☞A QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO There settled in Baker county Oregon, near what is now Baker City, a man who has since become identified with the resources and development of that country. This man is no other than Mr. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in the county. In a recent letter he says. "I had been suffering from pains in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and bad used many remedies without any but temporary relief. The pains in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not move without the use of a cane. Hearing, through a friend, of the wonderful cures effect by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before using half the contents of the box the pains in my back entirely disappeared I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for any thing."

Oregon Kidney Tea cures headache, incontinence of urine, brick dust sediment, burning or painful sensation while urinating, and all affections of the kidney or urinary organs of either sex.

The Union Pacific Sues the Railroad Commission,

DENOUNCES THE NEW RATES.

A Newsy Budget from the Capital—The Runaway Brides Returned to Their Parents in Salem.

SALEM, Sept. 7.—The Union Pacific Railway Company, plaintiffs, vs. Robert Clow, G. W. Colvig and A. N. Hamilton, as the board of railroad commissioners, defendants, is the title of a suit, entered in the circuit court for Marion county. The action is a writ of review. The writ commands the board to appear before Judge R. P. Boise, at the chambers on September 21st at 1 o'clock. The board is ordered to certify to said court the action had by the commissioners in the matter of establishing rates for said company, and to likewise certify whether or not in revising said rates any evidence had been received by the board as a basis and an order that the same be certified. In its petition the railway company believes the commission exceeded its authority, and asks that the rates be annulled. Service has not as yet been had on the board, but Mr. Colvig says they are ready and feel that the commission are fully advised in all matters pertaining to said rates, and that the same has been revised upon certified showings made by the company.

W. F. Wamsley, general freight agent of the Oregon & Washington road, Hunt system, which operates 43 miles of road in Oregon, from Pendleton to Walla Walla, is before the commission this afternoon, in conference as to rates. The matter was postponed until the 18th, to give the company a chance to file schedule rates, etc. This company's rates are about the same as the board ordered on the Union Pacific. No action has yet been instituted by either the company or the commissioners in the matter of the Southern Pacific rates, but unless the railroad people start a suit soon the board will be compelled to.

The preliminary hearing of young Bynon and Bechtel, who eloped with a couple of young Salem girls Saturday and were arrested at Albany, will be held here to morrow. There will be no relenting, as the parents of the girls say they will prosecute them to the law's extent. The charge is perjury.

R. P. Boise, Jr., and Minnie L. Breyman were married here this morning. They are both popular in Salem society.

Lieut. Brown, of the recruiting service, has been ordered to San Francisco, and the rendezvous at Salem has been discontinued.

Rev. W. R. Williams, secretary, calls a meeting of the Oregon Ministerial Association of the Christian church at Albany for October 6, 7 and 8. A good programme has been arranged and a profitable meeting is expected.

Articles of incorporation were filed as follows to-day with the secretary of state: Willamette Valley Fruit Growing Company of Salem; capital stock, $10,000; incorporators, F. M. George, J. H. Cook, D. M. Smith.

Articles were also filed by the Town Talk Printing and Publishing Co. of Astoria; capital stock, $10,000; incorporators, O. W. Dunbar, Geo. Hibbert, John E. Bale.

MURDER AT PENDLETON.

Duck Hunters Find the Victims Body in the Bushes.

PENDLETON, Sept. 7.—J. H. Keables, of Pendleton, and Mr. Bogardus, the crack rifle shot of Forepaugh's circus, while out duck hunting Saturday afternoon discovered the body of a dead man concealed in the bushes near the railroad bridge, just below town. Sheriff Furnish was notified, and the body was removed to the morgue. At the coroner's inquest held this morning at 10 o'clock the following facts were developed; "That deceased's name they believed to be John Stratton, formerly of Kansas City Kan. That he came to his death by reason of certain violent blows on the head, inflected by a blunt instrument in the hands of some person or persons unknown to the jury, on or about the 1st day of September, 1891 and that they believe that the said killing was murder."

A Summer Idyl.

