

AT CAMP GRANT.

The Militiamen Are Subject to Severe Army Discipline. TENDING ON A SHADELESS GROUND. Many Hardships Endured—Several of the Boys Placed in the Guard House.

CAMP GRANT, July 2.—The friends of F company in Albany are doubtless wondering how we are enduring soldier life at Camp Grant. You correspondent will detail a part of the events of the last twenty-four hours. The sun shines down upon us relentlessly, and the boys' faces that were so blistered the fore part of the week that they could not turn their heads, are a solid mass of scales to-day. They are getting very tired and will not be sorry when the week is over.

We were reviewed yesterday by Governor Pennoyer and we presented a very unique appearance. Our company performed quite an important position in battalion drill. We received the colors from the colonel, headquarters and conveyed them to the field and presented them. At 6:30 we passed in review before the governor, after which the governor attempted to cross the officers line without being escorted by an officer in uniform, and was promptly halted by a sentinel and held until rescued by the officer of the day. Perhaps the governor thinks there is some military discipline being observed in the camp.

There was a dense throng on the camp ground last evening, and the dancing platform was filled with a gay throng of dancers after the band concert, which occurred immediately after dress parade. The dancing was kept up until nearly midnight. About 2 o'clock the members of F company were aroused from their slumbers by a loud cry of "halt!" and immediately there was a grand stampede and some great charges made into the tents of F company closely followed by the officer of the day, who pounced upon them before they could get their clothes off. They had run the outside guard but the inner officer nabbed them. They denied running the guard but the officer demanded their names, and said: "What are you doing with your clothes on, and what makes you breathe so hard?" Well it is needless to say that the boys were dragged off to the guard house where they will be likely to languish during the rest of the encampment. We will withhold their names on account of their previous good conduct. They presented a sorry appearance out with the shovel gang doing police duty this morning.

After battalion drill this morning we passed in review before the inspector general. I guess we were all right as he paid us a high compliment. Guard mount is now being formed. One more detail and the boys will rest easier, as each member will then have served.

The routine of regular army discipline is being regularly observed and in consequence the guard house claims its quota of victims.

Those who attended thinking they would only be required to play soldier are badly disappointed, as the duties require the numerous. To begin with the guardman rises at the early hour of 4:55 a. m. and attends roll call fifteen minutes later. Then he is required to spread his blanket and loop up the sides of his tent and put his various accoutrements in order. During this time those who require medical attention are formed in squads and marched to the hospital.

At 4:45 companies are formed and marched out on the parade ground and drilled by their respective captains until the recall is sounded one hour later, when after dismissal the welcome sound of the mess call is heard and the fall in for breakfast, after which the men return to their quarters and pin down the sides of the tents and fold up their blankets. At ten minutes of eight all the companies fall in and are drilled as a battalion until 9:40. After dismissal of the battalion the men detailed form each company for guard duty for the succeeding twenty-four hours are formed in squad by the first sergeant and marched out for parade previous to guard mounting.

Those fortunate enough not to be included in this detail are not called upon for duty until after dinner.

At half past three battalion drill is again called, and recall is sounded at 5. At 5:30 the men fall in for supper. After supper the captains form their companies for inspection and march out on the regimental parade ground for dress parade, at the close of which ceremony the band leads the march past the reviewing officer. The evening gun is fired, the flag lowered and the company dismissed until roll call at 9:50. At 10 o'clock taps are sounded and all lights must be out and quiet prevail.

The privates have been subjected to the severest army discipline on a hot field under a tree for shade and the boys are nearly tired out. Whether the state of the Oregon National Guard has been promoted by this "outing" remains to be seen.

CIRCUIT COURT

A Verdict of Not Guilty in the Maxwell Incest Case—Other Proceedings.

In the circuit court yesterday the jury in the case against Elias Maxwell, for incest, the alleged victim being his own daughter, returned a verdict of not guilty.

The case was one of the nastiest ever tried in the county. The daughter testified that her father had committed the crime since she was 13 years old. Much contradictory evidence was produced. It is half of it was true it would make the girl a very tough character, as well as the father. Mrs. Maxwell testified that she knew nothing about it.

