I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Att'y, Washington, D. C.

A NATIONAL EVENT.

The holding of the World's Fair in a city scarcely fifty years old will be a remarkable event, but whether it will realty benefit this nation as much as the discovery of the Restorative Nervine by Dr. Franklyn Miles is doubtful. This is just what the American people need to cure their excessive nervousness, dyspepsia, headache, dizziness, sleeplessness, neuralgia, nervous debility, dullness, confusion of mind, etc. It acts like a charm. Trial bottles and fine book on "Nervous and Heart Diseases," with unequaled testimonials free at Stanard & Cusick's. It is warranted to contain no opium, morphine or dangerous drugs.

Trial bottles free at Foshay & Mason, Druggists,

SPECULATION DANGEROUS.

Scarcely a day passes without the news of some large failure flashing over the wires—the usual result of speculation in stocks or some equally dangerous venture. The same electric current carries to dear distant friend the sad tidings of death of loved ones—too often the result of speculation in patent nostrums. Moore's Revealed Remedy is no speculation but is sold on positive guarantee. Do not fail to go to your druggist and ask for your money if not satisfied. We known you will go and buy another bottle. For sale by all druggists.

LAKE LABISH.

It is To Be Filled to Replace the Southern Pacific Trestle.

DIRT SIX FEET HIGH.

Ten Foot Cuts to Approach—Kicked Over By a Gun—Hop Picking Over—About the Crop.

SALEM, Sept. 22.—Parties coming up from Lake Labish, which flat bog the Southern Pacific crosses by trestle, and where the train was wrecked on the memorable November night last year, say the railroad company has men on the ground ready to commence work on the fill about on an average of six feet high and 3000 feet long. There will be deep cuts at either end of the fill, the one at Chemawa being not less than ten feet deep. The peculiar quicksilver formation of the soil makes a higher or heavier fill impractible.

A peculiar accident is reported to-day from Hazel Green District, just north of Salem. Chas. Thacker was out hunting and when shooting at a blue jay the gun kicked him over, breaking his collar bone.

Hop picking in this section of the state is practically over and the sumnary all returned.

Estimates place the total crop as not above a third as large as the harvest of 1890. There will not be over eight thousand bales of good hops in Oregon this year, if the opinions of growers and buyers can be taken for anything. Many yards in this vicinity were not picked at all on account of lice and attendant mold, while not a single yard yielded a full crop. Mr. Flery, who early in the season had Chinamen pick all the leaves off the vines to starve the lice, got the best results as a result of this novel method. He picked 50,000 as against 80,000 last year. All remedies, killers and preventatives were tried for lice, but none were found.

STRANGE STORY.

A Man And Woman Drift Out To Sea.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 22.—Samuel W. Thornton and Eva Jewel, his wife's sister, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are in this city alive and well. They are the couple who, on the evening of August 27, last, mysteriously disappeared from Coney island. They had gone in bathing, and caught by the outgoing tide were swept out to sea. Both of them being good swimmers they managed to keep afloat till picked up a sailing vessel bound to this port, so they say. Be it as it may, both man and woman are here and in good health. A message was at once sent to their brother in Brooklyn, asking for money to purchase clothing and bring them back home. The story is one of the strangest ever heard of, and the marvelous escape of the couple is the sole topic of conversation here.

THE STRAIN WAS TOO GREAT.

A Large New York Firm Goes to the Wall.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The announcement and suspension of S. V. White & Co., of New York and Chicago, was made on the stock exchange this morning. White says the failure is due to long speculation in corn and not in stocks. The liabilities of the firm are very large, but only a few hundred shares of stock are outstanding on contract. No estimate can be given yet. The climax of to-day's catastrophe has been approaching a culmination for the past two weeks. The news which has been carefully guarded, leaked out yesterday afternoon after the closing of the stock exchange.

RELIC OF THE REVOLUTION.

Divers Discover a Ship Sunk by the British in 1778.