Each succeeding visit of the water-front editor to the steamboat landing in this city causes him to rigidly censure the government for the improvement of the upper river. At his feet sweeps the placid river, her bosom unruffled by the plashings of a single wheel. He looks upon the quiet stream plied by not even the frailest craft, and marvels much and wonders more how different the result might be were a few thousand dollars judiciously expended between Salem and Albany on the south and Salem and Rock island on the north. Now this artery of commerce is inactive, but with the expenditure mentioned there would not only be competition in freighting, but the shipping would lend an additional air of prosperity to the city. With boats running regularly the mills, the wood men, the gravel men, the farmers, and everyone living along the river would benefited beyond measure. There is plenty of water in the river, and all that is necessary is to have it directed in the proper channel. This done, and a few snags removed and bars lowered, and the Williamette river would be easily navigable from year's end to year's end.—Salem Statesman.

SEC. PROCTOR'S SUCCESSOR.

Senator Hawley Denies the Rumor That He Is to Be Appointed.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 7.—Senator Hawley was this morning shown a copy of last night's dispatches stating that he was at Cape May conferring with President Harrison in relation to accepting a place in the cabinet, made vacant by the resignation of Secretary Proctor. He was asked if there was any truth in it.

"None at all," he answered. "I have not seen the president since last May and he has not sent for me. The matter referred to has not entered my mind, and I do not know that any of my friends have asked for the place for me."

AN OFFICIAL DENIAL.

CAPE MAY POINT, N. J., Sept. 7.—It is authoritatively denied at the president's cottage this morning that General Hawley's visit to the president was in any way connected with the secretaryship of war.

Each organization in the parade also displayed some distinctive badge or emblem.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 7.—Labor day was not observed as formerly. There was no demonstration, and but for the closing of the courts and banks there would be nothing to indicate a holiday. Large demonstrations were held in Greensburg, Wheeling and other surrounding towns, which were participated in by labor organizations of this city.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Labor day was very generally observed in this city, the banks, board of trade, business houses, courts and municipal offices being closed. THE WORLD'S FAIR.

A Resolution Recommending One Price of Admission.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—The National Columbian commission reassembled this morning.

Commissioner Mercer, of Wyoming, introduced a resolution setting forth that the bureau of publicity and promotion had sent out a statement that there would be several theatres on the world's fair grounds to which a separate charge of admission would be made, and declaring it to be the sense of the commission that only one price of admission should be charged for everything on the grounds; referred to the committee on judiciary.

EAST OF THE ROCKIES

An Oregon Girl Shot by a Crazy Lover in Illinois.

SHE RESIDED IN BAKER CITY.

A Young Physician Finding He Could Not Marry Her, Committed the Deed, and Then Suicided.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Sept. 7.—Dr. Charles E. Ballard, of Haybrook, Ill., and Miss Bertha Ison, of Baker City, Oregon, daughter of the late Judge Ison, of that place, were found dead this morning. Dr. Ballard is a young physician, who came to this city, and ever since has been importuning Miss Ison, who came here with her mother to attend college, to marry him. She thought much of him, but begged him to postpone the event until after her education was completed. This morning he appeared at the house and had an interview with Miss Ison in the parlor. While talking with her he pulled out a revolver and shot her twice, once through the head and once through the heart, producing instant death. The doctor then shot himself five times, dying in a few minutes.

Miss Bertha Ison was the daughter of the late Judge Luthea B. Ison, of Baker City, Or. Judge Ison was judge of the state circuit court for the sixth judicial district. He died last year and his wife and daughters have been in the East for several months, completing the young lady's education. Miss Ison is said to have been a very handsome young lady, about 19 years of age, and has numerous friends in Eastern Oregon, where her parents lived for many years.

A CLERGYMAN'S SHAME,

He Died in Jail All on Account of Love for Liquor,

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Glouchester is excited over a clerical scandal. Last evening Henry Rudge, the senior curate of Newent, near that city, who was well connected and had been highly respected, died in jail. His downfall has been rapid. A short time ago he began drinking, and it was soon learned by the parish trustees that he was using a large amount of parochial funds. Through the influence of friends, who restored the money, the matter was hushed up, and it was hoped that the minister's failings would be controlled, but after a brief period of uprightness he again fell from grace and it became necessary for the parishioners to dismiss him. A week ago Rudge was forced to leave his house for non-payment of rent. Overcome by despair and shame he attempted to commit suicide, but was prevented from carrying out his purpose and was sent to jail for the offense of trying to end his life. It is believed that he obtained poison through some friend while in jail and was thus enabled to finally complete the work of self-destruction, as an autopsy showed signs of poison. Very few of the curate's parishioners had an idea of the disgrace into which he had fallen; the prevailing idea was that he was suffering from nervous prostration. The revelations following the suicide have caused a profound sensation.

