CORNERS IN WHEAT.

Corners in wheat at Chicago have generally resulted in affording the wheat growers of the Pacific slope an opportunity to market their grain in Great Britain at high figures, while the reaction at Chicago has carried prices back to a lower level than that from which they started.

The men of this vicinity need not be jealous because their wives talk so constantly about Matthews and Washburn. It is not their good looks the ladies are talking about, it is the good qualities of the cook and heating stoves they sell.

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES. As the time of the next presidential contest approaches, public interest increases as to prospective candidates. Concerning the democratic side of the country there is room for but little speculation. Cleveland will probably be the nominee, and it is the humble opinion of the writer that he will be a much easier man to beat than he was in 1888. It looks very much now as if the contest would be between the same old enemies, Harrison and Cleveland, although Blaine could no doubt have the republican nomination if he would.

the country a clean, honest, able, and thoroughly satisfactory administration. To the best of my knowledge there is no clash between the president and Mr. Blaine. The attitude of the party toward both is one of admiration.

The laws of this country certainly need amending concerning the property rights of women. Among the decisions just handed down by the Michigan supreme court is a case which will occasion no end of comment.
