Rehuman control.

THE tendency of men to go wrong finds a pretty vivid illustration in the case of Mr. Hoey, of the Adams Express Company. For so many years has he been the trusted and honored president of that concern, that the announcement of his peculation came like thunder from a clear sky, bringing consternation to everybody interested. It appears that he disposed of all of his stock in the company before he started into the project of investing funds of the company in property to the amount of $700,000, more than its value and sharing the profits with other interested parties. Homesty is not only the best but it is the only policy that can prevail. All other meth odscome to grief soener or later.

THE weary wanderings of a Kansas woman, and her children, after the desertion of the husband and father caused by the burning, by a prairie fire, of their home and property, leaving them only the bare 89 acre farm and one horse and a shack of a wagon, SPECIFICS was pathetic in the extreme. She started on the trail of her husband and followed all the way from Kansas to Buffalo, New York. That husband and father should be caught and staked out, and made to care for those dependent upon him.

A DISPATCH from Mour t Sterling, Kentucky, relating that the two Howard brothers, who were the leaders of a band of White caps, had been killed by a man named Cuppe, upon whom they were about to practice some of their inhuman punishments on the pretense of morality preserving, will be received with satisfaction all over the country. The poltroons who hide behind a white mask to perform their revengeful acts under the guise of correcting other peoples faults, deserve no better ending than the one there men

THE "ruinous high prices" predicted of the McKinley bill are not discernable to the naked eye in Oregon, Not for many yeas would a bushel of wheat purchase so much in the way of clothing or other merchandise as now, while of sugar it is useless to say that it is within the reach of the most lowly. That "horrid" republican bill was not such a bad thing after all. Its author will doubtless be elected in Ohio.
