YARNS BIG MEN TELL

Stories Told by Jolly General Rosecrans and Others.

GOSSIP FROM THE CAPITAL.

An Exclusive Womens Club to Which All the Well Girls Belong—What It Is Good For.

In conversation over a dinner table one night last week, jolly old General Rosecrans said: "White-law Reid and I have always been first-rate friends. He has always had pleasant things to say about me and I greatly admire his newspaper genius, although we have never met since he was serving as correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette with my army in West Virginia. I remember that he used to write some mighty good letters at that time on war topics, though I was too busy to do anything more than skim such of them as I had time to read under my eye. Military affairs kept me pretty seriously engaged, particularly the construction of 110 miles of telegraph through a hostile country, on which depended the communication of intelligence of value altogether beyond estimation."

"Now, perhaps you can imagine my astonishment when I picked up a copy of the paper one afternoon and found in it a letter from the field of operations signed 'W. R.', which contained the remarkable length, written in admirable style, and was devoted to a description of the intense and hopeless ignorance and barbarism of the natives in that region. By way of illustration, the author said: 'So absolutely stupid are these people that it has actually never occurred to them, although they are bitter foes to the north-eastern states, to cut the telegraph wires run through their territory for the use of our army.'"

"I sent an orderly to fetch Mr. Reid—'Whitey,' the boys used to call him—and I said to him: 'Do you know that I ought to have you shot?'"

"He looked unpleasantly surprised at that, and so I added: 'Apparently you don't realize what you have done. Here is a letter of yours which I have been reading. You might just as well have stood on top of a tall tower in Cincinnati and shouted through a trumpet, 'Big enough and loud enough to be heard in I don't know.'"

"I took him over to see the judge advocate general of the department and when I showed him the letter clipped out of the paper with the head lines and signature cut off. Said I: 'What ought to be done with the newspaper correspondent who published that?'"

"The judge read it through gravely, handed it back to me, and said: 'No, I wouldn't do that. You ought to hang him.'"

"I thought you ought, I replied. Then I rode back to my own quarters with Reid, and had a very brief conversation with him saying: 'I haven't decided, young man, which shall be done with you. I'll see you in the morning. Good night.'"

THE FAIR IS OVER.

The Last Day of Oregon's Biggest State Fair.

A RESUME OF THE RACES.

Misty Morn Won the Oregon Derby—A Yearling Record of 2:49 Made—Racing in the Rain.

SALM, Sept. 19.—The last day of the Oregon state fair, like the whole week, was bigger in every way than the corresponding day last year. This afternoon there was a large crowd at the race course, while at the pavilion and about the different departments there were also a large number of people. The gate receipts to-day are going to be larger than Saturday of last year, although the weather was not so favorable. Among the campers and exhibitors there is a lively moving. All are preparing to leave and this evening found the fair grounds a scene of moving. People are going away satisfied at having attended the best state fair ever held in Oregon, and which would have been measurably larger had the weather been clearer. The premiums have all been awarded and the secretary force are busy handing out warrants.

At the Oregon state fair this afternoon the races which were to be about the best of the fair started in the rain. The track soon got heavy and the time was slow. The Oregon derby was run in a big shower, but when the last special trot was run the sun was shining warmly.

In the trot, 2:22 class, Blondie won in three straight heats. Kitty Ham and Governor were distanced in all three heats for running. Best time, 2:25 1/4. Alltime, yearling, made an exhibition record yearling trot; time, 2:49, which is the best time ever made by a yearling on an Oregon track.

Misty Morn won the Oregon Derby of a mile and a half; Binnie Bleu, second; Patsy O'Neil, third; time, 2:56 1/4. In the special trot Kalamath won; Susie, second; best time, 2:30.

THE CHINESE QUESTION. One Reason Given Why the Rioters are Not Speedily Punished. LONDON, Sept. 19.—A Shanghai dispatch says that the demonstration against the Chinese is delayed by jealousy between the powers as to who shall take the lead. England wishes to gain the prestige, which the direction of such an affair would give, while France, urged on, it is believed by Russia, would prefer to keep England in the background, and either assume leadership herself, or put the Americans in the van. The French are anxious to make an impression on the Chinese that will be favorable to the settlement of pending questions in Tonquin and the frontier, while the English desire to keep the Chinese alienated as far as possible from the Russians. Meantime a sensible Chinese magistrate at Shanghai has addressed his friends among the foreign residents an apology for the conduct of the Chinese who looted the mission houses. The magistrate whose name is Sun Vuh Wen, argues that while the rioters have been justly punished, the missionaries are not free from blame. He claims that their habit of buying children for education as Christians give rise to suspicion as to what is done to children, the more ignorant imagining that they are sacrificed in religious rites. Such matters, the magistrate thinks, ought to be conducted more discreetly. Meantime the Chinese continue to be enraged against foreigners, especially in the interior.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 19.—The Russian government views with increasing alarm the aggressive course of China in the direction of the Russian frontiers. At a special meeting of the officers at the headquarters of the general staff at St. Petersburg, a few days ago, the military position of China was discussed, and one of the generals who took a prominent part in the meeting stated that the Chinese numbered nearly 1,600,000 men, with an inexhaustible population from which to draw recruits. The Chinese government has consented to the construction of a railway from Pekin close up to the Russian frontier, and many thousands of Chinese colonists are crossing the border into Russian provinces, and would prove a hostile element in the event of war.

