Nelson of Minnesota, who is interested in some valuable mining interests in the Bohemia district, was in the city yesterday. Parties intending to go East should secure their tickets over the popular Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line route. Call and see Curran & Monteith for tickets. An Explanation. In the circuit court docket is a case, the title of which conveys a wrong impression. It is a suit to annul the assignment of G. W. Smith, and Mr. J. W. Cusick, who is simply assignee, is put down in the title as one of the defendants. The idea of Mr. Cusick, who is one of the wealthy men of Albany, being accused of making an assignment strikes his friends as rather funny, and he has already heard from some of them to explain the matter. It is hardly necessary to explain that Mr. Cusick has not made an assignment. Tobacco to Minors. Recently a teacher in this city punished a pupil for smoking cigarettes on the school premises. Someone violated the law in furnishing the child with the cigarettes. That this law may not be violated hereafter, we publish a part of it: "It shall be unlawful to sell, barter, trade, give, or in any manner furnish to any minor, under the age of eighteen years, any tobacco, cigars, or cigarettes in any form, or any compound in which tobacco forms a component part." This seems to hit cubans, adulterated with tobacco, a severe blow. To Those Who Have Seen the "Star in the East." There will be a stated meeting of Hazzillai Chapter O. of E. S. held in the Masonic Temple on Friday evening Oct. 23rd, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. Full attendance is desired as business of importance will come before the meeting. All who wish to be inducted into the mysteries of the E. S. will please file their petitions with D. P. Mason on or before the above date. And you will never be happy unless you unite your destinies with us. By order of the Worthy Master. Mrs. D. C. SCHREIBER. Leg Broken. On Tuesday while D. Leeper was rolling logs at his farm about four miles from this city in Benton county, his left leg was caught beneath a rolling log, breaking both bones below the knee. Dr. J. L. Hill of this city was sent for. He set the broken limb, and the patient is doing well.

SHOOTING AT LOWER SODA.

A Man Named Atkinson Shot in the Leg by Wm. McKinnon.

Late last evening a man named Atkinson who runs a boarding house at Lower Soda, came to this city and applied to Dr. Davis to have a wound in the leg dressed. He said that he had been shot in an altercation with Wm. McKinnon, well known in this city. His story is that he was passing Mr. McKinnon's place on Tuesday morning, when the latter came out of his house and hailed him. He was driving in a horse-drawn wagon, and when he stopped, Mr. McKinnon asked him what he threatened to do with his (McKinnon's) boy. Atkinson said that he had not threatened to do so. The other said that his boy told him he had when he stopped. Mr. McKinnon then drew a .38 caliber revolver and fired at him, the shot taking effect in the left leg, just above the ankle. He had remained in the wagon, and when he shot, he drove away at a rapid pace. Atkinson came at once to this city for treatment, and says he will swear out a warrant this morning for the arrest of Mr. McKinnon.

W. C. T. U. ELECTION.

The Albany W. C. T. U., was never in a more prosperous condition than at present, both as regards its membership and its finances. Composed of representatives from the different churches, this society is an illustration of the oneness of the Christian spirit. These women, pledged to battle for the right, talk over the best plans of work and stimulate each other to hold on until victory crowns their efforts. New members are received at almost every meeting. Last meeting there were three from the M. E. church and one from the Christian church received. The election of officers was completed at last meeting for the ensuing year which are as follows: President, Mrs. E. F. Sox; Recording Secretary, Mrs. S. A. McAllister; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. M. J. Townsend; Treasurer, Mrs. J. Althouse; Vice Presidents are: Mrs. Sears, First Presbyterian church; Mrs. M. M. Blain, Central Presbyterian church; Mrs. Hearst, Congregational; Mrs. C. H. M. E. church South; Mrs. Grimmer, Evangelical church; Mrs. J. L. Hill, Baptist church. Delegates from the Union attended the county convention of the W. C. T. U. last week at Hal sey. We are glad to learn it was a successful meeting, nearly all of the unions in the county being represented. The county Union is now organized, and the following officers elected: President Mrs. M. M. Blain, Albany; Vice President Mrs. Grover, Brownsville; Secretary Mrs. Archie Hammer, Albany.

