The directors of the Northwestern Firemen's Association will shortly meet and arrange for the coming tournament next September, at Victoria, B. C. Last Evening's Theatre. The presentation of "Held By The Enemy" at the opera house, was listened to by a well pleased audience throughout. The characters were well sustained, each part apparently being well assigned and well acted. The company is a good one and deserve full houses. The thrilling drama was well rendered. To-night "The Silver King" will be put on, a piece that has been a great success wherever played, but which has never before been given in Albany. It will be richly worth an attendance.

A DELIGHTFUL RESORT.

Where Ice Cold Streams Ripple and Sportive Trout Frolic.

Where will we spend our vacation? Is the question agitating the minds of many. One of the most beautiful and healthful places on the Pacific coast is in the Cascade mountains on the front of the Oregon Pacific. You board the train at this city and in three hours you are away from the heat of the valley. Ice cold water bounds from rock to rock down the mountainside and dashes into the Santiam river. In these streams as well as in the river the speckled trout is found in abundance, and it is a pleasure to catch twenty or thirty in an hour. Flowers, the loveliest and most beautiful that grow, bob their pretty heads on the mountain, and they are just now in all their glory. One will find at Mill City splendid accommodations and a thriving little town, where those who do not appreciate the romance of camp life can stop at a hotel, fish, hunt, drink cold water and breathe pure mountain air at a moderate expense.

Niagara is a point of no little interest. Here it is the Santiam rushes through a narrow channel of solid rock for some distance and then plunges down a distance of thirty feet into a seething, roaring mass of bubbles. Every morning at 8:30 o'clock the train leaves Albany for Halstead, a distance of about forty-five miles from this city, and returns in the evening. Twice a week the train runs to Coe, the end of the track. This is one of the most inexpensive and pleasant summer resorts one can visit.

FROM A DISTANCE.

Mr. J. LaPorte who manufactures boots and shoes in this city has received an order from a way down in California, which evinces that his work gives satisfaction. Caribria, where the order comes from, is 200 miles south of San Francisco and 1 1/2 miles from the ocean near the Oceanic quicksilver mines. The order is as follows:

AMERICAN CAL., July 13, 1891.

F. J. LaPorte, Dear Sir:—You will please make me a pair of boots, make them out of very light leather. Send them as usual and oblige, yours,

B. C. WHITNEY.

Hitching Posts.

The farmers who come into the city to trade are greatly annoyed to find places to hitch their teams while they do their trading, and the business men would find it to their interest to provide for that want. So great has the inconvenience become that it has finally culminated in the following petition handed to us for publication:

ENFORCED CITIZENS.—We the undersigned citizens would respectfully ask of the store keepers of Albany to fix hitching posts in the side streets for tying teams, for accommodation of the farmers: F. Ackerman, Stephen Freerkson, H. Moss, U. Peters, E. Fankson, Henry Abley, Harvey Perry, E. D. Williams, C. P. Adams, Wm. Sharp, E. Berwick, N. Perry, W. Adams, J. H. Swank, M. Sharp, D. Prensus, Wert Albers, H. Mansholt, John Meinert, Henry Volstedt, Peter H. Teeing, A. Tharp, D. Dekrands, Wilhelm Meyer, Harten Meinert, A. Bind ing, W. E. Stellmacher, Wm. J. Obermeyer.

Lost in the Woods.

The Statesman says that there was considerable excitement over about Independence Tuesday evening when it was learned that three young ladies who had been black-berrying in the woods near there all afternoon had failed to return home and were probably lost in the forest. Two of them were daughters of Dr. Lee and one was a daughter of John Richardson. They ranged in ages from 10 to 14 years, and about 4 o'clock started to walk home. But they went in the wrong direction, and after wandering through tangled thicket and wading marshes for five hours their hearts were gladdened at the sight of a light in the distance. They reached the farm house and were taken home in a lumber wagon, just in time to stop the searching party that was about being organized to institute a search for the missing ones.

Never Too Old to Wed.

