CAUGHT THE BARN BURNER.

The Quiet Work of Marshal Hoffman Brings Out the Result.

The announcement yesterday that the guilty person, who was the author of the several fires that occurred during the barns in this city last April, had been caught caused considerable excitement. But when it was known that the accused was the young son of our respected fellow townsman I. B. Beam, who is well known and highly popular as a business man, the astonishment was unbounded and the general expression was that it must be a mistake. It could not be that so quiet and peaceable a boy could be guilty of such an offence.

The matter has been in course of investigation for some time. Marshal Hoffman discovered that a shed adjacent to Mr. Beam's store, used as a tool house, had been saturated with coal oil. By watching the marshal caught Orin Beam setting fire to a string leading to the building, and as the result of being caught, finally confessed to firing the several barns, including that of his uncle, Geo. W. Hochstetler, R. A. Irvine's and Mrs. Stimpson's, the barn in the rear of the Russ House and the shed near his father's store.

He had been sent to Portland to attend school and Marshal Hoffman made the arrest while he was there.

He was arraigned before Justice Coshow yesterday, and waived examination, and was placed under $2000 bonds to appear before the next grand jury to answer the charge.

A Shocking Suicide.

Ashland Tidings: On Monday morning last the community was shocked to learn that Dr. L. Townsend, of this place, had committed suicide at his home on Oak street. The doctor slept in a room on the first floor of the house, and his wife occupied a room on the floor above. About five o'clock Monday morning Mrs. Townsend was awakened by the report of a gun in the doctor's room, and hurrying down stairs took a glance into the room where the horrible tragedy had been enacted. She then dressed hurriedly and went to the house of Gen. McCall, her nearest neighbor. Mr. and Mrs. McCall went home with her and they saw that the doctor had found instant death. Dan Stone, who was passing, was called by Mr. McCall, and after examining the body with him, went at once to the residence of Dr. Parson, coroner, and notified him of the death. From the way in which the body was found the manner of the suicide was plain as if it had been witnessed. The doctor had taken a shotgun, loaded with buckshot, and sitting upon the edge of his bed, dressed only in his underclothing, had placed the stock of the gun on the floor and the muzzle close to the lower part of the right ear. Then he touched the trigger with his thumb, and the discharge tore away a part of the right side of the face and head, and a great part of the forehead above the left eye, where the charge passed out. Death was of course instantaneous, and the body fell forward upon the floor with the head downward, in which position it was when the coroner's inquest began. The scene was ghastly and horrible in the extreme, the wall, ceiling and bed being bespattered as if from an explosion within the head.

A Close Call.

Scio Press: Last Friday as the lumber teams were returning from Leonard's saw mill, loaded with lumber, and a part of them had crossed the Hanna bridge, the first bridge across Thomas creek, below Jordan, when Walt Miller drove on, one side of the structure gave way, precipitating horses and wagon and driver into the creek below, a distance of 12 or more feet. In the fall one of the horses was killed outright, its neck being broken, while the other had three ribs broken, and was otherwise badly skinned and bruised up. Mr. Miller was floundering around in the water when a small boy, hearing the racket, went to the scene of the accident and seeing Mr. Miller's precarious condition, pushed a board to him, thus enabling him to get out of the water. It was thought at first that he was seriously injured, but when the physician reached him, no dislocations or fractures were discovered. The general shaking up and nervous shock were sufficient to cause Mr. Miller to take a lay off from active business for some days. The bridge has been regarded as being unsafe for some time by those persons familiar with it. One end of one of the post caps had rotted away, thus letting one side of the bridge down.

Horticultural Matters.

Gen. James A. Varney of the State Board of Horticulture was in Albany yesterday looking after the fruit interests of the country. He finds that the codling moth is as active as ever and that the apples will be wormy whenever spraying has been neglected. At the recent meeting of the association at Newberg all specimens of apples and pears brought in were affected, some very badly. He also finds that fruit shipped from California is largely affected by the San Jose scale. It is contrary to the law to bring such fruit here and it should be carefully looked after.

A GAME MONDAY.

The Albany and Jefferson Base Ball Clubs Will Meet Today.

A game of base ball will be played in this city Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock between the Jeffersons and Albany. The Jeffersons are a strong one, and the game will be no doubt be very close and interesting. George Moorehouse, manager of the Albany, has been working base ball matters in this city, and as a consequence some good games will be witnessed in the near future.

The Salens will probably meet the home nine on their ground soon, and a game is being arranged with the Lebanon. Harrisburg claims the honor of being the best team of the sphere in the county, and have signified a willingness to meet any amateur nine in the valley. Manager Moorehouse has written the manager of that team, and will endeavor to arrange a game with them. It is the intention to have a series of games on the Albany grounds, one or two every week. It costs money to get good talent, and as at present there is no enclosed ground it will be necessary to take up a collection. Next season it is expected that a valley league will be organized and an enclosed ground will be prepared and professional players signed.

CASES OF ROBBERY.

Pendleton East-Oregonian: Sunday evening County Treasurer J. H. Robbins visited his reservation farm near Pendleton and found that some uninvited guest had called during his absence and taken a great liberty with everything else in sight. A window was broken open, though which the visitor effected entrance. He nearly cleaned out the house, stealing one fine suit of clothes, two or three poorer suits, an overcoat, blankets, bedclothing, some canned goods, a good silver watch and solid gold chain. In fact it was a veritable picnic for the thief, probably some weary tourist who chanced to pass that way in search of a raise.

