AN ALBANY SCANDAL.

The Particulars of How Mrs. Dr. Ellis Deserted her Home for a Fast Life.

The Portland Sunday Mercury in the last issue publishes the following particulars of a scandal, which the Albany public has had some knowledge of for some time: Dr. Ellis, a prominent and popular physician of Albany, where he has practiced for years, is sorely afflicted with the bawdy behavior of his handsome and accomplished wife.

In her own community Mrs. Ellis, who is a brunette of shapely physique and attractive appearance, was known as a woman of reckless behavior; in fact, she was known to have adroitly trodden the dangerous sands of social waywardness; but the troubles there were successfully and very quietly patched up, and Mrs. Ellis remained an ornament to her elegant home and a participant in the enjoyment of its comforts.

But confinement within the circle of respectability proved a goading bore to her and soon again she was slyly inviting clandestine attention from the fly young gallants of Albany and vicinity.

Feeling detection again in her illicit enjoyment, she widened the circle of her escapades hoping thereby to cover more safely criminal evidence of her unfaithfulness.

She came to Portland, Began more than ordinarily handsome and fascinating of manner, she quickly found courtiers for favor. She readily, but diplomatically, yielded to advances until she again found herself in the toils, with a Mercury forger on her trail.

C. W. Ayers, a bright young man of more than common business ability and personal magnetism, who is special agent in this city for the Standard Life and Accident Insurance company, with an office at 72 Washington street, became this woman's most conspicuous victim.

Notwithstanding the fact that Ayers has a most dutiful wife and two pretty little children to cheer, comfort and aid him in life's rugged struggle, his infatuation was destined to be fatal.

About two weeks ago Ayers rented a room in a Morrison street lodging house and he and Mrs. Ellis occupied that room together that night. Ample proof of this will be presented at the proper time.

The room was paid for during three or four nights, but the guilty pair became frightened and a room was rented at 153 Yamhill street, where the female entrancer stopped until matters became tropical in certain quarters that the life insurance man was induced to pay the woman about $50 and urge her to go to San Francisco, which she did.

During this time Mrs. Ayers was visiting her old home at Ashland, where she and her husband own extensive interests, mainly in the large stone quarry there. On her return home the story of the escapades reached her ears, and her distress of mind and sadness of heart at once prompted her to search for proof of the falsity of the rumors concerning her husband's infidelity. Her mission, however, was not destined to reach such an agreeable conclusion.

Proof of the perfidy of her husband was to be had.

Whether or not Dr. Ellis, of Albany, or Mrs. Ayers will invoke the law for adultery is not known, but it is pretty certain that the courts of justice will be commanded to right as far as possible the cruel wrong with which two hitherto estimable families are now sorely afflicted.

Much sympathy is expressed for Dr. Ellis, who is respected as an educated and upright gentleman; and for Mrs. Ayers, who is known to be a lady of excellent qualities.

Effect of the Rain. The showers have done no material damage. They have delayed some late thrashing, and somewhat retarded hop picking in a few sections. The thrashing of grain is thrashed. The wheat is being rapidly threshed in the warehouses and mills. The wheat product was never better, the berry is of first grade, the yield has been heavy, generally more than anticipated. Large yields are reported from the county. The oat crop has been good but not as proportionally good as the wheat crop. Hop picking will be about finished next week, unless the present rains should delay the pickers more than is now expected. The hops in Douglas county were supposed to be free from lice and mould, but on picking, some yards are found to be badly damaged. It is estimated that lice and mould have damaged the hop crop to the extent of $300,000. In Jackson and Joseph line counties corn is ripe of good quality and yield. Summer fallowing is in the progress in many of the Willamette valley counties.

Indians Slaughtering Deer. The F. Roman Bros. have returned from a trip up the Santiam to Lower Soda. They killed six deer and a bear. They report that the Indians are slaughtering deer in a lawless manner in that region. Deer are more plentiful this year than for a long time, and the Warm Spring Indians, who came down to pick hounds have found hunting more profitable. Mr. Roman says that he saw two Indian women with their ponies loaded down with fresh deer hides, many of them being lawless. He thinks they have killed already nearly 500 up the Santiam. Such wanton destruction of deer is unlawful and the offenders ought to be arrested and subjected to vigorous punishment.

Brick Brick. For sale in large or small quantities, delivered at kiln one mile east of the city, in the city or on board cars. W. C. CASSELL.