Divers have discovered an old wreck in Newport harbor which is exciting much interest among historical students. The wreck is believed to be that of one of the seven vessels sunk by the British in Newport harbor on August 8, 1778, at the time that Comete de Estaing forced his way with part of his fleet and anchored between Goat island and Canonicut. The Kingfisher, sloop-of-war, and two galleys had been destroyed in the Zacconet passage on the 29th of July previous. On August 8th the captains of the British vessels destroyed their ships to prevent their falling into the hands of the Orpheus. Lark, Juno, Ceberus and Flora, thirty-two guns each, and the Falcion of fourteen guns. The four first named were burned. The Flora and Falcion were sunk, and the ship found is supposed to be one of them.—Boston Special in Chicago Herald.

Discussions in Order.

Spokane Spokesman: The opinion of Attorney-General Jones, regarding the constitutionality of the use of the Bible in public schools of this state, will undoubtedly cause a great deal of discussion. Mr. Jones appears to have given the matter a most thorough investigation, and there seems to be, in his mind, no doubt whatever that the public school teacher has no more right under the constitution of the state of Washington to read chapters from the Bible than he has to read from the Koran or the Talmud. As there are no doubt many teachers in the state who now hold religious services in their schools from reasons of conscience or duty, it is quite probable that some of them will continue this custom, and that unbelievers will bring the matter to test in the courts.

They Are Illegally Entering.

Spokane Review: After a visit to the customs ports of entry on the Northwestern frontier, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Spaulding has satisfied himself that Chinese are illegally entering the United States from British Columbia and Canada. The British officers at Vancouver say that during the first six months of the present year 7900 Chinese disembarked at the port, 7000 of which number have crossed the border. This evasion of the exclusion act has been going on right along, but now that such a high treasury official as the assistant secretary has seen it for himself either the law as it stands will be rendered effective, or else it will be surrounded by the proper safeguards by the coming congress to allow it to be so, if recommendation by him will do it.

Extremes Meet,

Mme. de Lesseps enjoys the reputation of being the most pious and at the same time decollete women in Paris. Her social opponents say that she seeks to atone for the shortness of her dresses—above the waist—by the length and fevor of her devotions. Her manners are certainly extravagant and eccentric. This may possibly be accounted for by the peculiar mixture of English and creole blood which she has in her veins. She was a governess in the country house where her present husband was stopping on a visit at the time when she first made his acquaintance, and she makes no secret of the fact that it was she and not he who at the time played the role of suitor.

Boy Business.

Saturday a North Salem boy took a $20 gold piece out of his mother's satchel and traded it to another boy for a jack-knife. Neither of the boys knew the value of the coin, but a third boy evidently did and gave the second boy a nickle for the yellow piece. Now the parents of Boy No. 1 are demanding of the parents of boy No. 2 restitution of the $20 piece. The latter are very poor people, and as their boy is only eleven years old, they are sincerely of the opinion that he did not know its value and they should not suffer the loss.—Salem Journal.

What the Difference Is.

The Montesano Vidette answers an important question, simply and very much to the point when it says: "Some of the democratic papers, commenting on the fact that English syndicates have been buying up American manufactories, ask the question, 'What is the difference whether the manufactories are in England or America if Englishmen are to own them?' Just the same difference there is between a manufactory owned by Tacoma parties and run in Montesano, and one owned by the same parties and run in Tacoma. The place where it runs gets the benefit of the pay roll, and the farmers and merchands in the vicinity the opportunity to supply the workmen."

Victoria's of Two Watches.

Queen Victoria has two beautiful little gold watches by Breguet they are supposed to be 100 years old. They have silver details and are about the size of a two shilling piece. One is a blind man's watch, the other is a repeater. Both go perfectly and are in constant use. Her Majesty's favorite watch is a large plain gold one by Mudge, the English maker. It is about twice as big as an ordinary man's watch.

The Czarina's Opals.

