

Morning Daily Herald

ON SALE.

The DAILY HERALD will be on sale each morning at H. J. Jones' book store, where it can be procured at 5 cents per copy.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

F. M. French, jeweler, Isaac Blinn is in the city. A. B. Blanson, of Portland, is in the city. For nice fresh oysters go to John Isom's. Geo. W. Kenney has returned to the city. Jay W. Blain went to Portland yesterday. Fresh oysters in every style at John Isom's. Regular meeting of the city council to-night. Lorin Langhead, was in the city on his way to Salem. Walter Irving returned yesterday from a trip to the Sound. Wanted on Lebanon canal a number of good teams at $3.50 per day. Set your watch with French's regulator and you will not miss the train. The work of surveying the extension of Calapeosa street will commence to-day. H. Y. Kirkpatrick and wife passed through Albany yesterday enroute to Portland. Call at the Ladies Bazaar and inspect their new stock of millinery for the coming season. Miss Mamie Hyde went to Monmouth yesterday to resume her studies at the Normal school. Miss Birdie Anlyn left yesterday for Monmouth, where she will attend the State Normal school. Miss Mand Hoffman, of Corvallis, has accepted a position as teacher in St. Helen's Hall Portland. Prof. Robb, of Oakville, was in the city yesterday bidding friends adieu on the eve of his departure for Kansas. Buy your watches at F. M. French's and get the benefit of the reduction in prices just made by the factories. Mr. C. H. Schmidt is in the city acting for San Francisco, who handle the latest and most improved dairy machinery. Use the celluloid eyeglass cleaners. (Handkerchief not always elegant.) Free with each pair of glasses at F. M. French's. Mr. Nelson, of Minnesota who has been seeking health at the Foley springs on the McKenzie, arrived in this city yesterday. Miss Ina Robertson is with her parents in this city, but will soon resume her duties as principal of the Seminary at Waukegan Wash. Mrs. Sower, of the Ladies Bazaar, has just returned from the city, and is now prepared to fill all orders for fall and winter styles in the millinery line. Prof. J. M. Williams, of Eugene, was in the city yesterday, happy over the fact that his washing machine had taken the first premium at the California State Fair. Bangs out and curled, 25 cents; hair dressed for 25 cents or shampooed and dressed for 50 cents. All also made at Hannah Cohen's, Albany's only hair dresser. The Albany Woolen Mills company will sue in the next term of court for the unpaid subscriptions to the guarantee to bring the mills here. The amount unpaid is about $1,500. G. B. Winn and Geo. Moorehouse came in from the North Santiam yesterday. Mr. Winn reports that he and J. R. Whitney of the Herald captured a fine deer while he was up there. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McClung and son, of Idaho, are visiting friends and relatives here. Mr. McClung is a railroad conductor and takes his vacation in visiting his old home and parents. Conrad Meyer's new oven is now completed, and he is better prepared than ever to serve his old customers as well as new ones with the best of fresh bread, cakes, in fact everything from the delectable hot rolls to the most elaborate wedding cakes. Housekeepers are invited to give the product of his new oven a trial. One of the finest exhibits at the state fair, and by the way, about all there was from Linn county too, was the display of the Brownsville Woolen mill. It was certainly a handsome exhibit. The pushing of work to fill present contracts by our Albany Woolen Mills, would not allow of time to prepare an exhibit from the Albany Mills, hence none was attempted. Brownsville Takes the Cake. In the matter of manufactures Oregon is comparatively in its infancy, but in some branches she has factories which, in comparison to their capacity, compete with any in the world. A notable instance of this is the Eagle woolen mills of Brownsville, represented at the state fair by an immense lot of blankets, white and colored, flannels, broadcloth, pique, tweeds, cassimeres and ready made clothing. It did not take the judges long to award them the first premium for the largest and best display of Oregon manufactures, and the crowd never tired of admiring their beautiful goods and descending upon their superiority. Albany was not represented. Religious Associations. The State Convention of the Baptist church meets in Albany October 14th. Also during October the Congregational association, the ministerial conference of the Christian church, synod of the U. S. church of the coast, and State convention of Y. P. C. E. meet in Albany.

FROM THE MINES.

A Harvest of Gold That Shows Rich Mines.

