Arthur Love, Manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. HEIGHT OF CRUELTY.

Nervous women seldom receive the sympathy they deserve. While often the pictures of health, they are constantly ailing. To withhold sympathy from these unfortunates is the height of cruelty. They have a weak heart, causing shortness of breath, fluttering, pain in side, weak and hungry spells, and finally swelling of ankles, oppression, choking, smothering and dropsy. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is just the thing for them. For their nervousness, headache, weakness, etc., his Restorative Nervine is unequaled. Fine treatise on "Heart and Nervous Diseases" ane marvelous testimonials free sold and guaranteed by Standard & Cusick.

SPECIMEN CASES.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his Stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to and alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by Foshay & Mason, Drug store.

A MYSTERY EXPLAINED.

The papers contain frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls eloping with negroes, tramps and coachmen. The well-known specialist, Dr. Franklyn Miles, says all such girls are more or less hysterical, nervous, very impulsive, unbalanced; usually subject to headache, neuralgia, sleeplessness, immoderate crying or laughing. These show a weak nervous system for which there is no remedy equal to Restorative Nervine. Trial bottles and a fine book, containing many marvelous cures, free at Stanard & Cusick's, who also sell, and guarantee Dr. Miles' celebrated New Heart Cure, the finest of heart tonics. Cures fluttering, short breath, etc.

Do you know that Moore's Revealed Remedy is the only patent medicine in the world that does not contain a drop of alcohol; that the mode of preparing it is known only to its discoverer; that it is an advance in the science of medicine without a parallel in the nineteenth century; that its proprietors offer to forfeit $1,000 for any case of dyspepsia it will not cure?

JUDGE DEADY RETURNS HOME

Swelling the Number of Convicts in the Oregon Penitentiary—Portland News.

SALEM, July 6.—Four prisoners have been received at the penitentiary from Douglas county. They are John Haskins, two years, burglary; D. W. Thurston, five years, assault, with attempt to commit rape; John and Albert Pool, each two years, larceny. The whole number of prisoners in the penitentiary now is 395, with room for only five more, counting two in each cell.

In the annual fireman's election to-day W. S. Low was elected chief and W. F. Dugan assistant.

The militia boys all returned home from Eugene happy over the victory of company H in winning the medal. It is probable that the company will be challenged for a competitive drill, to be held here during fair week.

Salem will be lively with teachers for the next three weeks, the Marion County Normal Institute having commenced its annual session to-day, which promises to be a very interesting and profitable one. There are already enrolled the names of 67 teachers, but there will be over 100 before the session is over.

JUDGE DEADY RETURNED.

He Has Been Attending Court in California.

PORTLAND, July 6.—Judge Matthew P. Deady returned this morning from his trip to California. He was there with Judge Field at the organization of the circuit court of appeals.

This court is organized pursuant to a law passed at the last session of congress. Nine of them are to be organized—one in each United States circuit. These courts take final cognizance of appeals from district and circuit courts, which will relieve the supreme court at Washington.

A judge will be appointed for this court by President Harrison when congress meets next December. The court will, however, hold its first session in October.

ROYALITY IN PORTLAND.

The Earl of Galloway Now Visiting Oregon's Metropolis.

PORTLAND, July 6.—Sunday morning there arrived in this city, the Earl of Galloway, one of the prominent member of the English house of lords, accompanied by his youngest sister, the Lady Isabel Stewart, his physician. The earl's wife, the Countess of Galloway, is a sister of the marquis of Salisbury, Knight of the Garter, England's prime minister, and is now in London. This distinguished visitor is traveling for his health.

CONSOLIDATED PORTLAND.

The New Officials Assume Their Duties—First Counil Meeting.

PORTLAND, July 6.—The city officials of the consolidated municipality assumed their duties at 12:30 to-day, and the first city council meeting under the new regime was held this evening. Without a jar the change was made. There is now neither an East Portland or an Albina, except in name, and instead of being a city of 50,000 Portland is now a metropolis of 75 000 people.

Will Be Electrocuted To-day.

