FIRE AT SEATTLE.

Six Buildings Burned at a Loss of $50,000.

ONE MAN BURNED TO DEATH.

Two Other Persons Fatally Burned—Exciting Scenes Attending the Fire.

SEATTLE, July 31.—At 1:15 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the Montana livery stables, on Washington street near South Fifth. The flames rapidly spread, and, although four streams were turned on, the fire could not be checked. The Montana livery stable, the First Chance saloon and lodging house above, the Brevoort House and a number of Chinese stores were entirely consumed. About twenty occupants of the lodging house were asleep at the time, and some were gotten out with great difficulty. The firemen gave up hope of saving any building on that side of the block, and turned their attention toward saving the balance of the block and the houses opposite, which were smoking from the heat.

This morning early the charred remains of George Williams, a meat monger, was found in the rains. He lay with his face down and was thus identified by his friends. A negro cook and his wife are at Providence hospital this morning probably fatally burned. Early during the progress of the fire he jumped head first from the building, his form covered with flames, and as he fell his bones were heard to crack. The burned flesh hung in threads from his quivering form. The woman also jumped, and when she fell the blood streamed from her mouth, nose and ears. They were moved to the hospital, and during the whole night suffered the most intense agony.

One of the buildings burned was a Chinese store, and for fifteen minutes the cannonading of the firecrackers sounded like the roar of artillery. A fireman came near losing his life. The horses that were turned loose from the Montana stable rushed madly through the streets, causing the crowd to stampede frightfully. It required tremendous work to save the surrounding buildings. There were six buildings burned. Loss, $50,000; insurance less than $10,000.

THE GRASSHOPPER PEST.

Much Damage Done to Oats in Several Western States.

DAYTON, O., July 31,—Grasshoppers are ruining oats prospects in twenties counties along the border line of Ohio and Indiana and the devastation is most marked in the region around the headwaters of the Wabash, Miami and Maumee rivers. The crop is ruined by a small green hopper on farm after farm. Many growers, alarmed at the ravages of the pest, cut their oats green, but the hoppers followed it into the shock and are now in the corn.

WATERLOO, Ia., July 31.—Grasshoppers are damaging the oat crop in this section of the state. It is estimated that they will lessen the yield by ten bushels per acre.

A FIGHT IN A CHURCH.

Victory of a Preacher in a Contest With an Elder.

MILO, Ia., July 31.—Rev. J. E. Stewart and Elder T. D. Wilson fought to a finish in the United Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, Elders H. F. Schrader and T. P. Spear acting as seconds, gate keepers and audience. A dispute had arisen which led to unpleasant and unchristian like words, then to force and later to blows. Stewart, being the younger man and with more science, soon had the elder beaten. All of the participants were arrested.

Drilled by a Crazy King.

BERLIN, July 31.—A dispatch from Munich states that King Otto of Bavaria has shown of late such symptoms of improvement that he was allowed to take long jaunts, with only one attendant, in the vicinity of his palace prison the castle of Furstenreid. His long absence on one occasion attracted attention at the castle, and on going out in search of the king, he was found engaged in drilling the attendant in military exercise, of which Otto has some knowledge. The poor attendant had been under drill for two hours or more, Otto meeting any impatience with a cuff or a blow. The king was cool enough, but was with difficulty induced to return to the castle. When the affair became known to the Bavarian soldiery, they are said to have expressed a good deal of pleasure at their sovereign's military taste.

A COMMERCIAL ALLIANCE.

France and Russia Have Formed a Strong Compact.

LONDON, July 31.—It is understood that the terms of a commercial alliance have been practically agreed upon between France and Russia, whereby each country will give preference to the products of the other. As Russia, in years of favorable harvests, is a large food exporting country, this arrangement will militate against the United States rather than England, although British manufacturers receive a severe blow from the new French tariff. In return for French concessions, Russia will, it is said, give a preference to French manufactures, while maintaining a stringent tariff for imports from other countries. The advantage thus given to France enhances enormously the value of the Russian alliance, irrespective of any motive of hostility toward Germany.

HAS NOT RESIGNED

SECRETARY NOBLE WILL REMAIN IN THE CABINET.

Rumors of His Resignation Emphatically Denied—He Has No Intention of Doing So.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Acting Secretary Chandler, of the interior department, stated to-day very positively that the report which has again been circulated that Secretary Noble had tendered his resignation was untrue. He said it was simply a revival of previous rumors which had been denied by the secretary himself.

CAPE MAY, N. J., July 31.—The reported resignation from the cabinet of Secretary Noble is emphatically denied this morning by Private Secretary Halford on behalf of the president. Halford said: "There is not a word of truth in it. Secretary Noble has not resigned as far as the president knows, and has no intention of doing so."

A STRANGE CASE.

