An Early Morning Fire.

The vigorous ringing of the fire-bell shortly after midnight this morning brought the department quickly out. The fire was located in the old broom factory, a two-story frame building on Lyon street, owned by Dr. M. H. Ellis. It was owned by C. J. Dillon, who had stored in it about $2000 worth of furniture, which made a hot blaze.

The Green-Eyed Monster.

A coachman named Schlatulla, at Neustadt, near Vienna, suspected a laborer named Naproala of courting his fiancée, Fraulien Kopitz. He played detective and discovered the pair hiding in a garage house and exchanging love caresses. Schlatulla quietly fastened the door so they could not get out. He then set fire to the building and the victims of his hate soon perished amid the flames. The people attracted to the spot found Schlatulla hanging dead from a rafter in an adjacent coach house, having committed suicide.

CITY COUNCIL.

Ordinance Upon Nuisances and Minor Roading the Streets. Adjointed meeting of the city council held last evening was attended by Councilmen Burkhardt, French, Tabler, Garrett and Hawkins, with Mayor Cowan in the chair. Recorder Trenton, Marshal Hoffman, Surveyor Barr and street Commissioner Anderson.

On motion the council, when it adjourned, made the adjournment to 7:20 on Saturday evening. Petition of a number of citizens in regard to using gravel for grading streets instead of river gravel was read and referred to the committee on streets and public property, with power to act.

A petition from the Farmers' Warehouse trustees asking for the appointment of a conference in regard to the filling of the river at Jackson street to prevent the washing of the bank, granted, and the mayor appointed Councilmen Burkhardt, Tabler and Garrett as the committee on the part of the council.

An ordinance regulating the depositing or keeping of any nuisance in any part of the city, streets or alleys, or private premises, was read first and second times and laid over to the next meeting.

An ordinance forbidding minors from roaming upon the streets after 8 o'clock at night during the winter and spring months, and after 9 o'clock during the summer months, males under 18 years of age and females under 16 years of age, was read twice and went over to the next meeting.

A resolution by Councilman Tabler, covering the recommendation of the street commissioner for the repairing and rebuilding of sidewalks in various parts of the city, was adopted, setting the time of letting contracts on June 23.

On motion the city council authorized the city engineer to enforce the ordinance which will cause the cessation of tying out cows in the streets or where they can obstruct the sidewalk.

BASE BALL NOTES.

The scribbles and county officers at the court house have signified their desire to play the lawyers of Albany a friendly game next week. The game between the Albany club and the Salem club at the capital city on the 27th inst., will be a pretty game. The Albany nine will be Burns pitcher, Burns catcher, Van Wilson short stop, Ma Margan first base, O'Neill second base, Larimore third base, Kenzie, Blodgett and Leizend fielders, Sudley reserve. It will be the hardest nine the Salems have played this season.

Weather permitting the alphabetical nines will play a friendly game in this city this afternoon. The Linn and Albany are likely to play again, as will be seen by the following challenge:

We, the Linn base ball club, hereby challenge the Albany base ball club to play a friendly game of base ball in Albany on Saturday, June 27th. The Albany will be barred from playing on outside of Albany, and the Linn will play Linn county men.

The above challenge is made by request of many people, the press and business men of Albany. THE LINNS. As the last contest was a close and interesting one the two clubs should score bats again. Everybody who saw the last contest pro no need it a very fine game, and it was no doubt the best ever played in Albany. No other game that the Albany club could arrange would give as general satisfaction as a return game with the Linn.

THE ALBANY COLLEGE.

The Graduating Exercises at the Opera House Yesterday Morning. Notwithstanding the steady downpour of rain a large audience was present at the opera house yesterday morning at 10:30 to witness the graduating exercises of the Albany college.

The Apollon club then sang one of their excellent quartettes. A vocal solo by Rev. E. R. Peacock, Hugh G. Fisher, Edgar N. Boddgett and Samuel E. Irvine. The class motto was "Nunquam Dormimus".

Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. F. H. Gayney, of Salem, and some excellent music rendered by the college orchestra.

Carlton E. Sox then pronounced an oration on "Public Opinion," which reflected no small credit upon the speaker and the excellent training of the Albany college.

NORTHWEST NOTES.