SING SING, N. Y., July 6.—All day long newspaper men have been haunting the penitentiary to get, if possible, something about the electrocution of the four murderers, which everybody expected would take place to-day. None of them were allowed to go beyond the line of guards established by the warden, although preparations seem to be in progress for the execution. The statement is made from a semi-official source that there would be no execution today, and that it would occur in all likelihood at daybreak to-morrow.

Gladstone's Health is Not Good.

LONDON, July 6.—Notwithstanding favorable reports from Mr. Gladstone, the leading liberals do not expect to see him back in his seat until July 31. After the paroxysm of grief that followed the news of the death of his son there was a calm, with appearance of revived energy. It was understood that under this influence Mr. Gladstone showed himself in public yesterday, but a reaction is now apprehended.

Mormons Hunting Converts.

NEW YORK, July 6.—Eighteen Mormon missionaries have sailed hence for Liverpool. They will visit England, Ireland, Scotland and Germany, preaching in the small towns and villages. They will remain abroad two years.

An Alabama Bank Failed.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 6.—Mosers Bros.' bank suspended payment this morning. They say their assets will amount to more than the liabilities. Neither figures can yet be approximately estimated. The failure is due to a stringency of money. The liabilities are said to be about $500,000. They did a savings-bank business and had scores of depositors among the poorer people. There is a great throng of them around the doors of the bank this evening. A local bank last Saturday offered Mosers Bros. $100,000 to tide over the crisis, but they refused to take it. The firm stands very high for integrity, and few believe there is anything dishonest about the suspension. Each individual member of the firm included his home, all his real estate and personal property in the schedule of assignment.

A Royal Marriage.

LONDON, July 6.—The event of the day is the marriage of a granddaughter of Queen Victoria, the Princess Louise of Schleswig-Holstein to Prince Aribet of Anhalt-Dessau. The marriage is a fortunate one for Prince Aribet, who is a fortuneless younger son of the ruler of a cheap principality, and is about 27 years old, or six years older than his bride, who is one of the best looking of the queen's descendants.

The Guns Were Not a Success.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., July 6.—The British warship Cordelia has just returned to this port after a disastrous trip at sea for practice with her big guns. The captain reports that while firing one six-inch breech-loading gun it exploded, killing Lieutenant Hilyar, Lieutenant Gordon and four seamen, and wounding three mid-hipmen and ten seamen.

OLD WORLD AFFAIRS

RUSSIA AND FRANCE DISPLEASED WITH ENGLAND.

It Has Grown Out of the Cordiality of the British Reception to the Kaiser.

LONDON, July 6.—A Paris dispatch says that a profound impression has been created there by the enthusiasm and cordiality of the British reception to the kaiser. It is universally regarded as proof that England will be found with the triple alliance in a European war, and France and Russia will have to calculate on the hostility of the British fleet. The public sentiment is very strong against England, and almost no other political matter is a topic of public discussion. There is no concealment of the feeling that the odds against France and Russia have been increased to a degree that arouses great apprehensions as to the possible result of a war and while this has with many a tendency to discourage war-like agitation, others urge an early quarrel before the dreibund becomes solidified, and while England is not bound by formal agreement to sustain the cause of the alliance. The answer of Russia to the renewal of the triple alliance has been the addition of two more regiments to the force in Volhynia near the Austrian frontier, and increased activity in the construction of iron-clads. The Russian government, says a Vienna dispatch, is not believed to be ready for a conflict at this time, or likely to be ready in the course of this year. All indications point to the strengthening of fleet and army for a date beyond 1891.

Union Pacific Railway Statement.

BOSTON, July 6.—The Union Pacific statement (preliminary) shows the net earnings to be $1,029,000, a decrease of $274,000. For five months, to May 31, the net earnings show an increase of $257,000.

Russia at the World's Fair.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 6.—The government has consented to take part in the world's fair at Chicago. Baron DeStruve will preside over the Russian section of the exhibition.

Exportation of Corn Prohibited.

LONDON, July 6.—The government of Persia has prohibited the exportation of corn from that country. Crops in the southern provinces have been destroyed by locusts.

"Si Plunkard."

