

20 CENTS A WEEK.

ALBANY, OREGON, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10 1891

NO. 163 VOL. V.

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

Used in Millions of Homes—40 Years the Standard

We are at the Front!

Our Spring and Summer Stock will be found larger and more complete than ever.

DRESS GOODS WHITE GOODS

Very attractive lines in new colorings and latest novelties.

SPRING & SUMMER JACKETS!

Latest Styles! High Novelties! Ladies, Misses & Children's.

FURNISHING GOODS,

VELVETS, SILKS, SATINS AND PLUSHES, LADIES' AND MISSES SILK AND KNIT UNDERWEAR, COTTON AND WOOL HOSE, EMBROIDERIES, SILK AND LINES HANDKERCHIEFS, SCARVES, VEILINGS, SHAWLS, ETC.

BLACK AND COLORED DRESS GOODS!

G. W. SIMPSON,

FIRST STREET, ALBANY, OREGON.

"In Spring the young man's fancy Lightly turns to thoughts of love!"

It also turns to thoughts of something good to eat, as well.

C. E. Brownell.

The Albany Furniture Co.

A FULL LINE OF UNDERTAKING.

THE PACIFIC STATES

SAVING, LOAN & BUILDING CO.

OF SAN FRANCISCO

Offers an Absolutely Safe Investment

FOR SMALL MONTHLY AMOUNTS.

Six dollars per month will amount to $1000 in seven years, doubling the amount invested in that time.

FOR SALE, WANTS, ETC.

WANTED—A six room cottage near the business portion of the city. Will rent by the year or take a lease. Call at Herald's office.

WOOD SAWING done on the shortest notice. Orders left at Dr. Jones' will be promptly attended to. W. NEELY.

WANTED—A situation to do general house work by a young lady. Apply at this office.

WANTED—Agents to sell a household article needed in every house; big money to be made. Write to J. H. Jones, 275 Seventh St., Portland, Ore.

FOR SALE—A good horse, harness and buggy for sale at a low price. Call at the real estate office of Burkhardt & Koenig.

FRESH MILCH—LOW FOR SALE—HAS A heifer calf and is a good milk cow. Apply to E. N. Condit.

C. B. WINN, AGENT FOR THE LEAD and fire, life and accident insurance companies.

WANTED—A seamstress, one who can cut and sew. Call at corner of 5th and Railroad streets, Mrs. F. A. Burkhardt.

160 ACRES OF LAND—All fit for cultivation, and under fence, for sale at $100 per acre. Within 15 miles from Albany. Call on or address W. E. McPherson, real estate broker, opposite Kluss house.

SAW MILL has removed to a laundry to the corner of Second and Lyon streets.

Notice to Debtors.—All those indebted to the late firm of Thompson & Overman are requested to call at once and settle the same.

MONEY TO LOAN—In large or small amounts, from six months to five years on Albany, and Linn county real estate. Call on or address W. E. McPherson, real estate broker, opposite Kluss house.

Land for Sale.—5, 10, 20, 40, 80 acres, easy terms, installments, plan cheap and high prices. Also a few city lots all owned by H. Bryant.

BOYS—Here's a chance to make some pocket money. The Albany Electric Light Co. wishes to purchase a quantity of clean white or colored cotton rags, for wiring machinery. Deliver them at the company's office and get your cash.

MONEY TO LOAN—HOME CAPITAL. For real estate security. For particulars enquire of Geo. Humphrey.

FOR SALE—$500 to $1,000 worth of household furniture in exchange for improved real estate. Enquire at real estate office of Linn County.

GOLD RING, 6 GOLD PENS, 6 WATCHES and 2 very good handkerchiefs, all sent to address to introduce my city of line of goods for sale.

WANTED—A good workhorse, to be paid for in copper work. Call at T. L. Wallace & Co., L. D. Knapp.

TRY A SWISS COGNAC, IT IS THE latest out at the Barreau Saloon.

WANTED—A stylish, gentle buggy horse, not slower than a minute traveler. Apply to J. S. Antoline, at St. Charles hotel.