The other cases disposed of were: Ruel Custer vs. Margaret Custer; divorce, on trial.

Bridge & Beach Manufacturing company vs. Smith & Senders; to recover money, continued.

Almira Miller vs. Schooling & McDaniel; to recover money, judgment for plaintiff for $2,081.

J. B. Stetson vs. Smith & Senders; to recover money, continued.

E. A. Currie vs. S. P. R. K. Co.; appeal from justice court; judgment for plaintiff for $172.05.

E. L. Bryan vs. S. P. R. K. Co.; appeal for damages; continued.

Manuel Powell agent James F. Powell; divorce granted.

"SI PLUNKARD."

A Yankee comedy of the above title will be seen at the Albany opera house on Wednesday, July 8.

The comedy is in four acts, the scenes of which are laid in and around the New England country and New York city.

The central figure, of course, is "Si Plunkard," a young Yankee nonpareil peddler, which part is looked after by Mr. J. C. Lewis.

Some of the leading characters seen may be mentioned, Dora Page, a young country lass, in love with Si; Felix Schmidt, an inventive Dutchman; Robert Denny, a bogus stock speculator; Ezra Page, an honest old farmer who does not understand speculation; Moses Wilton, a Hebrew money lender, and numerous friends of the Page family. The performance includes many specialties.

Of for the Fourth.

Albany will be nearly depopulated to-day, a goodly portion of her citizens going to Eugene, while many will go to Portland and Yacquina to celebrate. The Albany hose team have worked themselves into pretty good shape and have made some very good time. It is safe to predict that they will carry off at least a portion of the laurels at Eugene to-day.

The Mascot's Score.

The shoot of the Mascot Rod & Gun club yesterday resulted in the following score: L. W. Dwyer, 16 out of a possible 20; Phil Brigham, 15; Geo. Froman, 14; Grant Froman, 12; Pres Marshall, 12; Fred Blount, 12; Chas. Wolverson, 11; Al. Wolverson, 11; W. Montehi, 10; W. E. Baker, 6; Dr. Lettinger, 5; Mill Morris, 6.

Card of Thanks.

We extend to our kind friends and neighbors in this city, our grateful thanks for the many favors and sympathy shown us during the sore trials attending the recent sickness in our family, and the sad and irreparable loss of our dear little daughter. May such kindness as that bestowed on us, be the lot of those kind friends if they are ever so similarly unfortunate.

C. O. LEE, JENNIE LEE.

No "Herald" Tomorrow.

In order that the employees of the HERALD may join with the rest of the world in the celebration of the Fourth of July, no paper will be issued from this office tomorrow morning.

Beautiful Women.

The magical effects of Wisdom's Robustine as a beautifier and preserver of the complexion have been attested by thousands of the leading ladies of society and the stage. It is the only article ever discovered which gives a natural and beautiful tint to the complexion, removing tan, sunburn, freckles and all roughness of the face and arms, leaving the skin soft, smooth and velvety. All remark on its delightful, cooling and refreshing properties, a distinction not found in any similar preparation on the market. Sold everywhere.

Mothers?

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children feeding. It is a purely vegetable preparation. Its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhea and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mothers' friend. 25 doses, 25 cents.

I have been bothered with catarrh for about twenty years; I had lost sense of smell entirely, and I had almost lost my hearing. My eyes were getting so dim I had to get some one to thread my needle. Now I have my hearing restored, as well as I ever had, and I can see to thread as fine a needle as ever I did, my sense of smell is partly restored, and it seems to be improving all the time. I think there is nothing like Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh. Mrs. E. E. Grimes, Rendell, Wyo., O.

ABOUT THE BRIDGE.

A Few Plain Truths Concerning This Important Undertaking.

THE SITE QUARREL SHOULD STOP.

If Albany Is Going to Have a Bridge This Summer There Should Be United Action, and That Speedily.