The Czarina of the late Alexander II had a superb set of opals which she always wore, she asserted, to prove her contempt for the old superstition that opals are unluckey. Probably it wasn't opal luck that this royal opal wearer was widowed by a Nihilist bomb. When the eldest daughter of the present Czar marries she will receive these opals as a wedding present.

Will File Reports.

Salem Statesman:—The railroad commissioners have received replies from the Oregon and Washington Railroad Co. (Hunt system) saying that the company would immediatly file with the board of commissioners the reports of shipments, etc., as requested by the board and by law provided shall be filed. This is satisfactory to the commission and the request to the governor to proceede with the collection of the forfeit, for noncompliance with the law, is canceled.

MAD RUSH FOR LAND

A Repetition of the Scenes in Oklahoma Two Years Ago.

MORE SETTLERS THEN LAND.

There Is Room for 3000 People While 15,000 More Are on the Border Awaiting the Opening.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Sept. 22.—Simultaneous with the arrival of the hour of noon, the homeseekers gathered on the border and made a headlong rush over the line into the coveted country and on to the quarter section upon which their eyes had been feasting for some days, and others for weeks and months. The rush was a mad one and was made so by the fact that the number of homeseekers greatly exceeded the number of quarter sections available for settlement. There is room on the lands for about 5000 settlers, allowing 160 acres for each. There were on the border, waiting to claim the available land, fully 15,000 people, so that there were three people for each quarter section. It was no wonder then that the rush was a mad one. Like scenes were never witnessed before except in Oklahoma two years ago.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

An Old Lady Knocked Off a Trestle By a Locomotive.

HEALDSBURG, Cal., Sept. 22.—A fatal accident occurred on a trestle over a small creek near this city yesterday afternoon. As the southbound train rounded a curve just before going on the trestle, a man was seen walking across it with a small child in his arms. The engineer blew the whistle and reversed the engine, and the man ran back and climbed down the embankment. He and the baby escaped injury. A stout woman, who was near the center of the trestle, also heard the whistle, but was too far from the end to escape. The trestle was too short for the train to be stopped before reaching her, and she was struck by the pilot and knocked off the trestle, falling a distance of fifteen feet. The train was stopped and the conductor and a number of passengers ran back to the injured woman but she was so badly injured she died in a few minutes. She was identified as Mrs. Jane Rowland, a widow about 65 years of age, residing in San Francisco. She had been in attendance at the Adventist camp meeting, and was returning to the camp ground from town when the accident occurred.

Farmers' Alliance in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—Marion Cannon, state representative of the farmers' alliance of California, has issued a proclamation to the members, announcing that arrangements have been made with President Polk to deliver a series of lectures in this state, commencing at Sacramento on the evening of October 10. If possible a grand mass meeting will be held at Colusa on October 9.

Falling Off in Imports of Raisins.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The Commercial Bulletin says: "The exports of raisins from Denia thus far have been only 50,000 boxes for America, whereas for a corresponding period last year 468,000 boxes were in transit. It is evident from this that the competition of California is feared, and importers hesitate to send forward any considerable quantity."

Bismarck Will Be There.

BERLIN, Sept. 22.—The report Bismarck did not intend to go to the reichstag is not correct. The prince will be present whenever any measure in which he is interested will be under consideration, and his voice will be heard against any measure to which he is seriously opposed, so much he has himself admitted.

Ravages of the Flames.

MANDAN, S. D., Sept. 22.—The fire which swept over the Sioux reservation, Saturday, proves to have burned everything in the shape of hay, wheat in stacks, and range from Cannon Ball river to Moreau river.

The Famine in Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 22.—Almost all the government officials have voluntarily contributed a portion of their saleries to famine fund. There is public talk of bringing wheat from America to Egypt.

Sailing of the Steamer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—The steamship Willamette Valley sailed from San Francisco at 3 o'clock this afternoon for Yaquina.

