THE OREGON PACIFIC

Receiver Hogg Says He "Cannot Pay the Employees."

CASE CONTINUED UNTIL FRIDAY.

Judge Pipes "Stands In" With Receiver Hogg and Refuses to Remove Him and Gives More Time.

Special to the Herald.

CORVALLIS, Oct. 20.—The suit of the employees of the Oregon Pacific railroad company against Col. T. E. Hogg, receiver, for the payment of delinquent wages, came up before Judge Pipes at 1 o'clock today. The report of the receiver was filed and the court adjourned until 3 p. m. to hear the report. When court reconvened the report was read, and Receiver Hogg stated his inability to raise the money to pay the employees, whereupon a representative of the Blair faction of the New York bondholders arose and made a statement to the court that if the court would remove Col. Hogg and appoint a suitable man as receiver, whom he would name, he himself would advance sufficient funds to pay all claims for labor and operating expenses of the road now due.

THE ROAD TO BE OPENED SOON.

After argument by the attorneys Judge Pipes ordered that the case be continued until Friday, Oct. 25, at which time the receiver shall have to pay the men, and if he still refuses that the road shall be ordered sold as soon as possible according to law, which would be within four or six weeks, the money arising from the sale to be applied first to the payment of the men.

The above dispatch contains about what the public fear Judge Pipes would do. Receiver Hogg was cited to appear and show cause why he should not be removed as receiver because of his refusal to pay the employees. The col. seems to have made this showing to the satisfaction of the court, and instead of removing him and appointing a man who would pay the men, he has a plan postponed to the matter. It seems as though that after this long delay in the payment of the men the money justly due them that Judge Pipes did not promptly order the removal of Receiver Hogg. The case, however, is drawing to a terminus, and some re-organization of the road and the payment of the men must be made soon. The eastern bondholders, as shown by the Herald's dispatches yesterday morning, are already formulating a plan for this object, and there is little doubt that if they secure construction of the road, the work of construction will be speedily resumed.

Little Lord Fauntleroy To-Night.

Read what S. F. Examiner says about Little Lord Fauntleroy. Notwithstanding the rain which fell during the early portion of last evening, the California theatre was comfortably filled with a very appreciative audience to greet George Cooper in his first appearance before a San Francisco audience. To begin, the play itself is a very affecting one, taken from the charming story by Mrs. Hodgson Burnett. All the characters of the play were real personages to the audience, and were sympathized with, laughed at or hated accordingly. But the center of interest was the Little Lord. We have seen infant prodigies without number and the 'prodigious' part was always in sight. Little George Cooper was a Celtic Errol last evening, and was as much loved by the audience as he was by "dearest" or the old Earl. Every look, action or gesture of the child was art, because it was nature. The training of a good mother was evident in every movement of the child, and the off-hand yet considerate independence of the little American lord was refreshing. Don't fail to see the Little Lord Wednesday evening Oct. 21st.

Philharmonic Society.

The charter members of the Philharmonic Society held a meeting last evening and fully organized on a solid financial footing. They have leased, for one year, an elegant suite of rooms in the Oregon Bank building which will be furnished at once. The object of this society is to furnish a place for the young men of this city to pass their leisure hours in reading, music and other pastimes, the rooms to be open to members at all times. All persons of good moral character will be allowed to join this society.

Located at Waterloo.

The California Hosiery Co., who wanted to remove their factory to Albany, is being located at Waterloo. About $50,000 worth of machinery is being removed and stored there to be put in operation next season. It will be an extensive factory and employ between 50 and 100 hands.

Driving Ahead.

The work upon the bridge is moving on in a satisfactory manner. The long rows of piling have been sawed off and capped and yesterday the work was commenced upon the first pier.

Could Not Be Found.

The deputy sheriff sent out after the man David West, who was held on the complaint of Tom Cannon returned, without him. Neither north, east nor south could West be found.

Religious Meeting.

There will be meetings held at the Episcopal Church on this evening at 7:30, Thursday morning at 11 o'clock and Thursday evening at 7:30. Bishop Morris and other leading divines will be present.

ACROSS THE PRAIRIE.

The "Herald's" Traveling Correspondent Visits the Thriving Towns of Linn.

LEBANON, Oct. 19, 1891.

Leaving Albany in an early direction taking the road leading toward Knox Butte, one passes some very nice farms, which are in a high state of cultivation. I saw several fields of summer-fallow that had been sown this fall in which the wheat was already three inches high and finer grain it has never been my lot to behold.

School is in progress at the Knox Butte school house with a goodly number of scholars in attendance. At Sanderson's bridge is as fine a young peach orchard as any one could wish to see, containing about ten acres of thirty young trees. If the owner of that orchard cannot raise fine fruit there is no use for any one else to try.

The rich alluvial deposits of the Santiam bottom are capable of producing the finest fruit and vegetables and cereals in the world. These lands are being cut up into fruit and garden farms of twenty acres and upwards.

It would add two hundred field to the value of most of the large farms in this county, if they were cut up into sixty acre tracts and less, for a perfect state of cultivation cannot be obtained where land is tilled in such large bodies. But it seems to be a ruling passion among a great many of the old timers to make a big show if not a big gain. Too much like trying to bore a two inch hole with an inch and a quarter auger. Some of the farms in the Santiam country contain as much as two thousand acres.

IN SCIO.

We come at length to the city of Scio, which is a little place of about five hundred inhabitants, and containing several manufacturing industries. Among them being a large roller flouring mill, the property of Mr. Ed. Goin's firm of Lyon, Lanning & Co. of Albany.

