COL HOGG ARRIVES

ON SALE. THE DAILY HERALD will be on sale each morning at H. J. Jones' book store, where it can be procured at 5 cents per copy.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Cloaks at the Ladies Bazaar. Cranberries at C. E. Brownell's. Meals at the Delmonico 25 cents. The autumn leaves are falling. Go to the Delmonico for first class meals. Dr. H. A. Davis, of Harrisburg, is in the city. Meals at all hours at the Diamond Chop House. When in town call at the Delmonico for your meals. Fresh oysters in any style at the Diamond Chop House. Fresh comb honey, Linn county production, at Parker Bros. Ladies and childrens combination suits at the Ladies Bazaar. Mr. J. A. Gross has returned from a trip to Southern California. Mayor J. L. Cowan and wife are visiting the Portland Exposition. Beautiful gold watches in every imaginable design at Will & Stark's. Try our chow chow now on sale in quantities to suit at C. E. Brownell's. Cloaks, cloaks, cloaks, for infants, children and ladies at the Ladies Bazaar. Rev. H. A. Shorey will preach at the Congregational church on Sunday, both morning and evening. Julia Gradwohl invites you to call and see his beautiful lamps, the finest in the Willamette Valley. Oregon grapes at 75 cents per bushel. Now is the time to make jelly. Leave your order at Hyde's Market. We also have sweet cider. Albany is to have a dramatic company who will place several plays on the boards this winter. Their first effort will be Esmeralda. Mrs. L. E. Blain, Mrs. T. J. Wilson and Mrs. Archie Hamner went to Halsey yesterday to attend the W. C. T. U. county convention. Mrs. C. O. Lee has returned from a trip to Portland. She was accompanied by her son, Osborne Davy, who will remain here for a few days. You can save money by going at once to Klein Bro.'s shoe store and purchasing a pair of Oxford ties. The price has been reduced to close them out. The ten year old son of John Cirkles is lying very low at the home of his parents in this city, with typhoid fever with slight hopes of his recovery. Mr. John P. Fay, attorney of Seattle, is in the city in the interest of the bondholders in the Oregon Pacific suit. He is here collecting data for the trial. Parties intending to go East should secure the tickets over the popular Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line route. Call and see Curran & Monteith for tickets. The scow for the pile-driver for the bridge work has arrived, and another pile-driver will be here in a few days to rush forward the work on the pier as rapidly as possible. The Christian Endeavor Society of Oregon will meet in this city on Friday Oct. 23, and continue over Sunday. The meetings will be held in the Presbyterian church. To-day (Saturday) will be the last day of the cloak and jacket sale at Simpson's. Ladies should bear this in mind and make their purchases while this opportunity lasts. Prof. W. H. Lee and others will speak at the meeting for men tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, in the W. C. T. U. hall, upon the subject of "Personal Sacrifice." All are cordially invited. Attention is directed to the new ad. of Julia Gradwohl on our first page to-day. His stock for the fall and winter season is complete and shoppers looking for fine glassware, nice dishes, lamps, fancy goods or choice family groceries, will do well to call at his store. He has a mammoth stock and sells at very low prices. "Frisco" Johnny Williams dropped in on us last evening and looked the same old Johnny, with his smiling face bedecked with diamonds and lead pencils. He claims to be the happiest man on earth, being in advance of one of the "greatest shows on earth," the Little Lord Fauntleroy Co., and says the Albany public will thank him for bringing, for the first time in his life, an A. No. 1 company like this.

HE BRINGS A PARTY AND ALL GO TO CORVALLIS.

It is believed that the Men Will Be Paid Without Further Delay - Railroad Gossip.

Col. T. E. Hogg, president and receiver of the Oregon Pacific railroad, arrived last night from New York on the Southern Pacific overland train. He was accompanied by a party of other New York railroad men, presumably bondholders of the road. A special train was in waiting and conveyed the party at once to Corvallis. Those who have watched the proceedings of the Oregon Pacific suits, are confident that the employees will be paid and that Col. Hogg will endeavor to retain the receivership of the road. They also believe that a straightening out of the company's affairs and a reorganization of the company, on a basis calculated to carry on the eastward construction of the road, will be effected at no distant day. The road has been earning money, and is too valuable property to remain in its present condition much longer.

Something About Ourselves.