TROUBLE ANTICIPATED. Cowboys Threaten to Drive Negroes Out of Oklahoma. GUTHRIE, O. T., Sept. 19.—A deputy sheriff has arrived from the Eastern lands bringing news of a race war in progress just on the line of the Iowa reservation. The town of Langsdon, founded several months ago, is inhabited solely by negroes. There are several hundred of them and more are arriving daily on the line of the new land. The negroes contemplate settling

A FATAL ACCIDENT.

Two Boys Badly Injured in a Runaway at McMinnville.

ONE OF THEM MAY RECOVER.

The Team Ran at a Frightful Speed With One Boy's Head Fast in the Spokes.

McMINNVILLE, Or., Sept. 19.—A team belonging to T. M. McClintock ran away this morning with a wagon containing his little boys, 8 and 10 years old, injuring them seriously, if not fatally. The father was unhinged onto the barn of Elsie Wright, and had let the lines fast to a moment, when the team started down the street at a frightful speed, defying all efforts of the horrified people to check them. The youngest was thrown on a wheel and his head caught in the spokes, whirling him around at fearful velocity. Plunging down the hill toward Corbine creek the wagon was wrecked in a moment. The youngest boy's head was badly crushed beside other injuries. The other escaped with a few ugly bruises.

Yesterday a valuable span of horses belonging to Jones & Co. was killed by a load of lumber, by the brake giving away on the mountain side, near their mill on the Nestucca.

ANNEXATION OF CANADA.

The Sentiment Said to Be Growing in Favor.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—Richard Everett, of Montreal, who recently represented an important constituency in the Canadian parliament, in the city speaking of the growth of the annexation sentiment in the Dominion, he said that the scandals, which followed so closely on the death of Sir John Macdonald, had made the time for a union of the two countries many years nearer.

All Canada had the greatest confidence in Macdonald, and the people were inclined to give full credence to all he said against men close to Sir John, but even against the premier himself, and the people had learned that it was easier to conceal corruption under a colonial than under a republican government. There was a powerful opposition to EVERETT, Mr. Everett said, but on the whole the annexation movement was gaining strength every day. There were now annexationists among the most conservative French and English people in Canada. A few years ago those classes were solidly against any union.

IMITATING THE PRINCE.

Prominent Dakota People Arrested While Playing Baccarat.

PIERRE, S. D., Sept. 19.—Pierre is now enjoying the notoriety of having a baccarat scandal, in which a number of prominent merchants and county and city officials are implicated. Thursday evening the game was raided by the police, among whom were county officials, city officials, a doctor and a prominent merchant. They were acquitted on account of their prominence. Persons arrested have made an affidavit that at different times they have seen the mayor, two aldermen and the chief of police playing baccarat and drinking beer, and demand that said officials be prosecuted.

HE DIED A FOOL'S DEATH.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Barney McMullen, a son of a late well-known capitalist in the Canadian province of Ontario, and a brother of Hon. J. C. McMullen, of Fresno, shot and killed himself in a house of ill-repute early this morning. It is stated he also attempted to kill Mattie Reynolds, one of the inmates of the house, but the woman escaped him. The young man has been indulging in liquor, and this and jealousy is reputed to be the cause of the deed. His mother is now traveling in Europe.

A HOT WAVE IN THE EAST.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Dispatches from points in Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa state the warm weather of the past few days is increasing in intensity. In some places in Illinois a water famine is reported. At Hillsboro, Ill., and Eau Claire, Wis., yesterday the thermometer reached 100 degrees.

TRAIN ROBBERS CAUGHT.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Sept. 19.—Word was received here last night that the officers in pursuit of the Pacific train robbers had overtaken them seventy-five miles west of here. After a short fight, in which one of the Bolton's was wounded, their capture was effected.

KILLED IN A COLLISION.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 19.—There was a collision between the Harriman Rockwell trains, owing to a mistake or disobedience of orders. The firemen and brakemen of the north-bound train were killed.

A HEAD BLOWN OFF

AN OREGON CITY BOY ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

THE RESULT OF CHILDREN BEING ALLOWED TO CARRY A GUN—HE LIVED AN HOUR.

OREGON CITY, Or., Sept. 19.—Just before noon to-day Charles Kelley, a crippled son of John Kelley, night policeman of this place, aged 13 years, accidentally shot himself while hunting. He had two companions, who were a few rods away at the time of hearing the shot and cry, and ran to the spot, and found the boy lying in the road with his forehead completely blown away. He was brought home, but he only breathed an hour. There is a mystery connected with it, on account of no empty shell being found in the gun. It is supposed he may have been handling the shell, which went off with the above effect.

Sign of Better Times.

The Oregonian says: There is a large amount of money pouring into this city at present and being forwarded to all parts of the country to pay for wheat. A wheat dealer, estimates the amount received daily of late at $300,000. The greater part of this money comes from England by way of New York and San Francisco. It is deposited in sub-treasury in New York and delivered to the sub-treasury in San Francisco, and sent here. If there were a sub-treasury here the money would come directly here and there would be a saving in exchange. Applications were made to have a sub-treasury here before the cities were consolidated, but the population was not large enough then. Now the population is large enough and the application will probably be renewed.