J. C. Mason has resigned the editorial management of the Tillamook Western Watchtower, and C. H. Freas has resumed the chair.

The necessary steps have been taken for the formation of Corvallis Wagon and Carriage Factory.

Work will be commenced on a gristmill at Cottage Grove in a few weeks. It will be a full roller process, with a capacity of fifty barrels per day.

The Lakeview Examiner says the orchardists in Southern Oregon will find themselves under the necessity of generally thinning out, even to the sacrificing of half the young fruit, so heavily loaded are the trees.

The Dalles warehouses are both filled to the utmost capacity with wool, and still it continues to arrive in that place. When all the Crook county wool gets there, says a neighboring paper, the Dalles will have to be enlarged to afford it storage room.

Rev. G. A. Blair went to Colby Sunday and organized a new Cumberland Presbyterian church, and already 200 lbs have been purchased and paid for and the lumber is being delivered on the building.

A church was being removed across the railroad track at Oakesdale near Pendleton Sunday when a special train carrying a military troupe, came along, and before the engineer could stop his engine it struck the church square amidships, cutting it in two. The fireman was slightly injured.

A strange freak of nature was recently a subject for consideration before the Lane County Medical Association for study. It was the case of a child 5 years old, one side of which grows much faster than the other, being divided in equal parts without apparent cause. They say nothing is on record to compare with it.

Beautiful Women. The magical effects of Wisdom's Rubotine as a beautifier and preserver of the complexion have been attested by thousands of the leading ladies of society and the stage. It is the only article ever discovered which gives a natural and beautiful tint to the complexion, removing tan, sunburn, freckles and all roughness of the face and arms, leaving the skin soft, smooth and velvety. All remarks on its brightening, coloring and refreshing properties, a distinction not found in any similar preparation on the market. Sold everywhere.

Important to Housekeepers. It gives Julius Gradwohl great satisfaction in selling his fine Golden Rule teas and baking powder, with elegant prizes or without them, that his customers who have purchased invariably return and say they are well pleased, that the tea is No. 1 and the baking powder is as good as the best. All his teas and baking powder bears the name of Julius Gradwohl's Golden Rule Bazaar, and are expressly put up for his business, and still continues to give with each pound of tea or baking powder an elegant piece of glass ware.

I have been bothered with catarrh for about twenty years; I had lost sense of smell entirely, and I had almost lost my hearing. My eyes were getting so dim I had to get some one to thread my needle. Now I have my hearing as well as I ever had, and I can see to thread as fine a needle as ever I did, my sense of smell is partly restored, and it seems to be improving all the time. I think there is nothing like Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh. Mrs. E. E. Grimes, Rendell, Perry, Co., O.

On the streets of Albany, a watch. The owner can have the same by describing the watch and paying for this notice.

Catarrh cured, health and sweet breath secured, by Shiloh's Catarrh remedy, price 50 cents. Nasal injector free, sold by Foshy & Mason.

Have you seen those beautiful cement walls in the center s, put up by E. W. Achison, at the cost of stone, as fine a needle as ever I did, my sense of smell is partly restored, and it seems to be improving all the time. I think there is nothing like Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh. Mrs. E. E. Grimes, Rendell, Perry, Co., O.

Do you want to be happy and make those about you pleased, if so go and get one of those lovely toned pianos at Mrs. Hymans.

For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's porous plaster. Price 25 cents at Foshy & Mason.

Strawberries, cherries, gooseberries, currants, etc., received every morning, at Allen Bros.

Seventy-five cent neckties for 50 cents at Searls'.

MACK—To the wife of Mack, the barber, on June 10, a 10 pound shaver. Father and boy done well.

THE WORLD ENRICHED.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Eps was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time, or in fact, at any time any the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

That sour-tempered, cross, dyspeptic individual, should take Dr. J. H. McLean's Sarasaparilla! It will make him feel as well and hearty as the healthiest of us. He needs bracing up, vitalizing, that is all.

Just received, at Searls' shoe store, the latest styles in ladies cloth top shoes, lace shoes and Oxfords of all kinds.

Frequently accidents occur in the house hold which cause burns, sprains and bruises; for use in such cases Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment has for many years been the constant favorite family remedy.

NEW TO-DAY.