A poorly informed newspaper of Portland publishes an article, which was copied by the Albany Democrat, making the astonishing statement that "the controlling stock of the Albany Daily Herald is owned by the Oregonian," as well as other Oregon newspapers. There is no truth whatever in the assertion, as far as the HERALD is concerned. In the first place the HERALD is not run by a stock company. It is owned by its publishers and published by its owner. It is paid for by its subscribers, and any corporation or company, and at all times discusses questions affecting the interest of the public in a fearless, fair and legitimate way. There are a good many little newspapers whose editors make a great glibness about things of which they are perfectly ignorant. Because the Oregonian is a great newspaper they imagine it wants to gobble up every other successful and influential newspaper in Oregon, but this is silly, mistaken idea, and as the HERALD is concerned, needs no correction. The public knows the owners, and are familiar with the fact that it is perfectly independent in its business management, as well as in its editorial utterances.

Scio's Railroad.

Scio now has railroad connection with the outside world. On Wednesday Mr. Goins received the engine from the S. P. company, his engineer taking charge of it in the evening and running it from the junction down to the mill. The present arrangement is to run trains only to West Scio, but the Scio Press hears that the moving of the depot from West Scio to Shelburn is being contemplated by the S. P. company, and when that is done of course the train will run to that point, making connection with the Oregon Pacific as well. Mr. Goins deserves the patronage of the public in this new undertaking.

Held to Answer.

David West, of Peoria, was arrested in this city yesterday on a charge of attempting to shoot A. L. Cannon of that place, with a who-gone Mr. Cannon alleged that West had waylaid him the previous evening as he was driving home in a buggy, and pointed a shot gun at him and threatened to shoot him but refrained from doing so, and threatened that if he proceeded to arrest him he would kill him. West had rented some land from Cannon and the men had a dispute over the settlement of their accounts, which led to the trouble. West was arraigned in Justice Humphrey's court and held under $500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury.

At Last!

Sunshine will come again on the visit, for the first and last time, in Albany, of the Little Lord Fauntleroy Company, on Wednesday evening next, October 21st, introducing the greatest of little lords, Georgie Cooper, a child of 7 years, who earns $125 per week, will be produced. The original Little Lord Fauntleroy, supported by a company of eastern players direct from New York. Pronounced a hit by the press, preached from the pulpit, patronized by the public, don't forget to secure your reserved seats at Will & Link's music store.

The Price Agreed Upon.

The city has purchased of D. B. Monteith the property through which the extension of Calapooia street runs at the bridge site for $750. There was a difference of opinion as to the value of the ground. The city offered $500 for the land to be vacated for the street, but Mr. Monteith thought it was worth more. A board of arbitrators, consisting of J. J. Dubrille and E. W. Longdon met by agreement yesterday and fixed the sum to be paid at $750. This was much more sensible for both parties than to go to law over it.

Leg Broken While Wrestling.

LEBANON, Oct. 16.—Last night while wrestling in Guy's saloon Christian Hansen had the misfortune to have his leg broken just above the ankle. He is now at the St. Charles hotel resting easy. He says there would be no kick coming if they had broken his neck, but thinks it was tough business to break his leg.

Ladies call early and make your selections in millinery while the assortment is complete. The largest and best line of hats for Misses and children ever carried before at the Ladies Bazaar.

OREGON BAPTIST CONVENTION.

The Closing Day—A Profitable Three Day's Session.

The Baptist State Convention closed last evening after a profitable three day's session. The convention was called to order at 9:15 by Rev. G. T. Ellis, and prayer offered by Rev. G. Parker. Rev. Robert Whitaker, from the board of managers offered an amendment to the constitution which by the vote of 100 over for one year. It provides that at each annual meeting of the convention the board of managers shall elect a committee of nine, which committee shall be known as the Oregon Baptist Ministerial Bureau. The purpose of this bureau shall be to assist pastors of Baptist churches in Oregon in the settlement of pastors.

NOTES FROM THE FRONT.

HALSTEAD, Oct. 14, 1891. Mr. Mart Miller and son returned home to-day from Halsey where Mr. Miller had his son for his health. Rain setting in made it to damp to camp out any longer. John Leedy will be ready for shipping lumber from Minto station on the O. R. R., in about ten days. The bridge is all completed. Mr. Leedy is on his way to Corvallis to see the company about putting down rails, as the grade is really for it.

Mrs. E. H. Dunham, of Coe, came down on to-day's train to visit her daughter, a school teacher at Chitwood.

