Hereafter a dining room car is to be sent out from Portland to this city to attach to the morning and evening trains. Breakfast can be served between here and Portland. Mr. J. F. Benson, of Corvallis, was in the city yesterday. From him we learn that in his vicinity, like very many other localities, very many of the fruit trees are apparently dead. They started the bud for leaving all right but then withered and fell off. The trees are yet green but are without leaves and will probably die. Whether the trouble is from insects, or from the effects of frost is not known. The fruit on the apple, plum, pear and prune trees.

Better As It Is.

The running of the accommodation on the Oregon Pacific, to Halstead and return every day, since a regular passenger coach has been added gives ample and satisfactory service. The people along the line find it a great convenience and the putting on of a United States daily mail service makes it doubly so. We understand that the people along the line, as well as here, are desirous of having the time table kept just as it is at present, as it accommodates more perfectly than the arrangement last summer that landed passengers at the front late in the evening and started back too early in the morning for any one to come any distance and catch the train.

Important Notice.

From and after this date I will sell my dry goods for 50 cents on the dollar. My goods comprising stock will be sold at greatly reduced rates, such as 75 cent neckties for 50 cents; $1.50 underwear for $1.00 per suit; $3.00 silk shirts for $2.50 per suit; $4.50 black silk shirts for $3.50, and everything in proportion. My large stock of shoes at reduced rates to reduce stock before removal. E. C. SEALES, June 3, 1891.

Will Lose His Leg.

Many in Albany, and in fact all over the state, know W. S. Conser, one of the most popular railroad conductors in the state. Mr. Conser was badly injured in the Lake Labish wreck. He sustained a compound fracture of one of his legs. It was hoped for a time that his limb could be saved, but it has about been decided that amputation will be necessary. "Shan's" host of friends will be sorry to hear of this.

Accident Near Stayton.

A severe accident happened near Stayton last Monday that will make F. S. Thompson a cripple for life. Mr. Thompson was working with an edger in a saw mill near Stayton, and in some manner his right hand came in contact with the saw and his hand is badly lacerated. The middle finger was cut off entirely and the second finger cut off at the second joint.

Found.

On the streets of Albany, a watch. The owner can have the same by describing the watch and paying for this notice.

A MOTOR LINE TO SODAVILLE.

Albany Will Be Connected by Rail With the Health Resort. Information has been received that a party of surveyors left Sodaville Tuesday last for Lebanon to make a preliminary survey for a motor line. The distance is between three and four miles over a level tract, neither grading down or filling in to be done, and it is said as soon as the survey is finished and the right-of-way secured the line will be insured. There is certainly no mistake in the intention, if the signs mean anything. All was kept quiet, even as to the organization of a company or who they were, until everything was fully equipped and the surveyors on the march toward the starting point. At this time but little can be learned except that a motor line is to be built. A transfer of two hundred acres of timber land near Sodaville was made in this city a few days ago.

A HAVANAL REPORTER CALLED ON THE PURCHASER.

A Havana reporter called on the purchaser, who is a resident of Albany, and largely interested in Sodaville, to ascertain the truth of the report that his purchase was in the interest of a railroad or motor line to connect Sodaville and Lebanon. The reply was: "When railroad lines are needed they will not be hard to find now. One week ago there might have been some difficulty in getting them."

"How soon will active work commence on the proposed line, if at all?"

"If property owners along the survey will look to their own interests and not obstruct by withholding the right-of-way, as soon as harvest is over and the grain taken out of the fields, I am of the opinion the work will go on in earnest."

There is but little doubt about such a line being a source of profit to the owners.

With easy and rapid transit from the present terminus of the Southern Pacific road to Sodaville during the summer months, every train in that direction would be crowded. Sodaville is at this time Oregon's greatest health resort. With a large, new hotel, a beautiful big grove set apart in a newly platted addition for public comfort, good accommodations, etc., it is not reasonable that it should be three miles from a railroad long. The springs are ample to accommodate thousands. Several new houses are now under course of construction and others will be under heavy way in the near future, including a large church house. A railroad to Sodaville would be next in importance to the people of Albany to a free bridge across the Willamette.

Mining Notes.

A Brownsville correspondent to the Salem Statesman writes: "News from the mines is very encouraging and many are fitting out to go. The following is just received from the city: A recent five mill test made in Tacoma from the Tacoma company's mine in the Calapooia and Blue river districts: First, $8.21, second, $6.22, third, $3.26, fourth, $6.15, fifth, $80 per ton in gold and silver, principally gold. This company is running a tunnel in Treasure hill, on its ledge, and the last ore came from the face of the tunnel 100 feet from its mouth, so it shows conclusively that the ore improves very fast as depth is attained, and as the sulphurets contained, only 2 per cent of gold, it shows that the ore is free and easily worked. This is considered the best showing ever made in a new camp, and with plentiful wood and water near hand and situated so near the great Willamette valley, where supplies can be obtained so easily, one of the greatest mining camps ever found on this coast is looked for when once it is opened up."