Mr. H. W. White in company with Messrs. Frank Hastings, N. Adair, W. B. Burr, and H. Walters came in from the Albany Mining and Milling Company's works yesterday and report good progress on the work. The machinery is being placed in the mines as rapidly as possible. The saw mill first story is up and under cover, so that work can progress in spite of rain, and the men will soon be placed upon the tunnel work again. Mr. White, who with Superintendent Hazleton, has a claim near the Telephone, had a ton of ore from the claim run in the Albany mill, and from it they retorted a button that weighed 23 in gold. Such positive proofs as these speak loudly for the Santiam district.

Suit to be Commenced.

District Attorney Geo. G. Bingham has a complaint with County Clerk N. P. Payne, for the commencement of a suit against the Willamette Valley & Coast Railway Company. In the complaint is set forth that the company has violated the law incorporating it in this state that it did not subscribe one-half of the capital stock as subscribed under a contract to elect directors. That said corporation have from time to time unlawfully elected as directors persons who were not stockholders and were not residents of the state, and that such persons are now and for a long time past have been serving as directors without having been duly or otherwise qualified. That contrary to law shares of stock are fraudulently placed on the books of the company in the names of sundry persons without their consent or knowledge and without consideration, in order that such persons may be elected directors. That the stockholders have failed to pay their stock, that the company has failed to keep a correct or any proper record of their proceedings or any stock books. And that it has also failed to hold its annual elections of directors and stated meetings for the transaction of business. That it fails to keep a proper or any stock book in such manner as to show intelligibly the original stockholders, their respective shares, the amount paid, and the amount due thereon, with all transfers thereof. That it wholly failed and neglected to elect directors or to commence the business for which it was formed within one year from the time of filing the articles of incorporation. That the company have large property interests in the county of Linn, and state of Oregon, wherefore the plaintiff, the state of Oregon, prays that the charter of the defendant be avoided and annulled and that a receiver be appointed to take charge of, hold and manage the property of the defendant, the railroad company, during the pendency of this action and for other orders as to the court seems proper and for costs and disbursements.

An Untruth from Astoria.

It was stated to a Talk reporter to-day that there were parties from both Tacoma and Albany in Portland looking for "sprinters" to run in the city. The Albany violation of the rules adopted by the board. Firemen should remember that an honorable defeat is preferable to an unfair victory. Astoria Town Talk. There is not an iota of truth in the above statement. The Albany hose team will be composed entirely of Albany men and has had no one out looking for men in Portland or anywhere else, and Portland being a paid department will send no team this year. It would be well enough for the reporter of the Astoria paper to keep somewhere within reasonable bounds of veracity.

Cost to Lane County.

Eugene Guard: The election law passed by the legislature requires the county court to construct a voting booth for every forty voters at the different polling places. These booths will cost from $5 to $7 a piece and it will take about 120 of them—quite a little sum. The law, no doubt, is a good one but it is going to cost Lane county about $4,000 the first election in trying it. There are several little kinks in the law that the voters should know, and all those who have not already taken the trouble to learn them will find it to their advantage to do so.

A Fast Hose Team.

On next Saturday morning the fastest hose team that ever Albany produced will board the train for Victoria. Under the management of Jack Warner, it is hoped the team will bring home a fair share of the prizes. The citizens have contributed $250.00 for their expenses. Weather permitting the racers will be photographed to-day.

Chapel Opening.

The Shedd United Presbyterian chapel will be dedicated next Sabbath, Sept. 27th. Rev. W. W. Logan of Portland, will preach the dedicatory sermon at 11 o'clock A. M. Also services at 2:30 P. M. Sermon by Rev. S. G. Irvine D. D. All are cordially invited to attend these exercises.

Ladies Aid Society.

The Albany Ladies Aid Society will meet at the residence of Dr. C. C. Kelly, to-day at 2:30 P. M. Every member is requested to be present as business of importance will be before the meeting. By order of the president.

Lunch House.

Night Engineer C. O. Lee has an elegant lunch room in the middle room of Cusick's brick block on Broadalbin street, where tables can be secured at all hours.

MRS. ELLIS' STATEMENT.

