The corner stone of the new United Presbyterian church edifice on Fifth and Washington streets was laid at 10 a. m. yesterday with appropriate ceremonies.

A brief address was delivered by the pastor, Rev. S. G. Irvine, and prayer was offered by Rev. J. H. McClell, of the Congregational church. A selection from Psalms 118 was sung, after which the benediction was pronounced.

Beneath the stone was placed a sealed box containing the following articles:

The original call made out for the present pastor on the 13th of June, 1857, of the 15 names attached to the call; 7 are still in the church, viz: Mrs. Young, Mrs. Miller, Mr. Ralston, Mr. John Smith, Mr. Tate, Mrs. Monteith and Mrs. Bodine.

Probably Coming to Oregon.

From Mr. L. Samuel, president of the Oregon Press Association, it is learned that at the session of the National Editorial Association, to be held in St. Paul next month, a strong pull will be made to have the session of 1892 held in Portland. As every state in the Union has from five to fifty delegates in the National Association, and as each member is either a proprietor or editor of a paper, some idea can be formed of the benefit which the visit of so intelligent a body of men is likely to prove to the Northwest, and particularly to the city of Portland.

All the hop leaves are now under the advice of the state experimental station, he is having all sprouts on the vines for a height of three or four feet cut away, and in few days will spray his entire yard. He says he is satisfied that those who do not fight the plague will have no first-class hops to sell this fall.

THE HARRISBURG CANAL.

The Citizens of That Place Will Construct the Important Improvement.

The citizens of Harrisburg met Thursday to hear the report of Engineer E. J. O'Conner as to the estimate for the canal to be cut to the bottom, to carry three feet of water. The committee also reported that recognizing certain rights of Ladd & Tilton have corresponded with them.

The Harrisburg Courier says of the correspondence with Messrs. Ladd & Tilton is that these gentlemen have signified their willingness to either sell their right or assist in the enterprise. A committee composed of S. May, Dr. J. F. Hendrix, E. E. Upmeyer and Perry Hyde were appointed to further correspond and negotiate with them. The committee has requested Ladd & Tilton to appoint a convenient time for them to come to Harrisburg, and the next meeting will be held on the appointed day, at which time, it is expected, the company will be formed.

Regarding the terminal ground, Perry Hyde agreed to donate 5 acres of ground provided the "C" line was selected; J. P. Schooling said that on route "D" he would sell the ground for the figures placed upon it by three disinterested parties, while Dr. H. A. Davis desired more time before stating what he would do should the "B" line be chosen. There is not the least doubt but that the ditch will be built this season.

THE SUMMER GIRL.

She's coming with the flowers that will bloom for us once more. She's coming with the breezes that will blow along the shore. The sun will kiss her cheek and will bring her cheeks with her own. While he who loves her madly, grasps fate and toils in town. And Cupid, with the arrows that he's given her to use.

Will guide the footsteps of the sprightly summer girl. They roam robandast hops around while yet is early dawn. And tennis players did the green of grassy add and lawn.

We'll stroll dressed in roseate, with a walking stick in hand. And with her brother's no-kick will she stroll along the sand. And where the crowd is thickest in the sunnier hotel whirl.

Will bloom once more the beauty of the charming summer girl. With glossy collar shining in the light of summer days. With curls and softest blarney we will laugh and sing for days.

Yours Cupid will instruct us how to keep the thin disguise. And when once more we claim her as the maiden heart we prize. And when once more we claim her as the summer's priceless prize.

We'll sing the happy feature of the jolly summer girl. OBTAINED MORE RELIEF From a Can of O. K. T. Than Anything He Ever Used.

I have been bothered with catarrh for about twenty years; I had lost sense of smell entirely, and I had almost lost my hearing. My eyes were getting so dim I had to get some one to thread my needle. Now I have my hearing as well as I ever had, and I can see to thread as fine a needle as ever I did, my sense of smell is partly restored, and it seems to be improving all the time. I think there is nothing like Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh. Mr. E. E. Gilman, Rendell, Pr. Y. Co., O.