Schools Closed by a Hot Wave.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 22.—The school board announces that on account of the excessive heat the city schools will be closed.

It May Create a Panic.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The Advertiser this morning says it is altogether probable that the commercial world will be startled to-day by the announcement of the failure of one of the best known houses in Wall street. An assignment to the assets of the embarrassed firm has already been made but not recorded. A long deal is said to be the cause of the trouble. One other firm, the senior member of which is closely related to a man whose name is known on two continents, will, in all probability, be seriously affected by the sudden tumble of a house supposed to have been built on the impregnable rock of commercial prosperity, and if this second fall takes place there must follow a most extraordinary change in quoted values.

THE REBEL'S VICTORY.

It May Strongly Affect the Place of the Sultan.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The news of the capture of Sana by the rebels in Yemen, says a Constantinople dispatch, is almost a stunning blow to the sultan, who for weeks past has been plunged in anxiety over the situation in Arabia. Western Europeans are hardly capable of appreciating the sultan's feelings on this subject, but to him the fate of Arabia is of more importance even than that of Constantinople. Should he lose control of the holy cities of the Mohammedan faith, he would be divested of all prestige and become an object of contempt and abherrence to his subjects. His anxiety regarding this matter is so strong that it has nearly driven thim insane. Sana is the key to Yemen, and the loss of it is a most overwhelming blow to Turkish supremacy in that rich and fertile province, and may lead to the loss of all Arabia. That country contains emirs who ignore the authority of the porte, and if these should unite against Turkey, the sultan would have a difficult war on his hands. The Turkish troops in Yemen went there without provisions or money, with orders to live on the country. They won some success at first, but probably disheartened by their own condition, they appear to have lost ground. Should Arabia be separated from the porte, the religious passion such an event would excite, in the opinion of Europeans at Constantinople, would imperil the life as well as the throne of the sultan.

Funeral Directors in Session.

PORTLAND, Sept 24.—The fourth annual convention of the Northwest Funeral Directors' Association met at 10 o'clock this morning in Hibernian hall.

The convention will be in session until September 30. It is called with the intention of discussing matters of interest to the members and for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. This morning R. N. Day, of Eugene, Or., was elected president; G. M. Stewart, of Seattle, Wash., first vice-president, and D. B. Kimball, of Dayton, Wash., second vice-president.

To-night all the members and their families attended Marquam Grand opera house.

Murder and Suicide.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Crazed with jealousy and drink Oscar Gunderman, a laborer, this morning, at his home on the North Side, blew out the brains of his wife with a revolver and then ended his own life in the same manner. The couple have been living together unhappily for some time. Because of the husband's cruelty, Mrs. Gunderman had him arrested and held in bonds to keep the peace. This, it is thought, was the cause of the tragedy.

A Tornado in Dakota.

YARRY, S. D., Sept. 22.—News has just reached here that a tornado struck the northern part of Duel county, S. D., and passed into Minnesota, unroofing buildings, blowing down barns, and scattering grain stacks.

Fire in a Feed Stable.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—A grain and feed establishment on the West Side burned last night and twenty horses stabled in the basement perished in the flames. The loss is estimated at $20,000.

Married at His Expense.

Texas Siftings.

A shabby looking tramp was in the habit of calling at the office of a local lawyer and receiving a small sum on account of former acquaintance. Last week the mendicant called as usual, but the lawyer said:

"I can't assist you any longer, as I've got a wife now, and need all the money I can lay my hands on."

"Well, now, that's coming it a little too strong. Here you actually go and get married at my expense," responded the indignant tramp.

A Chart Goes With This.

"Hello, Blobbs! I heard you were going into bankruptcy."

"Rubbish! Never was sounder in my life. Who told you?"

"Sam Simpkins. He said you got your assignees together the other day at the beach."

"Oh Sam is such a joker. He spoke of the day I took a donkey ride, I suppose. My knees grasped the sides of the ass, as I suppose your brain does the witticism."
