the Eagle woolen mills here, has gone with his family to The Dalles, having been notified by telegraph of the death of Mr. Stone near that city. Mr. Stone once lived here, and is the father of Mrs. Jaeger.

Every house in town is occupied, and still the cry is for more. Several new building are in course of construction, and much real estate is changing hands, and prices gradually advancing. The various mills and factories are running on full time, and business men are kept busy, and, as sheep-shearing time is near at hand, more money will be in circulation soon.

A Rare Treat

Levy, the world's greatest cornetist, speaking of Mme. Abbie Carrington, says: "I have played obligatos with many of the great singers, but never before found a voice of such pure quality and surtaining power as to detract from the brilliancy of the cornet." Mme. Abbie Carrington and her grand opera company will appear at the Albany opera house on next Wednesday evening, presenting Balfe's romantic opera in three acts, entitled "The Rose of Castile," and from present indications there will be a full house as seats are going rapidly. There are some good seats left, so secure them in time at Will & Link's.

Rev. L. S. Fisher the newly appointed minister for the Evangelical church in this city arrived on Friday from East Portland, his former pastorate and will preach both morning and evening in their church to-day. Mr. Fisher it a brother of Rev. I. B. Fisher who has just closed his ministry here and moved to Jefferson to act as a pastor and serve Albany district as presiding elder.