Die! at Rock Creek, the 18 year old daughter and the two weeks old baby of Postmaster Robertson of Rock Creek.

Henry Susens living one and a half mile east of Halsey, while getting breakfast Oct. 14, had his door opened, and a bear came and stuck his head in at the door. Henry jumped for his rifle and with one shot killed him. The hide will be on exhibition at Deyou & Froy at a gun store at Albany.

It is reported that certain parties living not more than forty miles east of Halsey, on the O. P. R. R., went up on the mountain to bring down some tools, and found Mr. Comley's cabin broken open by a bear, windows torn out, stove broken down, stove pipe partly chewed up, bacon all eaten up, bed torn to pieces and house partly unroofed, also other cabins in the vicinity demoralized and all the bacon gone. Mr. Comley had better get the deputy sheriff and look to the mountains and have Mr. Bear arrested to keep him from doing further damage, as court will be in session next week, and the grand jury may want some bear meat.

Height of Cruelty.

Nervous women seldom receive the sympathy they deserve. While often the picture of health, they are constantly ailing. To with hold sympathy from these unfortunate is the height of cruelty. They have a weak heart, causing shortness of breath, fainting, pain in side, weakness, hiccups, spells, and finally swelling of ankles, oppression, choking, smothering and dropsy. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is just the thing for them. For their nervousness, headache, weakness, etc., his Restorative Nervine is unequalled. Fine treatise on "Heart and Nervous Diseases" and marvelous testimonials free and guaranteed by Standard & Cutler.

Notice to the Ladies.

My cloaks have now arrived and I am enabled to give the ladies of Albany a bargain in fall and winter cloaks. I will have at my store a sample of every style of sealotee and cloth cloak or jacket made by one of the largest Eastern manufacturers. They comprise all the novelties of the season. These goods will be in the store for two days only and will be sold at wholesale prices. Call early and secure the best selection.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Opened with prayer by Rev. E. G. Wheeler. The executive committee was authorized to elect a delegate from this convention to attend the next meeting of the National Educational Society.

Rev. E. G. Wheeler was elected as a delegate to the American Baptist Publication Society.

Rev. C. A. Wooddy was chosen as the delegate to the American Baptist Home Mission Society. Rev. L. T. Bush was selected representative to the Missionary Union.

The board of managers recommended an amendment to the constitution enlarging that board by the addition of six more members. Laid over, under the rules, for one year.

Rev. C. A. Wooddy from the committee on resolutions presented the following, which were adopted: Resolved, That we rejoice in the fact that for the first time in many years we close the year free from debt and with a balance in the treasury. We thank the American Baptist Home Mission Society for its liberality in the past; and the addition of $500 to the appropriation to our field, making $5000 from the treasury of this society, and we pledge this convention to raise $1000 more on this field.

Resolved, That the Baptists of Oregon are greatly indebted to the American Baptist Publication Society for such exceptional work as we have in their missionaries, and for the Sunday schools and Young Peoples societies organized, and excellent institutes held.

Resolved, that we heartily cooperate with all legitimate agencies for the suppression of the liquor traffic, and especially would we aid the W. C. T. U. in their work.

Resolved, that we return to the Southern Pacific and Northern Pacific railroads our thanks for favors received in granting special rates to our delegates. The next hour was devoted to the work of the foreign mission society; scripture reading by Mrs. G. Parker, of Oregon City; prayer by Mrs. Mead, of Mt. Tab. r. Miss Abbie Williams spoke earnestly on the subject; Miss C. C. Casto read reports of the secretary of the young peoples society. Mrs. Dr. Jessup read the report of the retiring treasurer, Mrs. Henry Warren. The report of the committee on resolutions was read by Mrs. R. Whitaker. Mrs. Geo. W. Hill gave an address in relation to the foreign field. Rev. J. Sunderland made an address in behalf of the home workers and closed with a charge to Miss Ida Skinner who is soon to leave to go as missionary to the Telegies in India. It was a most earnest and feeling address and when it was responded to by Miss Skinner, her earnest and touching words left not a dry eye in the house.

The report of the committee on foreign missions was made by Rev. T. G. Brownson. Rev. J. Sunderland delivered an address on foreign missions.

The convention closed in the evening with a platform meeting on educational topics and young people's work. Addresses were delivered by Rev. G. T. Ellis, Rev. L. D. Goodwin, Rev. J. C. Read and others.
