A NATIONAL EVENT.

The holding of the World's Fair in a city scarcely fifty years old will be a remarkable event, but whether it will realty benefit this nation as much as the discovery of the Restorative Nervine by Dr. Franklyn Miles is doubtful. SPECULATION DANGEROUS.

Scarcely a day passes without the news of some large failure flashing over the wires—the usual result of speculation in stocks or some equally dangerous venture. The same electric current carries to dear distant friend the sad tidings of death of loved ones—too often the result of speculation in patent nostrums. Moore's Revealed Remedy is no speculation but is sold on positive guarantee. Do not fail to go to your druggist and ask for your money if not satisfied. We known you will go and buy another bottle. THE DRIED UP PERSON.

Mummyfied Remains Eagerly Bidden For.

FRESNO, Oct. 22.—The Fresno mummy attracted thousands to see it Saturday and Sunday. The announcement is made that the mummy had been buried at the county's expense in a vacant lot of the public cemetery. Fears were entertained that it would be stolen, as it was considered valuable. Offers reaching great sums had been offered but declined. The undertaker announced that it had been buried secretly in an unmarked grave to prevent grave robbers from stealing it, but the facts in the case are different. Information has been received from a trustworthy source that the mummy has not been buried and will not be. It is known in inside circles that a gentleman from the Stanford University is here negotiating for the body, and a man representing the Smithsonian Institute at Washington is also bidding for it. The mummy will go to one place or the other. The opinion of the doctors is that it will remain in its present state of preservation for years. It is the most remarkable case of its kind known.

JUDGE DEADY SUSTAINED.

His Decision On Chinese Cases is Sustained.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Acting Secretary Spaulding says the treasury department would take no action in regard to the case of the two Chinamen released by Judge Deady, of Oregon, on habeas corpus proceedings. Judge Deady held the departure of these men as cooks on a foreign vessel to a foreign port, and their return on the same vessel, was not departure from the United States within the meaning of the Chinese exclusion act.

Property Attached for Debts.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—An attachment for $20,625 has been issued against the line of the Columbia Borax Company, of Nevada, and the company's property in this city. The attachment is secured by Gruber & Landon, and is in a suit by Marcus A. Josephi, who claims $7,500 as money loaned the company, and the remainder as unpaid salary due him as its treasurer. Josephi, besides being treasurer of the Columbus Borax Company, was secretary and treasurer of the Chemical Importing and Manufacturing Company. E. C. Calm was president of both. There was a dispute between Calm and Josephi, which resulted in the removal of the latter from his offices. Hence the suit.

Gang of Train Robbers Captured

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 22.—D. Ludlow, Pacific express agent in this city, received a dispatch last night from the agent at Langley's, announcing that the capture of four of the Southern Pacific train robbers took place at the "7 D" ranch on the line of Oak creek, about 100 miles north of Langley, Friday last. The capture was made by Captain Jones and a posse. None of the robbers offered resistance except John Flint, who, after a running flight of several miles, committed suicide in preference to surrender. The other three robbers are James Langstein, Jack Wellington and a man whose name is not known. The robbers had $800 when captured.

BLOODY MEXICANS.

They Indulge in a Regular Old Fashioned Bull Fight.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 22.—A recent revival of bull fighting in the City of Mexico was in the name of charity. A committee of ladies of this capital, with Mrs. Diaz, wife of the president, at the head, organized the show for the benefit of the sufferers from the floods in Spain. It was one of the greatest spectacles of the Mexican national sport ever witnessed. It is estimated that 12,000 persons were present. Nine bulls of celebrated breed were killed, amid the bravos of the spectators. The animals were trained for the occasion, and many of the matadores had narrow escapes.

President Diaz and party left the ring during the killing of the eighth bull. The banderillos stuck into the bulls were, after the fight, sold by peddlers at extravagant prices. This was one of the greatest fights Mexico has seen for years, and the amount received for admission fees is supposed to reach $25,000.

WANTS DAMAGES.

For His Being Slapped in the Face.

SAN SALVADOR, Oct. 22.—Dr. Harmon Prowe, a well known and highly esteemed German physician who has resided in this country for the last six years, and who was presented by the German government with a gold medal for his distinguished services during the late war, has put in a claim against Salvador for 500,000 pesos, or $375,000, for an indignity to which he was publicly subjected. He has laid the claim before the imperial minister to Guatemala, stating that upon the payment of the indemnity money he will give one-half of it to a hospital in this city and the other half to a hospital at Santa Tecia. He states that General Ruiz Rastor, a Spaniard in the Salvadorian service, slapped his face in a hotel, while Rastor's three adjutants and four policemen held him so he could not defend himself. Dr. Prowe also demands that General Ruiz be dismissed from the Salvadorian army.