Base Ball is at a Fever Heat.

The challenge of the businessmen on first street between Broad and Ferry extended to those of the opposite side of the street has been accepted. The north side players are: J. R. Whitney, Dr. H. A. Leininger, E. La Forest, H. Noel, H. Miller, Frank Dorris, Geo. Chamberlain, Jas. L. Coxan, H. Hulin. The south side men are: Geo. Stimpson, Wm. Mack, John Isom, T. Monteith, Jack Rodgers, Wm. White, H. Day, J. Mack, W. Montague. The base ball fever is spreading in every direction. The business men of the south side of the next block came out yesterday afternoon with a challenge for their neighbors on the north side. Some very interesting games will surely be witnessed, and all spectators will be anxious as stars. The first mentioned game will occur next Friday afternoon.

Roseburg and Coos Bay Railroad.

The latest proposition of the above named road, to Roseburg, is that the city shall raise a subsidy of $75,000, of which $10,000 is to be deposited at once, to be drawn by the road as soon as the grading on the first five miles is completed, thereon or up to the grading of 37 1/2 miles, also a free right of way and ten acres of land in Roseburg to be secured to the company for terminal facilities. The company then agree to commence at Roseburg and grade 37 1/2 miles, to be bridged and ironed when the road is completed from Coos Bay. The city is considering the proposition.

Excursion Parties.

Two excursion parties are now looking over Oregon and the Sound. They were in Portland yesterday. One party of eighty-eight wealthy eastern people, in charge of Chas. H. Wilson, of Boston, leave Portland for the Sound and will go to Alaska before they return. The other party of thirty-two persons is the Raymond-Whitcomb tour, led in charge of Charles A. Cooke, of Boston. They are all from the extreme eastern states.

M. E. CHURCH SOUTH.

Judge Shattuck Decides the Agricultural College Into Its Hands. Mrs. Frank Burkhardt, of this city, died very suddenly yesterday evening at her residence at the corner of Fifth and Railroad streets, of heart disease. She was sitting on the porch preparing some berries for supper, and called for a drink of water. Before the water was brought her she exclaimed, "I'm dying," and passed away. She was enjoying apparently the best of health up to the time of her death. Dr. G. W. Maston was hastily summoned, but she was dead before he arrived.

In the eastern part of the state the plaintiffs are started.

In the eastern part of the state the plaintiffs are started. The defendant is the Columbia country like theirs. The East Oregonians say that a section of farming land in the State Gulch neighborhood, seven miles north-west of Pendleton, has been sold to a party known as J. W. Crow, the well-known farmer. Mr. Crow says he intended to "stay with the country" in spite of the drought. He is one of the practical farmers in the district which the Umatilla Irrigation company was formed to irrigate, who are earnestly in favor of irrigation and maintenance of a country like theirs. The ranks of the legal fraternity of the state were augmented this week at Portland by Fred S. Lafferty, Cecil H. Baker, Francis M. Gorton, C. A. Gantenbein, H. Gantenbein, John R. Pattison, Charles J. Setzabel, Guy G. Willis, and Thaddeus S. Potter, who received their degrees at LL. B. from the University of Oregon, law department, and presented themselves for admission to the supreme court at Salem yesterday. After a rigid examination they were admitted to practice in all the courts in the state.

Important to Housekeepers.

It gives Julius Gradwohl great satisfaction in selling his fine Golden Rule teas and baking powder, with elegant prizes or without them, that his customers who have purchased invariably return and say they are well pleased, that the tea is No. 1 and the baking powder is as good as the best. All his teas and baking powder bears the name of Julius Gradwohl's Golden Rule Bazaar, and are expressly put up for his business, and he still continues to give the highest quality of tea and baking powder an elegant piece of glass ware.

LINN COUNTY PIONEERS.

The association of Linn county pioneers, which was in session at Brownsville Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, was largely attended and a most enjoyable session was held. Hon. J. K. Weatherford delivered the principal address on Wednesday, to an audience that numbered several thousand people. Interesting reminiscences were also made by Caleb Gray, Jonas Davis, Jason Wheeler, Bart Allen and also by O. P. Coshow Jr., and others. The exercises were interspersed with declamations, readings and songs, and excellent music was furnished by the Crawfordville band. All entered into the spirit of the occasion and enjoyed it fully even the Oregon mist that came down in a copious shower being unable to dampen the zeal and good feelings of the sturdy pioneers. The officers were elected on Friday forenoon. The next place of meeting will probably be in Halsey.