THE OREGON PACIFIC TROUBLE.

Judge Phips Again Absents Himself—Still Nothing is Done.

Attorney-General George E. Chamberlain and Hon. J. L. Weatherford, attorneys for the Oregon Pacific railroad employees, went to Corvallis yesterday, it being the day set for the receiver, Col. T. E. Hogg, to pay the men. They did not return to this city, but late last night a dispatch was received from Corvallis that Judge Phips had absented himself, and late in the evening had not appeared in the court room, and that the attorneys would try to get a hearing to-day. The dispatch did not say whether Judge Phips had again gone to Chicago, or whether he was playing hide and seek about the city of Corvallis. It did say, however, that nothing had been done toward paying the men.

A rumor reached this city that trains would stop running on the road, the men refusing to work any longer without pay, but authentic information to the HERALD states that trains will run as usual to-day.

It is an open shame that these faithful employees are not paid. It would be a public calamity to have operations on the road suspended, and it would seem better policy to have another receiver appointed who would pay the earnings of the road first and to the men, and necessary to bring the case before some judge who has time (?) to give it his attention.

It is known that the road has been more than a rining the cost of operating, and there will doubtless be found legal means to pay these earnings to the men, without stopping the running of trains.

TO OPEN CALAPOGIA STREET. For Right of Way at the Site of the Bridge Across the Willamette.

Some dispute has arisen over the right of way for the big bridge across the land owned by D. B. Monteith. The city has offered $500 for the right of way, and Mr. Monteith wants $1500. The city now proposes to open the street, and to pay the damages therefor. The matter ought to be adjusted without any resort to law or any delay.

The city council at a special meeting last evening adopted the following resolutions:

Whereas, in the judgment of the city council it is expedient to lay out and extend a street from the north terminus of Calapogia street in the city of Albany, Oregon, to the center of the Willamette river at the northern boundary of the said city,

Therefore, be it resolved by the council that the surveyor of said city be, and is hereby directed to survey said proposed new street and to mark the boundaries thereof and to make his report to the council containing a plat of his survey of said street and a full and perfect description thereof, and of the position of each lot or part thereof, or of each parcel of ground or part thereof, that will be appropriated for such street.

Unique Word Contest. Wilcox, the photographer, proposes to offer several valuable prizes for a unique word contest. His offer No. 1 is: To the person writing the sentence, "Wilcox makes superior photographs" the greatest number of times upon a postal card and sending it to him he will give free a life-size crayon portrait of the writer. The contest will close on September 19th, by which time all cards must be in at his gallery. Watch the papers for his second offer.

Geo. L. Wilcox, Corner Second and Ferry Sts.

The Siletz Indians. Mr. J. A. Warner, who has been engaged in surveying the lands that are being allotted in severity to the Siletz Indians, has returned to this city. He says the Indians are generally quite indifferent as to whether they receive land or not. The most of them have no higher ambition than to have the government provide them plenty of food and blankets. A few, however, are good farmers, raise good crops and want to farm their own land. The work of allotting the lands is not yet completed.

The Mill City Bridge. The Mill City Gazette says that on Friday Judge Blackburn and County Commissioner Rumbaugh, of Linn county, were in this city looking over the proposed location for a county bridge over the Santiam at that place. After looking over the proposed sites they expressed their opinion in regard to the two locations and were decidedly in favor of a bridge above the dam. Judge Blackburn was asked point blank if he had ever said he would not assist in putting in a bridge there and he most emphatically denied ever having made such a statement. Commissioner Rumbaugh is in favor of a bridge.

To Eastern Star Members. All persons who are members in good standing of the order of Eastern Star are requested to meet at the Masonic hall at 7:30 Thursday evening, for the purpose of considering the feasibility of organizing a chapter of Eastern Star in Albany. Members are requested to bring their credentials with them.

Shooting at Lebanon. A bloodless shooting affair occurred at Lebanon Sunday between the Benjamin Bros., who run a small store. They quarreled about each other's ability as salesmen, and one shot at the other several times with a revolver, but did no harm. Both were arrested.

NEW TO-DAY. A QUARTER OF A CENTURY. A man who has since Mr. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens of Oregon. In a recent letter he has written: "I had been suffering from pains in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any but temporary relief. The pains in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not move without the use of a cane. Hearing through a friend of the wonderful cures effected by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before a week had elapsed the pains in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends." I would not be without it for anything.