The Daily Evening Democrat publishes the following, under the head of "A Plain Statement." "Sirs:—I wish to ask space in your columns to reply to the cowardly attack made upon me by some of the papers during my recent absence from this city. In view of certain social and professional jealousies well known to exist in Albany, it is not surprising that an attempt should be made to throw a blot upon my reputation, nor is it surprising that the vile Sunday paper published in Portland should print anything sent to it. But it does seem unaccountable that the proprietors of a paper published right here at home in Albany should countenance and give circulation in their paper, with no other authority, such serious charges against a woman who holds dearest in life—her character, her virtue. As to the relation existing between myself and husband, it is nobody's business; suffice it to say that towards me he has ever been kind, indulgent and honorable; but I do most emphatically deny the truth of any and all charges made, involving my virtue. Such charges are positive and absolutely false. Women are constituted differently, and it has always from childhood up been a matter of course with me to talk and act in a light and joyous manner, sometimes, perhaps, approaching flippancy, which fails to strike a responsive chord in somebody's nature, and they immediately let their fertile imaginations become impressed with the idea that I do not show the sedateness which they think so becoming to a married lady. It is an easy matter to draw lessons from the past; it is an easy matter to say that women should so live that circumstances appearing to promise their good name should not arise; but truth and justice will see me righted in the minds of all fair-minded people. MINNIE H. ELLIS.

Princeton Items.

Ohioo Review. Henry Gray, who lives twelve miles southeast of town, threshed his grain last week. His yield was wheat, 45 bushels to the acre; oats, 40 bushels; barley, 70 bushels. A steam engine for the Ohioo mines passed through town Thursday. A test mill is en route from San Francisco, and when it arrives and is set up, a practical working test of the quartz of the Ohioo mines will be made. A. L. Allen, who lives on Crooked river at the mouth of Beaver, was in town last Sunday. Mr. Allen says he harvested 102 tons of hay on his place this season. All his land is sandy soil that grew nothing but weeds before it was reclaimed, but by proper cultivation and irrigation he has caused it to produce as well as the richest bottom land. What he has accomplished on his place is a sample of what can be done all along Crooked river bottom, wherever water for irrigating can be had.

A Cannery at Philmont.

Corvallis Gazette: Even our neighboring little town of Philmont is moving the cogs of progress, and now talks in dead earnest of building a fruit cannery. It is to be ready for operation in the spring. When a small town talks business like that, we feel like tickling Corvallis in the ears as it means of waking her up again as a cannery question. It takes five men to make a live town, and we believe the people of Philmont are a live people. If they put their speculative talk into active performance, astonishing realities will follow in the erection of a fruit cannery that will do credit to this section, for a combination of business and agriculture can do great things when they get down to business operations.

Another Probable Victim.

Jacksonville Times: Three prospectors, named Moore, Green and Sager, about a month since left their wagon and outfit at Chas. Lenz's ranch at the Klamath marshes, while they ostensibly went out towards Diamond lake on a prospecting tour. A few days since Moore and Sager returned to Lenz's after the wagon, stating that their partner had become lost in the mountains and had probably perished. As the missing man was known to have had considerable money on his person at the time he left for the lake, and that he was more than hinted at only mountains about the mysterious lake have witnessed many a sad tragedy which will never be recounted by man.

Knew his Business.

It is said that about three years ago C. W. Williams, then comparatively unknown in turf circles, made his appearance at Independence, Ia., with the two stallions Axtell and Alleston. They were then three year-olds, and Williams peculiar system of training brought down on him the ridicule and experienced turfmen. He persisted in his work, however, and demonstrated the real worth of his method of training by driving Axtell to a record of 2:12 and afterwards selling him for 105,000 to a syndicate headed by Colonel John W. Conley. And now the stallion Alleston has made the world's record of 2:09.4. Williams evidently knows his business, in spite of the wisecracks.

A Lucky Shot.

Two sheep killing dogs surrendered to Jimmy Collins unerring aim last week. He killed two at one shot. A few more shots like that and they may rest in some security.—Independence West Side.

NEWS OF THE COAST.

Interesting Items from Exchanges Throughout the Northwest.

There are 120 newspapers in Oregon. Lightning is killing horses and mules in Eastern Oregon. Pendleton is stricken up with a case of abortion. The victim is a widow lady named Alice Weaver, and one of the city's prominent physicians languishes in jail as a consequence.