LOST—From the depot hotel in this city a small Scotch terrier dog. Information leading to its recovery will be suitably rewarded.

PERSONS DESIRING THE SERVICES of an experienced nurse can find one by applying at the corner of Fifth and Baker sts.

Land Surveying.—Parties desiring surveying done can obtain accurate and prompt work by calling upon ex-county surveyor F. T. Fisher. He has complete copies of field notes and town ship plats, and is prepared to survey any part of Linn county. Postoffice address, Millers Station, Linn county, Ore.

WOOD SAWING—A. H. Howard having purchased the Dr. D. M. Jones wood sawing outfit, is now ready to fill all orders. Leave orders at residence, corner of Second and Chapman streets.

FURNISHED ROOMS—In one of the pleasantest localities in the city to rent. For particulars inquire at this office.

THE PILPIT AND STAGE.

Rev. F. M. Shurt, Pastor United Brethren Church, Blue Mound, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and an sound and well, gaining 25 lbs. in weight."

Arthur Love, Manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousand friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottles at Foshay & Mason, Drug Store. Regular sizes 50c. and $1.00.

HEIGHT OF CRUELTY.

Nervous women seldom receive the sympathy they deserve. While often the pictures of health, they are constantly ailing. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is just the thing for them. For their nervousness, headache, weakness, etc., his Restorative Nervine is unequalled. Fine treatise "Heart and Nervous Diseases" are marvelous testimonials free and guaranteed by Standard & Cusick.

TO GOOD TEMPLARS.

Do you know that Moore's Revealed Remedy is the only patent medicine in the world that does not contain a drop of alcohol; that the mode of preparing it is known only to its discoverer; that it is an advance in the science of medicine without a parallel in the nineteenth century; that its proprietors offer to forfeit $1,000 for any case of dyspepsia it will not cure?

SPEECH CASES.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was afflicted with Nervousness and Rheumatism, his Stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected and alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly restless in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Salve, and his leg is sound and well.

John Speaker, Calawbe, O., had five large liver sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box of Bucklen's Salve cured him entirely. Sold by Foshay & Mason, Drug Store.

A MYSTERY EXPLAINED.

The papers contain frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls eloping with negroes, tramps and coachmen. The well-known specialist, Dr. Franklyn Miles' says all such girls are more or less hysterical, nervous, very irritable, unbalanced, usually only get to hysterical, morbid, sleeplessness, immoderate crying or laughing. These show a weak nervous system for which there is no remedy equal to Restorative Nervine. Trial bottles and a 25 cent book, containing many marvelous cures, free of cost. Standard & Cusick, who also sell, and guarantee, Dr. Miles' celebrated New Heart Cure, the finest of heart tonics. Can be fluttering, short breath, etc.

MISLS NERVE & OVERPILLS.

Act on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation, etc., equal for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest! 50 doses for 25 cents. Samples free, at Standard & Cusick.

THE NEW DISCOVERY.

You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery never after holds a place in the home. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any Throat, Lung or Chest trouble, secure a bottle and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial bottles free at Foshay & Mason's drugstore.

A SUCCESSFUL WORKER.

Work cannot be successfully continued unless there is an active mental interest in it. If the mind is not clear, bright and buoyant, then the work is drudgery and the worker is a machine. An occasional dose of Moore's Revealed Remedy will put the body and mind in such harmony that the hardest tasks will seem as play.

THEY OBJECT

Kansas People Object to the Literature That is Issued.

THINK IT IS NOT SUITABLE.

It Does Not Assimilate With Other Sunday School Work—They Desire Its Suppression.

TORONTO, June 9.—There is great indignation among the parents of children in Toronto who attend the Presbyterian Sunday schools, on account of the publication in a Sunday school leaflet of a two-column article extolling the virtues and singing the praises of the Prince of Wales. The article represents the prince with his breast covered with all the insignia of royalty. In the story he is represented as a man of great virtue and a bright and shining example to be admired and emulated by the Sunday school youth of the land. Several hundred copies of the paper were distributed at the First Presbyterian and Potwin Presbyterian Sunday schools. The paper is the same as is regularly distributed at these schools, and is ordinarily regarded as an excellent one. In view of the recent developments in the hazaar trial, patrons of the Sunday schools regard the article as pernicious, and will make a strong protest against it and decline to further contribute to the fund to purchase it.