Monday last week, two young men, Walter Lindsey and Gus Milkey, hired two horses and a saddle from Denton's livery stable in Pendleton, a new saddle from James Graham, and said they were going out on a short trip to return the following day. That day came and the next and the next, but the young men did not return, and Denton began to grow suspicious, and when told by John Garrison that he had met the couple on the road to Alba, and the wanted to trade horses with him, his suspicions were confirmed.

A warrant was sworn out for the arrest of the young men, and Saturday Deputy Sheriff George Jones and Mr. Garrison started on their trail. They were followed to Teel Springs and down the Grand Ronde river to La Grande, where it was found they had sold the horse and taken the train, probably for the east. Mr. Graham's saddle they had expressed to Sioux City, Iowa. A bay mare, branded with a heart, was also stolen by the boys somewhere along their route, and left at La Grande. Deputies Jones and Halley have returned. The latter went east for a Baker City. They received $30 for the two horses, one of which has since been shipped.

The tramp evil is developing large proportions near home. The traveling gentry are flocking in great numbers, and considerable petty thieving is the result. Athens has been especially unfortunate. Tramps, eight of whom were bounced Tuesday night by Deputy Sheriff Stamper, have been camping in the grove near that city and raiding the poultry yards and gardens for a livelihood. Monday night they began business on a larger scale. The postoffice store of John Edgington was entered through a window. Four cases of knives, two of razors, a quantity of tobacco, cigars and other goods were stolen. So far no trace of the thieves has been found.

Notice has been given that commencing on Saturday, July 18, the train to the front, on the Oregon Pacific, will run clear through to Coos, and on every Wednesday and Saturday thereafter.

Bilyen of this city, while trying on Friday last to prevent a hawk from carrying off some of her fine young chickens, slipped and fell, striking the ground in such a manner as to break her right arm just above the wrist.

ADAM CUSHING LUCKY AGAIN.

Governor Penneyer Refuses to Surrender Him to the Washington Authorities.

Adam Cushing, who was recently tried in the criminal court on the charge of stealing $4000 worth of freight from the Oregon Short Line & Utah Northern railroad companies, and acquitted after the jury had been out a few minutes, is playing in big luck, says the Oregonian. He was re-arrested, charged with stealing freight from the Northern Pacific at Tacoma, and Prosecuting Attorney Evans and Chief of Police Ellis came down with a requisition from Governor Penneyer for him. Armed with it, they repaired to Salem and Executive Clerk Munly told them that the governor had not issued the warrant on the requisition as he wanted time to consider the matter. Subsequently the Tacoma officers telephoned the governor and he informed them that he did not feel like issuing a warrant for Cushing. The Tacoma men think that this ends the matter and they will go home without Cushing.

A dispatch from Salem regarding the ground of Governor Penneyer's refusal, says: "Governor Penneyer refused to grant the warrant on the ground that Cushing did not flee, but was brought to Oregon from Nebraska to answer for a crime; therefore, the constitutional provision requiring the surrender of fugitives, applied to his case, and it would be a most grievous imposition to take advantage of his forced presence here to subject him to arrest for a crime committed in another state, holding that having been brought to Oregon and tried, he was entitled to the privilege of leaving the state a free man."

Railroad Rumors.

Lebanon Express: Just at this time the minds of the people in and about Lebanon, Albany, Tallman, Sedaville and Waterloo are somewhat agitated over the railroad question. The first of the week the report was that Dr. Hill and associates were to build an electric railway from Sedaville to Albany via Tallman or via Lebanon conditionally. The plans of the various routes have been prepared and prices of narrow gauge track laid from Portland; and a representative dispatched to San Francisco to make enquiry into cost of equipment. Now the rumor is that Messrs. J. K. Weatherford and Thomas Kay have made a proposition to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company to grade the road bed, if the company will complete and operate an extension of the road from Lebanon to Waterloo, and the proposition is said to have been accepted. Engineer E. J. O'Connor is now making a survey.

MERIT WINS.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits, Foshay & Mason Druggists.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS. Stanard & Cusick druggists, believe that the secret of success is perseverance. Therefore they persist in keeping the finest line of perfumeries, toilet articles, cosmetics, drugs and chemicals on the market. They especially invite all persons who have palpitation, short breath, weak or hungry spells, pain in side or shoulder, oppression, nightmare, dry cough, smothering, dropsy or heart disease to try Dr. Miles' unequalled New Heart, before too late. It has the largest sale of any similar remedy. Fine book on testimonials free. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is unsurpassed for sleeplessness, headache, fits, etc., and it contains no opiates.

THE NEW DISCOVERY. You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, it is one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the home. If the mind is not clear, bright and buoyant, then the work is drudgery and the worker is a martyr. An occasional dose of Moore's Restorative Nervine will put the body and mind in such harmony that the hardest tasks will seem as play.

THE GREATEST STRIKE. Among the great strikes that of Dr. Miles in discovering his New Heart cure has proven itself to be one of the most important. The demand for it has become astonishing.