The girls went boat riding on Sunday night with two young men of Chicago, Louis Berg and Thomas Maxfield, and have not returned home. The young men say they left the girls on the boat's deck at 11:30 P. M. It is feared that the girls were kidnaped or foully dealt with. Berg and Maxfield were arrested to-day and held under bonds for examination on next Tuesday. They declare they are innocent. The girls' parents are crazed with grief.

Mrs. Reiling, of near Woodburn, was taken in charge by the officers and brought here to-day, and after examination was committed to the asylum. She is dangerously insane and gave the officers a battle when they went after her.

Dr. Lane retired from the asylum this evening, giving the reins of superintendence into the hands of Dr. Rowland. The leave-taking was made a pleasant affair, speeches being made, with music, etc.

G. W. Davis, the new clerk of the school land board, takes charge of the office Monday. He will be assisted temporarily by the retiring clerk, Napoleon Davis.

THE FIRST WHEAT.

Season of 1891-92 is Inaugurated in Portland.

PORTLAND, July 31.—The British ship Eastcroft cleared from the port of Portland to-day for Liverpool.

The Eastcroft with a registered tonnage of 1312, arrived here the second week in June. She was due here on May 30, so that her charter was lost. It was, however renewed by the same firm, Balfour, Guthrie & Co.

All the old wheat that could be scraped up, 612 tons, was loaded on her, and she had to lie idle till the new wheat arrived from Walla Walla. On Friday the first new wheat arrived. This was secured and loaded. She carries 280 tons of Walla Walla wheat, the first of the season to arrive at any port in the Northwest.

The remainder of the cargo, about 1100 tons, will be made up of salmon which will be loaded at Astoria.

This 280 tons of Walla Walla wheat is the first to be exported from the Northwest for the season of 1891-92. No other port has yet shipped out any new wheat. It inaugurates the coming season.

INCENDIARIES IN PORTLAND.

Old Frame Buildings Burned—The Loss About $5000.

PORTLAND, July 31.—Fire broke out at 3 o'clock this morning at the corner of Front and Salmon streets. It originated in the store of Jacobs Bros., which with two other wooden buildings was destroyed. Three quarters of a block is covered with old wooden buildings similar to those which were burned and had not the intervening brick buildings proved a barrier to the progress of the flames there would have been a repetition of the disastrous fire of 1872. At 4:15 the fire was under control. The loss was about $5000. The fire is supposed to have originated in the second story of Jacobs Bros'. store, and was evidently the work of an incendiary.

A Monster Whale.

LONG BEACH (via Ilwaco), July 31.—The largest whale ever seen on the Pacific coast is now ashore between Tinker's hotel and Tioga, having been washed upon the beach yesterday by the tide. Fire in New York.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

France Is Not Over Polite on the Question.

LONDON, July 31.—A Paris dispatch says that the reception of the Chicago fair committee was little more than polite. The feeling there is very lukewarm toward the American fair, owing partly to the absorbing interest of the European political situation, and partly also to the fact that the American display at the late Paris exposition was considered inadequate, as compared with countries vastly less important in wealth, population and industry. Again, there is evidence that the historic attachment to America is gradually dying out with the advance of time, and that sentiment is supplanted by hard material interests. The move to repeal the pork prohibition was only undertaken under the apprehension of the loss of the wine trade with America, and its success is not yet assured. Even should it pass, the pork would have to pay a heavy duty,

Fraudulent Life Insurance Co.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 31.—Superintendent of Insurance Pierce, upon receiving the report of the examination made by this department in the affairs of the Flour City Life Insurance Association of Rochester, has requested the attorney-general to take steps to dissolve the corporation and wind up its affairs on the ground of fraud. Deputy Attorney-General Maynard notified the officers of the company they will be given a hearing on Thursday, when they must show cause, if possible, why the company should not be dissolved. Several officers of the Flour City Life are already under arrest and indictment for forgery and fraud.

Parnell, Abandoned.

DUBLIN, July 31.—The Freeman's Journal to-day abandons Parnell's cause and says plainly that he can no longer be recognized as the leader of the Irish national party.

LONDON, July 31.—The schooner Larma was run down and sunk off Dover this morning by an unknown steamer which continued its course after the collision without making any attempt to rescue the Larma's crew, eight of whom were drowned. One sailor managed to sustain himself by means of floating wreckage and was picked up by a passing vessel. There can be no excuse for the action of the unknown steamer, and the authorities will punish the captain when found.

A Suspicious Ironclad.

LONDON, July 31.—A Constantinople dispatch says that for the past two days a Russian ironclad has been hovering at the Black sea entrance of the Dardanelles, and the Turks are alarmed at the idea that the vessel may attempt to force its way through to the Mediterranean. In such case the Turkish fleet would not be in position to prevent such an intrusion.