Mr. Goin's is one of the progressive men of the county. The engine for the Scio branch railroad arrived last Wednesday and the reconstructing and ballasting of the track is being rapidly pushed to completion. When this is done it will add considerably to the value of city property. Several dwellings are in course of construction. Rambo's new brick is nearing completion and will be a handsome structure.

LEBANON.

Here we find various industries in active operation.

Work on the Lebanon canal is being pushed vigorously.

The door to the vault in the new bank arrived last week. The bank building is going to be the most ornamental structure in town.

Dr. Lamberson's building is nearing completion.

W. L. Jackson is erecting a nice residence, which looks rather suspicious to say the least.

Everybody who attended the sale of blooded horses at McKnight Bros farm near Tallmar last Saturday. Twenty-six head were sold at an average price of fifty dollars each, which was much less than the intrinsic value of the stock. Some very fine animals were disposed of. Among them being the offspring of Edward Everett, and other well known stallions owned by McKnight Bros. A jersey cow and bull were also sold at good figures.

About five hundred people were present among them being not a few ladies. A lunch counter was on the ground and was well patronized.

The band discoursed some fine music for the entertainment of the crowd.

After the sales were concluded the crowd proceeded to the race course to view the trials of speed. Notwithstanding the recent heavy rains the track was in fine condition.

For the mile and repeat trotting races there were four entries, viz: Charley Burkhardt, Mark Hulbert, Len Wheeler, Clarence Edwards.

The horses came in the first heat in the following order: Charley Burkhardt, first; Clarence Edwards, second; Mark Hulbert, third; Len Wheeler, fourth. Time 3:15 1/2.

The horses were rubbed down between heats and John Schmeer exercised Humpty on the track while we waited. Geo. McKnight also brought out a two-year-old flyer and sent her around the track in great shape. The McKnight boys have some of the finest trotters in the state.

The second heat stood as follows: Charley Burkhardt, first; Clarence Edwards, second; Mark Hulbert, third; Len Wheeler, fourth. Time 3:11 1/2.

After the trotting was concluded there was a three hundred yard running race between Harve McCann's roan mare and Geo. Fowler's bay horse. The roan ran easily, considerable money changed hands on the races.

THE SANTIAM SURVEY.

One of the Eminent Surveyors has Returned, but the Other has Not.

Considerable has been said by the newspapers about the bungling work of the public survey up the Santiam, which was exposed some time ago by the Herald, and an effort is being made by interested parties to cover up some of the worst features of a very bad job of surveying. A correspondent writing from Galesville to the Salem Statesman says: "I see it published in the papers that the surveyors have stopped work. It is a mistake. Mr. Bushey went to Portland to see the surveyor general about a mistake that another contractor had made previously in running the township lines. He has returned and is at work. He will continue to sectionize until about a month later. The township lines in range 5 were all arched and in range 4 nothing was accomplished. Mr. Campbell abandoned his contract and went home. Mr. Bushey was sent back by Surveyor General Byars to correct the errors in the survey of range 5, but the summer has been wasted, and it is doubtful if it can be finished this year. In the other township, range 4, which was the first contract let and being a part of the old unfinished work, should have been surveyed first, nothing has been done.

These lands ought to be opened for settlement, and if the surveyors could not do the work they should have not undertaken it. They certainly were familiar with the topography of the country and knew what the work was as well as the price for it. It is unfair to the settlers to fritter away the time and delay the survey from year to year.

In range 4 the township boundaries were run years ago, and competent surveyors ought to have been able to retrace the lines, and make the cross-sectioning in much less time than has been wasted in this survey during the summer.

Less than $100,000 of abandoned work remains in statu quo, and will probably remain so until next year, unless the recent Mr. Campbell is hunted up and sent back by Surveyor General Byars, or some one else who knows more about surveying.

Call and see the brilliant display of libraries at C. E. Brownell's. Not one kept over from last year but all this year's styles and will be sold at the lowest living prices.

Baby cried, Mother sighed, Doctor prescribed: Castoria!

Dr. Price gives larger and fuller cans than those of any other Baking Powder manufacturer. Above cut represents the comparative size of one pound can each "Dr. Price's," Royal" and "Taylor's One Spoon." These cans were set side by side, then photographed down in exact proportions to admit the plate in this space. Ask your grocer to set a one pound can of any other brand alongside 1 lb. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, and observe the difference, as illustrated above.

Adulterated powders may usually be detected by their heavier bulk, as shown by the small cans, and these scantily filled, often containing a circular to help fill out the cans. It is a singular fact that many of the ammonia and alum baking powders are advertised as "Absolutely Pure." All official examinations prove that it would be safe to reject all powders labeled absolutely pure.

The economy in using Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder does not consist alone in the fact that much larger and fuller cans are given, but Dr. Price's is a stronger, purer and more wholesome baking powder than any other known. Does better work, and goes farther, hence more economical in every way.

What woman would use an ammonia or alum baking powder if she knew it? Such powders not only undermine the health, but ammonia gives to the complexion a sallow and blotched appearance.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from ammonia, alum, lime, or any other adulterant. The purity of this ideal powder has never been questioned. Refuse all substitutes—they may conceal ammonia or alum.

CASTORIA. I have suffered from the use of a case, bearing through a friend, of the wonderful cure effected by Oregon Kidney Tea. I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before using half the contents of the box the pains in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for any thing. Oregon Kidney Tea cures headache, inflammation of urine, brick dust sediment, burn in or painful sensation while urinating, and all affections of the kidney or urinary organs of either sex.
