Discovered in Tearing Down the Old Castle of San Antonio—The State Claims Half of It. New York, July 20.—Seventy million dollars in gold and $1,000,000 worth of gold dust, ornaments and precious stones is the comfortable find which a contractor of Rio Janeiro, Brazil, is reported to have made.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR GOOD CROPS AND PRICES. A Summary of the Harvest Prospects of the World—A Heavy Crop in This Country. LONDON, July 20.—The Times summarizes the harvest prospects of the world as follows: In Russia, grave deficit, peasant starvation and small hope of relief; India, serious anxiety, famine prevails over a considerable portion of the country; Madras, Rajputana and Punjab are the worst sufferers; a drought in Bengal and the need of more rain is urgent; Bombay alone promises a good harvest.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The state department report conform to the statements as to the French wheat crop, and state that the shortest will be from 80,000,000 to 100,000,000 bushels. The wheat crop of this country is estimated at from 500,000,000 to 550,000,000 bushels, but on account of the unusual clean-up of old wheat, the surplus may not be more than 150,000,000. Russia is short and may have to import breadstuffs; France has already engaged 30,000,000, and Australia is not prepared to compete seriously with this country, so that the outlook for wheat-growers is bright.

ARMING THE FRONTIER. Russian Troops in Large Numbers on the Galician Border.

LONDON, July 20.—Vienna dispatches state that the government is informed of fresh arrivals of Russian troops on the Galician border in numbers far beyond the ordinary requirements of frontier duty. It is also reported the Russian fortifications have been strengthened and equipped with guns of heavier caliber than those hitherto mounted.

CHICAGO, July 20.—William Luthstrom, manager of the Carey-Lombard Lumber Company, who has been missing from home for over a week, is supposed to be a defaulter in the extent of $10,000. He was last seen by his wife a week ago Tuesday, at which time he told her he had to make a business trip. The Saturday previous he left the office of the lumber company with $2000, which he was going to deposit in the bank. Failing to appear by Tuesday, inquiry as to his whereabouts developed the fact that he had left the city. A hasty examination of the books showed that he was over $10,000 short. Although a married man and the father of five children, Luthstrom, when he left the city, was accompanied by a woman. It is known the defaulter has been engaged in considerable speculation on "change of late, yet the firm of whose interests he was manager, had implicit confidence in his honesty. His wife and children are destitute.

ELECTRICAL EXECUTIONS. Germany to Follow the Example of New York State.

LOS ANGELES, July 20.—A dispatch from Berlin says the judicial authorities of the government, having investigated as far as possible the system of putting murderers to death by electricity in vogue in New York state, are preparing a report which is decidedly favorable to the adoption of the method in Germany as a substitute for beheading. It is assumed by the electrical experts and others who have engaged in the inquiry that the recent executions in America were highly successful, and that they are all of the opinion that the many objections which have been raised against the gallows and the block as a means of inflicting capital punishment are wholly removed by the electric system.

THE WHEAT OUTLOOK. PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR GOOD CROPS AND PRICES.

LONDON, July 20.—The Times summarizes the harvest prospects of the world as follows: In Russia, grave deficit, peasant starvation and small hope of relief; India, serious anxiety, famine prevails over a considerable portion of the country; Madras, Rajputana and Punjab are the worst sufferers; a drought in Bengal and the need of more rain is urgent; Bombay alone promises a good harvest.

He was a farmer and a single man, whose parents reside in Portland. He was taken with cramps and sunk before aid could reach him.

A GREAT SHAM BATTLE. Our War Ships Will Indulge in a Little Practice.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The autumn maneuvers of the squadron of evolution will take place in September, probably at several places between Portland and Delaware bay. The naval militia will be invited to join the maneuvers wherever its organization warrants such participation. The militia will probably be called upon to defend its locality when the attacking party puts in its appearance. The general scheme as at present arranged, contemplates the division of an equal number of evolution into two bodies of about equal efficiency. One party will represent the enemy and its movements, and its intentions will be unknown to the other party beyond the fact that some portion or portions of the coast described will be subjected to an attack. The other division will be charged with the defense of the coast. Naval authorities are well pleased with the recent exercises in which the naval militia took part. The squadron and militia were benefited.