THE UMPIRE RULED OUT.

Strouthers Suspended by the Northwest Base-ball League.

PORTLAND, Sept. 7.—A telegram was received in this city today from President Bushnell, of the Northwest League, suspending Con Strouthers, the league umpire, until further orders, and ordering him not to umpire today's game. It is not known who will be his successor, possibly ex-Manager Lucas.

This is the result of his decision yesterday which broke up the game between the Seattles and Portlands.

THOSE DIVIDED SKIRTS.

How one of Them Got a Dress Reformer Into Trouble.

The following extract from a letter written by a Utica (N. Y.) lady who is spending some time at Chautauqua will doubtless be read with no little interest by many of the ladies at home: "Chautauqua has a new fad, and it has taken hold with a grip that is as enthusiastic as it is firm and as contagious as Chautauqua fades usually are. It used to be said that the young ladies who come here for the summer were the ones who write to some of the newspapers for horoscopes and to others for a cure for freckles. Well, those girls have either all been married off or have died, for these here this year are swimming on the high tide of dress reform, and under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Stuart Parker of Chicago, propose to revolutionize the world. The first step in the matter was by the 'Woman's Club,' which held a secret conference presided over by another revolutionist named Emily Huntington Miller, and from which every man was excluded. Mrs Parker took the floor and exhibited an array of dresses, skirts tights, underclothing, etc., both on and off her splendid figure, in a way that captivated every woman present, and there were a great many of us, I assure you. All the time she was showing her wonderful clothing she was carrying on a harangue against the present mode of dressing that made every corset, waistband, every garter, and every clumsy petticoat in the room ache. As she proceeded she warmed up to the subject and became so enthusiastic that she got both feet in one 'leg' of a divided skirt, and then we all laughed."—Chicago Tribune.

Desperate Fight Between Convicts.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 7.—In the penitentiary at Frankfort Sunday morning Eli Lucas and William Bell Meyer, both long-term convicts, fought. Lucas was literally cut to pieces, and will die. Meyer was beaten until he was unconscious. William Johnson, another convict who interfered, had his skull cracked.

Extensive Car Shops Burned.

PORT HURON, Mich., Sept. 7.—The large car shops of the Chicago & Grand Trunk railway were partially burned yesterday afternoon. Eleven cars were destroyed, besides a large quantity of lumber and the carpenter shops. Loss, $100,000. Two hundred men are thrown out of employment.

SEVERE STORMS

MUCH DAMAGE TO PROPERTY IN OHIO.

Storms at Sea—Vessels on the English Coast Report Destructive Hurricanes.

ALLIANCE, Sept. 7.—The most destructive electrical and rain storm ever witnessed here passed over this section of the state Saturday evening. No less than twelve houses and barns were struck, resulting in total destruction, aggregating a loss of from $50,000 to $75,000. The electrical display was bewildering in its intensity. It is also reported that a number of lives were lost, but owing to imperfect telegraphic facilities nothing definite can be gotten.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The British steamer Gloucester City, from New York August 2, which arrived at Bristol, had a rough voyage. A huge wave swept her port-side cattle-sheds overboard entirely, with a loss of fifty one head of cattle, while the mate was seriously injured. A terrific gale in north Wales has caused further great damage to the crops.

BERMUDA, Sept. 7.—The steamer Duarte Castle reports that in the passage from Halifax a severe hurricane was experienced. Two seaman were washed overboard and drowned.

A Newspaper Publisher Arrested.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 7.—John F. Cramer, of the firm of Cramer, Aikens & Cramer, proprietors of the Evening Wisconsin, was arrested this morning by the United States authorities on a charge of publishing lottery matter. The arrests of other members of the firm will probably follow this afternoon. The article on which the arrest is based is one copied from a San Francisco paper attacking the validity of the lottery law.
