THE OREGON PIONEERS.

The Annual Meeting Will Be Held in Portland To-Day - The Programme.

PORTLAND, June 15.—To-morrow, Tuesday, will occur the annual meeting of the Oregon pioneers.

All who arrived in Oregon, or rather, all who came within the limits of what is now Oregon, Washington and Idaho, prior to 1855, are entitled to membership in the Pioneer Association. While there are a goodly number on the rolls, still there are very many who have never connected themselves with the association. All such are earnestly invited to join the association this time, and participate in the exercises of Pioneer Day. The bond of fellowship, resulting from enduring the same privations and hardships, incident to a journey of five to seven months' duration across the plains with all the experiences incident to cutting loose from the base of supplies and striking out into a wild region, surrounded on all sides by probable danger from Indians, famine and flood, with the ultimate destination 30,000 miles away, is such as can never be repeated again in the history of the human race.

It is desirable to the fullest extent possible to secure the names of all persons who so crossed "The Plains," with their places and date of birth, date of arrival here, and present address. Hundreds of pioneers, who bore well their part in the early days, have passed away with scarcely a line left relating to themselves or from whence they came. In almost every instance, had pains been taken to perserve the record, much matter of value might have been found relating to the early history of our fair state It is not for self-glorification that such records ought to be preserved. Every man owes something to his country and to his prosterity; and the time will come in the history of Oregon, when the matter which now only exists in the memory of the rapidly disappearing pioneers will be greatly sought for and with much difficulty obtained. For such reasons and many more which might be urged, all who have not yet united with the association are urged to do so without further delay.

All pioneers will provide themselves with badges showing the year of their arrival in Oregon, which will be furnished by the secretary of the association, George H. Himes, 169 and 171 Second street, and repair to the Hotel Portland at 1 o'clock sharp. Then the procession will be formed under the direction of John W. Minto, grand marshal, and march direct to the Exposition building. Carriages will be provided by Marshal Minto for those who are infirm.

At the Exposition building the exercises will be as follows:

Music—Marine Band.

Prayer by the Chaplain—Rev. J. S. Griffin.

Short Address — Hon. John Minto, 1844, President of the Association.

Annual Address—Lydell Baker, esq.

Music—Marine Band.

Poem—Robert A. Miller.

Occassional Address—George H. Burnett, esq.

Music—Marine Band.

At 8 o'clock the annual business meeting will be held in the art gallery for the election of officers for the ensuing year, and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

Killed by a Train.

A telegram on Sunday to Mr. Joseph Misner, who lives just across the river in Benton Co., from his daughter Mrs. John Adams, at Pullman, Washington, announced the death of her husband that morning by a train. No particulars were given. Mr. Adams had been in the employ of the Northern Pacific company for four years and was a careful, steady and trusted man. He had but recently been transferred from Sprague to Pullman and given a more important position. Mrs. Adams will arrive in Portland to-day with the remains of her husband, where she will be met by her sister, Miss Tilla Misner. They will probably arrive in this city on the overland to-night.

NORTHWEST NOTES.

Interesting Items from Exchanges Throughout the Northwest.

Arrangements have been made by the department officers for the transportation of forty horses and men of troop B from Ashland to Eugene, to attend the coming state military encampment.

Grant county also is daily learning more of the hidden wealth in mother earth. Small specimens of what are probable opals or rubies have been washed from the gravel beds near Silvies valley, where Clark & Trowbridge have their placer claim.

The Jacksonville Times says there is an unusually large amount of wild oats growing in Southern Oregon this year, owing to the late, wet spring. In consequence the grain crop will not be as large as at first expected, while the yield of hay will be correspondingly heavier.

The farmers' alliance members of Eight Mile, Gilliam county, have appointed a committee to select a suitable location for a general merchandise store in that neighborhood to be erected in the fall. There are several other farmers' organizations in different parts of the state considering a similar scheme.

An attractive feature of the Fourth of July celebration at Pendleton will be the colt show. Several handsome prizes are offered, and many farmers and stockmen have announced their intention of competing. The range lands and ranches of Eastern Oregon will show up some valuable stock at the exhibition.

Parties are now on the way from the East to Weston to look over the field with a view of putting in a $20,000 machine shops plant for the manufacture of a combined pulverizer, seeder and harrow, a bonus of $6000 being offered by Weston people. A strong effort will be made to secure the location of the shops there.

