OREGON BAPTIST CONVENTION.

Delegates From All Parts of the State—The First Day's Proceedings.

There was a good attendance at the opening of the Oregon Baptist State Convention at 1:30 yesterday afternoon, in the Baptist church, where Rev. E. McKillop, of McMinnville, in the chair. After devotional exercises, a committee on enrollment was appointed, and then an address of welcome was delivered by Rev. Geo. W. Hill, pastor of the Baptist church of Albany, in which he cordially welcomed the various delegates to Albany and to the homes and hearts of the members of this and other Christian churches. He hoped these deliberations would be profitable spiritually, and that the result of the visit of these delegates would produce a great revival of religion in all the churches of the city. This address was responded to in some very felicitous remarks by Rev. R. McKillop, returning thanks on behalf of the delegates present for this hearty welcome. The following officers were elected: D. C. Latourette, of Oregon City, president; Rev. Geo. T. Ellis, of Baker City, vice president; Rev. C. A. Wooddy, of Mt. Tabor, recording secretary; Rev. C. M. Morgan, of Harrisburg, corresponding secretary; N. J. Biagen, of Portland, treasurer. The subject of home missions was then taken up and a report on the topic, prepared by Mrs. C. W. Hill, vice president of the Women's Baptist Home Mission Society for Oregon, in the absence of that lady by sickness, was read by Mrs. James Failing. The plan of organization of the women for home mission work in connection with the board at Chicago, provided for a vice president for the state, an associational director in each association and a circle in every church. The past year has been one of organization and adjustment to new relations. So far only two active associational directors have been found, twenty-four circles are in operation. The efficient services of Miss Alice Voss are recognized. She came from the Women's Training School at Chicago under appointment of the parent society, which provides for her salary and traveling expenses, thus allowing all monies raised to be applied directly to the home field. Addresses on this work were made by Miss Alice Voss, Mrs. A. P. Mead and Miss Emma Miller, missionary for the state of Washington. The latter brought the greetings of the society across the Columbia river. Miss Addie Williams, of the Oak Creek church, was introduced as a young lady who has been taken up by the ladies for missionary work in Oregon after she shall take a course in the Chicago training school. She favored the convention with a song which was well rendered. Pending reports of committees, several clergymen who have moved into the state since the last state convention were introduced and made remarks, giving their reasons for locating here and their plans and purposes in work for the cause of Christ in their several fields of labor. They are as follows: Rev. Gilman Parker, of Oregon City; G. W. Donnell of Oakland, Oregon; S. J. Nunn of Albina; J. T. Moore of Elgin; L. D. Goodwin of Astoria; F. E. Leichter of German church, Salem; C. R. LaMar of Lebanon. Mr. N. J. Biagen, of Portland, treasurer of the convention presented his annual report, showing receipts from all sources to be $119,414, disbursements $328,333, leaving a balance in the treasury of $119,711,000 of which is in the form of permanent investment. There is also a balance in the hands of the New York board in favor of this convention of between $300 and $400. At the request of the convention Mr. Biagen presented the following statement as to the contribution for Home Missions: Of the 90 Baptist churches of Oregon three have contributed over $2 per member; seven between $1 and $2; five from 75 cents to $1; six 50 to 75 cents; six 25 to 50 cents; four 10 to 25 cents; six 5 to 10 cents; six under 5 cents; and 39 contributed nothing. The average per member of contributing churches is 74 cents. The average on the total membership of the state 50 cents. Rev. Clay M. Hill, the corresponding secretary, presented the report of the board of managers, showing the work of the board for the year to have been satisfactory and the church organizations in Oregon to be in a thriving condition. In the evening an address on "Woman's Work," was delivered by Miss Alice Voss; an address "Retrospect and Prospect," by Rev. T. G. Brownson, President of the McMinnville college; and the subject of "Home Missions in Oregon," as seen by a new man on the coast, was discussed by Rev. Gilman Parker. The convention then adjourned until to-day. PROGRAMME FOR TO-DAY. 9 a. m. Meeting of board of managers and committees. 10 a. m. Denominational paper report by Dr. Gordon; address by Robert Whitaker. 11 a. m. Annual sermon by Chaplain C. C. Bateman. The afternoon will be given to discussion of Sunday school work by E. G. Wheeler and others. In the evening a platform educational meeting will be held, to be addressed by Woody, Donnel and Hill. Men of means at Jacksonville are discussing a project for sinking a number of artesian wells in that portion of lower Rogue River valley known as the desert. If flowing wells can be obtained irrigation would be cheaper than by means of a long system of surface canals from the upper river.

Hendriksen. For the past few days it has been a watch without hope, looking for the final summons. Yesterday morning it came, and she passed peacefully away at the age of 61 years 8 months and 15 days. Mrs. Hendriksen's maiden name was Sara Jackson, and she was born at Rosville, Ind., Jan. 29, 1827, moved with her parents to Iowa in 1840, and from there to Oregon in 1852, making Linn county her home since then. She was married in 1848 to W. F. Hendriksen who survives her. A Christian lady a true and loving mother, a cherished and cherishing wife, and a kind and pleasant neighbor, she will be truly mourned and greatly missed. The funeral will be from the family residence on Broadway and 6th streets at half past two o'clock to-day.

Arrested for Abduction.

A young man named Mel Thompson, son of a merchant of Monroe, was on the Eugene local train yesterday under arrest in charge of Deputy Sheriff Croner on a charge of abduction. He had started to Portland with Miss Edna Smith of Junction, a young girl aged 16. She got off at Woodburn by mistake, and the young man went on to Portland before he missed her. On returning to Woodburn after her he was arrested. The girl was also taken in custody and returned to her home. Something Nice in Cloaks. I have just received a large line of children and misses cloaks and misses jackets, sent me on approval. These cloaks vary in size from those for two year old children to those for misses of sixteen and in price from $3.50 to $20. If you wish to buy a wrap for a child or miss, please call at once and have your selection of the entire line. I must return by Friday all cloaks and jackets not selected for sale or stock. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

NEW TO-DAY.

QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO. There set in the first quarter of a century ago in the county of Oregon, a man who has since become a prominent and influential citizen in the county. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pains in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any temporary relief. The pains in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not rest without the use of a cane. Hearing, through a friend, of the wonderful cures effected by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before it had half the contents of the box the pains in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to any friend. I would not be without it for any thing."