The Corvallis train yesterday noon brought to this city an interesting newly married couple. Mr. John Foster, aged 75, and Miss Ida Dalea, aged 17, were married at Corvallis Wednesday. They were exchanged all eyes and the absorbing subject of gossip by all as they sat on a bench at the Southern Pacific depot yesterday awaiting the arrival of the north bound train, which they boarded. The groom appeared as happy and sprightly as a boy that had just received his first visit from cupid. Mr. Foster is a well-known and highly respected citizen of Corvallis and is said to be worth about $75,000. The bride is one of girlhood's brightest sunbeams with a pretty face and exquisite form.

Examination of Teachers.

Notice is hereby given that the regular examination of applicants for certificates to teach in the public schools of Linn county, Oregon, will be held at the superintendent's office in Albany, on August 12, 1891.

G. F. RUSSELL, County superintendent.

Special Meeting.

The members of McPherson post No. 5, G. A. R., are requested to meet at the G. A. R. hall on Friday at 7:30 P. M. Business of importance that must be transacted. Full attendance expected. By order of S. V. C. acting commander.

EUGENE NOTES.

J. W. Huff, conductor on the Albany express train, was in Eugene to-day.

Rev. G. M. Whitney is improving the exterior of his dwelling with a coat of white paint.

Rev. I. D. Driver is in Southern California, on church work.

The U. S. recruiting officers, we understand, have received a number of enlistments since their arrival here, among which are several sons of farmers.

A Cumberland Presbyterian church building will be erected at Coburg this summer. The foundation for the same is already laid.

Some persons entered the barn of J. L. Flint, who lives across the river, last night, and stole a set of harness. It was evidently taken from the tractor, as a wagon was plainly visible that had driven towards Coburg.

Virlock, the man who mysteriously disappeared, has turned up. He is working on a farm below Irving. He gives no reason for so suddenly leaving Eugene.

The county court has had quite a time of late over the McKenzie wagon road, parties living at the upper end of the road wanting the toll reduced or removed. The court refused to remove the place, and so last week they presented a petition properly made out asking for a county road from Rock House east a distance of eighteen miles. This would be over the route of the toll road and the court refused to grant their petition.

Last Saturday bids for putting a new tin roof on the old university building, covering the towers, put on new cave troughs, etc., were opened and the contract awarded to Starr & Griffin, bid being $975. D. M. McCrady has been employed to paint the buildings. A number of improvements are to be made about the premises but the remainder of the work will be done by contract.

Dr. Maston, of Albany, was called to Creswell Monday to consult with Dr. Scambrong in a severe case of erysipelas. We did not learn the lady's name but on July 4th, she ran a silver into her foot. It did not appear to be a severe injury but soon her foot commenced to swell and erysipelas in a severe form set in until now nearly half of her foot had to be cut off.

He Will Take Care of Himself.

Some one said that if "necessity is the mother of invention," then a loaf of bread is the mother of a locomotive. But this doesn't apply to a man in a boat on the raging Columbia yesterday, when the stormy winds did blow says the Astorian. The breeze blew the sail out of the bolt ropes, and he lost one oar, but that didn't phase him a bit. He used the other oar to keep the boat quartering to ride the swells, took his coat, bent the spiny, hung the coat on with the skinny side out and the woolly side in, tied the sleeves to the gunwales, thus improvising a sail, and glided gaily up the dock, the cynosure of all eyes and the beheld of all beholders. What would have paralyzed an ordinary man with fear simply gave him a chance to show the stuff he was made of.

Myrtle Creek Mines.

Eugene Register: Between eighty and one hundred men are now at work at the Myrtle Creek Mines extending the water ditch to connect with the head waters of the Umpqua river, when an abundant supply of water will be obtained. The four inch giant nozzle used at first has been changed for a six inch nozzle, which is kept running night and day. The stockholders are becoming more enthusiastic, if such a thing is possible. Another clean up will probably be made in three or four weeks.

When We Go to the Coast.