A Yankee comedy of the above title will be seen at the Albany opera house on Wednesday, July 8. The comedy is in four acts, the scenes of which are laid in and around the New England country and New York city. The central figure, of course, is "Si Plunkard," a young Yankee notion peddler, which part is looked after by Mr. J. C. Lewis. Some of the leading characters seen may be mentioned. Dora Page, a young country lass, in love with Si; Felix Schmardt, an inventive Dutchman; Robert Denny, a bogus stock speculator; Ezra Page, an honest old farmer who does not understand speculation; Moses Wilton, a Hebrew money lender, and numerous friends of the Page family. The performance includes many specialtiss.

Every grocer, druggist and saloon man should keep Coronado mineral water on hand. It will be called fer, as it is the best. John Isom Jr., sole agent.

A CYCLONE'S FURY.

It Sweeps Away a Portion of Baton Rouge.

MANY KILLED AND WOUNDED.

The Penitentiary Walls Blown Down—The Path of the Deadly Blast.

BATON ROUGE, La., July 6.—A cyclone passed over the lower portion of the town this morning, unroofing houses, tearing up immense trees and carrying pieces of the wreck through the air for many blocks. The boulevard is littered with trees that were torn up by the wind, and pieces of house tops and other timbers. The penitentiary walls were blown down. Ten persons were killed and thirty wounded. The factory building is demolished, and the hospital and penitentiary are a mass of ruins. The steamship Smoky City was blown to pieces, there being nothing left but the hull. Several of the crew were badly injured.

THE FARMERS ALLIANCE.

A Rupture in Minnesota Over Dishonest Leaders.

NORTHFIELD, July 6.—There is every evidence of a rupture in the ranks of the farmers alliance in Southern Minnesota owing, it is alleged, to the perpetration of an outrageous swindle by several of the leaders. For a year or two the members have been furnished, through the alliance, with farming implements, twine, etc., at a supposed reduction in price. The greatest saving was on the twine. It is true that the twine has been supplied at a big reduction, but an investigation mad by a suspicious alliance man has developed a startling and most bare-faced swindle. The alliance traders had bought a cheap article of sisal twine and had it colored the color of pure manilla and sold for that article, giving the seller a very large margin. It is said that $15,000 had been made out of the swindle thus worked upon the purchasers. The farmers are very indignant, and there is a possibility that the whole fabric of the alliance will succumb in the storm that has been raised.

GOING TO EUROPE.

Thousands of Americans Crossing the Atlantic.

NEW YORK, July 6.—There is still no sign of thinning in the ranks of the vast army of tourists and travelers of all sorts and conditions that is steadily moving Europeward. Every week new recruits swell the list of the big passenger fleet, and it is safe to say that at least 100,000 persons, big and little, have left this port on transatlantic steamships since May 1st. On five steamships sailing to-day were 1651 saloon and cabin passengers, an increase of more than 300 over the number sailing one week ago. On the French steamship Le Bretagne, bound for Havre, were 298 saloon passengers. The Umbria carried 398, the Aller 215, the Spaarndam 165 for Rotterdam, the Alaska for Liverpool 360 and the City of Rome for Liverpool 416.

Russian Officials Involved.

LONDON, July 6.—The investigation into the kidnaping of Russian women near the Turkish Asiatic frontier has, it is said, pointed clearly to complicity on the part of the Russian local authorities, who have been deriving a lucrative traffic in aiding Turkish slave traders to abduct females from Russia for sale to Turkish harems. As the investigations, if pursued, would strike persons high in public favor and valued for their services in other respects, it is understood the inquiry will end in a warning to local officials that the kidnapping must be discontinued under peril of future punishment.

Affairs in Hayti.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The Atlas line steamer Alvena, which arrived here to-day from Jeramie and other West Indian ports, brings some interesting Haytian news. The Alvena left Jeramie June 20, and there were then indications that the black republic would soon be the scene of another bloody rebellion. So strong is the opposition to Hyppolite that an outbreak is apt to occur at any moment. Many residents are so fearful of the impending insurrection they are leaving in all haste There have been no execution by Hyppolite's soldiers since the killing of the six men some time ago.

A Base Joke.