THE GRIP IN ALASKA.

The Natives Dying by Hundreds from the Disease.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—The deadly grip has reached Alaska and threatens to decimate the natives. News to this effect was brought here by the steamer F. Hill, which arrived from Kodiak yesterday. The C. F. Hill sailed from this port several weeks ago with supplies for the North American Commercial Company's station at Wood Island, Kodiak. While on the trip, the disease consequently developed with unusual rapidity and has carried off hundreds. As many as a dozen deaths have occurred in a day, and for months past this alarming rate has not diminished, but rather has increased. There are no doctors on the island and no medical stores to speak of. The disease consequently developed with unusual rapidity and has carried off hundreds. As many as a dozen deaths have occurred in a day, and for months past this alarming rate has not diminished, but rather has increased. There are no doctors on the island and no medical stores to speak of. The disease consequently developed with unusual rapidity and has carried off hundreds. As many as a dozen deaths have occurred in a day, and for months past this alarming rate has not diminished, but rather has increased. There are no doctors on the island and no medical stores to speak of.

BOUNDARY DISPUTE.

Homeowners Raise the Old Question Again.

It is in Reference to the Boundary Between the United States and Canada.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 9.—Land speculators and explorers have again raised the old question of the boundary between the United States and Canada. It has been heretofore by Canada and all the maps of the United States have shown it to be on the Canadian side of the border line. According to the wording of the Webster-Ashburton treaty, the northern boundary here was to begin at a point where Pigeon river empties into Lake Superior and run through Long lake and connecting waters to the northwestern point of the Lake of the Woods. Now it is claimed that the waters around the south side of the island are disconnected from the main body of water, and that the waters of the island are to be made frequent portages when traveling by them. The channel on the north side of the island, however, is deep and continuous, and it is thought that the old treaties and conventions must have referred to the northern channel.

MADE AN ASSIGNMENT.

BALTIMORE, June 9.—The alleged shortage in the accounts of the late Jacob Bennett, secretary of the Bethesda Building Association, has caused Ernest M. Bennett, a son of the deceased, to make an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. Jacob and his son formerly conducted a boot and shoe business together. The assignment, it is said, is a precautionary measure. Receivers estimate the liabilities of the building association will aggregate $100,000. The assets are about $60,000 or $80,000 in mortgages, and what may be realized from the Jacob Bennett estate.

AN UNLUCKY GAMBLER.

EX-KING Milan Loses a Cool $30,000 in One Sitting.

PARIS, June 9.—Milan, ex-King of Serbia, has pandered to the fickle goddess fortune, and she has turned her back upon him as definitely as her ex-Majesty Natalie did when she learned the royal blood had sought companionship in plebeian homes.

Milan has been playing in bad luck this week. He had stashed like $30,000 from his boon companions. This seemed to embolden him; it was a bait to his gambling ambition. On Thursday a big game, it is said, was started at the Royal Club. Men with millions were in it, and with a slight intermission for refreshments and sleep the play went on until about 8 o'clock this morning, when it is said that ex-King was a loser of $30,000.

JUSTICE FIELD

Holding Court in Portland—Then in California Cities.

PORTLAND, June 9.—Associate Justice Stephen Field, of the United States supreme court, arrived at the Portland this afternoon from Tacoma, and will commence a term of court here to-morrow. From he goes to San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego, in California. He is held at Judge Field is one of the ablest men upon the bench and has a record for clear and logical decisions.

ARRESTED FOR DRUNKENNESS.

PORTLAND, June 9.—Quite a crowd of people assembled in front of 139 Fifth street at 2:30 this afternoon. The police patrol wagon was standing there, backed up to the sidewalk, evidently awaiting a passenger.

One person appeared in the person of Mrs. Byrne, who was arrested on complaint of Mrs. Ada Nowell, who is the proprietor of the lodging house at that number.