Peter Fitch, well known in Medford, and lately in business at Roseburg, robbed the safe in the feed store of which he was a partner of $200, says the Mail. Upon being arrested by his partner he acknowledged the theft, returned the money and left for parts unknown. He has many acquaintances here, who were painfully surprised to hear of his action. It is thought that gambling drove him to commit the theft.

Excursion to Newport.

A grand excursion to Newport will be given Saturday, June 20, for the benefit of "F" Co., Second Regiment, O. N. G. Train will leave Albany at 5 p. m. Saturday, June 20, arriving at Newport about 8:30 p. m., returning leave at 6 p. m. on the following day, arriving in Albany at 9:00 p. m. The weather at the coast is very pleasant and excursionists will find this the best time of the year to take a few days recreation at the seaside. Arrangements have been made so that those wishing to remain until Monday or Tuesday may do so by paying 50 cents additional to the agent of the O. P. R. R. Co. at Yaquina on their return. The tides will be favorable, hotel accommodation a plenty and the steam schooner Mischief will make a trip over the bar for the benefit of those who wish to fish in the ocean. The hills back of Newport present a gorgeous appearance, covered as they are by the brilliant rhodedendrons.

"F" Co. will go as a company and tickets may be secured of any member of that organization for $2.50 for the round trip, including steamer fare to and from Newport.

OREGON CROPS.

Crop-Weather, Bulletin No. 14 for the week ending, Saturday, June 13, which is based on the reports of 147 correspondents says: The temperature has averaged 5 degrees a day below the average during the week. The weather has been partly cloudy with little sunshine. General rains have fallen since Wednesday, amounting to from one half inches. In Jackson county a heavy down pour occured on the 10th. Light frosts occurred in several counties on the the 8th and 9th, especally in Washington, about Cornelius and in Douglas, about Coles valley. The weather conditions were unfavorable to haying, to cherries and strawberries. The frosts barely nipped tender vegetation. Gardens have been greatly improved by the rains. Fall wheat has lodged in places, but on the whole never presented better prospects for a large yield. Spring wheat has been greatly benefitted by the weather conditions and promises an unusually large good crop. Warmer weather and sunshine would be of great benefit, crops are growing well but lice are reported from several localities. There is a small white worm doing some damage to the roots of corn, in Yamhill county A few days sunshine will ripen the cherries. Berries of all kinds promise to be plentiful. Though the weather during the week has been unusual, cool cloudy and wet, yet the crop prospects have been improved, save hay, and entire Western Oregon is assurred of good crops.

In Eastern Oregon the rain was great benefit to growing crops. Timely rains have further improved the splendid prospects. The hot winds of May 25th burnt considerable wheat, but the rains have done more benefit than the hot winds did damage. Through the wheat districts the rains were not as heavy as in the other sections, but some fell through the entire wheat area. In the Grand Ronde valley spring wheat is late in coming up, but the present moisture insures the crop. Cherries and strawberries are fine and plentiful. Fruit is generally in good condition. Entire eastern Oregon and Washington has been favored with suitable weather conditions to futher improve the good prospects for an abundant harvest.

The Southern Pacific Railroad.

The Ashland Tidings, says that the S. P. R. R. Co., is making preparations to change the route of the road between Ashland and the '49 mines so as to replace some half a dozen or more trestles with solid fills. Manager Koehler was out here last week, and was negotiating with owners of property along the portion of the road to be changed, and it is presumed that the work is to be commenced soon. Mr. Erickson, who made the large fill under the Wagner creek trestle, is expected to have the contract for moving most of the dirt in this work also. The right of way through E. K. Anderson's land at the mines has been granted, and Mr. Billings has been at Portland this week in the negotiation for the right through his land. The road is to be cut futher into the side hill, making the tarck from 30 to 50 feet futher west than now at the points where the several trestles now are. Some of these trestles are high and risky looking structures on so crooked a road, and the new work will be a measure of increased safety to the traveling public, as well as a piece of economy to the company, when permanent repairs are considered.

I have been bothered with catarrh for about twenty years; I had lost sense of smell entirely, and I had almost lost my hearing. My eyes were getting so dim I had to get some one to thread my needle. Now I have my hearing as well as I ever had, and I can see to thread as fine a needle as ever I did, my sense of smell is partly restored, and it seems to be improving all the time. I think there is nothing like Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh. Mrs. E. E. Grimes, Rendrill, Perry, Co., O.
