ABOUT THE BRIDGE.

The Bids for the High Steel Structure Will Be Opened Saturday.

To the Editor of the Herald: Will you oblige a subscriber by answering a question or two about the proposed bridge across the Willamette at Albany. What is the proposed status of the bridge question? Is the bridge movement dead, or will it yet be built this summer? The voters of Albany have spoken in no uncertain tones in favor of building this much needed thoroughfare across the Willamette. The citizens of the county favor it, and if there is any reason why it should be delayed the people would like to know it.

In reply to the foregoing it can be said that the bridge question is not dead, in fact those who think so will find it a very lively corpse. The status of the question is just this: The city favors building a high bridge, and has the means to pay for her portion of it. The county commissioners want to dictate to the city just where the bridge shall be built and what kind of a structure it shall be, and voted for a draw-bridge, because they contended that it would be cheaper. The city council would not consent to building a draw-bridge that would be a continual source of heavy expense to keep in repair and to operate, and have advertised for bids for a high steel bridge, according to the action of the joint committee, and these bids will be opened Saturday next. The city council say that a number of bids from responsible bridge firms will be received, and they are confident that the figures offered for building the high steel bridge will be so reasonable and so much lower than was estimated that the county commissioners will come to their senses and help build it.

Be this as it may, Albany needs a bridge, and needs it now. It would seem to be good advice at this juncture to those directly interested to stop quarreling over the location and build the bridge.

A COMMUNICATION. The editor of the Democrat came out yesterday in a cowardly attack against me because I have never blow-d my money in on his paper for subscriptions and advertising, and because I am dealing in some goods that his relations are. A prominent merchant here told me that he was not worth noticing as ever one knows that the Democrat is a liar. The land agent who instigated this landed in Albany with $250 and thinks everybody else is in the same fix who comes from Kansas and Nebraska.

MARY L. TOWNSEND, Albany, Oregon.

L. O. G. T. The 27th session of the grand lodge of Oregon Good Templars has just concluded a two days' session at Jefferson. Grand lodge officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: G. C. T., Hugh Harrison, Jefferson; G. C., John Knight, Salem; G. S., Mrs. J. F. Robinson, The Dalles; G. V. T., Miss Florence L. Smith, Salem; G. T., H. S. Jory, Salem; G. S. J. T., Mrs. T. E. Rice, The Dalles; G. S., Mrs. M. J. Miller, Salem; G. S., W. M. Shalin, Canby; G. M., Chauncey Case, Portland; G. D. M., Miss Rosa Smoock Smoock, Salem; G. C., Miss Mary Stinson, Salem; G. Sent., A. Snyder, Portland; G. Mess., S. T. Johnson, Jefferson. The grand lodge meets next year at The Dalles.

LETTER LIST. Following is the list of letters that remain unclaimed for in the Albany postoffice June 16, 1891: Miss Alta Arick, Fred J. Brown, Miss Lucy Bron, Thomas Bird, 2, Chas. Borekier, Miss Sada Chambers, Fred J. Connolly, Eugene; Mrs. M. J. Miller, Leon Confort, B. W. Lenny, Mrs. Mary E. Friend, N. F. Furman, J. G. Gibson, J. H. Hawn, Lawrence Hudenick, J. S. Levy, Mrs. Barba Powell, John Pierce Esp., H. S. Shepard, 2, W. W. Spatch, Miss Lucy Speyer, J. R. Stewart, Miss Sammie Walker, Burt Wheeler, Annie Willson, J. F. Williams. THOS. MORNATH, P. M.

Not Complimentary. Oregonian: The Independent Order of Good Templars in Oregon is not, seemingly, in a very flourishing condition as a state organization. The state grand lodge was in session at Jefferson last week, and even the Salem Statesman, published in the same county, confesses its utter ignorance of what the honorable body did, further than that it adjourned after an uneventful three days' session. The representation at the meeting was small. Evidently the day when the Good Templars lodge was in power for good in a community in this state has long since passed away.

Sure Cure for the Liquor or Opium Habits. The East India cure for these awful habits can be given without the patient's knowledge, and is the only known specific for the purpose, it is not injurious in the least degree; manufactured by Emerson Drug Co., San Jose, Cal., and for sale at J. A. Cumming's drug store only.

French Tansy Wafers. These wafers are for the relief and cure of painful and irregular menses, and will remove all obstructions, no matter what the cause, and are sure and safe every time. Manufactured by Emerson Drug Co., San Jose, Cal., and for sale at J. A. Cumming's drug store only.

F. M. French keeps the largest and most complete stock of spectacles and eyeglasses in the county. Every pair warranted to give perfect satisfaction.

THE MILITARY BOYS.

They Will appreciate Practical Army Life in Their Joes Outing.

F. Co., Oregon National Guards, of this city, together with the others forming the ten companies of the Second Regiment, will go to Eugene Saturday, when their first annual encampment will be held. This outing is required by law, and regular army discipline will be maintained, which will be something novel for the boys in blue. The members will assemble at the army in full uniform, with brightly polished guns and bayonets, and when thoroughly accoutred for the encampment only a small imaginative power would be required to make it appear that they were actually going to war. Each member is required to provide himself with the following articles: One pair of blankets, a deep tin plate, knife and fork, spoon, tin cup and a towel. Each will also be allowed to take, if he wishes, the following: One suit of underclothing, one pair of socks, a pair of light shoes, two brushes, two towels, a bed tick and an overcoat. Beyond this they will be allowed to take nothing, not even spirituous liquors. The dishes, it will be noticed, are not silver plated. They will be packed in advance and shipped to Eugene. The clothing will be wrapped in the blankets, fastened in the regulation army blanket roll, and carried over the right shoulder, being fastened over the left hip, many of them doubtless being tied in a true-lover's knot by fair hands at home.

At Eugene a United States army company will be in attendance to see that the proper ticket duty, etc., is performed. It is to be hoped that there will not be very many who will have to be shot for sleeping at their post and similar irregularities. The army bean and cracker will be there in all their freshness to contribute to the fullness of the surroundings. There will be no enemy to attack, unless it is the festive Eugene town crew that may try to brose on the tented field.

There will be target practice, skirmishes, a sham battle and the regiment will without doubt enjoy a pleasant outing, and learn much of practical army life.

The Wasco Sun, speaking for The Dalles, challenges any "boom" or other town of not more than 4000 inhabitants, to show a better record for thirty years (or in proportion of course, for smaller towns) than this five business failures in thirty years, and three of this five only temporary embarrassment, practically annulled by their continuance in business.

A drunken tramp was placed in the cooler at Salem Friday on whose person was found a collection of London and Chinese drafts. He has either the plunder of a prince or a mail robber. Among the papers is a Wells, Fargo money order for $22, and 45, and a $20 draft on Hon Kong. The arrest is of no importance except that it may lead to the discovery of an important mail robbery.

At the meeting of the La Grande city council held recently, the council was instructed to notify the proprietors of gambling games to discontinue their vocations, and the order went into effect yesterday morning and all games have been closed. I have been bothered with catarrh for about twenty years; I had lost sense of smell entirely, and I had almost lost my hearing. My eyes were getting so dim I had to get some one to thread my needle. Now I have my hearing as well as I ever had, and I can see to thread as fine a needle as ever I did, my sense of smell is partly restored, and it seems to be improving all the time. I think there is nothing like Ely's Cream Balm for catarrhs. E. E. Grimes, Randolph, Pa., U. S. A.