"How's that, umpire?" asked the pitcher, as the ball flew over the fence and scattered the cackling hens in the farmyard.

"Fowl bawl!" replied the umpire; and the enemy stole a base before the pitcher could catch his breath again.—Smith, Gray & Co.'s Monthly.

Cattle in the Cherokee Strip.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., July 6.—Preparations are now complete for a gigantic convention of homeseekers in this city next Saturday. The presence of over 100,000 cattle on the Cherokee strip has aroused the people, and they feel that if they are ever to get homes in that land they must act. Jerry Simpson, Senator Pfefier, Charles Mansur, P. P. Elden, W. M. Springer, Chief Mayes and other prominent men have promised to be present and make addresses.

Wants His Own Horses.

LONDON, July 6.—Not content with crowding Windsor castle and the hotels with his retainers the German kaiser has billeted on the royal stables his celebrated chargers so well known at the German reviews. He intends to prance around on his own horses at the various public functions in which he is to take part. It is a rule of the emperor never to ride or to drive any horse but those from his own stables.

Room at the Top.

Ambitious Youth—Do you know of any way by which young writers like myself can make money in literature?

Magazine Editor—Um—there is one.

"I am delighted to hear that. What would you advise?"

"Keep a news stand."—Street & Smith's Good News.

Saving Trouble.

Chicago Young Lady (at dinner in Boston)—May I trouble you to pass the potatoes, Mr. Waldo?

Mr. Waldo—Oh, certainly; no trouble at all, I assure you.

Chicago Young Lady—Never mind the dish, Mr. Waldo. Just stab one with your fork.—Puck's Library.

MINISTER BLAIR.

THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT WILL NOT ACCEPT HIM.

The Mongolians Still Object to His Attitude on the Chinese Question—A Dilemma.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Mr. Henry W. Blair has been again turned down by the Chinese government. Mr. Blair, it will be remembered, was nominated to the Chinese mission during the closing days of the last session of congress. Simultaneously with the president's action the Chinese legation forwarded to Pekin a complete abstract of Mr. Blair's record on the Chinese question. After it had been read and considered, the imperial government decided that it would not receive Mr. Blair, and a cablegram to that effect was immediately forwarded to its minister here.

A reply was sent to China in hope, presumably, that when Li Hung Chung found how anxious the administration was about it he might relent and consent to receive the New Hampshire statesman. The Chinese premier's reply reached Washington a few days ago. It was intended to keep it a close secret, but its contents leaked out to-day. They entered a polite, but none the less a firm refusal to accept Mr. Blair as our diplomatic representative. What action the administration will take is problematical. Mr. Blair took the oath of office on March 4, and since that time he has been drawing the salary attached to that mission, $12,000 per annum.

A ROYAL SCRAP

Ex-King Milan Engages in a Lively Fight.

His sportive majesty, ex-King Milan of Servia, has had another set-to, in which he was beaten. Milan's latest fracas was at the Cercle Royal. He got into a violent quarrel with two Englishmen, one of whom, a nobleman, he accused of withholding $2000. It was said to be a 10 000 franc card bet.

Excitement had got the better of the king, and he finished his sentence with a blow. His clenched fist went biff against the English lord's left ear and made him reel.

Stung worse by Milan's words, than by his blew, his lordship squared off and landed a heavy left-hander on the royal Servian nose, knocking off the skin and producing first blood. His second blow, on the mouth. endangered the symmetry of the royal teeth.

Milan was game. He went for the aristocrat and landed first on the chin and then on the stomach. As he tried to dodge a return blow of the English slogger he slipped to the floor, and again he had a noser. Just then my lord's companion and servants rushed in and separated the fighters.

Turkey Wants to Exhibit.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 6.—The world's fair committee has instructed the Turkish minister at Washington to report on the best means to secure for Turkey an adequate representation at the Chicago exposition.

Dr. Spurgeon's Condition Critical.

LONDON, July 6.—Rev. Charles Spurgeon passed a restless and critical night. Physicians are in constant attendance upon him.

Thomas Brink has received a stock of baby carriages which he is offering at prices as low as the lowest, and they are first-class goods.