Arrested for Libel.

A warrant was sworn out before D. Carlile, J. P., in Corvallis last Saturday, by T. R. Stratford, city marshal, accusing B. P. Watson, proprietor of the Portland Sunday Mercury, of criminal libel in publishing an article defamatory to his character about two weeks ago. The sheriff armed with a warrant proceeded to Portland, where the said Watson was taken under his charge and taken to Corvallis. He was arraigned and waived examination and was placed under $500 bonds to appear at the next session of the circuit court. The Corvallis Times suggests that the charges may be proven true.

For an Annual Fair.

The fair grounds adjoining this city should be improved and an annual fair and races inaugurated. Linn county possesses some of the finest horses in the state, and they should be exhibited to the public along with the agricultural products of one of the richest portions of Oregon. An annual fair would be a profitable thing to Albany and the country as well. This matter should be looked after with preparation to begin in time for a fair next year. It need not necessarily be an exclusive county fair. The bridge will then be completed, and Benton and adjoining counties could be invited to join in making a grand display and contesting in the races.

Not a Candidate.

A correspondent in the Corvallis Times, signed "Democrat," says: "Hon. J. P. Galbraith, of Albany, is prominently mentioned as a strong democratic candidate for Congress. I have known Mr. Galbraith for a long time and can vouch for him being a good lawyer and business man and has proven himself a very efficient, honest officer in various positions that he has been placed in by the people of his country and being closely identified with the G. A. R. in interests in this state would make a strong race. I second the suggestion." Mr. Galbraith informs the Herald that he will not be a candidate for congress.

At the Opera House.

A large audience was present last evening to witness the performance of Little Lord Fauntleroy. The little girl of Georgie Cooper, a performance of 7 years, was remarkable at the usual prettiest of little lords. Some clever acting was exhibited by the other members of the company, and the audience was delighted with the play.

THE UNITED PRESBYTERIANS.

Proceedings of the Annual Presbytery Now in Session in This City.

The Presbytery of Oregon began its regular business meetings yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. The business of the forenoon was chiefly of a routine character. The moderator was absent and Rev. A. F. Kirkpatrick, of Tacoma, was called on to wield the gavel. Rev. J. A. Speer was received from the Presbytery of Concordia, Kansas. Mr. Speer is soon to begin labors among the Indians of the Warm Springs reservation. Rev. James Alter is now the only missionary on the reservation. He has a congregation of some ninety members. Mr. Speer will begin work in a separate district of the reservation. In the afternoon the Presbytery devoted itself to a conference on Sabbath school work. R. V. A. M. Acheson, president. The conference was exceedingly spirited. Different phases of the subject were presented by Rev. A. W. Logan, Rev. J. A. Speer, Rev. Dr. Black, Rev. A. F. Kirkpatrick and others. Rev. Mr. Stewart, of the Christian church, of Albany, Mr. McCulloch, superintendent of the Presbyterian Sabbath school, of Albany, Mrs. Rev. T. J. Wilson, Mr. Barrows, Mrs. Henrietta Brown and others took an active part in the discussion. The evening session was devoted to the topic of young people's work. Rev. S. Dell Johnston, of Seattle, preached an excellent sermon. He selected as his text, Zech. 2: 4, "Run Speak to This Young Man." The Presbytery will remain in session during the day. The forenoon will be devoted to business. In the afternoon there will be a conference on "The State of Religion" - understood to be a kind of experience meeting. This evening the Presbytery will give way to the Synod of the Pacific, which body will be formally opened at 7:30 to-night.

NEWS OF THE COAST.

Interesting Items from Exchange Throughout the Northwest.