Armed with a warrant, officer No. 47 went to the house and found that Mr. and Mrs. Byrne were locked in their room. He demanded admittance, telling them who he was and that he had a warrant for Mrs. Byrne. They would not admit him, but he soon forced the door and entered.

Both the occupants were more or less under the influence of liquor when the court trying the bacarrat scandal case convened. The lord chief justice had hardly taken his seat when General Owen Williams stepped to the front of the bench and said, his face pale and his voice husky: "My lord, I have to ask your protection. Yesterday Sir Edward Clarke thought proper—" Here the solicitor general, Sir Edward Clarke, sprang to his feet and interrupted General Williams, exclaiming, "I ask your lordship to interfere and that General Williams should not be allowed to make a statement, as he has not the privilege of doing so." To this General Williams hotly replied: "I was accused of an abominable charge." Here the lord chief justice interferred, saying, "I don't remember the expression, but I don't think you can be allowed to speak," but General Williams persisted in being heard, and remarked angrily, "We were accused of sacrificing an innocent man. This statement was made without any evidence being brought forward for its justification." Lord Coleridge interrupted the general, remarking with considerable warmth, "I cannot hear any statement from you," and immediately commenced his summing up, while General Williams retired, frowning and greatly discontented, to his seat. The chief justice said that if the jury found the defendants had spoken the truth, their verdict should be for the defendants, but if the jury thought the charges they had made were not true, and that Sir William Gordon Cumming did not do anything while playing bacarrat, then the verdict must be for the plaintiff. Continuing, the chief justice analyzed at length the evidence given by plaintiff, which evidence, he said, was well worth consideration. During another portion of this summing up Lord Coleridge, the Prince of Wales, being at Tranby Croft was sufficient reason to explain Lyett Green's objection to creating a disturbance in the bacarrat room, or elsewhere, by calling attention to actions which he objects to on the part of Sir William Gordon Cumming. From the time the jury retired to deliberate upon the verdict until they returned to the courtroom, fifteen minutes elapsed, showing that apparently they were of one opinion as to the merits of the case. When the clerk of the court suddenly announced that the jury was ready to report, there was a movement of surprise throughout the room, the short absence of the jury being regarded as a decided unfavorable sign to the plaintiff. Everybody may be said to have been in a breathless state when the jury entered the boxes, looking rather frightened and very nervous. The announcement of the verdict for defendant was received with hissing from the galleries, where the ladies congregated, and upon the part of some of those in the body of the court who were in sympathy with the plaintiff. The court officers had some difficulty in suppressing these marks of a principled and just indignation at the verdict. They were, however, eventually suppressed, and court adjourned.

BACCARAT GAME

The Great Fuss Over a Small Matter.

THE JURY QUICKLY DECIDE.

The Verdict is Against Sir William Gordon Cumming and the Prince of Wales is Ahead.

LONDON, June 9.—The Prince of Wales was not present this morning when the court trying the bacarrat scandal case convened. The lord chief justice had hardly taken his seat when General Owen Williams stepped to the front of the bench and said, his face pale and his voice husky: "My lord, I have to ask your protection. Yesterday Sir Edward Clarke thought proper—" Here the solicitor general, Sir Edward Clarke, sprang to his feet and interrupted General Williams, exclaiming, "I ask your lordship to interfere and that General Williams should not be allowed to make a statement, as he has not the privilege of doing so." To this General Williams hotly replied: "I was accused of an abominable charge." Here the lord chief justice interferred, saying, "I don't remember the expression, but I don't think you can be allowed to speak," but General Williams persisted in being heard, and remarked angrily, "We were accused of sacrificing an innocent man. This statement was made without any evidence being brought forward for its justification." Lord Coleridge interrupted the general, remarking with considerable warmth, "I cannot hear any statement from you," and immediately commenced his summing up, while General Williams retired, frowning and greatly discontented, to his seat. The chief justice said that if the jury found the defendants had spoken the truth, their verdict should be for the defendants, but if the jury thought the charges they had made were not true, and that Sir William Gordon Cumming did not do anything while playing bacarrat, then the verdict must be for the plaintiff. Continuing, the chief justice analyzed at length the evidence given by plaintiff, which evidence, he said, was well worth consideration. During another portion of this summing up Lord Coleridge, the Prince of Wales, being at Tranby Croft was sufficient reason to explain Lyett Green's objection to creating a disturbance in the bacarrat room, or elsewhere, by calling attention to actions which he objects to on the part of Sir William Gordon Cumming. From the time the jury retired to deliberate upon the verdict until they returned to the courtroom, fifteen minutes elapsed, showing that apparently they were of one opinion as to the merits of the case. When the clerk of the court suddenly announced that the jury was ready to report, there was a movement of surprise throughout the room, the short absence of the jury being regarded as a decided unfavorable sign to the plaintiff. Everybody may be said to have been in a breathless state when the jury entered the boxes, looking rather frightened and very nervous. The announcement of the verdict for defendant was received with hissing from the galleries, where the ladies congregated, and upon the part of some of those in the body of the court who were in sympathy with the plaintiff. The court officers had some difficulty in suppressing these marks of a principled and just indignation at the verdict. They were, however, eventually suppressed, and court adjourned.