It is reported here that the Italian, Ambrosini, who was commander of the only war vessel belonging to San Salvador, the little steamer Criscatlan, has abandoned his post and gone to San Francisco, carrying away 10,000 pesos of government money, which had been destined to pay for repairs to the steamer.

ALMOST BLOODSHED.

A Riot Between Farmers and a Sheriff Posse.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 22.—The Childs and Lehman factions' dispute over the right to operate a saw mill on a tract of timber land resulted in what, for a time, threatened to be a serious riot. The sheriff of Cambria county, who was engaged by Childs, proceeded to the disputed property yesterday, and ordered his deputies to take possession of the mill. He was met by forty farmers armed with revolvers, guns, pitchforks and every conceivable weapon. The first man to cross the line was knocked senseless, and the order was then given to the farmers to fire. Before this move, however, the sheriff's little party retreated, and the farmers are now in possession. The Childs faction will now have recourse to law. In the meantime the farmers will guard the property, and threaten bloodshed if interfered with.

Gone With the Man She Loved.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A Sun special from Pittsburg, Pa., says: Mrs. Mabel Power, wife of Edward T. Power, a freight conductor on the Pennsylvania railroad, eloped last Sunday with John Steinway, a brakeman on Power's train. Steinway has been employed on the road about two years and boarded with the Power family. On Saturday night, Mrs. Power said she was going to see her parents in Johnstown. Steinway was to accompany her. Tuesday Mr. Power received a letter from his wife, mailed at Altoona, and containing these words: "Dear John, you are too old for me; I have gone with the man I loved." Power is 58 years old, his wife 22, and Steinway is said to be 26. Power says his wife can stay away. He will make no effort to bring her back, neither will he receive her should she return. Steinway's home is in Baltimore, and it is thought there is where the elopers have gone.

Height of Cruelty.

Nervous women seldom receive the sympathy they deserve. While often the pictures of health, they are constantly ailing. To withhold sympathy from these unfortunates is the height of cruelty. They have a weak heart, causing shortness of breath, fluttering, pain in side, weak and hungry spells, and finally swelling of ankles, oppression, choking, smothering and dropsy. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is just the thing for them. For their nervousness, headache, weakness, etc., his Restorative Nervine is unequaled. Fine treatise on "Heart and Nervous Diseases" and marvelous testimonials free sold and guranteed by Standard & Cusick.

THE IRISH QUESTION

Far From Being Quiet But Rather Stormy.

MADE TO PRAY FOR PARNELL

That Was What An Indiscreet McCarthyite Had to Do—Buckthorn in Demand Bruised Heads Frequent.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—General Wolsely, commanding the forces in Ireland, who remained in Dublin during the Parnellite funeral, will be a frequent visitor to Cork until a successor to Mr. Parnell has been elected. It is reported from Cork that the stock of dealers in blackthorns and heavy sticks is almost exhausted, and large additional supplies have been ordered, to be used, it is understood, as argument in the coming election. The fighting last night was more in the nature of a preliminary skirmish and had no decisive result, and, while there were a number of bruised heads, nobody is reported hurt. The real fighting is expected in the course of a day or two. It is said that many of the partisans of both factions are armed with pistols, and will not hesitate to use them should occasion offer. During the altercation that attended Redmond's progress to the hotel last evening, an excited McCarthyite uttered aloud an assertion that Parnell was in a place the reverse of herven, and that his followers ought to go there. This so angered a crowd of Parnellites that they captured the McCarthyite and compelled him to kneel in the street and pray for Parnell. There were other incidents almost equally ludicrous and exciting.

SEARLES' WILL CASE.

Still Dragging Its Way Through The Courts.

SALEM, Mass., Oct. 22.—The second day of the adjourned hearing in the Searles will case began to-day, with the same crowd as heretofore. Another lot of business letters from Stillman & Hubbard to Mrs. Searles were read. October 11, 1887, they enclosed a form of a note to Huntington, in which Mrs. Searles says she must repudiate the agreement signed by Timothy Hopkins, and until she knows what it is. The other letters were of no present importance. Barley then asked for letters from Mr. or Mrs. Searles to Hubbard & Stillman. They were read and showed deposits to Mrs. Searles' credit in banks to the amount of $240,000 in three months. The last telegram announced Mrs. Searles' death.

Settlers and Indians Quarreling.

SYDNEY, Colo., Oc. 22.—Word was received here last night that five companies of United States infantry and cavalry from Fort Russell are making a forced march to the scene of the Ute outbreak of years ago, to protect the rights of the settlers against the encroachments of the savages. At the time of the former trouble the Indians turned their ponies into the pastures of the settlers and committed many other depredations. This year the settlers determined that the Indians should not hunt off the reservation, and have banded themselves together to keep the Utes within bounds. It seems that the Indians have now started on another hunting expedition, and it is believed there may be conflicts with the whites. To prevent this, five companies have been dispatched to the scene.