Some half a dozen Pendletonians who "took stock in" the timber land scheme proposed by John Mays at Pendleton are now confirmed in the painful suspicion that the business is a fraud. It is asserted that Mays cleared up some $1000 at Dayton.

Bear are quite plentiful on the banks of the Columbia, and can be frequently seen coming from and going to the river.

The hop yield of Oregon will be about 10,000 bales short this year on account of ravages by the hop louse.

John M. brother of Captain Waters, of Stayton, arrived at that place by train the first of the week having driven from Colorado since the 28th of May.

Malone & Young, of Crystal creek, above Pelican bay, will put up no less than 200 tons of hay this season. They are sure to put up unusually large quantities.

John Pringle, a young Englishman, who has been a resident of Baker City for two years, disappeared suddenly last week, and his friends are anxious concerning him.

Contractor W. A. Banister, of Milton, was awarded the contract by the county court for the construction of the bridge across the Walla Walla river at Gordon's crossing, five miles above the city.

While Rev. J. A. Orchard was holding services at Dayton last week, some unprincipled hoodlums, after getting drunk, went to the place of divine worship and proceeded to make themselves generally obnoxious, interrupting the services by shouting the minister to flight with him.

CROPS AND WEATHER REPORT.

PORTLAND, Sept. 19 1891. For Western Oregon—The temperature has been lower in the preceding week. The weather has been cloudy or partly cloudy, with rain in latter part of the week. An earth-quake was felt especially in the Willamette valley about 9 o'clock on the evening of the 19th. The planting is nearly over, the hop crop will amount to about two thirds of a crop, the lice and mould having damaged the other third. Corn in Jackson and Josephine counties is being cut, the yield is larger than for many years. Grapes in the best of Oregon counties are ripening and wine making will begin within a few weeks. Thrashing is generally over, except an occasional small stack in a few localities. Reports continue to indicate that the farmers are all pleased with the prospects of their crops. Peaches, pears, apples and melons are plentiful and the yield has been fully an average. The prune crop has been fully an average and the drying of them yet continues. Some plowing has been done in the Umatilla county. In Morrow county there were not enough sacks to hold the wheat and more have been ordered. In other counties the supply of sacks was about used up, showing the grain to have yielded so much more than was expected. The yield of cereals is unusually great in all interior counties. Preparations are being made for preparing the ground for seed, summer fallow is being worked and many sections expect to have as large or larger crops next year, than they had this.

UPPER LAKE CREEK ITEMS.

UPPER LAKE CREEK, Sept. 21, 1891. E. N. Tandy will soon commence the construction of a new barn. Mrs. McCartney and family, are spending a few days with friends in Eugene. School in the Bussey district is progressing finely, with Mattie Cross of Halsey at the helm. The prospects are good for several matrimonial knots in this vicinity in the near future. We are informed that Frank Vanita of near Shedd's, who has rented Mr. J. F. McCartney's farm, of this vicinity, will shortly move thereon.

W. C. Nicholson is having his residence remodeled. Messrs. Butler, Scott and Dicco of Harrisburg are doing the work. Willard Lackey is moving to Eugene where he will reside in the near future. The farm vacated thereby will be farmed by S. Brock who will shortly move there.

Another Fish Story.

Tillamook Headlight: Old Dash, W. A. Thayer's intelligent Spaniel, performed a feat the other day. Mr. Thayer had been fishing and on his return Dash was carrying the bucket of bait—salmon eggs—when all at once he started out of the path pursuing a pleasant and plump fish, shortly with the pleasant and plump fish in his mouth, wagging his tail good naturedly.

NEW TO-DAY. There is a QUARTER OF A CENTURY who has since become identified with the progress and development of that country. This man is no other than Mr. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens of the county. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pains in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any temporary relief. The pains in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not move without the use of a cane. Hearing of the virtues of the wonderful cure at the Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I appear to have relief, and before using the contents of the box the pains in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for any thing."

Oregon Kidney Tea cures headache, indigestion, neuralgia, kidney troubles, burning or painful sensation while urinating, and all affections of the kidney or urinary organs of either sex.