WEEPING HUSBAND.

A Repentant Wife Pays to be Taken Back.

OREGON CITY, June 9.—Dances McGinnis and Lewis, of Albany, arrived here at 11:30 this morning in search of John Mowanski, the Albina foundryman who eloped with the wife of F. P. Laurent, a fellow-workman in the car-shops. Shortly after reaching the main street, the officers beheld the guilty pair heading for the hotel, and immediately passed them under arrest. The sum of $152, which Mr. Laurent had stolen from her husband, was found on Mowanski's person. The woman has made overtures for complete capitulation and begs her husband to once more return to her home and to give her the salary. Laurent will not do this, but he met his wife. The parties will be taken to Portland this evening.

BOUNDARY DISPUTE.

Homeowners Raise the Old Question Again.

It is in Reference to the Boundary Between the United States and Canada.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 9.—Land speculators and explorers have again raised the old question of the boundary between the United States and Canada. It has been heretofore by Canada and all the maps of the United States have shown it to be on the Canadian side of the border line. According to the wording of the Webster-Ashburton treaty, the northern boundary here was to begin at a point where Pigeon river empties into Lake Superior and run through Long lake and connecting waters to the northwestern point of the Lake of the Woods. Now it is claimed that the waters around the south side of the island are disconnected from the main body of water, and that the waters of the island are to be made frequent portages when traveling by them. The channel on the north side of the island, however, is deep and continuous, and it is thought that the old treaties and conventions must have referred to the northern channel.

MADE AN ASSIGNMENT.

BALTIMORE, June 9.—The alleged shortage in the accounts of the late Jacob Bennett, secretary of the Bethesda Building Association, has caused Ernest M. Bennett, a son of the deceased, to make an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. Jacob and his son formerly conducted a boot and shoe business together. The assignment, it is said, is a precautionary measure. Receivers estimate the liabilities of the building association will aggregate $100,000. The assets are about $60,000 or $80,000 in mortgages, and what may be realized from the Jacob Bennett estate.

AN UNLUCKY GAMBLER.

EX-KING Milan Loses a Cool $30,000 in One Sitting.

PARIS, June 9.—Milan, ex-King of Serbia, has pandered to the fickle goddess fortune, and she has turned her back upon him as definitely as her ex-Majesty Natalie did when she learned the royal blood had sought companionship in plebeian homes.

Milan has been playing in bad luck this week. He had stashed like $30,000 from his boon companions. This seemed to embolden him; it was a bait to his gambling ambition. On Thursday a big game, it is said, was started at the Royal Club. Men with millions were in it, and with a slight intermission for refreshments and sleep the play went on until about 8 o'clock this morning, when it is said that ex-King was a loser of $30,000.

JUSTICE FIELD

Holding Court in Portland—Then in California Cities.

PORTLAND, June 9.—Associate Justice Stephen Field, of the United States supreme court, arrived at the Portland this afternoon from Tacoma, and will commence a term of court here to-morrow. From he goes to San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego, in California. He is held at Judge Field is one of the ablest men upon the bench and has a record for clear and logical decisions.