Thomas Ryan, a Western, Or., farmer, sold his crops for about $1000 and left, owing several large debts, and has not been heard of since. Loose hay is higher now in Pendleton than for several years past in the fall. It retails at $15 per ton, and those who make a business of raising hay are in high luck. The Walla Walla Statesman is informed that the past three or four days a large number of freight conductors have been requested to resign by the officials, the place being filled by Eastern men. Straw-burning stoves are being introduced in Sherman county. The fuel is supplied by means of a drum, in which it is closely pressed, and will burn warm, non-combustible for several hours before it needs renewing. Grant county farmers complain that they cannot realize enough for oats and barley. Oats sell for about 1 cent delivered, while a lot of first class cleared barley was delivered to the brewery a few days ago for 1 1/2 cents. Artesian wells do not pan out satisfactorily around Hepper. The citizens of that town, instead of adopting a gravity system of water works, invested in an artesian bore, and now order the hole cheap after a large sum of cash has been sunk. One of the largest logs ever cut in the state of Washington was floated down the Snoqualmie river last week. It was a fir log thirty-two feet long and eighty-nine inches in diameter at the upper end. Ten horses could not move it, and five yoke of oxen had difficulty in hauling it.

THE OREGON PACIFIC BONDHOLDERS.

The Chicago Tribune prints the following dispatch from New York in its issue of Oct. 17. There was a very lively meeting of the bondholders of the Oregon Pacific railroad company in the office of Tacoma, Trouble Loan and Trust company. Trouble has existed in the road's affairs from its inception owing to difficulties in securing money to build the line running from Yaquina Bay, Oregon, to Boise City, Idaho, a distance of 630 miles. Completed and in operation was only a short bit of track, however, from Yaquina City to Coc, Oregon, when the road was bonded for $25,000 a mile. The bonds had been taken when in October, 1890, the road was practically bankrupt and was put in the hands of T. Egerton Hogg as receiver. At the meeting held behind closed doors, which was called to enable the conflicting interests, John I. Blair of Blair town, N. J., and others on one side and the interests of the Hogg faction on the other, to arrange for a plan of reorganization, there was a hot debate. It is said that Receiver Hogg, resenting a statement by John I. Blair, arose as if to hit Mr. Blair, when Mr. Blair's son James interfered in behalf of his father and knocked Mr. Hogg down, whereupon the directors attacked a body and separated the combatants. John I. Blair, however, denied in conversation afterward that Mr. Hogg was at the meeting, but refused to give a detailed account of what took place, except that "everything was harmonious," and that steps had been taken to provide a plan of reorganization. These gentlemen were appointed a committee to devise the plan for straightening the road's finances. Alexander Brown of Baltimore; Joseph Wharton, Philadelphia; James A. Blair of Blairtown; Linby Smith, Philadelphia; George S. Coe of this city; George B. McKinnon and Rowland Hazard of Peaceland, R. I. The plan will be reported for adoption at a meeting of the bondholder, to be called by Mr. Blair. TEACHERS' INSTITUTE. There will be held, at Seaside on Friday and Saturday Oct. 20, and 21, a teachers' institute. The first session will be held Friday evening. Prof. J. B. Horner, of the Albany public school, will lecture on that evening. A very interesting program is being prepared by Profs. Gold and Wilson for the occasion, and we expect a profitable time. Teachers and friends of education and the public in general are invited to attend all the sessions. Following is the programme for Saturday: 9:30 A. M. 1-School Management, M. R. Brown. 2-Primary Reading, Mrs. Janie Goin. 3-Reading Circle, Supt. Russell. 1:30 P. M. 1-Physiology, Prof. J. R. Gold. 2-Miscellaneous Discussions, G. F. Russell, Supt. Height of Gravity. Nervous system ailments receive the sympathy they deserve. While often the pictures of health, they are constantly ailing. To with hold sympathy from these unfortunate is the height of cruelty. ★ A QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO. There are few men who have seen more development of this country than I have. I have seen the growth of the west and the most magnificent cities in the country. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pain in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any benefit. I was in need of a cure, and I was recommended to try Oregon Kidney Tea. I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before a few days the contents of the box the pain in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for anything."
