him guilty. The jury in less than two hours brought in a verdict of guilty of murder, and the punishment was Dr. Hexpurer's Specifics are scientifically fixed at imprisonment for life.

Maury appealed, and Justice Campbell, of the supreme court, reversed the judgment of the lower court, declaring that the facts of the case did not make out the crime of murder. He said that Maury, before the invasion of his premises, had committed no felony, and the invaders had no warrant. It was Maury's right, under the circumstances, to collect his triends to defend his home and persons. Here is another indorsement of the time-honored common law maxim, that ever man's house is his castle. In this case the castle was an humble negro cabin, and the invaders were white men, some of whom were white men, some of whom honestly believed that they had 30 Urinary Weaks ess, wetting bed...... 50 s right to arrest Maury for his fight with Nicholson. REMARKABLE RESCUE.

Mrs Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill, makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treat d for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of comsumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself bene fitted from the first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is now does her own housework and is as well as she was.—Free trial bottle of this great Discovery at Foshay & Mason's Drug Store, large bottles 50c,
