I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Att'y, Washington, D. C.

For eight years I have suffered from catarrh, which effected my eyes and hearing; have employed many physicians without relief. I am down on my second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and feel confident of a complete cure.—Mary C. Thompson, Cerro Gordo, Ill.

We are the only people who carry the celebrated E. & W. collar and cuffs. Always have the latest styles in stock, T. L. Wallace & Co.

TO GOOD TEMPER. Do you know that Moore's Rev-eled Remedy is the only patent medicine in the world that does not contain a drop of alcohol; that the mode of preparing it is known only to its discoverer, that it is an advance in the science of medicine without a parallel in the nineteenth century; that its proprietors offer to forfeit $1,000 for any case of dyspepsia it will not cure?

Thus, Brink has just received some of the finest lozenges ever brought to Albany, and he is selling them at a close margin.

CLOSING DAYS

State Fair Continues to Score a Large Success.

THE RAIN FAILS TO DESTROY. Capital News—Death of a Prominent Citizen—Tasano Man—Pock-pockets Rampant—Best Races.

Salem, Sept. 18.—Contrary to the expectations the track was in good condition this afternoon and the grand stand crowded with spectators to witness the races. The first one was a trot for the 2:30 class. It was won by Alto in three straight heats. Best time was 2:32.

The mile and one-sixteenth dash was won by Idaho Chief, Malcolm second, Millie S third; time, 1:54 1/2.

The Yearling dash of three-eighths mile was won by Rosebud, left hand second, Wyndshot third; time, 38 seconds. In spite of the rain the fifth day of the Oregon state fair was a success. At 11 o'clock the sky cleared its weepings and by noon the grounds were well crowded.

The parade of the premium horses was something grand, there being in line the largest number of the horses ever exhibited at any fair in Oregon. In the afternoon, though not raining, it was cool and cloudy. The track was in good condition and the races largely attended.

In spite of the rain, which fell all the morning and almost to noon, this was about as big a Friday at