ARRESTED FOR DRUNKENNESS.

PORTLAND, June 9.—Quite a crowd of people assembled in front of 139 Fifth street at 2:30 this afternoon. The police patrol wagon was standing there, backed up to the sidewalk, evidently awaiting a passenger.

One person appeared in the person of Mrs. Byrne, who was arrested on complaint of Mrs. Ada Nowell, who is the proprietor of the lodging house at that number.

Armed with a warrant, officer No. 47 went to the house and found that Mr. and Mrs. Byrne were locked in their room. He demanded admittance, telling them who he was and that he had a warrant for Mrs. Byrne. They would not admit him, but he soon forced the door and entered.

Both the occupants were more or less under the influence of liquor when the court trying the bacarrat scandal case convened. The lord chief justice had hardly taken his seat when General Owen Williams stepped to the front of the bench and said, his face pale and his voice husky: "My lord, I have to ask your protection. Yesterday Sir Edward Clarke thought proper—" Here the solicitor general, Sir Edward Clarke, sprang to his feet and interrupted General Williams, exclaiming, "I ask your lordship to interfere and that General Williams should not be allowed to make a statement, as he has not the privilege of doing so." To this General Williams hotly replied: "I was accused of an abominable charge." Here the lord chief justice interferred, saying, "I don't remember the expression, but I don't think you can be allowed to speak," but General Williams persisted in being heard, and remarked angrily, "We were accused of sacrificing an innocent man. This statement was made without any evidence being brought forward for its justification." Lord Coleridge interrupted the general, remarking with considerable warmth, "I cannot hear any statement from you," and immediately commenced his summing up, while General Williams retired, frowning and greatly discontented, to his seat. The chief justice said that if the jury found the defendants had spoken the truth, their verdict should be for the defendants, but if the jury thought the charges they had made were not true, and that Sir William Gordon Cumming did not do anything while playing bacarrat, then the verdict must be for the plaintiff. Continuing, the chief justice analyzed at length the evidence given by plaintiff, which evidence, he said, was well worth consideration. During another portion of this summing up Lord Coleridge, the Prince of Wales, being at Tranby Croft was sufficient reason to explain Lyett Green's objection to creating a disturbance in the bacarrat room, or elsewhere, by calling attention to actions which he objects to on the part of Sir William Gordon Cumming. From the time the jury retired to deliberate upon the verdict until they returned to the courtroom, fifteen minutes elapsed, showing that apparently they were of one opinion as to the merits of the case. When the clerk of the court suddenly announced that the jury was ready to report, there was a movement of surprise throughout the room, the short absence of the jury being regarded as a decided unfavorable sign to the plaintiff. Everybody may be said to have been in a breathless state when the jury entered the boxes, looking rather frightened and very nervous. The announcement of the verdict for defendant was received with hissing from the galleries, where the ladies congregated, and upon the part of some of those in the body of the court who were in sympathy with the plaintiff. The court officers had some difficulty in suppressing these marks of a principled and just indignation at the verdict. They were, however, eventually suppressed, and court adjourned.

WISCONSIN FARMERS' ALLIANCE.

LACROSSE, June 9.—The state farmers' alliance met in convention here this morning to continue two days, the prime object of the gathering being the discussion of a project to organize all the farmers' societies under one head. After a number of addresses were made, the convention went into secret session at 11 a. m., and remained so up to the noon adjournment. Among the notables present are President Polk, of the national farmers' alliance and Representative Jere Simpson.

BARDSLEY PLEADS GUILTY.

PHILADELPHIA, June 9.—John Bardsley, ex-city treasurer, was arraigned this morning on seven or ten different indictments charging him with looting money as a public officer, deriving gain from a deposit of public money and converting money to his own use. He pleaded guilty to every count. Two weeks from to-day is set for hearing the evidence. The court will pronounce sentence according to its weight.

MASONIC MEETING

GRAND ROYAL ARCH CHAPTER FOR OREGON.

Annual Convocation—Installation of Officers—Death of a Prominent Member.