Wine Merchant Indicted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—Bamberger & Kempfor, wine merchants, were arraigned before Judge Wallace this morning on an indictment found some days ago by grand jury, charging them with having obtained money by false pretenses. Their council asked for further time in which to plead, as he wished to fully inform himself concerning the allegations set forth in the indictments. On motion of the district attorney they were allowed to plead not guilty with the right to withdraw the plea and make another within a week.

Woolen Mills Burned.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Oct. 22.—The town of Glendale, fifteen miles south of this city, received a heavy blow last night when the Glendale woolen mills, the only industry of the place, was burned. The mill was a five story stone building. The total loss is about $200,000, fully insured.

Took His Own Life.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 22.—Dr. Charles A. Stein, a veterinary surgeon of Custer's regiment, the Seventh cavalry, was found dead in his house Tuesday. A partly empty vial of prussic acid showed that he had taken his own life. He was 53 years of age.

They Blew Out the Gas.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Two unknown Russians, lately arrived, were found dead in bed this morning, asphyxiated by gas.

French Cabinet in Session.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—At a meeting of the cabinet to-day it was decided to reject the senate tariff committee's proposal to place the duty on imported salt meats at 25 francs. On the other hand, the cabinet decided to give its approval to a 20 franc duty on imported salt meats, as voted for by the chamber of deputies. The ministers also discussed the gravity of the enormous increase in France of the number of railroad accidents.

Suffering in Mexico.

SAN ANTONIA, Tex., Oct. 22.—W. L. Robertson has arrived here from Terreon, Mexico. According to his last statement, the drouth in that section of Mexico has not been broken, as reported. There is great suffering among the poorer classes. Corn is selling at from 50 to 75 cents a peck. A few days ago Jose Castro, a prominent and wealthy proprietor of a hacienda, attempted to raise the price of grain to $4 a bushel. The natives became so incensed at his action that they shot him.

Death Caused by Carelessness.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Isaac W. Lere, 43 years old, formerly a broker and member of the Seventh regiment, met with a horrible death at the Bloomingdale asylum last Saturday. It is alleged that Mr. Lore, during the temporary absence of his attendant, plunged into a bath tub filled with boiling water and received injuries that caused his death. The asylum authorities, with the aid of the coroner, tried to keep the matter secret, even failing to inform the dead man's family of the cause of death.

To Resist the Russian Advance.

VIENNA, Oct. 52.—The Roumanian war office has caused to be detailed small bodies of infantry with an occasional battery of artillery at intervals along the banks of the Pruth, and the Roumanian side of the stream is closely patrolled by sentinels. The object is not so much to prevent Russia's crossing as to uphold the rights of Roumania by offering at least a firm resistance to the Russian advance.

Got Off Very Lucky.

SAN DIEGO, Cal. Oct. 22.—The trial of Wilson, another of the alleged deputy United States marshals concerned in the killing of sailor Brown, of the Charleston, during the riot in the street of this city several months ago, has resulted in the jury bringing in a verdict of acquittal, after being out twenty minutes. Breedlove was found guilty of manslaughter a few days ago, and a similar verdict was looked for by many people in this case.

The Independent Albanians.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 22.—The sublime porte has ordered a thorough investigation as to the reported fight between the Albanians and Montenegrins. The porte, however, is fully conscious of its inability to bring any pressure to bear upon the Albanians, who are equally indifferent to Montenegro and to the porte as long as they are not interfered with.

A Fatal Railroad Collision.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 22.—A head end collision of freight trains occurred at Round Bottom station of the Pittsburg, McKeesport & Yohogany railroad early this morning. Both trains were badly wrecked, and Engineer Scott and Brakeman Green were killed. The other trainmen escaped by jumping.

County Court House Burned.

CHILDRESS, Tex., Oct. 22.—The new $40,000 court house was burned to the ground yesterday morning. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. The insurance is $10,000. All the county records of both Childress and Cottell counties are a total lose and it will cause untold trouble to replace them.

Parnell Left no Will.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—It is announced that Parnell made a will in favor of Mrs. O'Shea before he married her, but that the marriage annulled the will, and therefore, as he died intestate, Mrs. Parnell is entitled to half the personal and one third of the real estate left by Parnell.

Two Schooners Long Missing.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 22.—The schooner Percy, with a crew of fourteen men, sailed on codfishing voyages about August 25. Neither has been heard from since, and there is little doubt but they have been lost with all hands.

Thought to Have Been Lost.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 22.—The schooner Albert Woodbury, of Beverly, that sailed the latter part of August on a codfishing trip, has not returned and is believed to have been lost with ten of her men.