The discussion and action on the bridge question in Albany has reached such a state that something ought to be done. As it is now going the strife as to location has almost become a dead lock, and threatens to delay its building for this season, at least.

In this important undertaking, as in too many public enterprises in Albany, there is a lack of concerted action. "United we stand, divided we fall," is an old adage, but it is as true of growing cities to-day as of the colonies years ago, and why the people cannot unite on the location and kind of a bridge and build it is a profound conundrum, explained only by believing that the times and business grooves of the city are out of joint.

The strife over the location of the bridge is as bitter to-day as it was at the beginning, and it is about time the business men of the city awakened to a realization of the situation, and united in the construction of the proposed bridge on some harmonious plan—whether it be a high bridge or a draw bridge. There has been more fighting at cross purposes already than is good for the best interests of the city, and the HERALD has not escaped from being berated for not advocating the views of one side or the other. The HERALD has worked at all times for what it has considered the best interests of the city, and has no apology to offer. While our pen is in on this bridge question we wish to say a few plain truths. When business men are arrayed against each other as they are in this question the press is powerless. All that remains to be done is to effect a compromise—agree on some location for the location is the chief bone of contention; and build the bridge. The HERALD has believed, and does yet, that all things being equal a high bridge is more economical in the end than a draw bridge, but if the people cannot agree upon that, then build a draw bridge at the other site, if that cannot be agreed upon and it looks as if neither site can be agreed upon then compromise, and build it midway between the rival locations. The progress of this undertaking so far has been more like boy's play than the work of energetic citizens toward the growth and prosperity of the city. What the city wants and what the country wants, is a good substantial bridge across the Willamette, and it would behoove the citizens of the city to stop quarreling and build it, for if this important public improvement is delayed there is danger that facilities which are here to-day will not be here a year hence, and houses now occupied that will be vacant.

There are plenty of bridge sites on the river, in fact the only trouble seems to be that there are too many. Bridge men say that a good and substantial bridge can be built on Ferry street.

Let each side yield two blocks, and they will unite on that street. A curved approach, or two of them if desired, could be built on Water street, each way to Washington and Broadway streets. Some unity of action certainly ought to be exercised upon that, specifically and the bridge built without any further delay.

STATE DISPATCHES.

The Lake Labish Trestle to Be Abolished.

NEWS THROUGHOUT THE STATE.

There Will Be a Big Celebration at the Metropolis—Incendiaries Flying to the Ch—Neway Notes.

SALEM, July 3.—The Lake Labish trestle near Salem on the Southern Pacific, made memorable by the train disaster last November, is about to be a thing of history only, the railroad company's surveyors having been working there the past few days making surveys for a fill. They say that Lake Labish will be covered by a six foot fill of earth which will make big cuts necessary at either end of the present trestle. The fill at Chemawa will be nearly ten feet by the survey made.

The Capital Homestead Company, of Salem, filed articles of incorporation to-day, with a capital stock of $25,000. The incorporators are P. S. Knight, James Walton, W. A. Moore. The object is to buy, sell and improve real estate.

General Gibson Arrives. PORTLAND, July 3.—General Gibson arrived here to-day from California. His family accompanies him, and they are all now at the Portland. General Gibson is looking well and hearty. He will probably visit the encampment at Milton, and be the guest of the militia.

The Fourth in Portland. PORTLAND, July 3.—This city is in gala attire this evening, and all preparations have been made on such a scale that tomorrow's celebration should be the greatest and most complete in all respects ever seen in this city, or elsewhere in the northwest.

To Secure the G. A. R. in 1892. PORTLAND, July 3.—It is learned that a strong effort will be made to bring the great gathering of the Grand Army of the Republic to Portland in 1892. With the other conventions to meet here, it certainly would be worth while to provide entertainment for 50,000 soldiers.

Incendiaries in the Metropolis. PORTLAND, July 3.—In addition to the $50,000 fire this morning, the smaller residences in the southern part of the city, owned by W. S. Bruce, were burned early this morning. The big fire, and probably the smaller ones, were the work of incendiaries.