PORTLAND, June 9.—The second and last day of the thirty first annual convocation of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the state of Oregon, opened this morning at the Masonic hall.

The grand officers were all present, and a large number of delegates. The reports were considered and a large amount of routine business transacted.

New officers for the year (who were elected yesterday afternoon) were installed, and appointive officers had been named.

The entire list of elective and appointive officers is as follows: R. E. Companion Dr. Jay Tuttle, grand high priest; R. E. Companion Geo. E. Chamberlain, Albany, deputy grand high priest; R. E. Companion G. McD. Stroud, Portland, grand king; R. E. Companion W. C. Crawford, Corvallis, grand scribe; R. E. Companion R. P. Earhart, Portland, grand secretary; R. E. Companion D. F. Mason, Albany, grand treasurer; R. E. Companion J. M. Holson, Portland, grand captain of the host; R. E. Companion Thomas Olsen, The Dalles, grand lecturer; E. and Rev. Companion J. R. N. Bell, grand chaplain; E. Companion J. R. Irvine, grand master first veil; E. Companion Gustav Wilson, Portland, grand master second veil; Benjamin Stark, of Connecticut, past grand master of the grand lodge of Masons of Oregon, was present as a visitor. He was welcomed in an appropriate speech by J. R. Bailey, past grand high priest.

Past Grand Master Stark delivered an able address, full of interesting reminiscences of Masonry in Oregon in early days. Thirty-five years ago, when he was at Hartford, Conn., at the session of the general grand convention of the United States, he applied for and obtained a charter for the first chapter of Royal Arch Masons for Oregon, which charter he brought back here and organized the chapter. His remarks were very entertaining and instructive.

A telegram was received from Marshfield, giving notice of the death there last evening of Andrew Nasburg, a past grand master of the Masonic grand lodge of Oregon. He was prominent in Masonic and civil life in Southern Oregon and universally esteemed. He was a member of the state committee on assessment and taxation, and has held many positions of honor and trust.

The grand chapter closed in due form at noon, and the thirty-first annual convention was at an end.

GRADUATING EXERCISES.

Bishop Scott's Academy Sends Out a Large Class.

PORTLAND, June 9.—This is a red-letter day in the history of the Bishop Scott academy, one of Portland's leading educational institutions. The graduating exercises commenced at 2:30 this afternoon in the school chapel, which was appropriately decorated with flowers and evergreens.

Rev. Van Waters, of St. David's church, East Portland, delivered an able and interesting address to the graduates, which was full of good advice.

The graduating class numbers seventeen, whose names and addresses are as follows: Walter A. Mansfield, Mount City; Wm. Campbell, Horace Campbell, Heintz, Missoula; Harvey B. Fiske, Frank C. Sellwood, Salem; Otis J. Preston, San Francisco, California; Victor Marden, The Dalles; Albert R. Hunter, Island City; Wm. E. Overholt, Canyon City; Edgar C. Moss, Missoula; Mont. Wm. J. Church, Enterprise; C. M. Young, Eugene; Jesse Heilner, Baker City; Alfred McCall, George C. Durham, W. B. Mackay and T. Manner, Portland.

LAND RULES.

The Western States to Receive Large Tracts of Land.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Acting Secretary Chandler has approved a circular letter to registers and receivers prepared by the commissioner-general of the land office, prescribing rules and regulations for making selections of land in Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Washington. The grants are made to those states under the enabling act of February 22, 1889. In addition to the grant to each of these states of the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections, there is also granted to each various educational purposes, 500,000 acres; and 32,000 acres for the erection of public buildings at the several state capitals. The act of March 22, 1881, granting lands for penitentiary purposes to South Dakota is extended and made applicable to Montana, North Dakota and Washington. There is also granted 120,000 acres to South Dakota for agricultural purposes; and to each of the other states, 93,000 acres for the same purpose.

THE PRICE OF WHISKY.

Spokane Spoke man.

There is a saloon in Colville with a peculiar advertising sign hanging outside. It states that the micologist within has:

Whisky for $2.50 a quart.

Whisky for $2.00 a quart.

Whisky for $1.50 a quart.