DROWNED IN A STORM. Cowardly Sailors Leave Women and Children to Perish.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 20.—Particulars were received yesterday of a harrowing disaster on the Newfoundland coast, the schooner Publico Belle being wrecked and two women and five children lost. Captain Samuel Butts, of the lost vessel, states the Publico Belle left Catalina on the morning of Wednesday, the 8th inst. bound for St. John's with a cargo of lumber, also on board five women and five children as passengers. There came a storm of wind and rain lasting from 11:30 Wednesday night and lasting until daylight Thursday morning. The vessel's mainmast and foremast were lost successively, and she ran ashore on a cliff at 2:30 o'clock Thursday morning. One of the lady survivors says that the sailors saved themselves and left the helpless women and children to perish.

TROUBLE IN SAMOA. Chief Mataafa Refuses to Obey the King's Orders.

MELBOURNE, July 20.—Advices from Samoa state that King Mafetao ordered Chief Mataafa to come to Apia. Mataafa refused to obey the order, declaring he feared Mafetao would cause him to be arrested. Crowds of malcontents gathered around Mataafa, and it was feared they contemplated a raid upon Apia. The authorities consequently took vigorous measures to prevent such a raid. The German gunboat Sperber is assisting in maintaining order. The United States, British and German consuls have issued a proclamation sustaining King Mafetao. The uneasiness which prevailed was thereupon relieved, and at last advices Mataafa's followers were paying taxes due to King Mafetao.

Drowned in the Willamette. PORTLAND, July 20.—W. F. Norris, a young English chemist, met his death in the Willamette river at about 8 o'clock Sunday morning, while bathing near the old O. R. & N. round house. He was seized with cramps and went down before assistance could reach him. The body was recovered.

THE GOVERNMENT WORK AT YAQUINA. PORTLAND, July 20.—Captain T. W. Symons has gone to Yaquina bay on an official visit, to note the progress of the government work under his supervision at that place. Death of a Young Graduate. NEW HAVEN, July 20.—A cable from London announces the death of William N. Thatcher, who last month graduated with high honors from the acedemical department of Yale. He was a son of Judge Thatcher of the Colorado supreme court, and a nephew of Professor Thatcher, of Yale. His home was at Pueblo.

Insurgents Preparing to Fight. COQUIMBO, July 20.—Four insurgent vessels, the Emeralda, Cochran, Amazonas and Aconcagua, have arrived off sea bay from Huasco, and an attack on the town is hourly expected. It is supposed land attack will be made by troops from Huasco while Balmaceda's forces are repelling the war ships. Many persons are seeking safety in flight.

Giving the Jews a Chance. ST. PETERSBURG, July 20.—The persecution of the Jews has been somewhat relaxed. The decree for the expulsion of Jewish artisans from this city has been indefinitely postponed, and renewed orders have been sent to the press to refrain from publishing articles likely to excite animosity against the Jews.

Money Scarce in Portugal. LISBON, July 20.—The scarcity of coin in Portugal is severely felt. Commercial houses, both here and in Oporto, are accepting 2500 reis notes, which they take at a heavy discount. The premium on sovereigns is now 13 per cent.

THE PRIZE RING. CHOYNSKI WHIPPED IN FOUR ROUNDS. The Hall-Fitzsimmons Fight Will Take Place Wednesday Night, in Spite of Protests.

MELBOURNE, July 20.—Joe Goddard, the Australian pugilist, yesterday defeated Joe Choynski, of California, in four rounds for a purse of $10,000 and the championship of Australia. Goddard had the advantage throughout the fight, which was a hard battle.

ST. PAUL, July 20.—A delegation representing the various churches waited upon Governor Merriam, Mayor Smith and Sheriff Bean this morning, and asked them to prevent the Hall-Fitzsimmons prizefight Wednesday night. They all declined to do so, so it is thought, no doubt, the fight will take place.