The torrid days of flaming heat are upon us, when the skies look like brass, and the sun winks his one eye in uninterrupted ardor of affection from dawn until sunset, when all the clovers lay low, their fainting heads, while the happy fays join unto himself a host of others and assures us of lasting affection closer than a brother's; when he suicides in our cream pitcher daily, yet never dies, bunts his small head into our eye at earliest daylight, and sits singing upon our nose when we try to write or slumber.

Excursion to the Coast.

Here is your opportunity to take a cheap trip to Newport. Special train leaves Albany, Sunday, July 19th at 7 A. M. arriving at Newport at 11 A. M. Returning arrives in Albany at 9:30 that evening, giving an excellent opportunity to have a pleasant day at the seaside. The fares are just right for sun bathing, weather very pleasant, and with the fare at $2 for the round trip, those who care for the pleasures of a days outing can't afford to stay at home.

A New Law Firm.

Judge D. R. N. Blackburn and Mr. H. C. Watson have united their law practice under the firm name of Blackburn & Watson. Both members of the firm are lawyers of ability and long experience in the profession and any business intrusted to them will be in safe hands. Their card will be found in another column.

Through Train.

Notice has been given that commencing on Saturday, July 18, the train to the front, on the Oregon Pacific, will run clear through to Coe, and on every Wednesday and Saturday thereafter.

For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's porous plaster. Price 25 cents at Foshay & Mason.

COAST NOTES.

A Wheeler, of the Springfield saw mill, has just completed his second experiment for burning sawdust. The first furnace split on account of twelve feet in diameter at the top, and twenty feet in height, which cost him about $400.

Mr. Friendly of Corvallis, whose sawmill was destroyed by fire the other day, will probably rebuild. He has about three million feet of logs from the McKinzie in the Willamette on the way down.

The State Press Association will meet next month at Astoria, a place to which everybody likes to go occasionally at least. A Dalles paper has already suggested that the next meeting be held at Hood River, which is coming into prominence as a summer resort.

Astorian: A man in from Rock creek yesterday had a deposit that he thinks is meerschmum; there is quite a deposit of it out there, and if it really is meerschmum and not mere sham, the owners have a good thing.

Monday the county treasurer of Marion county received a letter enclosing a small remittance and to which a pretty story of stricken conscience attached. The letter was in a disguised hand and was brief. It said: "Enclosed find fifty-five cents which please place to the credit of Marion county." The conscience fund money was added to the general fund, and is probably the first sum ever returned in this manner to a Marion county treasurer.

Jeremiah C. Alexander, living in the Alba neighborhood, Umatilla county, has presented a claim to the county court for $1700 damages for injuries sustained by his wife. She was driving along a county road, when the wagon struck a log and she was thrown out. Dr. Baker, who attended her, states that she is now suffering from concussion of the spine and that her condition is serious. The matter was continued by the county court for further consideration.

The East Oregonian says that a large number of hogs belonging to Ed. Kiddle, being fed at Cove, have died in the past few days from an epidemic resembling cholera. Stock Inspector Imbler telegraphed the veterinary surgeon at Portland to come and examine the herd. The loss will be considerable if the whole band has to be killed, as there are 80 or 90 hogs in the lot. Richardson Bros., of this city, lost a large band of hogs recently from a similar epidemic. Wonder if the hog cholera is going to break loose in Eastern Oregon?

She was Perfection But For—

Miss Fypp. "Do you know Mr. Hunker, I never play the piano?"

Hunker. "You surprise me! But of course you sing?"

"Nixey."

"Then you keep a meassy poolie and kiss his ugly mug?"

"No, I don't."

"Do you read Browning?"

"No, indeed."

"Have you any fads?"

"I hate 'em."

"Do you make your own dresses?"

"Yes."

"Do you eat ice cream?"

"I detest it."

"My charming girl, will you marry me?"

"Yes."

"Kiss me then."

"Wait till I take my chewing gum out of my mouth."

(Hunker faints and is carried home on a stretcher.)