Whisky for $1.00 a quart.

Whisky for .75 a quart.

And it is stated by those who have dared to enter the saloon that there is another sign which reads:

Whisky given away by the quart.

A subsidy given away with every quart of whisky.

A doctor furnished with every quart of whisky.

Funeral expenses and a brass band go with a quart of whisky.

Visit the World's Fair Site.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—A number of ministers of foreign countries will leave here Thursday under the auspices of the state department for Chicago, where a visit will be made to the site for the world's fair. They wish to see what arrangements have been made, and of what scope the fair is to be.

THE GREAT FUSS OVER A SMALL MATTER.

THE JURY QUICKLY DECIDE.

The Verdict is Against Sir William Gordon Cumming and the Prince of Wales is Ahead.

LONDON, June 9.—The Prince of Wales was not present this morning when the court trying the bacarrat scandal case convened. The lord chief justice had hardly taken his seat when General Owen Williams stepped to the front of the bench and said, his face pale and his voice husky: "My lord, I have to ask your protection. Yesterday Sir Edward Clarke thought proper—" Here the solicitor general, Sir Edward Clarke, sprang to his feet and interrupted General Williams, exclaiming, "I ask your lordship to interfere and that General Williams should not be allowed to make a statement, as he has not the privilege of doing so." To this General Williams hotly replied: "I was accused of an abominable charge." Here the lord chief justice interferred, saying, "I don't remember the expression, but I don't think you can be allowed to speak," but General Williams persisted in being heard, and remarked angrily, "We were accused of sacrificing an innocent man. This statement was made without any evidence being brought forward for its justification." Lord Coleridge interrupted the general, remarking with considerable warmth, "I cannot hear any statement from you," and immediately commenced his summing up, while General Williams retired, frowning and greatly discontented, to his seat. The chief justice said that if the jury found the defendants had spoken the truth, their verdict should be for the defendants, but if the jury thought the charges they had made were not true, and that Sir William Gordon Cumming did not do anything while playing bacarrat, then the verdict must be for the plaintiff. Continuing, the chief justice analyzed at length the evidence given by plaintiff, which evidence, he said, was well worth consideration. During another portion of this summing up Lord Coleridge, the Prince of Wales, being at Tranby Croft was sufficient reason to explain Lyett Green's objection to creating a disturbance in the bacarrat room, or elsewhere, by calling attention to actions which he objects to on the part of Sir William Gordon Cumming. From the time the jury retired to deliberate upon the verdict until they returned to the courtroom, fifteen minutes elapsed, showing that apparently they were of one opinion as to the merits of the case. When the clerk of the court suddenly announced that the jury was ready to report, there was a movement of surprise throughout the room, the short absence of the jury being regarded as a decided unfavorable sign to the plaintiff. Everybody may be said to have been in a breathless state when the jury entered the boxes, looking rather frightened and very nervous. The announcement of the verdict for defendant was received with hissing from the galleries, where the ladies congregated, and upon the part of some of those in the body of the court who were in sympathy with the plaintiff. The court officers had some difficulty in suppressing these marks of a principled and just indignation at the verdict. They were, however, eventually suppressed, and court adjourned.

WISCONSIN FARMERS' ALLIANCE.

LACROSSE, June 9.—The state farmers' alliance met in convention here this morning to continue two days, the prime object of the gathering being the discussion of a project to organize all the farmers' societies under one head. After a number of addresses were made, the convention went into secret session at 11 a. m., and remained so up to the noon adjournment. Among the notables present are President Polk, of the national farmers' alliance and Representative Jere Simpson.

BARDSLEY PLEADS GUILTY.

PHILADELPHIA, June 9.—John Bardsley, ex-city treasurer, was arraigned this morning on seven or ten different indictments charging him with looting money as a public officer, deriving gain from a deposit of public money and converting money to his own use. He pleaded guilty to every count. Two weeks from to-day is set for hearing the evidence. The court will pronounce sentence according to its weight.

MASONIC MEETING

GRAND ROYAL ARCH CHAPTER FOR OREGON.

Annual Convocation—Installation of Officers—Death of a Prominent Member.