Morning Daily Merald last year, an increase of 304,326, or one-seventh. This, however, is small consolation to the southern farmer, who is going through the same phase of overproduction which the Western farmer has endured for the past five years. Call loans last week in New York averaged only 21/2 per cent, though a 5 per cent rate was quoted on Friday. This is far lower than the quotation for "money" in the last week in August in years considered prosperous. In other words, in spite of the very large crop movement, the demand for credit East or West is still light. This is variously interpreted, but it cannot be considered favorable.

Money is "dull" because credit is not in demand. At the same time imports are increasing rapidly as compared with last year. For the four weeks in August imports at New York this year were $43,153,- 557 against $35,736,053 last year, and advance of $6,417,614. This points to an increase for the country of about $9,000,000. This is in marked contrast with July, when imports for the country were $13,219,000 less than July, 1890.
